CORA BIOSSAT FOUND GUILTY OF ARSON

Much Talked of Arson Trial Comes to End Tuesday Afternoon

The jury in the case of the People vs. Cora Biossat, charged with setting fire to the Hotel Michigan, came to an end late Tuesday afternoon, when the jury returned a verdict of guilty as charged.

The case was the first called in the December term and has since occupied the time of the court. Considerable delay was encountered in obtaining witnesses, and also three days were occupied in securing a jury.

The case was tried before Judge Guy M. Chester of Hillsdale, Judge Mayne being disqualified on account of his knowledge of the case. The final disposal of the case will be made on January 9.

Miss Helen Armstrong of Chicago, will arrive in the city next Monday to spend the Christmas vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Armstrong.

WAR

War is with us. We must conserve our energies, and money is one of them. We shall keep up the ancient custom of the Christmas Feast, but instead of paying out the highest prices possible for material for our Christmas Dinner, let us eat and know that we are getting value for our money. We owe it to our government to live as cheaply and economical as possible.

Buy Where Prices are Staple where the dollar will purchase the greatest amount. Where the goods are as good as the market affords, and where service is a feature.

For the Christmas Dinner

The usual supplies will be found here. Groceries, Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Nuts, Candies—everything the housewife will need. And the prices are as low as staple goods can be sold. Let us fill your Christmas wants in these lines, both in groceries and meats.

TITLE HOLOER LOSES TO MIGHTY NELSON

Another Champ Goes Down Under Blows of New White Hope

On Saturday afternoon of last week the residents of Ellsworth, that is, a fortunate few of them, were treated to the sight of a battle beside which that of the far-famed Marne pales into Insignificance.

The principles in the fray were "Fighting Frank Foster" and "Horrible Hugh Nelson," and although the scrap lasted less than three rounds the give and take were something awful, Nelson doing most of the giving and Foster most of the taking.

The principal way in which this battlefield resembled those of Europe was that in both cases the map was changed.

The men fought straight "Queensberry rules," referee Geo. Klooster having no trouble breaking the men in the clinches and refusing to give a decision at the finish. It is agreed by spectators at the ringside, however that Nelson won on points. Mr. Foster has held the title for a number of years and says he would hold it yet had he not went out of his class to defend it.

The fight occurred near the P. M. depot and agent Slough was busy with a moving picture machine, so it is possible that the two men may at some future time see themselves on the screen.

A Merry Christmas to You

With the whole world involved in the greatest tragedy of all times, Christmas this year will have a deeper significence than for a long long time.

So it is most appropriate that remembrances should be selected in the spirit of the times---to serve some useful purpose. We have a nice line of useful gifts for all members of the family---and for the young man who has tendered his services and is serving in the ranks.

ATWOOD

Did we have any storms here last week? No, it was just one long storm.

Graddus and Andrew Petter have the job cutting 60 cords of wood for J. T. Odbert.

The neighbors have been taking turns setting up with Mr. Essenberg the past week. He is slowly failing.

Mrs. K. VanHouten got two head of her cattle Saturday. One still is at large in the Nash pasture at Norwood.

Dr. Armstrong was in Atwood examinging those who took out insurance with the Agricultural Life Insurance Co., through Mr. Parsons of Charlevoix.

The school entertainment and Xmas program will be rendered in the town hall next Friday evening, December 21. All are cordially invited to attend.

The L. A. S. of the Holland church meets this week at the home of Mrs. Joe P. Veenstra. The meeting will commence at 2:00 p. m. from now on instead of 2:30.

John Zylstra from Barnard has been threshing beans at the L. Zylstra farm. He has part of the beans threshed, but owing to a breakdown was unable to finish the job.

A plan is being agitated here to buy the threshing outfit of Plenny Genett of Norwood township. Word has reached us that several are negotiating for the purchase of the outfit. Wonder who will get it?

Rev. J. D. Pickart spent a week ago Sunday in Grand Haven, where he had charge of the services in one of the churches. There were no services held in the church here, only a few venturing out in the storm.

The report was circulated here last week that Andrew Essenberg and Minnie Wynsma were married. This report was denied later and we have been hearing both the report and its denial ever since. Hope to find out more about it later.

A mistake crept into the Atwood news two weeks ago in regard to the entertainment to be given by the Y. P. S. of the Christian Reformed church. This entertainment will be given New Year's evening and all are cordially invited to attend.

A meeting was held in the town hall Tuesday evening to secure subscriptions and new members to the Red Cross. Judge Harris of Ellsworth and a gentleman from East Jordan were among the speakers. A lap supper was served by the ladies.

Messrs. Parsons and Moore, representing the Agricultural Life Insurance Co. of America, were in Atwood last week writing up some new business for their company. They delivered a policy to H. Klooster and wrote out applications for several of the farmers hereabouts.

John Faber made a trip to Grand Rapids to enlist last week, which did not result in his enlistment. Owing to the neglect of the local board to inform him he had to have a written permit releasing him from the local contingent, he was unable to enlist in Grand Rapids and is back on the job here and waiting for the call to Camp Custer.

ROCK ELM

Several from this district were kept from the polls by the deep snow and stormy weather last Tuesday.

Mrs. V. S. Nelson, aged 80 years, was the first resident of South Arm township to pay taxes this year.

An appropriate Christmas program will be rendered by the pupils at the school house Friday afternoon of this week.

Miss Stewart visited our school one cold day last week to obtain some photos of the school house and its surroundings. No one envied her the trip for her driver became somewhat confused by the unbroken roads and drove a mile past the turn before discovering the mistake, and in making his way back through the deep snow, overturned the cutter.

Mr. Hoover Says:

It is the duty of every agriculturist to produce every ounce of foodstuff possible. Cultivate every acre of land and thus aid Uncle Sam and the entire world. The great war is taking an enormous amount of foodstuff and all our surplus is going overseas. Plant every acre—make your land produce all you can, and thus do your part in the great strife we have been forced into.

Another year has passed and about gone and at this time we want to thank you all for the business you have given us during the past year. May the coming year be one of happiness and prosperity to you, and also may our business relations be as close the coming year as during the past.

Let Us Supply All Your Needs

Remember us when in need of Corn, Bran, Oats, Middlings, Cotton Seed and Oil Meals, Pulp Plaster, Cement, Lime or Soft Coal.

Compare the prices we ask for our products and also that which we pay you for your crops, and you will find in practically all cases that we always deal fair with you. We want your business and will do what we can to convince you that Ellsworth is the best trading and selling point in Northern Michigan.

RED CROSS

A calamity nnd a nntional disgrace are inevitable if surgical dressings are not sent to France with all possible speed, according to a cablegram from Major Grayson Murphy, head of the Americnn Red Cross in France. "Nothing in the situation is as important," the cablegram read. "Surgicnl dressings must be sent in millions." The Charlevoix Chapter has been given its quotn of surgical dressings. The help of a great many women is needed to fill this quota. Come to the Red Cross rooms Friday nfternoon nnd do your bit and your best.

The following appenl is made to the people of the entire country: It is to be hoped that between the hours of 7:30 and 9 o'clock on Christmas evening, Red Cross Christmas candles will burn in the windows, that the bells in the churches may chime the half hours, and Christmas carols may be sung in the streets nnd public places throughout the state—tho whole a fitting close of the Christmas membership campnign and appropriate to the Christmas time. It was a happy thought that suggested the idea of combining the spirit of the Red Cross with that of Christmas. Both involve service and secrifice, helpfulness and humanity. Let us make this a Red Cross Christmas.

PEEPING TOM AGAIN AT WORK

VISITS CLINTON AND PARK AVE-NUE HOMES

After-dark Marauder Makes His Call During Early Hours of Evon-ing—Who Is He?

Who is he? This is tho question asked by residents on west Clinton street and Park avenuc. Shot guns have been unlimbered and hours of sleep lost in the efforts to apprehend the individual whose curiosity is so great in his desire to know what is taking place in certain homes in that district, that he visits these abodes after dark and has all but scared the wits out of the women folks of these places in question.

Tho (him or her, and without ques-tion it's n him) has se far made his call during the early hours of the evening. But a fleeting glimpso has been seen of him, one night at one place, and on another at other plaes. Most of the time he has carried on his operations on Park avenue. The dim outline of a face is seen peeping through a window and in a flash it is gone. Some runner, this Peeping Tom.

One night he had the nudacity to enter the back door of a Park aven-ue residence, and help himself to the "goodies" mnde ready for the even-ing meal. It was several hours be-fore the housewife fully regained her composure. He was last seen on Friday night of last week. Just a running object swallowed up into the darkness. He is as much alike the "Irishman's flea."

His nightly visits are getting on the nerves of the residents of this distriet, who have arisen in arms, and in their present condition of outrag-ed feelings, someone standa a good chanee of getting hurt. If you hear a string of shots, like that of a Lewis rapid fire gun, make up your mlnd that "Peeping Tom" is getting what is coming to him. For this will surely happen if the nightly visits do not cease.

Wood piles, too, are being nightly visited. These neighborly borrow-ers" will also receive the same treat-ment (or punishment) as the window peeper. Someone has aure a hot re-ception in store for them.

REVENUE MEN COMING HERE

WILL LEND AID TO CHARLE-VOIX TAX PAYERS

May Be Found at Court House by Those Who Find Difficulty in Filling Out Blanks

In a communication received by this paper, collector of Internal Rev-enue, Emanuel J. Doyle of Grand Rapids unaounced that a federal in-come tax officer will be sent to Char-levoix, February 1, and remain un-til Febrnsry 16. He will go to Boyno City, Febrnnry 18 and remain until Mnreh 1.

He will be at these places between the dates above mentioned every day ready and willing to help persona subject to the Income tax make out their returns without any cost to them for his services.

How many income taxpayers will there bo in Charlevoix county? If you eon guess how many married per-sons living with wife or husband will have not incomes of $2,000 or over and how many unmarried persons will have net incomes of $1,000 or over this year, then you know. Tho collector of internal revenue esti-mates that there will be fivo hundred taxpayers in this county.

Returns of Income for the year 1917 must be made on forms pro-vided for the purpose beforo March 1, 1918. "Because n good many peo-ple don't understand the law won't know how to mako out their returns, the government is sending in this ex-pert to do it for them. But the duty is on the taxpayer to make himself known to the governmeat. If he doesp't make return as required be-fore Msrch 1 ho may havo to pay a penalty ronging from $20 to $1,000 pay a fine or go to jail. So if you don't want to take chances on going to jail, you better call on the income tax man. If you are not sure about heing aubject to the tax better ask him and make sure. Whether you see the insome tax man or not you must make return if subject to tax.

Of course, persons resident in other counties may, if they want to come and see the income tax man when in this county.

The collector suggests that every-body start figuring up now his in-come and expenses so as to bo ready with the figures when the expert ar-rives. Expenses, however, don't mean family expenses, money used to pay off the principal of a debt, new machinery, buildings, or anything like that. They mean what you spend in making your money—interest, tax-es paid, hired help, amount paid for goods sold, seed, stock bought for feeding, rent (except for your dwell-ing), etc. Income includes about every dollar you get.

FACE AND HANDS BADLY BURNED

EARL SHAPTON VICTIM OF SER-IOUS ACCIDENT

What might have easily proven a fatal accident occurred early last Fridoy morning at the Glenwood Dsiry Farm, south of the city, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shap-ton.

One of the conveniences of this modern farm is an acetylene light-ing plant, instalied to both illume the dwelling house and the outside cream house. The plant had not been in satisfactory working condition for several days, and on the morning in questien, Earl, an elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Shapton, had started to ov-erhnul, elean, and put the plant in good running order.

During the progress of the work, he had taken several parts of the system apart and thoreughly cleaned them, taking precaution at all times to be sure the gas pressure was turn-ed off. While overhauling a certain part, it was necessary to remove sev-ersl of the smaller pieces, including a small screw plug. When about to replace this part, he dropped it, and not being abie to find it, lit a match.

Almost instantly a severe explos-ion occurred, the flash of flame strik-ing Earl squnrely in the face. Not only did tho fire continue from this jet, but it had appurently heen leak-ing for some time, and the entire room was filled with gas, which ex-ploded at the snme time.

The unfortunate young man man-aged to make his way from the room in his blinded state, suffering intense-ly and almost crnzed from his hurns. He was st once given medieal as-sistance nad examination revealed that his entire face waa badly burned also one of his hands. Tho fact that he involuntarily elosed his eyes the instant the explosion occurred was all that saved him from the complete loss of his eyesight.

For 48 hours he was unable to see or open his eyes, owing to their in-flamed condition. Later reports aro thnt he is now on the road to recov-ery and will suffer no permanent in-jury from his aceident. His experi-ence with inflammable gas and light-ed matches will remain with him for some time.

Funeral Held Thursday

Private funernl services for J. W. Mossington, who died last Thursday at 6:30, from the effects of alcholic poisoning, were held Saturday after-noon at 2:30 from the residenco of his father, Charles Mossington, on Hurlhurt avenue, Rev. The quota for the City of Charlevoix was 594 which shows that we are "over the top" 39

Report from East Jordan show 890 ns against a quota of 625 and Boyne City with 750 against a quota of 1,000.

The indicattions are strong that the whole country will show up 100 per cent, or fifteen million members. While returna are incomplete we aro quite sure that tbe state and county of Charlevoix will show a substantial gain in membership.

"I wish to call especial uttontion to tho large figures placed opposite the name of Mr. Ekstrom. It is unnecessary for me to say that his whole soul was in the work. His ef-forts is greatly appreciated.

"Other lsrge figures would indi-cate that there has been considerable enthusiasm displayed and I want to thank every one from tho highest to the lowest on the list. You all did well.

"We could never forget the win-dow display at the Blanchard Hard-ware Co., which was so ably manag-ed by Mr. Mason H. Rose, the chnir-man of the Publicity Committee. A great deal could be said about this, but wo leave this for someone elsa."

Very sincerely yours,

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

NOW AVAILABLE FOR EVERYONE

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS ARE YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

"A Country Worth Fighting for Is a Country Worth Saving For"

In offering "War-Savings Stamps" to the public the United States Government has made immediately available for every man, woman and child in the country a profitable, simple and secure investment.

What They Are

War-Savings Stamps are the answer of a great democracy to the demand for a democratic form of government security. They are "little baby bonds." Like Liberty bonds, they have behind them the entire resources of the government and people of the United States. They have the additional advantage that they steadily increase in value from the date of purchase until the date of maturity, and this increase is guaranteed by the government. These stamps are issued in two denominations, the 25-cent stamp and the $5 stamp.

For the convenience of investors a "Thrift Card" is furnished to all purchasers of 25-cent stamps. This card has spaces for 16 stamps. When all the spaces have been filled the Thrift Card may be exchanged for a $5 stamp at postoffices, banks, or other authorized agencies by adding 12 cents in cash, prior to February 1, 1918, and 1 cent additional each month thereafter.

Those who prefer may buy a $5 outright. These will be on sale from December 3, 1917, until January 31, 1918, for $4.12. They automatically increase in value a cent a month every month thereafter until January 1, 1923, when the United States will pay $5 at any postoffice or at the Treasury in Washington for each stamp affixed to a War-Savings Certificate.

When you purchase a $5 stamp you must attach it to an engraved folder known as a "War-Savings Certificate" which bears the name of the purchaser and can be cashed only by the person whose name appears on the certificate, except in case of death or disability. This certificate contains 20 spaces. If these are all filled with War-Savings Stamps between December 3, 1917, and January 31, 1918, the cost to the purchaser will be $82.40, and on January 1, 1923, the government will pay the owner of the certificate $100—a net profit to the holder of $17.60. This is based on an interest rate of 4 per cent compounded quarterly from January 2, 1918. The amount of War-Savings Stamps sold to any one person at any one time shall not exceed $100 (maturity value), and no person may hold such stamps or War Savings Certificates to an aggregate amount exceeding $1,000 (maturity value).

If the holder of a War-Savings Certificate finds it necessary to realize cash on it before maturity, he may at any time after January 2, 1918, upon giving 10 days' written notice to any money-order postoffice, receive for each stamp affixed to his certificate the amount paid therefor plus one cent for each calendar month after the month of purchase of each stamp. A registered certificate may be redeemed, however, only at the postoffice where registered.

In other words, the plan is simple, straightforward and certain. The holder of the certificates can not lose and is certain to gain. He is buying the safest security in the world in the most convenient form in which the security of a great government has ever been offered to its people.

Why You Should Buy Them

The main reason for the purchase of War-Savings Stamps is because your country is at war. Your Country needs every penny which every man, woman and child can save and lend, in order to feed, clothe, arm and equip the soldiers and sailors of America and to win this righteous war in defense of American honor and the cause of democracy throughout the world.

If we are to win the war, we must win it as a united people. The savings of every man, woman and child are necessary if we are to hasten the victorious ending of the war. War Savers are Life Savers.

When our fathers and sons and brothers were called by our country to take up arms in her defense you did not hear an individual soldier refuse to serve because his service alone would not win the war. Each man was ready to do his part. The great army thus formed is going forward to face the fire of battle and to risk everything for the safety and security of our homes and our families, and for the very existence of our Country.

These are the men for whom you are asked to save and lend your dollars.

Monday afternoon in the presence of the school, parents, commissioner, supervisor, and school board a flag pole for the school was raised. Then, after a fitting address by the supervisor, Mr. Ernest Peaslee, the children pledged to protect that flag and the flag was raised. A few songs were sung. Then Miss Stewart gave an address pressing the Red Cross drive home to everyone. The program closed with "America."

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

EGGS FOR LENT.

CREAMED eggs make a dainty substitute for meat during Lent. Boil six eggs hard. Lay in ice water so that they will shell easily. Cut in six pieces long way of the egg. Put in baking dish with cupful of white sauce. Season with paprika, salt and onion juice. Bake in hot oven. They are often served with cheese straws around the edge of the plate and parsley for trimming.

Cheese Pie.—Whip the yolks of five eggs with one cupful of sugar until very light, cream three-quarters of a cupful of butter and add quickly and lightly to the whipped yolks and sugar. Flavor with half a teaspoonful of vanilla and divide between two undercrusts. It will rise as light as a feather. Have ready the whites of five eggs beaten to a stiff froth and sweeten with pulverized sugar. Spread over the top and brown quickly. On taking them from the oven change directly from the pie tin to a china plate. This is a very rich pie, but delicious.

Eggs and Sardine Sandwich.—One can of oil sardines (10 cents), one hard boiled egg. Add one tablespoonful of olive oil to mashed sardines and the yolk of one egg, pinch of salt, pepper, a little sugar and a tablespoonful of vinegar. Mix well, cut white of egg into little bits, mix with other ingredients and cut very thin six slices of white bread and spread.

Swiss Eggs.—Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter in a baking dish. Break six eggs with it and cover with slices of Swiss cheese. Sprinkle salt and pepper to taste and bake in moderate oven.

Eggs a la Goldenrod.—Three hard boiled eggs, one tablespoonful of butter, one tablespoonful of flour, one cupful of milk, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, eight medium slices of toast and parsley. Make a thin white sauce with butter, flour, milk and seasonings. Separate yolks from whites of eggs. Chop whites fine and add them to the sauce. Arrange toast on platter and pour over sauce. Force the yolks through a potato top. Garnish with parsley and cut in points.

Egg Sur Plat.—Butter small earthenware dishes or muffin rings and into each break a fresh egg. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and on top of each egg put a tablespoonful of thick sweet cream. Bake in hot oven until white is solid. With a spatula lift without marring form on to a hot platter. Garnish with parsley.

The Devil Resigns His Job

The Devil sat by a lake of fire, on a pile of sulphur kegs,
His head was bowed upon his breast, and his tail between his legs,
A look of shame was on his face, the sparks dropped from his eyes,
He had sent his resignation to the throne up in the skies.
"I'm down and out," the Devil said, he said it with a sob;
"There are others that outclass me, and I want to quit the job.
Hell isn't in it with the land that lies beyond the Rhine;
I'm a 'has-been' and a piker, and therefore I resign.
One ammunition maker, with his bloody shot and shell,
Knows more about damnation than all the imps of hell.
Give my job to Kaiser Wilhelm, the author of this war;
He understands it better a million times by far.
I hate to leave the old home, the spot I love so well,
But I feel that I'm not up to date in the art of running hell."

A Proverb Gone to Smash.

"Two wrongs don't make a right."

"I'm not so sure about that," mused Mr. Cbuggins. "If I travel faster than the law allows and a motor cop travels fast enough to overtake me it's perfectly right for him to arrest me."—Washington Star.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is

SIGNING FOOD PLEDGES

Some people are saying that they believe in the idea of food saving, only they do hope they won't be asked to sign any pledges to do it. They don't want to pin themselves down to anything. They believe in wheatless and meatless days, but if they signed agreements to keep them then there might be times when it would not be convenient, etc, etc.

It is easy to see the finish of the food conservation movement if people generally took that attitude. At least it will come short of what we ought to do toward winning the war. To accomplish anything in this world, you must have some kind of organization and agreement. There is something in human nature that can't seem to act in an organized way as separate individuals.

If people set out merely in a formal way to follow government requests little by little they will drift back to the old ways. The wheat and meat that our soldiers and allies need so badly will be exhausted. The idea will spread that few people are observing the requirements, so why should we?

But the moment you get people to agree to something in black and white, that puts it on a sound basis. People then feel their word of honor is involved. Each person who signs the pledge takes a just pride in speaking of it to his friends, also in suggesting ways to observe it comfortably and pleasantly. They are interested to persuade other people to do the same thing.

In this way a movement becomes popular, and is accepted as the correct and right thing. People then do it to be in the swim and play the game. It is not as if some real sacrifice were asked. It is just a bit of change from regular habits that will be equally agreeable after a very short time of trial.

WOULD MAKE IDLENESS A CRIME

A bill has been prepared by Representative Ramseyer of Iowa, which aims to round up the "slacker drones" in this country and make idleness a crime. It is modeled after laws which already are in force in Maryland and West Virginia, and which are said to have produced excellent results. Under this law there would be compulsory registration of all males above the age of twenty-one, not engaged in regular employment. Such men would be given the option of working at any of several specified "war" trades, joining the army or navy, or being arrested and put to work in federal prisons. Failure to register would itself be a cause for arrest and imprisonment.

Drastic as such a law might be considered, there is no denying that the idea has a certain amount of merit. To win this war the nation needs the fullest support of its entire man-power, and it obviously is necessary to command and utilize this man-power for the good of all and the sake of the common welfare and general public safety. Many important industries are crippled for want of men to do the work, yet there are many idle men who choose to avoid doing their bit in industry while also escaping military service. The man who loafs with this country at war is just as poor a citizen as the one who seeks to avoid military duty, and the government has as much right to commander the services of one as of the other. Those who can be useful but are doing nothing should be made to be useful. Idleness at such a time is a crime, whether the law says so or not.

VAN PELT AND GOOD ROADS

The action of the voters, both men and women, at the special election, December 11th, was conclusive and entirely in favor of Permanent Roads, both propositions to bond receiving substantial majorities and also showing there was no sectional feeling in the county.

While a comparatively light vote was polled in most precincts, still the advocates of better roads feel assured that the sentiment of Charlevoix County is to progress and keep abreast of the times; in other words Preparedness was the keynote.

To our own "Uncle George" Van Pelt must be given the credit of for many years advocating permanent roads and especially concrete roads, and of finally bringing the matter to the favorable attention of the people. He has freely used his time, ability and means to conduct a thorough educational campaign to a successful conclusion. Mr. Van Pelt may well be proud of his accomplishment and in the future point to the permanent roads of Charlevoix county as a splendid monument of his endeavor.

It would appear that the higher prices for cotton goods are not entirely due to the increased cost of material and labor. One large cotton manufacturing concern in Massachusetts, for instance, recently declared a dividend of sixty per cent on its common stock.

Herr Braunstein, alias Trotsky, seems to be having things all his own way in Russia just now. But sooner or later the Russian people will wake up to the perfidious game he is playing, and then will follow an accounting in which Herr Braunstein will "get his."

The action of this country in declaring war against Austria cannot fail to inspire the Italians with fresh courage and determination. In fact this is one of the reasons why the United States has hastened to take this action.

One of the first questions to be settled is just what bunch in Russia have the right to call themselves Russians.

Italy has proved again that the best fighter is the man who fights to keep his home from being invaded.

Put the German spy in a nice producing prison where he can work and do this country some good.

The End of a Hoover Day

I have come to the end of a meatless day,
And peacefully lying in bed,
My thoughts revert in a musing way
To the food which today I've been fed.
When I think of the cheese and the beans and fish
And the oysters I've had to eat,
I've no regrets for the "good old days"
I didn't miss the meat!
I have come to the end of a wheatless day
I have eaten no cookies or pie.
I have had no bread that was made with wheat;
It was made out of corn or rye;
And I liked it so well, that when war is past
And a glorious victory won,
I'll keep on observing "wheatless" days
And I'll eat "corn pone" for FUN!

HISTORY OF BUSINESS FIRMS

OF GREAT INTEREST TO COURIER READERS

Short Resume of Past History and Prospects of W. A. Boss Hardware and Citizens Bank

As the year nineteen hundred and eighteen draws near, a general review of Ellsworth, that is, of the business places of Ellsworth, might interest some of our readers.

As the W. A. Boss hardware is the oldest store in the village in so far as the present ownership is concerned, we will commence there. This store was originated in the year 1900 by W. J. Crego, the building standing about on the site now occupied by the Ellsworth Drug Co. store. Mr. Crego ran the business about one year and then sold a half interest to John Pelton, and the store under the firm name of Crego & Pelton continued business until May 14, 1903, when they sold to W. A. Boss, the present owner.

Mr. Boss at that time owned and operated the farm 1 1-4 miles north of town and continued to divide his interests between farm and store until 1908, when he rented his farm, selling it two years later, and since then has devoted his entire time and attention to the hardware business.

Mr. Boss is known far and wide and is highly respected, both for his upright honesty and for his business ability, and we predict many more successful years for the W. A. Boss Hardware Co.

Citizens Bank of Ellsworth

Was organized in November, 1910, by C. W. McPhail of Ludington and W. S. Richardson of Central Lake, to take care of their rapidly growing business in Banks township, which, until that time had been served by their bank at Central Lake and to provide better banking facilities for the people of Ellsworth and vicinity.

Through its responsible and well-known backers, who for many years had served the community through their bank at Central Lake, it has grown to such an extent as to become independent of its parent bank and made itself a large factor in the upbuilding of the territory which it serves.

Harry O. Mohrmann of Central Lake was its first cashier and started the bank on its upward course, but resigned in 1913 to accept a more responsible position with the bank at Charlevoix.

He was succeeded by Glen C. Townsend, who had previously been connected with one of Mr. McPhail's banks at Walkerville, Mich. During the four years which he has acted as cashier and manager, the deposits of the bank have more than trebled, the total resources now aggregating well toward the $100,000 mark.

On January 1 a slight change will take place in that Mr. Townsend enters into partnership with the present owners, the new firm being known as McPhail, Richardson & Townsend, Bankers.

They are prepared, as in the past, to take care of the people's wants in any respect connected with the banking business which may commend itself to them, their policy having always been as progressive as possible consistent with good banking practice and safety for their depositors, whose welfare is first considered.

The large responsibility back of this bank and its successful method of doing business should commend itself to anyone who has money to deposit or any other business along their line to transact, which always receives the most courteous attention. It is the aim of the owners to conduct their business in such a manner as to be of the most benefit possible to the community which it serves and take particular interest in the work and problems of their farmer friends, whom they aim to please.

Miss Esther Angstrom of Ludington, who has been with the bank since September and well liked by all who have met her, will remain the coming year as assistant cashier, and this, taken together with the same management as in the past, should insure a steady growth and prosperous year for the new firm.

SKIMMILK CALVES.

Young Animals Thrive When Flaxseed Is Added to Ration.

I have made calf rearing my business for over twenty years and during the last fifteen years have placed reliance on skimmilk, writes Professor T. L. Haecken in the Ayrshire Quarterly. For growing calves I consider separator skimmilk at least equal to whole milk, though calves will not lay on as much fat as they will when whole milk is fed, but they will make as good growth and be as thrifty as skimmilk. There is nothing in butter fat that a calf can use in building body tissue. Butter fat can be converted into body heat and body fat, and nutriment for this purpose can be supplied more cheaply with flax meal, which contains from 30 to 35 per cent oil.

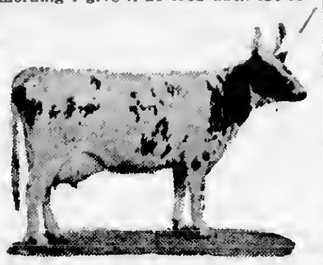
My system of feeding is very uniform. When the calf is dropped I let it suck once and then remove it from the dam. If it is removed in the morning I give it no feed until the following morning. This is done so the calf will be hungry and will drink the milk without the finger. I give from three to four pints of its mother's milk a day, immediately after milking the dam. A small calf gets three pints and a large calf four pints. This I continue for about one week. Then for one week I give it whole milk half and skimmilk half twice a day, giving it only from three to four pints.

The third week I feed all separator skimmilk, but put in the milk a teaspoonful of ground flax. I gradually increase the skimmilk and flax meal so that by the end of the fourth month it is receiving a heaping tablespoonful of flaxmeal and ten pints of milk twice a day. After the first month it has access to a little early cut hay and a little whole oats or a mixture of whole oats and bran or shorts.

The important points are strict regularity in time of feeding, quantity and temperature of milk, which should be from 98 to 100 degrees F. From the 1st of June the skimmilk should be pasteurized so it will not get sour.

Each calf should be fed by itself out of a clean tin pail, which should be washed and scalded after each feeding just as thoroughly and carefully as one does the milk pails. Place the calves in small stanchions while they are being fed, so they will not get into the habit of sucking each other. Have the little manger in front of them wide enough so an ordinary tin pail containing the mess of milk can be set into it. Have partitions placed in the manger, and when it has taken the milk take out the pail, and if the calf is old enough to eat oats or bran throw in about a tablespoonful.

The bottom of the manger should be a dressed board about ten inches wide and should be so adjusted that it can be taken out once a week and scrubbed with hot water and soap.



While the Ayrshire is distinctly a dairy cow, she has those characteristics which make her an all round profitable cow, both while in milk and after she is dried off. She has heavy hind quarters, thick loins, small bones, meal red, well flecked with tallow, attractive looking and cuts up to the satisfaction of the butcher and the consumer. She cannot be fattened while giving milk, but as soon as dried off throws all her energies into laying on fat and is quickly in shape. The cow pictured is an Ayrshire.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

TWO MILLION MEN IN U. S. SERVICE

LARGEST AMERICAN ARMY IN HISTORY

Kaiser May Be Surprised to Learn Size of Our "Inconsequential Army"

The sneering remarks of German war lords and the press of the central empires of Uncle Sam's "inconsequential army" are officially answered by the war and navy department records of the number of men actually under arms.

The United States today has more than 2,000,000 men under arms. Daily enlistments in the army, navy and marine corps are mounting the figures materially, and the second draft call, which may come at any time, will increase the total over 2,500,000.

How Forces Are Divided

Here are the figures on the strength of the American fighting forces, including officers and men:

National army, now in training at sixteen cantonments	610,820
National guard, in training here and abroad	469,000
Regular army, at home and overseas	370,000
Special branches, including signal corps, ordnance corps, quartermaster corps and adjutant general's dep'ts.	200,000
Reserves in training or subject to call to the colors	80,000
Navy, in service and at training camps	147,900
Naval reserves, in service and in training	50,000
Naval militia	15,000
Marine corps, at home and abroad	33,000
Coast guard, now under the navy department	5,000
Hospital corps of the navy	6,500
Officers of all branches of the military and naval service	15,200
Grand total	2,008,420

Figures Are Approximate

The figures for the navy are based on returns from naval districts where recruiting has again become active, and from a survey of the regular establishment of the sea fighting forces. The strength of the national army, national guard and regulars is as near as the war department can compute it owing to the shifting of men to and from camps.

The estimate of 200,000 for the special branches is conservative. It includes the special engineer regiments now forming and already in the service at the front, where artisans and railroad builders have been going on since the arrival in France of the first regiments of engineers engaged on lines of communication.

The quartermaster corps, the medical corps and the signal corps, aviation section likewise are included in this 200,000, though there is no positive record of the thousands of students who are preparing for commissions in the numerous schools of flying and "ground" work all over the country.

The army of more than 1,500,000 in the three fighting branches, the regulars, national guard and selective draft ranks, is the largest ever assembled in the history of the American nation. The high-water mark of the federal strength during the Civil war was 2,700,000 but this was only paper strength. It counted hundreds of thousands of six months and three months soldiers, men who enlisted only for that brief period.

DISEASES OF CALVES.

Cause, Prevention and Treatment of Infectious Dysentery.

[Prepared by United States department of agriculture.]

Diarrhea, or scours, is probsbly tbe most common disease of calves. Great care must be taken at sll times to prevent this condition, as it always binders the growth and development of the animal and in additiou is often hard to cure, says farmers' bulletin 777. This disease is the result of disturbance of the digestive apparatus of the calf aud may bo eaused in a number of wsys, ths more important of which are the following: Irregular feeding, overfeeding, sudden ehange of feed, fermented feeds, feeding dirty or sour milk or milk of diseased cows, the use of dirty milk palls or feed boxes, and damp, dirty stables. As soon as scours is discovered it is best to seprate the affected calf froia the others and carefully disinfect tbe pen. The feed sbould be reduced immediately at least one-half, milk palls cleaned and sterilized, feed boxes eleaned and disinfected and any other eauses mentioned above elimlnated.

A number of preparations are used to treat this disease, a few of the more common of which are blood meal, a teaspoonful at a feed; white of egg, limewater, etc. A dose of four drops of formalin to each quart of milk has been used to advsntage, and a dreneh of three ounces of castor oil followed by a teaspoonful of a mixture of one part salol and two of subnitrate of bismuth also is recommended. Ordinary whits clay, mixed with water to tbe consistency of thick cream and given in doses of quarter or even half a plat three times a day, has been used recently, witb excellent effect.

White scours, or infectious dysentery of the calf, generally affects n number of calves in a lot and first appears shortly after birth as a diarrhea with light colored offensive droppings. During the course of this disease the calf wants to sleep all the time and cannot be laduced to suck or driak. It is also very much weakened by the disease and usually dies within three or four days. Thera is no specific method of enring the disease known to the department. Ordinary white clay mixed with water to the consisteacy of thick cream and given in doses of a quarter or oven half s pint threo times a dsy bas been found by veterinarians tn be very valuable. Manufacturers of biological products, however, are now selling a potent serum whicb they claim to bo effective ia both prevention and cure.

Prevention eousists in tbs usa of sanitary precautions, such aa clean, dry and disinfected peas for ealving and carefnl disinfection of the navel of the calf at birth, painting the cord with tineture of lodine and tying it with silk thread. As this disease is of so serious a ebaracter that it may cause the loss of a season's crop of calves, the details for the eontrol of an outbreak should be referred to the state live stock official or to a qualified veterinarian in the community.

The present week of seven days, without referenco to solar or lunar eycles, was adopted by the Egyptian astronomers somethiag more than 3,600 years sgo.

He left Saturday to join the company with which he was connected while in the service on the Mexican border. He was informed Friday by telegram that he would be able to do so. We are sorry to lose him, but realize that he is needed by the government as well as by us.

The Red Cross meeting held in the town hall last week Tuesday evening, attracted a nice crowd. Enough members were secured to form a local chapter and officers were chosen to take charge of the work. Judge E. R. Harris gave a little talk and explained the details of the work. D. E. Clow enlightened us to the necessity of the work and urged us all to join. Rev. Parshall deserves the credit for the meeting and its results and besides the work he has done in Banks township, he has charge of Norwood township and part of Marion township.

The entertainment given by the school was a decided success and a very large crowd were present to enjoy the program. Great credit is due the teacher and scholars for the able manner in which the program was conducted and rendered. The town hall was nicely decorated with evergreens and the national colors and the spirit of a Red Cross Xmas was suggested through the numerous Red Crosses placed amid the decorations. The school board and people here in general are very sorry to loss Mr. Chelles as teacher. The able manner in which he conducted the school here is a credit to him and here's hoping success may follow him on his duties as a soldier.

DEATH COMES TO WILLARD A. SMITH

HAD BEEN CONFINED TO HOME SINCE JULY

Had Been a Resident of Charlevoix for Forty-eight Years, Coming at Age of Eighteen

Willard A. Smith, pioneer of Charlevoix county, editor of the Charlevoix Sentinel, and dean of newspaperdom in Michigan, died at his home on Park Avenue, at 7:40 a. m. Monday morning.

Deceased was born at Malone, New York, April 4, 1851. At the age of six years, he was left an orphan, and continued to reside at his birthplace until 12 years of age, when he came to Michigan, stopping later at Traverse City, and then coming to what is now Charlevoix, in April 1869, where he resided up to the time of his death. He was united in marriage to Nancy M. Bagley, December 19, 1870, who with three children, Mrs. Ira Adams of Bellaire, Mrs. H. O. Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, and Willard A. Smith, Jr., of Charlevoix, survive him.

Perhaps few residents of Northern Michigan were better known than Willard A. Smith. Since coming to Charlevoix at the age of 18 years, he has taken an active part in the development of this section of the state. During the first year of his residence here he entered into the newspaper field, and established the Sentinel, at whose helm he remained until his failing health forced him to lay aside the active work of its management.

During the many years of his residence in Charlevoix, deceased has filled offices of trust and responsibility, serving the county as clerk treasurer, and for a period of 12 years was postmaster. In 1910, during the administration of Chase S. Osborn as governor of Michigan, he was selected as a member of the signal corps, and later placed on the staff of General Abby. For 35 years he was manager of the local Western Union office.

During the first week of July he was compelled by failing health to relinguish the active duties in connection with the management of the Sentinel, and also as deputy collector of customs, which office he had held for some 20 years. Since this date his health has continued to fail until death came as a relief Monday morning.

Funeral services will be held from the Congregational church Thursday at 2:00 p. m., Rev. C. E. Taggart, officiating. The remains will be taken in charge of by the Knights Templar of Ivanhoe Commandery, Petoskey, and the Blue Lodge of the local Masonic order, of which he has been a member for many years. Interment at Brookside cemetery.

IT'S FOOLISH TO SUFFER

When So Many Charlevoix People Are Pointing the Wey Out

You may be brave enough to stand backache or headache or dizziness. But, if, in addition urination is disordered, look out! If you don't try to fix your sick kidneys, you may fall into the clutchea of dangerous disease before you know it. But, if you live more carefully and help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger as well. Don't experiment—use the remedy Charlevoix people are publicly endorsing. Read this case:

Mrs. R. M. McKeel, 214 Mason St., Charlevoix, says: "I suffered for several months with kidney trouble. I was bloated quite badly and had a weak and lame back. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Metcalf's Drug Store, brought me relief."

FIVE YEARS LATER Mrs. McKeel said: "All I have said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills holds good today. Doan's completely cured me of kidney trouble and the cure has lasted."

Dick Jarvis Enlists

Word has been received here that Dixon Jarvis, formerly of this city but more recently of Lansing, has enlisted in the U. S. navy and is now at the Great Lakes Training station. His mother, Mrs. A. M. Jarvis, who had intended spending the winter with him, will return to this city.

Ten Members Over

A good deal of commendation is due Rev. R. C. Parshall, who conducted the Xmas Red Cross drive at Norwood. Largely owing to his untiring efforts, the township exceeded their quota, which was 94, by ten members.

RED CROSS

Another shipment of knitted gooda was shipped last week. The school children are enthusiastic over the knitted blocks and have turned in six robes and also trench candles. The good work goes on. The Courier wishes to remind the public that the vicious stories being circulated in our midst about the Red Cross are pure German propaganda. These stories are being spread about for the sole purpose of discouraging Red Cross workers. A great many of these ugly stories have come to us and we have endeavored to trace them to their source, but we invariably find that they originated in mere idle gossip, which gained in malignancy as it was passed along, until it finally almost seemed to have some semblance of truth.

If those who hear these stories would but give the matter one moment of careful thought, the utter foolishness of them would at once become apparent.

Women of Charlevoix be loyal to the Red Cross. Be not influenced hy these silly tales. Remember that the Red Cross is doing the noblest work given by God for women to do. Remember that during the war the Red Cross has developed into one of our largest enterprises, reaching all over the earth, and that in point of management it is one of the most efficient business machines in the world. All these stories are deliberate lies, circulated by the enemies of our beloved country. You will help to win the war if you will not only disbelieve them, but above all you must not help to circulate them by repeating them to any one. This is your manifest patriotic duty.

The winter is here, and the work of your hands will add to the comfort, and perhaps save the lives of many young men who are in the trenches fighting for you. The work of your hands is needed now. You should therefore, and we sincerely believe you will, work with increased vigor and speed, for the need is imperative and most pressing. The Sammies are prepared to face the Boches' machine guns and their shells, but few are brave enough in this sort of weather to undress in their cold billets. Mostly they sleep in their clothes, with the sweaters, wristlets, helmets and mufflers knitted by American women bundled about them. They help amazingly in defying the winter chill.

A magnificent spirit of patriotism has always risen in superb majesty in the hearts of the women of America wherever the call of her country has gone out to her, and we know that no malicious pro-German lies will now cause her to relax her efforts for the winning of thia war.

WILL GRAVES NOW AT CAMP WINFIELD SCOTT

Enlisted in Artillery Corps Two Weeks Ago and Left for Camp Following Day

Folks at bome are always glad to bear frem tha beys who havo enlisted, and are interested in the many changes from camp to camp usually made. Will Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graves, left Charlevoix two weeks ago Tuesday for Chicago, where he enlisted in tha artillery corps, and the following dav his regiment left for Camp Winfield Scott, near San Francisco, Califernia. He writes his psrents regarding hia trip as follows:

Preeidio San Francisco,
Decemher 24, 1917.

"Dear Mother and Father: "It seems two weeks since I left home. We arrived bera sometime early in the mornlng. Everyone wss asleep. Was called at seven and leaded on a steambeat to toke us acress the bay te the eld Werld's Fair grounds, where the camp is. It is some camp. Tents and huildings and barracks of all kinds. Horses, mules and men. Soldiers everywhere.

"I cannet describe the camp for I have not seen enough of it yet. We were lined up as seen ss we arrived for roll csil. Then we were issued blankets but ne uniferms. They will net ceme fer a week er two yet. Den't know when we will be examined. Ws sre located in the old port barracks, which are brick and comfortable. Each man has a bed of his own. There are twenty in my reom. A large reem with a fireplace in it. I tell yeu the boye that are drilled loek pretty nice.

"It was a fine trip all the way threugh. We struck the California line Sunday hefore daylight. Had breakfnst at a town called Barstow, on the cdge of the Mojave desert. The scenery was beautiful. Then we crossed anether range of mountains and came dewn into the fertile country. Everything was oranges and peaches and roses. I picked my first ornnge at Bakersfield, California. Gesh, they are fine eff the tree. And the roses and palm trees are out of sight. The weather has hcen fine all the way from Kansas City. Had the car windows open all the time. It dees net seem possible that I was wading in snew up to my neek a week ago.

Befero I ferget, I wish you weuld call up Mrs. Bridge and thank her for this kit. I am the only ene in 1,000 men to reecive a kit like thst. All the other fellows are sore at the Chicago Red Cross. They received a little book ef poems sbout two inches square. It makes me preud that I am frem Charlevoix where they do things right.

"I haven't seen Frisco yet, but tomorrow being Xmas we are to have the day off, so think I will go in town and see it. There is a fine view from camp. Out over the bay is Frisco, and bnck of us nre the mountains. It is a scene I won't forget for a while. It is warm nnd fine. Better than it was at sny time in Charlevoix last summer. The boys in my division are a bunch of fine fellows. We were all made to take n bath and shave this afternoon, then roll call again and then line up for supper. We eat at tables, 14 at a table. Tbo other soldiers in tho cantonments have to line up with their tin plates. The food is reugh, but good, and plenty ef it. The crowd is getting nelsy now. Lights nre eut at nine o'clock and we have to bc in bed at 11. Up at 6:00 in the morning. Think I will go to bed now, my feet aro tired. Will write you more the next time. Things have happened ao fast I esnnot remember them all now."

Frank Campbell, formerly of thia city and well known bere, has recently received the appointment as athletic director of the aviation camp at Dallas, Texas, and from our information, wo understand he hna already reported fer duty. TRANSFERRED TO THE U. S. AVIATION CORPS

Private Herold W. Usher Succeeds in Passing Examinations

The editor of the Courier received a telegram at noon today (Wednesday) from his son, Hsrold W. Usher, a private in ths 125th Inf., U. S. N. G., now etationed at Camp MacArthur, Wace, Texas, tbat he had successfully paseed all examinations required to enter the aviation corps, and weuld leave this, (Wednesday) evening for the training camp, presumably the University ef Texas technical school snd aviation training camp, at San Antenio, Texas.

Private Usher enlisted with Co. I of East Jordan, in June, 1916. Since that time he has seen centinueus service, both in Michigan and Texas. About a menth ago a call was made for candidates for the aviation corps, and he ameng some thousand or mere recruits at Camp MacArthur, made their application. Ameng this number it le reported less than 30 per cent were able te meet all the requirementa necessary, both in physieal and mentel exams.

Private Usher, we understand, will be given about 10 week's training at the aviation school and if successful will be given a commission, not less than that of secend lieutenant. As soon as their training period is over, they will probably be sent oversess for active duty.

Subscription Statements

To each of our large list of subscribers a statement is being sent as rapidly as they can he made out and mailed.

These statements are being sent for the same purpose that any persen in business sends eut a statement ef a person's acceunt—

1. To collect in the meney due on account.
2. To correct up any errors there may be.

It is an expensive matter te go over a lsrge list like that of the Courier with a statement te esch person, se sueh a method is not practicebla at frequent intervals. However, we feel tbat at this time it is an abselute business essential. The accumulation ef a large sum on the subscription list under conditions as they now exist in the business werld is bad pelicy. It costs a lot of money to do business. The cost of everything that enters into the productien ef a good paper like the Ceurier is high. Even by making every purehase of stock and materials at the closest possible figure the costs ars way above what they were a few years ago.

Every one knows this te be a fact, but because the newspaper which is ene of the best friends they have in the community, is a small item of expense, it is often everlooked and forgotten.

Very many peeple ask that a statement of their aceeunt bo mailed to them. We decided te mail a statement to esch of our subscribers and let them seo just how our lists show the standing of their accounts. Should any of these statements be erroneoue we desire the person so receiving them to call and let us straighten eut tha error, which will always bs done in the mest cheerful manner. Errors creep in en a large list from various causes and we desiro to eliminate every error possible.

Wo are in just the sama position as all other business firms. Methods of doing business are changing rapidly these times and it is an absolute necessity to get in all collections premptly. The grocer insists on his psy, the dry geods man and the clothier on his and how is the fellow who publishes tha newspaper going to take eare of his affeirs promptly if those who are owing him do net take care of theirs premptly.

Just figure it out in this way—If every subscriber is owing only a singie dollar, take your pencil and put dewn the total which you tlunk it weuld amount to and then see if yeu cannot realize that tha sum would be a pretty handy one for any business man to have to his credit in the bank.

This is purely a business preposition. We need the money to use in our business just tho sama as other merchants and businessmen need money owing on their secounts paid to them in erder that their bills may be cared for.

On each statement is tho amount you ewe. This notice is printed to assure you that the Courier is always werking for the interests of the community nnd that it can work te a good deal hettor advantage with a lot less than $1,200 to $1,500 due on subscriptien accounts.

You, teo, know this te be a plain fact.

COUNTY OF CHARLEVOIX LEADS IN RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP

Stands Fourth in Membership in State—Receives Congratulations from Governor Sleeper — Country Diatricts Give Loyal Support

Charlevoix county's Red Cross membership drive received frem State Chairman McKee the following list of ceuntice in order of number of members in Red Cross: Luce, Marquette, Iron, Charlevoix—making Charlevoix the feurth highest in the state. When we remember that we started this drive the secend loweet in the state, we realize that we have literally been climbing. The remaining seven counties that came out en top are: Chippewa, Genessee, Menominee, Keweenaw, (including Calumet), Washtennw, Oakland, Delta. These eleven counties were posted on the bulletin board at Camp Custer nnd our boys had reason to feel proud of seeing Charlevoix in the list.

By townships and cities the report is as follows: East Jordan has 1,000 members, which is over fifty per cent more than her quota set by the county committee and which is three times the queta asked of her by the state committee. She is proud of her loynl citizens nnd active business men. Many thanks are due the committee in charge and the manager, Mr. Elsner is given credit for a well conducted campaign.

Charlevoix, 637 is just 43 members over the quota of 594. Under the guidance of Olaf Nordrum nnd Mason Rose, Charlevoix hns done herself proud in standing back of her boys.

Boyne City's quota baaed on population was 1,000 members and her report indicates that she reached 775 members. The committee worked both effectively and well, but just what it is that has held Boyne back is not quite clear. Surely the good citizens of Boyne will net allow this to stand on the state and national records.

Mr. Kotesky reported that Bay township had 53 members. The German settlement of Bay surely extended the nrmy of mercy to tha soldier boys together with their silver dollars. Thera are only three school districts in Bay, nnd the report is very good. Dr. Conkle of Bayne Falls reports 80 for the village, but hands in no report for the adjoining country districts, but we trust that they have done na well. Chandler township has 10 members but James Milford has taken hold of this and will hand in a later report. Charlevoix township has 9 and Evnngeline township 8 members, both reported by managers of the city canvass.

Earl Clark ef Eveline reported 140 last week nnd latest returns have not been received. Feur Eveline farmers joined on the streets ef East Jordan and were credited to Eveline se that their totsl would be 144 to date. It is thought that they are over their queta of 150.

Frank Bird of Hayes reports 140 with a quota of 142, all returns not yet in. In this township Bay Shore came splendidly to the front, while the little district of Hopyard with a quota of 15 reported 38, still working for 45 in hopes of trebling their quota. Ernest Peaslee of Hepyard has been earnestly working for the record of the corner where they are.

Hudson township reported two members, but report is not complete. Quota waa 37 members.

Marion township reported 78 members. Of these 28 members were obtained by Mr. Dewey in Phelps, 16 hy Rev. Parshall at Barnnrd, 22 by Elmer Ingalls, and 12 had joined since October 1at, preceding the drive.

Melrose township waa worked in only two school districts. Of these two, Clarion reports 19 members, and Walloon 75, or n 100 per cent village. W. H. Ransom waa chnirman of Walloon and was actively assisted by the teachers, Golda Jenson and Mayma Scroggie.

Rev. Parshall of Norwood reports 106 members, quota 94. Mnny congratulations for the little township of Norwood.

Father Jewell of St. James reports 140 members. The quota for Big Beaver, excluding High and Garden, is 165. The roads have been so bad that a number of homes on the Island could not be reached at all and one member of the committee was ill throughout the drive. But this is not at all bad nnd when wa remember that many of the Island boys are in the marina service and just returned home, after contributing several dollars apiece in other places we certainly must compliment the Beavers on their work in the drive. Father Jewell refuses to call these figures final.

South Arm was divided into two sections as divided by the lake. Nathan Liskum was chairman of the western half and reported 54 names. Twe additional names were taken in town and credited to the township. In the eastern half Miss Kenny took four memberships, and Mr. Cbew, as chairman ef two school districts telephoned that he had four to hand in later. This gives South Arm a total of 60 members.

In Wilson township ths total is 67 membera. The only district making its quota is the German settlement. Harry Behling, chairman, handed in 32 names and dollars snd two mere from thst district joined with ether chairman, making 34 names out of a quota of 33. This leaves only thirty-three names for all the rest of Wilson township and wa are proud of our Garman-Americans.

Of the county total of 3,306, the cities reported 2,418 members and the country districts 988. There are many parts of the rural districts where memberships could still be had merely for the asking, but even now Charlevoix has demonstrated the truth of Grant Slecum's statement at the state conference in Detreit, when he said, "If the farmers have not ceme forth in any patriotic movement, it is because they hava not been asked te do so." Every live wire rural chairman in this county reports splendid success.

We set out in this county to gain new members and renewals to the number ef 3,882 and there were many skeptical faces at the board ef directors meetings nt that conference. The etate had asked us to reach the minimum of 2,500 and to some this eeemed an impossibility, but the committee said it must and it can be done. Charlevoix county must not remain the second lowest in Red Cross membership. We did not quite reach the hoped for figures, but we have 3,400 members, which is just 906 members more than the etate quota fer our county. Rev. Sidebotham of East Jordan werked unceasingly and fully deserves the congratulations that pour in on every hand. As county manager he kept in touch every day with every section of the county and rejeices with every chairman reporting successful drives.

The very latest telegram arriving is one from Gov. Sleeper commending the committee on their good work and congratulating Charlevoix county on its Red Cross report.

ARMY LIFE AGREES WITH HIM

INTERESTING LETTER FROM CHARLEVOIX BOY

Has Been Appointed Sergeant and Expects Soon to be Sent Overseas

In a recent letter from L. C. Carey, son of Charles Carey of this city, Leff states: "I am very well and almest perfectly centented end satisfied. Seemingly, I have taken to army life as a duck takes to water. Ilave had the good fortune to ba appointed a sergeant, which gives me a few little privileges, and some experience beyond the ordinary lot of a private. Of ceurse, it is enly temporary, and may not extend beyond the time of our quarantine, but it lets me in easy at any rate, and there is a chance that it may be continued. In our present organization, I have no fear of losing it.

"We had our trade tests today, but I found that my experience in agriculture is seme distance removed frem war. I qualified as a clerk in the section without any difficulty, so I have at least reasonable hopes of escaping the more serious aspects of trenches—i. e., the digging of them. The examiner intimated that my address might be expected te be "Somewhere in France" within a short time. I grinned all over snd he smiled sweetly.

"Had a fine trip down from Seattle 120 of us and three non-coms and a 2nd Lieutenant, occupied three Pullman's and a baggage car. We had a dandy time all the time. All the privileges of a civilian touring party, and almost as good eats, and plenty always. We were six days and nights on the road, arriving at San Antonio about 10 p. m., last Friday, December 14, we were then driven (on foet)all ever this field (6,000 acres), looking for empty tents and bunks. We finally turned in at about 2 o'clock. Since that time we have been almost continually 'at it.' We sleep 10 in a tent. I have supervision over three tents. At mess, we take our frying pan, soup plate, platter, with its lid, our cup and iron teels and line up in front of the cook tent, where the cooks dish us eut our 'mulligan' roast, spaghettl, macaroni, beans, or whatever it may be—spuds, bread snd coffee. Occasionally we get milk and sugar, and sometimes jelly or pudding, always plenty, and if not we fall in line again. I am strong for the army eats, although it is NOT mother's.

"The weather is ideal, that's all—ideal. I am writing this in an open tent with no coat on, and the sun has just gone down. Today I sweat like a trooper walking across the field from headquarters. Honest, I'd like to stay always. You knew—with a chance to get to Michigan once in a while."

Leff enlisted in the aviation department of the military service in Seattle, and was in Fort Lawton until transferred to Camp Kelly, San Antonio, Texas.

ARCHIE MACNEILL BREAKS HIS WRIST

Accident Happened While Carrying a Heavy Ladder

While carrying a ladder from one place to another in the course of his duties at the Charlevoix Lumber Company's plant, where he is employed as watchman, Archibald MacNeill, who resides at 823 State street, slipped, and in endeavoring to prevent falling, struck his hand against the ladder in such a way as to fractura the bones of his left wrist, on December 21st last.

Although swollen and painful, Mr. MacNeill did not know that the wrist was broken, until he called on Dr. B. Dunham, who took an X-ray picture last Monday which determined beyond a doubt that such was the case. It was necessary to administor an ansesthetic and re-break the bona in order to set it properly, and as Mr. MacNeill is 70 years of age, it will probably be a couple of months before it is entirely healed.

CORRESPONDENCE

EVELINE

Will Lynn delivered a beef in Charlevoix Saturday.

Miss Elsie Thompson has returned home after a visit with friends and relatives in Detroit and Cleveland.

The big Hoover dinner of the year are over with and no one has been reported to be suffering any serious consequences.

Rev. Sidebotham of East Jordan gave his time to the people of Walker District last Sunday. Everyone enjoys these meetings as Rev. Sidebotham is a live worker.

The Red Cross drive fell a few members below the allotment of 150 for Eveline. But we are glad that it was just a few, as some other townships are barely represented.

Feed prices are high this winter and the man who buys feed for his cows would do well if he would examine feeds at time of purchase. Its getting common nowadays to sell low grade feed at high grade feed prices.

DISTRICT NO. 1, HAYES

We wish the editor and readers of the Courier a Happy New Year.

About thirty residents of District No. 1 are members of the Red Cross.

Misses Mable Marion and Grace Worth are spending the holiday vacation with their parents. District No. 1 is proud to claim all these successful teachers as residents.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes all denote liver uncleanliness. Your liver is the most important, also the most abused and neglected organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release the dammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fine every day in and day out.

SAVE AND SERVE WITH NONE SUCH WAR PIE

No Top Crust

Satisfactory—Economical

Ask your men-folks if they can think of anything better than a good, healthy, man-sized piece of mince pie.

The kind that tempted them as boys more than any other one thing that cooled on the kitchen table—and that tempts them today.

Then think how easy it is with NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT to make this pie that your men-folks like—easy to make on short notice and so economical. Good, too, for puddings, cakes, and cookies.

It is condensed and so prevents waste. You add the water yourself. It is sealed in paraffin wrapping; no hand touches it but your own; it keeps and ripens like fruit cake in the package; costs but a few cents.

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT makes it easy and economical to give your men-folks the pie they want.

The spelling contest held at Bay Shore, December 21 was well attended by patrons and pupils from each of the six schools. There were 48 pupils that wrote on the first 50 words, Twenty of those were pupils of District No. 1. Eight passed 100 per cent. Five of those were pupils of District No. 1. Fern Tillotson won the prize, a fine flag, presented by Miss Stewart. Robert Paul, an Indian boy, aged 12 years, was the last one to be spelled down. He was a pupil of District No. 1.

AND NOW COMES PORKLESS DAY

DETAILS OF NEW FOOD CONSERVATION PROGRAM

Porkless Day Means No Fresh or Salted Pork, Bacon, Lard or Ham

"Plans are practically completed says Food Administrator George A. Prescott, " for a state-wide follow-up canvass of the Hoover pledge card campaign of last October, when nearly four hundred thousand Michigan households were voluntarily pledged to the conservation program of the U. S. Food Administration, Dean Georgia L. White of the Home Economics Departments of the Michigan Agricultural College and a member of the executive committee of our state organization will be in charge of the supplemental campaign in which she will be assisted by Mrs. Eben Mumford of East Lansing," said Mr. Prescott.

Dean White Outlines Plans

"In continuing the work initiated by the household registration campaign during October, it is hoped by the Food Administration to do four things," said Miss White.

"First. To distribute during the week of January 6-12 another kitchen card bearing a personal message from Mr. Hoover to every woman who signed the pledge card in October, telling her that conditions in Europe and America that make more intensified food conservation necessary and indicating ways in which the housewife can give further assistance. With this kitchen card will be included two folders from Washington containing menus, and at least one folder published by the Food Administration in Michigan with material aimed to assist the housewife in carrying out the plans outlined by Mr. Hoover.

"Second. To secure the co-operation of as many families as possible not reached by the former drive, in order that the literature may be given to them also. Pledge cards and window cards will he supplied and upon signature of the pledge card, the new material will be given to these homes.

"Third. To effect a relatively permanent organization through which the Food Administration may at subsequent times, if it deems it necessary, easily and quickly reach the homes.

"Fourth. To devise some means of determining for each county how far families are actually conforming to the plans for meatless and wheatless meals, and to the general requests for the use of substitutes for wheat, sugar, ham, bacon and animal fats. It is realized that this is a difficult thing to do, but it is hoped that some means of measuring results can be worked out: by weekly reports in the churches; by the cooperation of parent-teachers' associations or other organizations in recording conditions in their own families; by working out for one's own town or county, a statement showing the saving that should be effected according to the population, through the observance of meatless and wheatless meals and making an effort to find out from the grocers, from statements of interested families in different classes in the community, or in other ways how far the saving in the community is approximating this estimate."

Porkless Day to be Added

In addition to the present wheatless and meatless days the government will request in the new campaign the observation of a porkless day once a week. The Federal instruction which will be distributed in all the hotels, restaurants and homes of Michigan between January 6 and 12 gives the following definition of the newly created porkless day:

"One porkless day each week in addition to Tuesday, which shall be Saturday. By porkless, we mean, no fresh or salted pork, bacon, lard or ham."

The new pledge card of the Food Administration gives the following revised interpretation of the existing wheatless and meatless days:

"One wheatless day each week and one wheatless meal each day; the wheatless day to be Wednesday. By wheatless we mean to eat no wheat products.

"One meatless day each week which shall be Tuesday and one meatless meal each day. By meatless we mean to eat no red meat—beef, pork, mutton, veal, lamb; no prepared meat—beef, bacon, ham or lard."

In addition to these revised instructions Mr. Hoover is making an appeal for a more deliberate conservation of sugar and announces:

"We shall make every endeavor to see that the country is provided with a supply of household sugar on the basis of three pounds of sugar for each person per month. Do not consume more."

With some few exceptions this extension campaign will be in charge of the county organizations that handled the successful October drive.

COUNTRY FEARS SHORTAGE OF TELEGRAPHERS

Men Wanted at Once for This Branch of United States Service

With nearly every available telegrapher in the government service, the war department has come face to face with a shortage, which unless relieved expeditiously, will handicap the American forward march in democracy's war. The United States Army Signal Corps has started a drive for men to train in every part of the nation, and the quota of Western Michigan is 425. To further the interest of the men of this section, a school of telegraphy has been established in Grand Rapids, the largest in the west outside of Chicago.

Here registrants under the draft law, will be given instruction in night classes, with the assurance of attaining the degree of efficiency necessary for enlistment in the Signal Corps, within from two to three months. This school is open only to men of draft age, who are liable to call in the second or third summons. Inasmuch as the second call will not be issued until late in March or early in April, sufficient time is assured for candidates to become eligible for this preferred service.

The headquarters for the Western Michigan training school is 306 Y. M. C. A. building, Grand Rapids. Any communication addressed to Verne H. Smiley will receive prompt attention. Mr. Smiley has been delegated by Lieut. Col. L. D. Wildman of the Signal Corps, as head of the school. Information can also be secured from the local or county draft boards, which have given their support to the campaign of training men.

THE LAW ON NEWSPAPER SUBSCRIPTIONS

A person who continues to accept a paper sent him through the mail is liable for subscription price of it, regardless of the fact that he never subscribed for it, or that he has ordered it stopped, and has not settled—any person who makes use of any article must pay for same, even if no direct purchase was made. This is the law of our land, as has been determined in every state where the question has been passed upon by the Supreme Court. tf.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

To our old customers to whom we have extended credit and to others wishing to open an account with us, we take this opportunity to make our position regarding credit for 1918 plain so that there will be no hard feeling toward us, as we value your trade to the extent of not wishing to do anything that will work a hardship upon any of our customers, but rather to ask you to help us to establish a better system of trading that will make buying and selling more satisfactory and pleasant for all concerned and eventually allow us to sell on a smaller margin of profit, as the loss from bad accounts and the interest on long standing accounts will be eliminated, thereby saving you money.

It comes to us daily that our fellow merchants both retailers and jobbers are finding it necessary to tighten up on credit, such as 30 day dating of bills prevailing in many instances where we used to get 60 days, 1% discount for cash instead of 2% in many cases and as a result many retail stores are insisting on spot cash for merchandise.

We are forced to take the middle course and extend credit only to those who have proven themselves GOOD PAY and to these we are perfectly willing to continue a line of credit, but we must insist that settlements be made every 30 days and we believe you will all agree with us that the unsettled condition now existing and with prices so high that our investment is necessarily much greater, warrants us in following the bent of good merchants elsewhere and the advice of our best jobbers from whom we buy goods and ask you to help us meet these unnatural conditions by all of us meeting our obligations monthly, at least, in order that our credit will remain good.

We are establishing a credit department in our office and future credit will be based upon the promptness with which accounts are paid.

We send you this notice with the best of intentions and are counting on you as one upon whom we may depend to help us with this plan for a better credit system, which will mean more money in all of our pockets if followed.

Yours for cleaner business,

CHARLEVOIX HARDWARE COMPANY.

ADVENT OF THE NEW YEAR

To some depressed people the dying of the old year and coming of the new brings thoughts of sadness. They seem to feel life slipping away from them. It is on the contrary, an occasion for rejoicing, if we can look back on the past days with any feeling of work well done.

An earnest person must feel as the months have passed, that new lessons have been learned, and new acquirements gained. If the year has brought no such fruitage, it has been indeed a failure.

Few people would care to live the year over, so why regret that it has gone? The time has slipped away from us, but our richest experience, our surer touch on life, and command of its resources, cannot be taken away. These are the harvest of the year, the solid gain that is ours imperishably.

It is then a true instinct that has made New Year's a time for gladsome social life and pleasant anticipations. If we look forward with expectation of happiness and success, we shall be likely to get it. If we view the old year with melancholy we shall find melancholy days to come. Life reflects the human nature within us. So if good cheer leads some of us to get out and blow horns, there is no particular objection. The only trouble is that this form of expression is too often created by artificial means, with a bad headache the morning after.

It is a time when people who really think about life, will like to consider its deeper meanings. The churches will be filled with many whose thoughts turn instinctively to the vital things to the author of the years and the source of all our joys. That does not mean that their thoughts are those of sadness or regret. So Happy New Year to all!

SON OF NOTED CHIEF PETOSKEY DEAD

Was Interesting Character and Highly Respected by Indians

Enos Petoskey, last child of that famous old Indian chief, Ignatius Petoskey, died late Wednesday afternoon at his home in Petoskey. He was about seventy years old and his health had been gradually failing since last summer.

He was the youngest son of the old chief, had a wide acquaintance among both the Indians and white residents of this region, was greatly respected and looked up to by the other Indian residents.

For years he worked as a mason's helper and assisted in the erection of a large number of the buildings in that city. He attended the Petoskey public schools while a boy and also attended the Carlisle Indian school. He learned the trade of a tailor but never worked at it to any extent.

His one son, Huron Petoskey, also resides there. He also leaves several nephews and nieces. William Petoskey, of Milwaukee; Mrs. Hattie O'Neal of Grand Rapids; Thomas Paul, William and Cornelius Petoskey; Ella and Agnes Petoskey, of Petoskey.

Impaired eyesight corrected and satisfactory results guaranteed. See G. O. Searl at the Hotel Charlevoix Friday and Saturday, January 4 and 5. 1t1

To Our Customers:

The United States Food Administration has adopted new rules which will change our methode of doing business very materially. The amount of wheat to be used in making a barrel of flour and the percentage of the wheat kernel to be put into the flour is fixed, and no variation whatever is allowed. The price of mill feed is fixed and removes one of the principal causes of fluctuation in prices. Under this ruling it will not be possible for us to produce our usual quality flour.

While the new flour will not equal the usual quality, it will be a good flour, clean, pure and wholesome, and our customers may be assured it is the highest quality we are allowed to produce. We regret more than we can tell the necessity of discontinuing our old brands, but food is the greatest consideration just at present, and we are loyal citizens and will do anything gladly that will help our government during the present crisis. The price of bran and middlings, we are informed will be reduced. This in all probability will slightly increase the price of flour. This increase will not be great. We can not say definitely about this. As soon as the present stocks of flour are sold out the new flour will be packed in plain sacks, save for this branding: "This Flour is made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the United States Food Administration."

Hoping that America may be able to finish this war during the coming year, and wishing you a prospcrous New Year.

Very sincerely yours,

Argo Milling Co.

WE OFFER THIS INDUCEMENT FOR CUSTOMERS TO PAY CASH

Explaining our proposition in the fewest words, here it is: During every month we will keep a record of daily cash sales and the names of persons paying cash. At the end of the month we go over our daily records and find out on which day the cash sales were the smallest. On the day the cash sales were the least in amount, we will make a list of all cash purchasers, whether for 10 cents or $10.00.

You Double Your Money

After finding out the day our cash sales were the smallest and making out the list of all customers who paid cash for their purchases on this day, we will give, make you a present, without the cost of one cent, the full amount of your cash purchases on this day. This free gift will be made on a day set during the following month, but these amounts will not be credited as sales in balancing our books on this day. In other words, if John Jones pays $2.35 cash, Mrs. Brown $1.50 cash, and anyone else cash for goods purchased on the day during the month of January on which occurs our smallest cash sales, they will be given the exact amount of their purchases on the First day of February, ABSOLUTELY FREE.

We want to place our business on a cash basis, and take this method to induce our customers to pay as they buy—not run book accounts. Come in the store and ask us about our new inducement. We will explain it thoroughly to you, and you will at once become a cash purchased of all you buy at this store. Come and ask us about it.

Balance in County Road funds as per County Clerk's records, close Sept. 30, 1917		$ 7,201.23
I have opened an account in the County Treasurer's ledger, which will in the future show the balance in the County Road Account at any time. The balance on hand as per this account, September 30, 1917, is		$ 8,076.63
Deduct orders outstanding close of Sept 80, 1917		875.40
Balance as per clerk's ledger		$ 7,201.23

Comparatively few bills are on file with the Clerk for purchases. Simply time checks which contain no information other than "Merchandise" or "Supplies." The bills which are on file show that the miscellaneous expenditures cover almost everything in the way of repairs and maintenance of machinery, supplies, and expenditures of almost every nature. In fact every kind of expense outside of material for road building, fuel, gasoline, freight, and labor, even to rubber boots, which were occasionally purchased.

The few grocery bills on file with a few exceptions, only state the amount due and contain no details. Many statements of accounts are on file, instead of the invoice listed and there is nothing to indicate what was purchased.

Most of the time checks issued for labor contain no other information than "Team" or "Man" and none issued by Commissioner Hammond show any deduction for board, and many of the time checks issued by Commissioner Hammond are written with an ordinary lead pencil.

I am unable to make any exhibit of the camp expenses or the amounts received for board, as can be seen from this report, the boarding camp expenses, so far as I was able to determine, amount to about $3,000.00 while all the deductions for board and feed I was able to locate amount to about $650.00.

The errors of the County Clerk in connection with camp board amounting to $28.75 have been adjusted by him and the East Jordan and Charlevoix Road will receive credit for the same.

I have interviewed Commissioners Hammond and House, and have submitted to them and to the Purchasing Committee, plans for time sheets and material sheets, which are to be bound and consecutively numbered, the duplicate remaining in the book and the original to be given to the Clerk every two weeks.

These sheets will show the hours worked each day, the rate of pay, the amount earned, deductions for board, feed for team, advance payments, if any, and amount due.

The material sheet will be similarly made and will show the amounts of stone, gravel or other material furnished, and will be given to the clerk, and these sheets with an occasional exception will take the place of the time checks now used. The Commissioners I have seen will file bills with the Clerk for purchases made and not time checks no statements of accounts and in the future in checking up the expenditures of the County Road Commissioners it will be comparatively an easy matter, as the time sheets, material sheet and bills, will be on file for all expenditures. These sheets will show wherever a time check is used giving the number, but these will be very few.

Under this arrangement, the expenditures can be properly classified and whatever details are required can be correctly shown, and it will also be an easy matter to determine how nearly the receipts for board of men and feed of teams agree with the expenditures for groceries and feed.

In conclusion I desire to say that the County Officers have furnished me with any assistance required.

Respectfully submitted,

Making the Farm Pay

POISON FOR CRAWFISH.

Pests Render Cultivation of Cotton Impossible in Some Sections.

[Prepared by United States department of agriculture.]

The most practical way of dealing with crawfish, accordlng to specialists in the United States department of agriculture, is to kill them by puttlng two or three drops of carbon bisulphid into the burrows. For this purpose a quart oil can, with diameter nozzle reduced in size, proves quite satisfactory. After the poison has been put in the harrow the opening should be closed immediately with pressure of the heel. With a little practice a man can cover a considerable area in this way each day. The cost of the poison is about a cent for every seventy-five holes treated, or from $1 to $1.50 per acre. If the work has been thoroughly done the cost of treatment the following year will not exceed 25 cents per acre.

At the present time a wide stretch of country, estimated at not less than a thousand square miles, is so overrun with crawfish that to a considerable extent the successful production of cotton and corn is rendered impossible. Large fields of young cotton have been destroyed in a single night. Corn also suffers greatly, but it is not so extensively eaten as cotton. The clay lands of Mississippi and Alabama are especially subject to these pests, and in certain areas it is almost impossible to raise cotton or corn with profit. In this region the crawfish inhabit heavy gumbo soils from four to fifteen feet in depth well saturated with water and overlying a sandstone formation.

During rainy weather or in the evening after a shower the crawfish leave their holes and come to the surface to gather their food, which for the most part is consumed underground. At this time they may be easily killed with clubs or caught in large numbers. The bodies should be collected, for when boiled, mixed with meal and allowed to dry they are valuable as an egg producing food for poultry. In this respect indeed their value is so great that it is said that the preparation of the product might be a profitable commercial undertaking if it were not that the supply of crawfish is so dependent upon weather conditions. At times however, the number is enormous. On badly infested areas from 8,000 to 12,000 burrows have been found to an acre. On one plantation in Mississippi twenty-seven barrels of crawfish were picked up in a season and the following year thirteen barrels more.

Under such conditions the replanting of cotton fields is almost certain to become a necessity. Even then, if replanting is followed by showery weather, there is much likelihood that the second crop will be destroyed. In dry weather, however, the plants may develop rapidly enough to be out of danger when wet weather sets in again.

HISTORY OF BUSINESS FIRMS

OF GREAT INTEREST TO COURIER READERS

Short Resume History of the Ellsworth Drug Co. and the D. E. Clow & Co. Store

Continuing the business history of Ellsworth where we left off in last week's Courier, we will give a short history of the Ellsworth Drug Co.

The store occupied by this firm was built by A. E. Pickard in 1914 for the Spring Drug Co., of East Jordan, who had contemplated putting in a branch at this place for some time in order to handle the drug trade in this vicinity, and was occupied by them under the name of the Ellsworth Drug Co., the opening being on December 15, 1914.

Geo. Hunter, an able and experienced druggist, was put in charge by the management and the fact that the business has more than tripled since the first year, is proof conclusive that their choice was a wise one.

Ellsworth had gotten along during the past years without this necessary business enterprise, and in finally getting a strictly up-to-date drug store, the fact was made plain that "all things come to them who wait."

The Ellsworth Drug Co. carries at all times a complete line of drugs and sundries and this coupled with the courteous treatment accorded to all, assures the year 1918 as the most prosperous in the history of the business.

D. E. Clow & Company

Following the fire in which the Lumber Co.'s store was destroyed; Mr. Harris erected this building and run a general store until 1909, when he sold his business to J. C. Westrate and H. H. Deipenhorst of Grand Rapids. These men operated in partnership one year, when Mr. Deipenhorst assumed full control, running the store until three years ago when he sold out to D. E. Clow and F. H. Skow.

This firm under the official title of D. E. Clow & Co. did business about two years, when Mr. Skow disposed of his interests to Frank Poehles, a life-long resident of Banks township. This store is without doubt one of the best general stores in northern Michigan. Mr. Clow, the manager, has several years experience in this kind of business, both at this and other places, and thoroughly understands the likes and dislikes of his customers.

Both members of the firm assure us that they will be continually on the job during the year 1918, and such being the case, we cannot see why the firm of D. E. Clow & Co. will not have their full share of the community's business.

COMMUNICATIONS

To the Associations of Commerce in Charlevoix, East Jordan, Boyne City, Boyne Falls and Walloon.

Gentlemen:

"Associations of Commerce make cities both bigger and better morally, physically, economically and substantially. This is a critical as well as a trying time in our Country and it behooves every one of us to bring out and put forth the very best there is in us, and to give it all to our country.

"Every man that is at all interested in the welfare of the city in which he lives, ought to go to the Association of Commerce and ask to be taken in, adding to his request—I want to be with you—I wish to lend a helping hand and to be a booster, instead of a knocker. But men do not do such things as a general rule. There are many objectors to make our cities and our counties a howling success, for as the old darky said, 'the world do move and so does we.'

"The principal objections, the objectors and obstructionists put up (and they are all considered typical) is that lack of time, lack of interest lack of sympathy and worst of all—I receive no benefit. Great Caesar, gentlemen, stop and think of it! Think what these remarks made and said in earnest mean—why it was this so-called spirit which prevailed in the hearts of so-called men which prevented a larger vote on our bonding propositions as well as for not joining our Associations of Commerce.

The objection of lack of time has been made more frequently than any other. There is such a thing as efficiency in the matter of the disposition of time. Any man can waste his time. Any man can deceive himself into thinking that he is busy when he is not. There is the opportunity to apply science in the use of time and that is the opportunity that ought to be presented to the people who haven't time.

I can understand how a man who is employed 24 hours a day wouldn't have time, but I can't understand how a man in business who is to any degree master of his own time can find it possible to say that he has'nt the opportunity to do something in the work of the Association.

We always have time to do that thing which we like to do. It doesn't matter whether it is work or whether it is pleasure, we find the time so that in case of a man who urges as an objection that he hasn't time—the thing to do is to teach that man to like the work and he will find the time.

The kind of men we want for members are men anxious to do something that will help the city or town in which they live, who will help the business, and also help the civic advancement of their city.

The next objection that has been named is lack of interest. The man who is not interested in the Association of Commerce and it's work is a mighty poor citizen. There is not any man who has self respect in this community, who knowing what the Association undertakes and carries through, would be willing to stand up and say that he was not interested.

The Association of Commerce has become an absolute necessity to all five cities in our County and every member of all the Associations is by virtue of this membership also a member of the Charlevoix County Road Improvement Association. This is strictly a County Association and it is here to stay and to grow.

Eighteen live wires, six men, good and true, from each of the three larger cities are the originators and we want Walloon and Boyne Falls, each to select a couple or three delegates to represent their town, and we also want every township in the County represented. The supervisor, to be one of the representatives.

All who attended any one of the four never-to-be-forgotten grand rallying meeting last fall of the County Road Improvement Association know that these meetings were among the very best get-together meetings Charlevoix county ever had, and through this non-political, non-religious association, more good can be done in municipal, civic, economical affairs than in any other way.

If the Dixie Highway Association consents to take up the beautiful road around Pine Lake, thereby adding to itself 50 miles additional to this, the greatest, the most beautiful and the most central natural group of any in the United States, with its 800 miles of Michigan water washed air (none of which surpasses beautiful Pine Lake) and the Association concludes to name it the Dixie Highway Annex, we immediately become the best advertised county in the north, and greater benefits even than this is in store for us if we will all pull together. I will not say what it is now, but I have something up my sleeve which I will pull off in due time if you will lend me your assistance.

Yours truly,
VAN PELT.

SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES AND DARKENS HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

GRANT SLOCUM SEES THE NEED OF SYSTEM

Changes Mind Regarding Potatoes—Sees United Agricultural Michigan

A thing which may open the way to a better understanding and a more united agricultural Michigaa on tha potato grading situation is the statement of Grant Slacum, heretoforo leading the opposition to the potato grading recommendation of the nstion. Mr. Slacum stated at Wasbington:

"Gentlemen, I am coavinced from what you have shown me that the system of grading established hy tha gavernment Is a good one."

Inasmuch as Mr. Slocum has been one of the most active antagonists to this grading or more particularly the way it was being conducted, it is believed that his influence will go a great way in eliminating misunderstanding of the system and uniting the farmers in seeing the heneficial financial side of the matter.

The above statement caine after Mr. Slocum had been in conference with the market bureau and the entire plan of grading had heen described in detail, the ultimate aims of the bureau outlined and the possibilities of the plan pointed out to him. It may mean that the entire state opposition to the system will disappear.

G. O. Searl, expert optometrist will be at the Hotel Charlevoix, Friday and Saturday, January 4 and 5.

Norwood Red Cross Drive

And still the record grows. If Kaiser Bill has to depend on Norwood township, he will hnve mighty few mourners at his funeral. On Xmns day we found that we had met our quota of 94 in the Red Cross drive. At this writing our record is 111, a surplus of nearly twenty per cent, with more to follow. The most of these joined at public meetings; tha Xmas exercises at Norwood, Epworth and Barnard churches, and a community meeting nt the Norwood town hall, Wednesday evening, December 19. At the Barnsrd church the Norwood and Marion membership lists were kept separate, and Judge F. W. Mayne was tho speaker. At Epworth church, the Hilton and McGea school districts combined their Xmns exercises under the direction of Miss Florence Meggison and Miss Clara Thorsen, the teachers. Other Red Cross memberships, besides those secured at public meetings, were secured by canvassers. All that is necessary is to give our people an opportunity and they will joia the Red Cross. Tho cordial response shows that all wanted a shnre in America's Xmas gift to humanity.

At Atwood, in Baaks township, the Red Cross membership is fifty. These were secured at a community meeting at tha towa hall Tuesday evening, December 18, Judge E. R. Harris snd D. E. Clow of Ellsworth being the speakers; and the list waa greatly increased by privata canvassing. Sarah Klooster secured ten members, with the help of another little girl who went along to say, "It's your duty," to any who hesitated to subscribe. Joseph Sprik of Norwood secured fifteen members.

Special mention should also be made of the loyal work of the men's committee: Geo. Perry, W. H. Mayne, Henry Wagner and Raymond Stafford of Norwood; Henry Elzinga, Wm. Montgomery, Ethan Jolliffa and Guy Empey of Atwood, and Earl Shapton, Ed. Ager, Geo. Block and John Beattie of Barnard. Ed. Cook of the Hilton District has been the "man of all work" in the northern section of Norwood township.

R. C. PARSHALL,
Norwood Township Chairman.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

To our old ouetomers to whom we have extended credit and to others wishing to open an account with us, we take this opportunity to make our position regarding oredit for 1918 plain so that there will be no hard feeling toward us, as we value your trade to the extent of not wishing to do anything that will work a hardship upon any of our customers, but rather to ask you to help us to establieh a better system of trading that will make buying and selling more satisfactory and pleasant for all oonoerned and eventually allow us to sell on a smaller margin of profit, as the loss from bad accounts and the interest on long standing accounts will be eliminated, thereby saving you money.

It comes to us daily that our fellow merchants both retailers and jobbers are finding it necessary to tighten up on credit, such as 30 day dating of bills prevailing in many instanoes where we used to get 60 days, 1% disoount for oaeh instead of 2% in many oases and as a result many retail stores are insisting on spot oash for merohandise.

We are foroed to take the middle oourse and extend oredit only to those who have proven themselves GOOD PAY and to theee we are perfeotly willing to oontinue a line of credit, but we must insist that settlements be made every 30 days and we believe you will all agree with us that the unsettled oondition now exieting and with prices so high that our investment ie necessarily muoh greater, warrants us in following the bent of good merohants elsewhere and the advioe of our best jobbers from whom we buy goods and ask you to help us meet these unnatural oonditions by all of us meeting our obligations monthly, at least, in order that our credit will remain good.

We are establishing a credit department in our offioe and future credit will be based upon the promptness with whioh acoounts are paid.

We send you this notice with the best of intentions and are counting on you as one upon whom we may depend to help us with this plan for a better oredit system, which will mean more money in all of our pockets if followed.

Yours for cleaner business,

Harness, Robes, Blankets, Bells Whips and Horse Goods

Our stock is the largest and of the best quality that can be produced.

The reason of our being overstocked at this time is that we foresaw the radical advance in prices in all materials, and bought and contracted last year for this stock of goods that we are going to give you the benefit of low prices and when I benefit you I also benefit myself by making a great many more sales. To prove this our sales increased over Eleven Thousand dollars last year.

On each set of team harness I will save you $15 to $20, and of Strap work, Robes Blankets, Bells and Whips a saving of 20 per cent.

You cannot doubt this when you consider the advance in leather, wool and cotton.

As I replenish my stock I will be forced to advance prices, so the early buyers will save dollars and dollars saved are dollars earned.

CLOSES AN EVENTFUL YEAR

COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

Starts New Year With Fresh "Pep" and Seventy-five Members— Has Fine Record

The Charlevoix Commercial association, our local organization of retail merchants which, by the way, welcomes to its membership any public-spirited citizen of our community, whether he be merchant or no, held election of officers for the ensuing year at its regular meeting place in the Odd Fellows' club room last Friday evening. The association chose for its president, Mr. J. L. Crane, who has ably performed the duties of that office during the past year. He is to be assisted in the good work of 1918 by Dr. A. A. Swinton, vice president and Mr. Mason Rose, who retains his present office of secretary and treasurer.

Among other important decisions reached at this meeting was the establishment of the ruling that he who wishes to do so may take as many memberships in the association in his own name as he can afford. Extra memberships, however, do not carry additional votes; each member being limited to one vote. The dues are fixed at four dollars a year.

This helpful organization started some two years ago as a retail merchants' association but has since broadened the scope of its activities to include everything looking to the advancement and betterment of the "Best Little City Anywhere," and has even entered successfully into county affairs. Starting with a charter membership of ten, it now numbers seventy-five and it may confidently be expected that many more will enroll themselves to take active part in its constructive work.

A resume of the work furthered and accomplished by the association since its inception two years ago must include such important measures as the recently voted bonding of the county for good roads, making possible the construction at our end of the county of some 20 miles of 16 foot concrete highway. The success of this movement is entirely due to the fact that the association, under the able leadership of George H. Van Pelt, took the initiative and kept the county organized and "on its toes" during a long, trying period of doubt and opposition and the passing of the measure comes as the reward of many months of hard, gratuitious and we might almost say thankless effort, which should alone more than amply justify the existence of the association.

The location here of Chatterton & Sons and the erection of a permanent building to house this industry is also entirely due to the work of the association. It was also a large factor in bringing the new U. S. fish hatchery to Charlevoix, as well as in securing the services of a county agricultural agent, a step which will benefit the county to an extent not now fully realized by most of us. It may also be said here that negotiations have already been entered into by the association which will result in locating the county agency headquarters in this city.

The "Drive Around Pine Lake" signs, which are a direct benefit to our community by keeping travelers in this region are also due to the work of the Commercial association and its efforts lent considerable aid to the creation of a permanent city fund for advertising.

There have, of course, been some criticisms aimed at the association and its work, but it is well to remember in this connection that an organization is just as efficient as its individual members are able and enterprising. Instead of asking, "What have they done?" lets get in the game and ask, "What can we do?" and then watch the dust fly.

GET READY FOR INCOME TAX MAN

WILL BE HERE FEBRUARY ONE TO SIXTEEN

But Few Business Men in City Who Will Escape Paying Income Tax

It will require a small army of men to take the income tax returns of persons subject to the new law. Collector of Internal Revenue, Doyle today announced that 22 officers will start from his headquarters on January 1st and on January 2, every one of them will be on the job in the county assigned him, to meet the people and help them make out their income tax returns. The officer will be in this county on dates and places as follows: Charlevoix, at Court House, February 1, to 16; Boyne City at post office, February 18 to March 1.

"It will be well for every unmarried person whose net income for 1917 is $1,000 or over, and every married person living with wife or husband whose net income for 1917 is $2,000 or over, to call on the income tax man and learn whether or not they have any tax to pay," Collector Doyle said today.

"The person subject to tax who doesn't make return in the time prescribed is going to regret it. The government will get after all income tax slackers.

"There's hardly a business man, merchant, or professional man, who won't have to make return of income. Farmers, as a class, will have to pay the tax. The safe thing to do is for every person who had a total income of $1,000 or $2,000, as the case may be, and who is not sure about what deductions the law allows him, to play it safe by calling on the income tax man.

"The man in the field will have forms for everybody and persons who expect to call on him need not trouble themselves to write to my office for forms."

FORTY COUNTIES FILL FULL QUOTA

750,000 MEMBERS FOR THE RED CROSS

Wayne County Expected to Make Handsome Returns on Drive Soon

Michigan has again met her every obligation in a patriotic activity, and the Christmas drive for members of the American National Red Cross in the state, as a whole, is a big success.

This is the announcement that has come from the state headquarters of the international humanitarian organization which is raising the funds for the aid and comfort of Uncle Sam's fighting men. "We have 402,500 now reported and are going to have more than 750,000 members of the nation has asked us for; and the people of Michigan are to be congratulated on their wonderful work," said Mark T. McKee, campaign director, in a statement announcing the results to date.

"The figures received to date show some mighty interesting things. Up to noon Friday twenty-five of the eighty-three counties of the state had over-subscribed the quotas assigned them, fifteen others have reported all the memberships they were asked to obtain and there are only eight counties which have not reported any figures at all. The showing of the upper peninsula is especially striking. Of the fifteen counties above the Straits of Mackinas, twelve have already reported either their full quotas or over, and three of them are now the leaders of the entire state. Schoolcraft county has a total of 549 per cent of its quota, with 8,785 members on a quota of 1,600. Luce county has reported 4,046 members on a quota of 1,000, or 404 per cent, and Iron county has 9,400 members on a quota of 3,000, or 313 per cent. Two more upper peninsula counties are within easy striking distance of the goal and this will give the northern section a 'batting average' of fourteen out of fifteen counties.

"While Wayne county has no figures available at this time, we are confident that the results in the remainder of the state will be such as to put all of Michigan 'over the top' without any great trouble.

"It looks now as though Schoolcraft and Luce counties would have to 'fight it out' for the silk banner offered by Mrs. Albert E. Sleeper, wife of the governor, to the chapter enrolling the largest percentage of 1918 memberships, according to population. Today's figures show only a fraction of one per cent separating the two."

Friends Celebrate Birthday Anniversary Tuesday

Floyd Jeffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jeffrey was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening, at his home at 1212 State street, by a party of fourteen of his young friends, the occasion being "Jeff's" fourteenth birthday.

The usual cake garnished with the proper number of candles, furnished a center of attraction for the young folks who thoroughly enjoyed it as well as the nice supper that was served.

WOULD DRAFT OLDER MEN

CROWDER WANTS THOSE UP TO FORTY YEARS

Provost Marshal General Would Not Confine War Service to One Generation

Increasing the draft age from thirty-one to forty or forty-five years is one of the "probabilities of the future," according to Provost Marshal General Crowder in his comprehensive report to the secretary of war.

The draft of the older men should be mainly for skilled war labor, but also to distribute the burdens of the war.

There are plenty of young men for the first line fighting. Crowder has shown, but he also points out there is a danger of injuring the coming generation by taking away too many of the "aggressively patriotic young men."

Forty thousand real slackers in the United States is Provost Marshal General Crowder's estimate in his report. That calculation supposes that ten men in each registration district have escaped service without being caught.

While a few more than 250,000 of the more than 3,000,000 registered men failed to appear when called for examination General Crowder estimates that 85,000 of them have gone into military service without notifying local boards. "This leaves more than 150,000 to be accounted for," says the provost marshal general. "Were they all slackers?"

General Crowder answers his own question by estimating that they probably are not real slackers because 10,000 probably are aliens. This, he estimates, leaves about 50,000 real slackers to be accounted for. Only a few more than 16,000 have been identified and a few more than 2,000 have been prosecuted.

The report shows that 928 Germans of draft age have been accepted for service in the national army. A total of 14,161 enemy aliens were accepted, the remainder being Austrians or Hungarians. The enemy alien registration was 279,431, of whom 104,672 were called to produce the 14,161 accepted. All aliens accepted make a total of 76,545.

WILL COOPER DIED THURSDAY

PASSED AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Severe Fall From Ladder Four Years Ago Caused Rapid Failure of Health

William H. Cooper, who died at his home on Mason street Thursday of last week from the effects of uraemic poisoning, was born in Woodstock, Canada, on March 1, 1864. The family moved to Michigan in 1866 and settled in Dexter, Washtenaw county, coming to Charlevoix in 1880, where Mr. Cooper was married to Henriotta Ross in 1887.

To this union, seven children were born, all of whom are now living. The daughters are Reba, Hilda and Marva and the sons Franklin, Ariel and Theodore, all of this city. Another son, Harry K. is married and lives in Racine, Wis. On account of the severe snow blocade, he was unable to be present at the funeral, which was held from the Congregational church last Monday, Rev. C. E. Taggart preaching the funeral sermon.

Besides his children and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. Cooper is survived by his sisters, Mrs. George Beeman, Mrs. Fessenden and Miss Minnie Cooper, of this city and two brothers, R. J. Cooper of Kalkaska and O. A. Cooper, of Grand Haven. The remains were laid to rest in Brookside cemetery.

About four years ago in October, it will be remembered, Mr. Cooper suffered a severe fall from a ladder while painting on the Carpenter building on Bridge street and was unable to leave his bed for many weeks. He partially recovered his health, but about a year ago he had a stroke of paralysis and has failed rapidly ever since. It is thought that the accident contributed materially to his decline and death.

SHOULD BE NO LET-UP IN COROWOOD CUTTING

Need Next Season for Dry Fuel Will Be as Great as at Present

Foresighted farmers who have woodlots capable of supplying cordwood should take time by the forelock, in the opinion of A. K. Chittenden, head of the department of forestry at M. A. C., and make ready now to meet 1918's fuel demands.

"The unusually heavy drain this season upon the available supply of dry cordwood means that much of this will be cleaned up this winter," says Professor Chittenden, "and if events follow their wonted course, this will bring about a shortage in 1919. Men who have woodlots from which cordwood can be obtained, and who have as well the labor necessary for cutting it, would do well to get out as large a supply as possible now. This green wood, if dried during the coming year, will stand the state in good stead in 1919."

MRS. J. L. SEBRING IS DEAD

FOR FORTY YEARS A RESORTER HERE

End Comes After Brief Illness At Kalamazoo Home—Was Nearly 70 Years of Age

Mrs. James Leroy Sebring, aged nearly 70 years and one of Kalamazoo's well known and widely respected citizens, died New Year's evening at 6:50 o'clock at her residence, 405 West South street, Kalamazoo. Her last and fatal illness was brief. She was able to be out Saturday, but on Sunday suffered an attack of angina pectoris. Her condition improved and she was much better last Tuesday until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon when a second attack caused her to sink rapidly and she died in less than three hours.

Mrs. Sebring was a resident of Kalamazoo over 50 years and during the active period of her life was prominent in the social life of the city. She was devoted to her home and the Sebring house has been the scene of many delightful social affairs that made Kalamazoo famous in the days gone by. Mrs. Sebring had spent her summers on the Belvedere resort for over forty years and was well known and much liked in this community.

She was born Juliet, daughter of John W. and Sarah Maria Sweet of Palmyra, N. Y., May 9, 1848. She was married to James Leroy Sebring in Kalamazoo, October 16, 1866. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Winifred S. Clark, Mrs. John R. Hunter, and Mrs. J. G. Chase all of Kalamazoo; also two grandchildren, Lieut. Ralph Sebring Clark and Juliet S. Chase.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late residence, Kalamazoo. Father Ivins, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church will officiate. The burial will be at Mountain Home cemetery and private. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

TEAM SHIES AT SCARED COW

HORSES TOBOGGAN DOWN "DIP OF DEATH"

Nothing Smashed—No One Hurt—Feat Only Little Short of a Miracle

Homer Brady had one of Hooker's teams up on the south hill yesterday afternoon at about half past one and left it unhitched in front of his brother's place on Upright avenue, between State and Bridge streets, while he went into the barn back of the house to get a cow which he intended to lead behind the rig to the slaughter house near Wakefield's place on the state road. While driving the animal across the yard, she got one of her hoofs caught in an old gasoline stove that lay there on the ground and becoming frightened, started to bellow and plunged, kicking up her heels, in the direction of the team.

The horses, hitched to a three seated sleigh, suddenly took fright at the commotion and bolted, turning the corner into State street. Down the hill they went, across Antrim, Mason and Clinton and on towards Park avenue. Between Clinton and Park, stood a horse and cutter, also unhitched. As the flying team passed him, Dobbin gave them the "once over" and then he too bolted.

When they reached Park avenue, the maddened horses were travelling too fast to check themselves. Through the yard between the Bedford and Hammett place and up the steep hill and then—well, the bank drops away here almost sheer for fifty feet to the old lighthouse pier below. Did they stop? Not they. Down they went, the sleigh almost perpendicularly on end behind them until they landed in a heap at the bottom. And then one of the runaways tried to climb the sill of the pier and get into the channel, but quick work on the part of a few who were near enough to be on the job saved further catastrophe and they were quieted and led out of their predicament.

Although the sleigh contained quite and assortment of butchers' tools, nothing dropped out but a knife, which was picked up later along the road. Casualties none and nothing broken but a single rein. Who says we never have any excitement in the winter time?

SNOWFALL HEAVY

Entire Country Is Buried In the "Beautiful"

The middle west is a great white desert today. The heaviest snowfall on record has been hurled by a mile a minute gale into huge drifts, twelve to fifteen feet deep. Traffic is paralyzed and business in this region is practically at a standstill. The weather bureau reports a snowfall of thirteen and one half inches on the level today on top of four and one-half inches previously fallen.

Reports from Grand Rapids and points both north and south of that city indicate that Charlevoix's storm was a mere summer shower compared with what was handed out farther south. Twelve to sixteen inches of snow is reported, while train service in the south part of the state was put completely out of business by the storm.

American Girls Trio

The American Girls Trio is made up of three talented young women, who have already delighted the Charlevoix entertainment course patrons, under the title of the Military Girls. Their program is now entirely changed, and up to date. The program which they will present at the opera house, January 14, at 8 p. m., includes saxaphone and banjo trios, vocal numbers, solos on a variety of instruments, readings and character songs in costume.

"Their selections, teeming with wit, humor and pathos, are rendered with such a dash of spirit and warmth of heart, that the emotions are kept constantly changing through it all. The audience goes home richer in soul and body, because both the mental and physical powers are inspired and purified."

SALTS IF BACKACHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink.

Another young man of Hayes left for Camp Custer last Friday. Several of his nearest neighbors surprised him Thursday evening. There was a note of sadness in his going, as it leaves his father alone to "keep the home fires burning."

Is there food for thought or thought for food in the following extract from an article in the Michigan Patron. Dr. Harvey N. Wiley, noted food expert and Dr. J. H. Kellogg of the famous Battle Creek Sanitarium, both say that the skin of the potato contains mineral salts necessary to health and is more valuable as a food than the inside of the potatoes. These mineral salts purify the blood and yet many farm women go to the trouble of peeling the potatoes and giving the peelings to the hogs. The writer of the above has eaten the skin of the potato for 30 years (both baked and boiled) and enjoys exceptional health." We can only add we hope the potatoes were riper than some raised in Hayes the past year and always baked.

SERVE U. S. AS AN INSPECTOR

TECHNICALLY TRAINED MEN ARE NOW NEEDED

To Inspect Meterials of War During Manufecture for Signal Corps —No Age Limit

Today Charlevoix is called upon by the Chicago Inspection Section of the Equipment Division, United States Signal Corps, to list all technically qualified men, capable and willing to act as expert inspectors of the Signal Corps equipment.

In an interview with Mr. Mason H. Rose, at the post office, local branch chairman of the Military Training Camps Association, we learn that he has received a notification from the War Department, together with application blanks and all information concerning this opportunity for service.

This section of the War Department is really a vast engineering body organized to conduct inspections of Signal Corps Equipment during manufacture so as to maintain the high standard demanded for our troops. The importance of this expert work cannot be over-estimated.

As an illustration of the variety of inspections that are required, the following table of materials for one airplane, exclusive of the engine, is a good example:

Nails	4,326
Screws	3,377
Steel Stampings	921
Forgings	798
Turnbuckles	276
Veneer, square feet	57
Wire, feet	3,262
Varnish, gallons	11
Dope gallons	59
Aluminum, pounds	65
Rubber, feet	34
Linen, square yards	201
Spruce, feet	244
Pine, feet	58
Ash, feet	31
Hickory, feet	1½

Guarding Against Sabotage

The lives of our whole fighting forces depend upon the perfect and adequate production of all signal equipment, including airplanes and radio telephone and telegraph systems. There is probably no place where defect in material would bring greater disaster than in an airplane, or in the equipment which transmits orders for advances or reinforcements or directs the artillery fire of our fighting forces. Production must be speeded up so that our armies can be equipped with every technical instrument that will help save the lives of our soldiers.

The Kind of Men Wanted

The Signal Corps is looking for the type of men who are technically and practically trained along mechanical, electrical, wood working and textile lines. There is no age limit to men who will do this inspection, although older men with the greatest practical experience will be given preference. Inspectors retain their civilian status, receiving salaries ranging from $1200.00 to $1800.00 per year.

Application blanks and information may be had from Mr. Mason H. Rose local branch chairman of the Military Training Camps Association at the Charlevoix post office.

THE PUBLIC PULSE

"A Test of Democracy"

The American people are testing democracy. The Charlevoix citizens are asked to test democracy. In an autocracy you are compelled to come across with plans that seem nationally essential. In a democracy, you are asked to work for the general welfare. But autocracy or democracy, the ultimate aim must be accomplished. The people must perform. Food conservation in every household must be practised. The wheatless, meatless, porkless days must be observed, or democracy is a failure. The American people believe in their government, therefore let them do its bidding. Act for the general welfare, prove their faith by their works. Since wheatless and meatless days were inaugurated six weeks ago, Americans have saved 312,000,000 pounds of wheat, 180,000,000 pounds of meat, 240,000,000 pounds of sugar and 48,000,000 pounds of fats. Mr. Hoover has succeeded in putting it graphically. He has shown us by economizing in sugar may help us to win the war. If 500 of us can save seven pounds of sugar next year, we can send a soldier to the front. If the whole nation can save seven pounds of sugar apiece, we can send 200,000 men across to fight American's battle. This means using one lump in place of two. Refusing candy now and then. Let us therefore, highly resolve, that the great sacrifice, of money and food and noble sons shall not be in vain. Let us make the world safe for democracy by keeping the wheat bin closed on Tuesday, the meat box locked on Wednesday, making the pig safe on Saturday, the cover on the sugar bowl all the time. Charlevoix, you must do your bit, and show your belief in democracy.

A "Four Minute Man."

LETTER A MOST NOTABLE ONE

The Marquette Mining Journal So Terms Osborn's Announcement

Thu following editorial is taken from the Marquette Mining Journal:

"In announcing his candidacy for the United States senate, Chase S. Osborn of the Soo has written a letter that will occasion keen satisfaction among his friends and will be disconcerting to those of his opponents who have cherished the view that he was in the grip of temperamental extravagances that would, from the beginning, heavily handicap his ambition to fill the high office he seeks.

"An immediate impression from Mr. Osborn's letter is the one of frankness. He uses language not to conceal thought, but to reveal it. He touches on many matters of vital interest and in each instance makes clear his position and what the electorate can expect from him if he is sent to the senate. Matters that he has not dwelt on he will take up explicitly as occasion may arise.

"Equally marked is the fine tone of his paper, which expresses in atmosphere, rather than word, conviction that the senatorial canvass in Michigan in 1918 must differ from all its predecessors in that it must take cognizance of America's new estate in the world, its prospective duties and the manner in which it must set about meeting them.

"In sound patriotism the letter is a notable one. There is pledge of earnest support of the administration, insistence of undivided loyalty and a demand that it be exacted. For resolution in war to the end that a just and equitable peace may be attained there is emphatic declaration. In all its declarations to the war the letter is sound to the core. It typifies all that is best in the attitude of our most cherished public men. It expresses the spirit that should animate every breast.

"Paragraphs there are that indicate breadth of vision and matured thought on our new problems that could only have come from careful, analytical attention to the great events of the times, coupled with a frank realization that the world after the war will not be the world we know before the war, and that there is a sacred call on all public men to give their ripest thought to how the essential readjustment best may be to fit into the fabric of American government and American institutions.

"If, as will doubtless be the case, Mr. Osborn's campaign utterances amplify and develop the subject matter of his letter, and if, as again will doubtless be the case, they are maintained on the same high plane, Mr. Osborn will contribute mightily to an increased public enlightenment. His letter at once points his candidacy as a vital one, worthy of the thoughtful consideration of all Michigan voters, irrespective of how they may have been disposed toward him in the past."

EXEMPTION PROBLEMS

Few people realize what a big problem is put up to every exemption board in the cases of men working on industries vital to the war. Where will a man do the most good, as a soldier, or in making supplies for soldiers?

Many people encouraged their boys to go on farms in hopes of exemption. They pretentiously announce to their friends that the boys have entered the service of their country in the cause of agriculture.

The boys however may know aothing about farming, and can scarcely work half a day without getting their hands all blisters. They are probably not worth as much as some raw boaed Pole just over from the old country. Such excuses are not likely to count much. But a more difficult problem is created by many farmer's sons. Their energy and ability may be worth a good deal more producing food for soldiers than in fighting themselves. It is complained that many exemption boards have drawn the line too strictly. Many men have been taken out of shops when their places could not be filled, or only after long delay and war supplies have been delayed.

Many employers want to keep on making money and hate to see useful employees leave. They may exaggerate the injury to production that would be caused by their departure. The men themselves probably do not undervalue their own importance. It is natural that the boards should want to be "shown." It is of course the simplest way for them to enforce the law rigidly, and this lets them out of the charge of favoritism. When a man is doing work vitally necessary to the war machine, that is probably the place where he can serve his country the best. There is need for fearless and intelligent discrimination in each case. It will sometimes happen that the man who claims the exemption the most earnestly, is least entitled to it, and vice versa.

THE BIGGEST OF ALL GAMBLES

The biggest gambling game in this country is not in Wall street or in the Chicago pit. The biggest gambling game is farming, and it goes on night and day, the year 'round, with more and greater odds against the better than has any other game.

The farmer bets his time, money, labor and life against the weather, insect pests, trusts and storage sharks and if he wins against these odds, he, very likely, must overcome railroad blocades, or rate pools.

But, unless the farmer risks these odds, gambles with the cards always being shuffled and dealt by somebody else, everything stops. Government cannot go on. No such important governmental business as war can go on.

This being true, it follows that the country's greatest concern should be that the farmer win his bet. Government should see to it that he has money on easy terms, seed in plenty and the necessary tools, especially tractors and other devices for producing much at the minimum outlay of labor.

During the past year our whole country was stirred to the duty of producing foodstuffs. Millions of people became actual producers who had never before produced enough to keep a chicken in good condition. The total was something remarkable, but we've got to do better, the coming season, and we will.

But while the farmer gambler won, in the past year, against unnatural odds, there was one odd that prevailed against us, to a sad, discouraging, wasteful extent — transportation blockade. We had the food but could not deliver it where it would do the most good.

Get your seed! Polish up the plow, the hoe and the spade! Uncle Sam has the railroads. What you grow will move, not go to rot. The odds against you have been cut down in great shape!

Taking over the railroads to meet war exigencies looks like settling down for a long session with the kaiser.

Gen. Sharpe bared an $400,000 grab on army work. That's because he was sharp.

Mr. Beddow, who has been teaching in the junior high school here for the past year and a half, left Thursday to enlist in the aviation corps.

—o—

The first semester of English IV has been devoted to the study of the development of the drama. Shakespeare's "Macbeth" formed the basis of study and was followed by reports on many other tragedies and comedies. After reading Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer," the remainder of the semester will be spent in the consideration of the best modern dramatists and their works.

—o—

Ralph Craig, who has been substituting for Mr. Beecher in the science department, has decided to continue teaching for the remainder of the semester.

—o—

Two of our old C. H. S. friends are back in school again—Lila Genett has taken Mr. Beddow's place as teacher in junior high and Bess Hammett is taking up senior work. "Funny" Cartier is delighted with the seat Bess chose in the assembly.

—o—

Charlevoix high school has again shown its patriotism by adding another "less" day. Its to be "sleepless day" and although we haven't decided on any special day, most students seem to prefer Saturday.

—o—

We overheard an argument between Bob O'Neill and Ken Widdifield the other day as to the superiority of the Irish and the English. Bob must have had the better of it as Ken is wearing a bright green sweater now.

—o—

"Bun" Bartlett (very dreamily, from back seat in history class) "Miss Wells, could you please tell me what year the ordinance of 1787 was written?"

—o—

Kitty Harsha's new war recipe for cookies: Mix thoroughly one cup of violet talcum powder, 1-2 cup rosin and 1-2 cup massage cream. Moisten with a little hair tonic, carefully strained and bake in oven to 36 1-6 degrees. For flavoring, add rose perfume, according to taste. To remove from pan, strike a few blows with heavy hammers on the bottom of the pan. Send comments to Mme. K. Harsha.

Loomis—"Butler, why are you late?"

Butler—"I was stopped and robbed on my way to school this morning."

Loomis—"What, held up and robbed in broad daylight?"

Butler—(very confused) "I—er—I was—er—held up—by a freight train at the crossing."

The tower still has "'17" adorning her side, although the "'19" bunch made some hard attempts to affix their monogram. The seniors, after losing their boldest member, have satisfied themselves with painting "'18" upon the backs of the "Drive Slow" signs.

—o—

Doing in senior domestic science class: We have just discovered why Beatrice Harrington and Hazel Allen have been absent for the past three days. Upon having Dr. Armstrong make an analysis of some bread, made and eaten by this class, it was found to contain a piece of sapolio, a small cake of which must have been mistaken for yeast.

—o—

Ken Usher has asked for an old sock day. We privately think that Ken must use one foot more than the other when he stands making his daily talk to the teachers.

—o—

As the faculty would not permit us to subject the innocent freshies to a bath at the beginning of the year and would not permit any hazing, it is no fault of ours that the freshmen are observed to go whistling about the halls with their caps on, talk back to their teachers and upper classmen, wear loud and flashy neckties, talk out loud, click their heels when they walk, wear fancy sport socks, etc.

—o—

One of our C. H. S. girls in sending a pair of socks to the soldiers, enclosed her name on a card, stating that she wished to hear from the recipient. Here is the answer she received:

"The socks received; they almost fit.

"I wear one for a helmet and one for a mitt;

"I hope to meet you when I've done my bit,

"But where in———did you learn to knit?"

To Our Customers

To our old customers to whom we have extended credit, and to new customers who may ask for credit, we desire to make plain our position regarding the handling of our business during the year 1918.

Business conditions are abnormal; all current expenses have increased from 25 to 50 per cent. Merchants demand either cash or limit us to 30 days credit. The coal man demands his money in advance or as soon as the coal is delivered—and we consume tons of it during a season. Seemingly everyone is demanding CASH in advance. We cannot meet these demands and do a credit business. If we should continue to extend credit to everyone, we might as well close our doors. We are placing the situation squarely before you and in the future are forced to demand cash for our products. Please remember this—your orders will be delivered with the same care and promptness as heretofore—but have the amount due us ready when the order is delivered. Otherwise you may be disappointed.

We are forced to take these drastic steps by existing conditions which have affected all lines of business and hope our customers will willingly comply with our request.

Mrs. J. H. Bancroft of East Jordan arrived last week to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, at the court house. Mr. Bancroft accompanied her, but returned to his work at the East Jordan Lumber Co.'s camp Friday.

Captains Weaver, Wilbur, Finnagan, and John O'Neill, Jr., recently received from the U. S. Shipping Board a request to register with the board their qualifications and availability for service in the new merchant marine, as a large number of vessels are to be placed in the coastwise service this year and the demand for competent masters is great. All the above named gentlemen, we understand, have freely offered their services to the government.

The popular demand for the NASH six can be explained by the wonderful performance of the NASH Perfected Valve-in-head motor, which is more powerful than any motor of its size and delivers its greatest power at average driving speeds.

In addition to this there is the long, low, graceful, roomy NASH built body hung on a chassis of 121 inch wheelbase; a body built for comfort in long tours or on short business trips.

The comfort possible in the NASH is a surprise, the economy of gasoline and tires a greater surprise, but most of all the wonderful power, flexibility and ease of handling under all conditions makes the NASH a very desirable car to drive and own.

The NASH line is on display at our salesroom at the corner of Bridge and Mason Streets. We'll be glad to see you at any time.

PLAIN QUESTIONS TO CHARLEVOIX PEOPLE

Every Charlevoix Reader Will Admit the Soundness of the Logic

Would Charlevoix people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they do if the medicine were not reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years have elapsed if their experiences did not show the remedy to be deserving of it? Statements like the following must carry conviction to the mind of every reader:

Mrs. John Hull, 102 W. Lincoln Ave., Charlevoix, says: "I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for they have done me worlds of good. I suffered from an attack of lumbago. I tried various remedies but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time they entirely removed the trouble. Not long ago my back and kidneys troubled me again but Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief promptly."

FIVE YEARS LATER Mrs. Hull said: "I can speak just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills as I did when I recommended them before. I use this medicine occasionally and it keeps my back and kidneys in good condition."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hull had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Sam says there is a fine bunch of men, both enlisted men and officers, and every one is used fine who deserves to be.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The Spirit of '18

This world, it is a funny place; with all its modes of life.
It's full of pleasures, cares and woes; it's full of toils and strife
Our forefathers fought in '76, and gave their lives, so free,
But now it's up to us, boys, to maintain that Liberty.
Remember how they risked their lives How they crossed the Delaware?
How fierce they fought at Bunker Hill, and faced the Red-Coat's fire?
But warfare's a whole lot different now, as all of you have read;
Instead of facing musket balls, it's shrapnel shells, instead.

Now if you'll look the Bible o'er, you will see just where it warns
Of the wicked beast that rules the sea, it has ten heads and seven horns.
So we're up against it strong boys; we're fighting to be free.
It is an cinch to protect our flag, and preserve democracy.
They've shipped us far from submarines, the pest of all the seas;
They've got us here in Waco, among the dust and fleas.
And they promised us a trip to France, we hope 'twill not be long,
Oh, when we board that transport, we'll be a happy throng.

We want to reach the western front, with victory as our word.
We're bound to smash the kaiser's lines and foil von Hindenburg.
We also want to do our "bit," we're not in it for fame.
But I'll bet we'll make the kaiser weep and bow his head in shame.
He's murdered innocent Belgians, both woman, child and man,
But he'll drink his swill from an old swine's trough, when he tackles Uncle Sam.
So leave it to us now, kind folks; fear not when you're alone.
You'll be darned proud of your soldier sons, when we come marching home.
And jot this down while it's on your mind, we'll go forward without fear,
And if we're shot 'twill be in front, 'twill not be in the rear.
We've got to "buck" that deadly gas, that the Germans send along.
But I'll bet you folks my next month's pay, we'll return it twice as strong;
So now you folks can do your bit, just write a little news,
It helps to brace us up you know, and drive away the blues.
We've sacrificed our jobs and home, sweet home, to get into this war,
So cheer up, mother; wear a smile; it's you we're fighting for.

HISTORY OF BUSINESS FIRMS

OF GREAT INTEREST TO COURIER READERS

Short Resume History of Klooster & Son and the Weiss Department Store

The big general store run by Klooster & Son is another institution of which Ellsworth may well be proud.

The building was erected in 1892 by the Pine Lake Iron Co., of Ironton and E. R. Harris was the first manager, taking charge of the store at its opening on December 1, 1892. Mr. Harris remained manager until April 1, 1893, when he resigned to take the position of secretary and treasurer of the Ellsworth Lumber Co.

The store under the ownership of the Iron Co. traveled along with indifferent success for about two or three years when they failed, F. H. Skow buying the building and stock from the receivers.

Mr. Skow conducted a general store until about eight years ago, when he sold out to George and Henry Klooster of Fremont, Michigan. After one year in partnership, Geo. Klooster & Son took over the entire control, and under the firm name of Klooster & Son have continued business since.

This is one of the largest general stores in northern Michigan and is run in a thoroughly businesslike manner, Mr. Klooster having the interests of his patrons in mind at all times, and under his efficient management is enjoying the largest business of its varied career.

The building occupied by the Weiss Department store was erected in 1900 by M. Struik, who handled a line of general merchandise until about six years ago when he sold his stock and fixtures to W. Weiss of East Jordan. Mr. Weiss had been running a store at East Jordan for some time and brought up-to-date methods into his Ellsworth store, with the result that the change in ownership caused an immediate pick-up in business.

The store, under the new management, started with a small stock, but the stock has increased with the growing demand until at present it ranks among the leaders in the village.

The intention of the management is to buy anything and everything from farmers in the produce line except grain, and to pay the highest market price, and at the same time to handle for the trade a first class line of general merchandise to be sold at a legitimate profit, and the slogan "prompt service and courteous treatment" is nowhere in the country carried out more fully than at the Weiss Department Store.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

DASHEEN A TUBER MUCH LIKE POTATO

The dasheen, a root crop introduced into this country from Trinidad within recent years by the United States department of agriculture, is now grown by a considerable number of farmers and truckers in the south and promises to become a valuable member of the group of domestic vegetables, such as the potato, which furnish starchy foods. The dasheen is itself primarily a tropical plant. It can be grown successfully, however, not only in the warmer portions of Florida, but in other sections of the south as far north as South Carolina. The edible portion of the plant includes a large central corm and a number of tubers, of much smaller size, attached to and around the corm.

In food value the dasheen is comparable to the potato, though it contains a small proportion of water and a greater proportion of protein, starch and sugar than the latter. The new vegetable may be prepared for the table as potatoes usually are or may be made into flour and used in baking.

The dasheen is grown from whole tubers weighing a few ounces. They require a frostless season of at least seven months with plenty of moisture. A moist but well drained, rich, sandy loam has been found to be satisfactory soil for dasheen culture. A large proportion of either clay or muck in the soil produces strong flavored, tough corms which are often unfit for table use. Large crops are produced under such conditions, however, and make excellent stock feed.

The crop is planted in February in southern Florida and as late as the early part of April in South Carolina. The plants are spaced about 3½ by 3½ feet. Dasheens may be dug for home use by the middle of September, and the main crop can be harvested at any time after the last of October.

Ration For Sows.

In districts where corn is plentiful there is a temptation to feed sows almost exclusively upon corn. Such a method of feeding cannot give the best results. Many farmers and breeders will not appreciate this. It is also rather too fattening and heating to feed in large quantities to a sow during gestation. A ration of equal parts ground corn, ground oats and wheat middlings, with a supplement of tankage, linseed meal or skimmilk, is a good one.

In modern war it now costs on the average about $15,000 to kill a man. In the Boer war this expense ran up to nearly $40,000.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

Be very careful in the selection of the sire for your pigs. Use the best pure bred of your desired breed within reach. Good blood goes a long way to make for success in litters.

Study your horses. Some require more roughage than others to keep them in condition.

Keep the ewes very thrifty by watchful, careful feeding.

Be sure that your ewes do not crowd through narrow doors. Crowding or jamming may kill an unborn lamb and possibly the ewe.

If a pig has a cough give it some oilmeal in its feed. Oilmeal is a laxative, and it will often help a slight cold.

Keep the colts well bedded and clean. A magure laden colt is a rebuke to its owner.

WILL WRITE FROM BERLIN

SUCH IS STATEMENT OF PRIVATE DOUGLAS SMITH

Now Stationed at Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas—Work Handicapped by Cold Weather

"Will write next from Berlin," says Douglas Smith, well known in Ellsworth and vicinity, now stationed at Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas. "Doug" writes an interesting letter, and states the boys extended the hand of welcome to Ruel Chelles, when he re-entered the army. The letter follows:

Hadquarters Co., 125th Inf., U. S. N. G.

Camp MacArthur,
Waco, Texas, Dec. 30, 1917

"Friend Ely—It will soon be the first of the new year, so I guess I will write you a few lines just for old times' sake. You know I always try to write at least one time a year.

"At last Ruel Chelles is back with us and it is glad we are to have him. I always thought he would not stay away from the old outfit very long. His old 'side-kick,' Frank Akins, is wearing a happy smile again. Ruel says that he is glad to get back in the army, but he is rather worried about some of the dear little girls back home. I am trying at all times to put his mind at rest on that score, though I really think that he is as good a soldier as he was before.

"Say Art, they say that it is cold in Michigan. Well, it isn't so hot here that we are suffering with the heat. We have had nearly zero weather for all the past week and it only rains every five years.

"We are due to leave here soon, but we do not know just when and don't care as long as we go.

"We have had a very hard course of training since we have been here and expect to get it harder when we get over there. Someone has to do it so we are not kicking. We use modern methods in everything. We have plenty to eat, clothing to wear, and our treatment is good. Really we haven't any cause to complain.

"I guess Ruel is writing you a letter, but you must not believe all he tells you. I will write to you again from Berlin and let you know how the cabbage crop is coming. I think that this is about all you can stand for one time, so will close."

Your friend,
DOUGLAS SMITH.

J. Leahy the optometrist will be in Ellsworth Tuesday afternoon, January 22, until Wednesday noon 1t2.

Herman Drenth was at his home for a short time Sunday.

The Dekkenga family visited at the Fielstra home New Year's day.

New Year's has begun. Hope everybody will have good luck this year.

Some of the children did not know that there was school last Monday, and there were only seven there.

Miss Bessie Prince was at the Jones home near Norwood a week and a half, and returned again Sunday.

Silage Keeps Two Years.

Referring to silage carried over from one year to another, M. N. Nathaalei of Henderson county, Ill., reports in the Drovers' Telegram that he had silage left in the spring of 1914 which he fed out in the early months of 1916. The only waste was a thin crust on top. "The silage was just as good as though it had been put in a few months previously," he said. "This is one of the great advantages of this feed."

ATWOOD SECTION

Maurice Henry has been hauling wood from Eastport the past week.

A number of the farmers delivered cattle and calves to a cattle buyer from Charlevoix last week.

The L. A. S. of the Christian Reformed church met with Mrs. Louis Veenstra last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. W. Hartwell is gaining rather slowly, although she shows some improvement for the better.

Wm. Hoffman and M. Richardson have bought a piece of standing wood timber of G. Stoel of Antrim.

Louis Mareus has taken charge of the janitor work in the Holland church, taking the place of John Berens who resigned.

Simon Bos left Camp Merritt, New Jersey, last week, destination unknown. It is thought by his parents he is on his way to Europe.

The school board have finally succeeded in securing a teacher for the balance of the year. She is Mrs. W. Patterson, from Ellsworth and will board at the Maurice Henry home.

The Misses Rose and Mary Groenink spent New Year's day at the home of their sister, Mrs. Maurice Henry. They attended the entertainment and social at the Holland church in the evening.

Joe Hoffman was in this neighborhood last week bidding his friends and relatives farewell. This is the third time Joe has done this, expecting to go to Camp Custer. Wonder if he'll make it this time?

Not very strict attention is being paid to the postoffice addresses of the registrants in this district. John Bos has his notice of classification and it bears three postmarks. It went to Ellsworth and Charlevoix before reaching the Central Lake P. O. Henry Petter has not received his questionnaire yet on account of its being misdirected.

We have been hearing reports all fall about bean threshers coming to Atwood, but haven't seen them yet. Last week we heard three different machines were coming this week and now it doesn't make a great deal of difference whether we thresh or not as we are not able to market them at present. And then folks wonder why a farmer drinks (water of course.)

An especially well rendered program was enjoyed by those attending the entertainment and social given by the Young People's society of the Christian Reformed church, New Year'a evening. A large number were present from Ellsworth and vicinity also from Maple Villa or the Breezy Side of Banks. The church was filled to its utmost, a great many having to stand in the aisles. After the entertainment a lap supper was served in the town hall by the members of the society and needless to say was enjoyed by all.

We are in receipt of a letter from Ruel Chelles with the request to have it published and hope it may instill a little of its spirit in us, it follows:

To the School Board and People of Atwood—Regardless of how it seemed, I was very sorry to leave your community. I was very much attached to the pupils and always enjoyed myself when in the district. But, feeling it my duty to fight for World Democracy and to help stop the murderous deeds of our enemy, there was no alternative.

"I think the following words quite fitting: 'A man's first duty is to the God that made him, next to the country that bore him, then to his family, his neighbor and himself. He is but one of the many that constitute a nation, but a single atom of the whole. If our country goes on to higher achievement, to greater prosperity, to grander accomplishments in all that pertains to civilization, we will be a part and parcel thereof; consequently we owe it our best and most earnest efforts.'

"Some of the pupils learned the following by Sir Walter Scott, and I hope you all will, as well as many other patriotic pieces:

'Breathes there a man with soul so dead
'Who never to himself hath said,
'This is mine own, my native land.
'Whose heart within him ne'er hath burned
'As home his footsteps he has turned
'From wandering on a foreign strand.
'If such there breathe, go mark him well
'For him no minstrel raptures swell
'High though his titles, proud his name
'Boundless his wealth as wish can claim
'Despite those riches, power and pelf
'The wretch concentered all in self
'Living, shall forfeit fair renown
'And doubly dying shall go down
'To the vile depths from whence he sprug
'Unwept, unhonored and unsung.'

"Hoping everying one around Atwood does their share in contributing to the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A., and that those who are able to wield a weapon, get into the game, I am,

"Yours most respectfully,
"RUEL CHELLIS."

CLAIMS FARMERS ARE DOING THEIR SHARE

Agricultural Agents Aver They are Carrying Share of War Burdens

A rank injustice has been done the farmers of Michigan by charges made in many quarters that dwellers in the country are not buying their fair share of Liberty bonds and contributing to the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. as liberally as they should in the opinion of the county agricultural agents of the state. The agents in a joint statement issued by them through the Michigan Agricultural college, declare that farmers are almost without exception contributing both time and money, and giving a whole-hearted moral support to the administration that has been too little recognized by urban citizens.

"Many farmers feel," the statement sets forth, "that they have been maligned, especially by a part of the city press. It has been variously alleged by some of these that the farmer has left much undone. A short while back it was charged that the farmer was not buying Liberty bonds. The facts are otherwise.

"It is a fact that farmers will be out of wheat long before the harvest, but notwithstanding that known situation, it is being claimed that the countryman is holding back his grain.

"The farmers of Michigan, as the farmers of the nation have always done, are giving their sons and their savings to the cause. The first American soldier killed in France was a country boy.

"The city man should see his country brother as he is. He should carp less and co-operate more, to the end that misunderstandings shall be cleared away and mutual appreciation of effort prevail."

FLOUR AND SUGAR LIMITED

WHAT RETAILER SHOULD SELL PRESCRIBED

Advertising to Increase Individual Purchases Declared Unpatriotic Action

The following instructions recently issued to state food administrators by national "food boss," Hoover, while of especial interest to the miller and retailer, yet concern all of us so closely that all should read them. Designed to protect and conserve the two vital commodities—flour and sugar; it is to be urged upon the producer and middleman by administrators in their respective districts that:

SUGAR be sold in towns and cities to consumers in two to five pound quantities; to farm and rural customers in five to ten pound quantities; and that

FLOUR be sold in towns and cities in eighth to quarter barrel quantities; in rural and farm communities in quarter to half barrel quantities.

It is also pointed out that any advertisement tending to induce consumers to increase their purchases of flour or sugar during the present national crisis would be decidedly against public policy, and it is desired to impress this fact upon retailers everywhere as well as to secure the co-operation of the press in turning down such advertising whenever it is offered to it.

Some mills have already instructed grocers that sales should be limited to sixty days supply, but the above instructions supersede all previous rulings. Retailers should note the fact that publication of the above in the state and county press is probably all the notice that they will receive of the new rulings and the foregoing should be considered as official notice of the same as it is published at the request of the Food administration.

BAD FIRE AT BOYNE CITY

Dwelling House of Moxie Spangleburg Burns to Ground

Fire last Wednesday did considerable damage to the building owned by Moxie Spangleburg of Boyne City, and occupied by him as a dwelling.

The origin of the fire is unknown but the firemen are of the opinion that it started in a pile of rubbish in the attic; a hole was burned through the ceiling and roof, but the furniture escaped with slight damage.

The financial extent of the damage is not yet known but it will probably be comparatively light, considering the time of night the fire was discovered. Insurance was carried by Mr. Spangleburg with the First National Insurance agency.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

To our old customers to whom we have extended credit and to others wishing to open an account with us, we take this opportunity to make our position regarding credit for 1918 plain so that there will be no hard feeling toward us, as we value your trade to the extent of not wishing to do anything that will work a hardship upon any of our customers, but rather to ask you to help us to establish a better system of trading that will make buying and selling more satisfactory and pleasant for all concerned and eventually allow us to sell on a smaller margin of profit, as the loss from bad accounts and the interest on long standing accounts will be eliminated, thereby saving you money.

It comes to us daily that our fellow merchants both retailers and jobbers are finding it necessary to tighten up on credit, such as 30 day dating of bills prevailing in many instances where we used to get 60 days, 1% discount for cash instead of 2% in many cases and as a result many retail stores are insisting on spot cash for merchandise.

We are forced to take the middle course and extend credit only to those who have proven themselves GOOD PAY and to these we are perfectly willing to continue a line of credit, but we must insist that settlements be made every 30 days and we believe you will all agree with us that the unsettled business conditions now existing and with prices so high that our investment is necessarily much greater, warrants us in following the bent of good merchants elsewhere and the advice of our best jobbers from whom we buy goods and ask you to help us meet these unnatural conditions by all of us meeting our obligations monthly, at least, in order that our credit will remain good.

We are establishing a credit department in our office and future credit will be based upon the promptness with which accounts are paid.

We send you this notice with the best of intentions and are counting on you as one upon whom we may depend to help us with this plan for a better credit system, which will mean more money in all of our pockets if followed.

Yours for cleaner business,

Our stock is the largest and of the best quality that can be produced.

The reason of our being overstocked at this time is that we foresaw the radical advance in prices in all materials, and bought and contracted last year for this stock of goods that we are going to give you the benefit of low prices and when I benefit you I also benefit myself by making a great many more sales. To prove this our sales increased over Eleven Thousand dollars last year.

On each set of team harness I will save you $15 to $20, and of Strap work, Robes Blankets, Bells and Whips a saving of 20 per cent.

You cannot doubt this when you consider the advance in leather, wool and cotton.

As I replenish my stock I will be forced to advance prices, so the early buyers will save dollars and dollars saved are dollars earned.

WORST STORM IN YEARS HITS TOWN

CITY BURIED UNDER TONS OF SNOW

Out of Touch With Outside World For Nearly a Week—Barometer Makes Record Drop

Charlevoix has been for the past week in the grip of the worst storm experienced here in years—so say the oldest inhabitants, and we are perfectly willing to believe them.

Up until Tuesday night, not a wheel turned at this end of the P. M., all trains having been canceled and on Monday traffic was at an absolute standstill, even on the southern division between Grand Rapids, Detroit and Chicago. Report came that most of the road's snow ploughs were tied up somewhere on the line between here and Traverse City and could not move either way. Tuesday noon the northbound left Grand Rapids for the first time since Friday, and a snow plough clearing the way for her arrived here Tuesday night at about 11:15. The south bound train bearing a fair load of mail and several passengers who had been stranded north of here since last Saturday went south late Tuesday afternoon.

Rural carriers put out Saturday and Monday only to turn back at the end of town, and, in truth, there was but little for them to carry. Bridge street is groaning under a burden of snow seldom seen there. The Western Union wires were out of commission for a time Monday and it certainly looked as if Charlevoix were to be cut off from communication with the outside world entirely.

Friday, the barometer went to a point which has not been reached in this vicinity before in fifty years—27.7 inches. This we have on the statement of old sailors, who may be expected to know what they are talking about. At the same time comes word from St. Augustine, Florida, that they are now enjoying the unusual sport of snow-balling in the city streets and are daily looking for a wave of zero weather.

As a result of the tie-up, fuel supplies are getting dangerously low and the administrator has now cut the individual purchase of coal to 500 pounds. A wild rumor was current for a time that all business houses on the street would close their doors three days out of the week and one that the schools would also be closed, both of which are entirely unfounded. They were traced down and discovered to be jokes which circulated too often and finally assumed the shape of truth.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT BOYNE FALLS

General Store of L. A. Mooo a Total Loss

The general store of L. A. Moon, located on the principal street of the village of Boyno Falls, was totally destroyed by fire at 3:15 Sunday morning.

How the fire started is a mystery. Mr. Moon, who was sleeping in his room above the store, was aroused only when nearly suffocated by the smoke; he barely escaped in his night clothes.

As the fire started during the severe storm which was raging Saturday night, and had gained such headway before being discovered, there was little that could be done, the village fire department was not even called out.

Mr. Moon has conducted his store at the Falls for the past sixteen years. The building and contents were covered by insurance, but the amount is not known. The residents of the Falls are in hopes Mr. Moon will see fit to rebuild but he has not yet expressed himself on the subject.

J. Leahy, the optometrist, will be at the Hotel Charlevoix next Monday afternoon, January 21. He will remain until Tuesday noon. 3tf

FISH SHANTIES DOT ICE ON ROUND AND PINE LAKES

Shanties of every description, large and small, but all extremely squatty, dot both Round and Pine lakes, giving all evidence of the opening of the season for the "hook and line" fishermen.

Most of the shanties are equipped with a stove and some of the more expensive kind even have a window and a good door. The shanties placed in groups and they are resemble a village out on the ice.

This is an annual event on both these lakes. Each year as soon as the ice will bear their weight, the fishermen move on their shanties, cut a hole through the ice, and proceed to fish, whether the fish are biting or not. So far a few perch have been caught, but the herring run has not started.

STATE BANK HAS GOOD YEAR

INSTITUTION RE-ELECTS OLD DIRECTORS

Seven Thousand Dollars Paid Out For Christmas Savings—Will Exceed This in 1918

The Charlevoix State Savings Bank held its annual meeting and election of directors on Tuesday, January 8th, at which time all the old directors were re-elected. They are, J. L. Crane, H. E. Harsha, John Burns, A. A. Swinton and A. D. Crimmins.

The bank closed a very satisfactory year. About $7,000.00 was paid to members in the 1917 Christmas Savings Club, and memberships taken out since December 17th last show that receipts for this year will be considerably over that amount.

The last payment of 40 per cent on the Liberty bonds is now due and it is absolutely necessary for people who want to receive their bonds to make their final payment. If delay is experienced, it will be due to no fault of the bank.

The management of the bank appreciate the business with which their patrons have favored them during the past year and wish to assure the public that the same careful and courteous attention will be accorded them during 1918 as in the past.

HISTORICAL TO MEET 18TH

"Canadian Sports and Amusements," Mr. G. E. Loomis.

At the M. E. Church

The ladies literary and sewing club of the Methodist church held a very pleasant and profitable session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Klooster on Clinton street, Friday afternoon and evening. The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Ada Dutcher; vice-president, Mrs. W. S. Humphrey; secretary, Mrs. J. Eckstrom; Treasurer, Mrs. E. Klooster. A sumptuous supper was served at six. The men took part in this feature of the program. The evening was spent in playing games and charades. The musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Humphrey and Mr. Beers, Mrs. Dutcher gave a reading from Riley. Elder Walker closed the program with selections from Browning. The ladies gave $25 toward the running expenses of the church.

THREE MEN ON NEW BOARD

TO CO-ORDINATE CIVILIAN WAR ACTIVITIES

R. W. Kaoe, J. M. Harris and Joho Porter Are Selected to Serve In This County

To produce even greater success than has resulted from Michigan's magnificient civilian war efforts in the past, governor Albert E. Sleeper, as chief executive of the state, titular head of the Red Cross for Michigan and chairman of the state liberty loan committee and related campaigns for the federal government, has decided to combine and co-ordinate all civilian war activities under the war preparedness board plan now in operation in a number of states and recommended by the national government. Accordingly the governor has announced the appointment of a war preparedness board for each county in the state. Three men will constitute the board except in Wayne and Keot, where five men are named because of the population of the counties. R. W. Kane, of Charlevoix, Judge J. M. Harris, of Boyne City and John Porter of East Jordan will form the Charlevoix county board.

These boards will be representatives of the state war preparedness board in each county. They will constitute in the aggregate a county war preparedness division with the governor as chairman and Mark T. McKee, of Detroit, as secretary, Mr. McKee already being secretary of the state Red Cross and the state liberty loan committee. The appointments are non-partisan, the selection being based upon the ability and public spirit of the men. At its first meeting the board will select a chairman. It will then appoint three-men boards in each township and ward in their district so that there will be a permanent, state-wide organization and reaching into every nook and corner of Michigan, ready for any work that may become necessary through the war.

"The governor's action will mobilize all Michigan's strength for war work. It is, at the same time, the first step in organizing the state for the next liberty loan which will be conducted this spring. No authority, duty or responsibility is removed from any organization now existing. The great object accomplished is the co-ordination of all efforts and the establishment of all the recognized organizations as permanent bodies for the duration of the war. In addition, through the vestment of control in the county organizations, the opportunities for projects launched for personal benefit as well as those that are ill-advised are removed. Michigan has not been troubled by the latter two classes, but other states have had such experience and the county organization plan guards against their introduction by selfish or over enthusiastic persons.

"Michigan has done magnificient work—no state has surpassed us in energy and results" said governor Sleeper. "We're going to do even better in the future by this co-ordination of energy and effort. Under the new plan, we can throw every ounce of Michigan's great patriotic energy into any given channel, wherever it may be needed."

"If only the civilians can hold out" is the somewhat synical but penetrating comment of the French army upon the chances for victory. And that bit of synicism is the cold, deadly truth. If the civilians do not hold out—the army is lost. Men and guns we can supply in abundance. But the support of the army comes from the civilians and when the civilians fail, the army is helpless. Let us mobilize to the last man and woman in Michigan."

DIED SUDDENLY IN DETROIT

MARGARET DURANCE SUFFERS RELAPSE

Effects of Operatioo Prove Fatal to Former Charlevoix Girl—Taken In the Prime of Life

A telegrom came to the home of George Duronce and family early Tuesday morning, bearing the sad news that their eldest daughter, Margaret, had passed away at the House of Providence hospital in Detroit just a few hours pervious to its receipt. The severity of the shock was heightened by the fact that they had believed her to be rapidly improving in health from an operation she had undergone about two weeks earlier for gastritis. On the removal of the stitches a short time before her death, however, she had rapidly become worse until death claimed her, sadly enough, in the very prime of her life.

Margaret Durance was born in Charlevoix, December 6, 1889. She was educated at the public schools of this city and graduated from the Charlevoix high school and the county normal in 1910, taking 12th grade and normal work in the same year. She taught a year in this county and then went to Detroit where she studied to become a trained nurse, a profession which she followed successfully until her last illness came upon her. She was also a member of the Rebekah lodge in Detroit.

Miss Durance leaves her father and mother, three sisters—Myrtle at Charlevoix and Frances and Genevieve, now at Valparaiso, Indiana, and two brothers, William, who lives at Bay City and Alvin, of Charlevoix, both of whom were with her when the end came. The brothers now in Detroit and the two sisters from Valparaiso will accompany the remains to this city, arriving tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning from the Congregational church, Rev. C. E. Taggart conducting the services and the body will be laid to rest in Brookside cemetery.

Margaret was a girl of fine character and had many sincere friends who will miss her sadly.

MOVE COAL ONLY IS NEW P. M. ORDER

Embargo Placed On All Other Kinds of Freight

Orders were issued Tuesday forenoon to all Pere Marquette agents placing an embargo on all freight except coal until further notice. The new order hits the entire Pere Marquette railway system and has been placed in immediate effect.

Road officials hope to get the lines open for freight traffic by Thursday and to move whole train loads of coal from the mining districts. Charlevoix hopes to get several cars of coal over the road within a day or two.

J. E. WALDRON DEAD

Noted Petoskeyite Passes Away Suddenly At Home

John E. Walrond, one of Emmet county's best known citizens, and with whom Charlevoix people were also well acquainted, died last Saturday morning at his home in Petoskey, at the age of sixty-nine, from the effects of heart failure.

Mr. Walrond had resided in Petoskey many years, formerly being in the hardware business and associated with the late Sidney S. Bump. He was also an educator of note and at one time held the position of superintendent of schools at East Jordan.

The Knights Templar will conduct the funeral, arrangements for which are being held in abeyance until word can come from his son in New Orleans as to the time of the latter's arrival. It will be held from the home.

50,000 SLACKERS HAVE FREEDOM OF THE UNITED STATES

Fifty thousand real slackers are in the United States Provost Marshal General Crowder estimated in his report to Secretary Baker. The calculation is that 10 men in every registration district have escaped service without being caught, only a few more than 60,000 having been identified, and a few more than 2,000 have been prosecuted.

The report shows that 928 Germans of draft age have been accepted for service in the national army and a total of 14,161 enemy aliens have been accepted, the remainder being Austrians or Hungarians. All other aliens accepted make a total of 76,545.

Jolliffe-Meggison

Cupid darts are still flying. This time they pierced the hearts of our honored and aged citizens John Jolliffe and Mrs. Morla Meggison. Wednesday evening, January 9, at the Meggison home on State street Rev. Quinton Walker tied the untieable knot. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ward of this city. A delicious luncheon was served. The happy couple are receiving congratulations from their many friends.

ANOTHER CANARO HAS BEEN NAILED

CITY HONORED BILLS FOR SNOW REMOVAL

Driggett Denies That He Was Held Up—Why Not Have a Municipal Team?

It has been going the rounds that the reason William Driggett didn't tackle the snow removal job this winter was due to the fact that he presented certain bills to the city council for last season's work which were not honored by that body.

In an interview with the Courier representative, Mr. Driggett explicitly denies that he ever presented any bills to the city which were not allowed by the council and states that the sole reason for his not taking over the job this year is due to the fact that he cannot spare a team for the work.

In this connection, a thought occurs to us. Wouldn't it be well for the city to purchase a good team—say 1,400 apiece—strong, long-limbed animals who could negotiate a drift without undue strain to themselves. When the snow season is over, they might be hitched to the street sprinkler or pressed into service in other departments of the city's works. Next, hire a man to attach himself to that particular team and take care of and drive it throughout the year. Assurance of steady wages would attract a good man to stay on the job and do faithful work. Seems as though the idea were worthy of consideration.

AMERICAN OUT GUESSED GERMAN

TRAP LAID BY TEUTONS FAILED TO WORK

Sharp Eyed Sammy Discovered Plan for "Murter Party" of Boche

By J. W. Pegler

American Field Headquarters, France, Dec. 16 (By Mail)—"I'll follow Mr. Short anywhere."

A young, slightly built Sammy paid this tribute to his lieutenant within a few hours after his arrival back from the trenches. He was sitting on a mile post at the roadside, before the barn where he sleeps, oiling the rifle that he carried in night patrols into No Man's Land with Mr. Short.

The lieutenant himself was making an informal inspection of his men—an inspection that seemed more like a friendly visit. As he passed on down the muddy lane, the soldier let his eyes wander after him admiringly.

"Mr. Short discovered that the barbed wire in front of our sector had been cut during the night," said the youngster. "I supposed he would send for the engineers to come up the next evening and put new wires in the hole. But the lieutenant was a wise man—he said 'no.'

"All day we lay in the dugouts with our shoes and socks and breeches soaked and no dry clothes to put on. Another bunch stood watch in the little ditch of a front line, keeping their heads down and ready with their rifles and a machine gun in case the old Boche would come over.

"At five o'clock in the evening Mr. Short woke us up. We had a cup of scalding coffee and started up the communicating trench. It was raining and snowing and the water in the communication trench was up to your ankles over the duckboards.

"It got dark early and the snow was so thick in the air you couldn't see the wire from the front trench.

"Mr. Short stopped us in the front line and explained what we were going to do. He had it figured out that the enemy cut those wires last night so he could make a raid tonight. And if he didn't intend to raid, he would certainly expect our engineers to be out fixing the hole—and would pot 'em.

"Our job was to crowl out under the wire on both sides of the hole. Mr. Shore went out first and placed every man in position. We waited five hours. Then we saw a figure about fifteen yeards away. I asked him to let me shoot. He said no and went at that object himself.

"And what do you think it was? Just an old post. We had all been staring at it so long that we were sure we saw it creeping. Well, the enemy potted away at the hole in five minute spells almost all night, and didn't hit a single American. Mr. Short simply outguessed him. And when there was a chance for someone to get hurt, he took the chance himself rather than give away our position by having me fire."

Mr. Short, be it know, is an old "top sergeant."

"They didn't get me in the Philippines and they won't get me in France," he said to his command.

The Sammy finished cleaning the gun and gave the bolt a concluding snap.

"A good gun is like a good watch," he remarked reflectively. "Treat it right and it's always on the job. I know something about both. I worked two years in the Waltham watch factory and six months in the Remington arms plant."

MEMBERSHIP INCREASING

Congregational Church Gaining In Strength

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church, which was held last Tuesday at the church parlors, reports were made by the various societies of the church and by the trustees.

All branches of the church activities reported themselves free of debt and some had balances to their credit. The membership of the church and Sunday school was never larger in its history and the attendance record bids fair to show a gratifying increase during 1918. The pastor is well pleased with the showing that has been made.

SOLDIERS WANT MINCE PIE

"Like Mother Used to Make"

Along the lines of the military encampments, mince pie proves to be prime favorite with the boys in khaki—from the noble little private straight up to the commandiog officer all affirm it "great eats." They want the kind they used to get at home.

And as one piece of miace pie goes a long way toward a meal, the efficient American housewife is not slow to appreciate that she can turn this to advantage in her owa home.

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT is made just as the best housewife makes the best mince meat in ber owa kitchen. The package recipes are good for pies, cakes, puddings, and cookies.

Bake a NANE SUCH War Pie—no top crust. Saves flour, shortening, labor, money—half the crust. Good, too. In this way you help the U. S. Food Admiaistration.

For economy NANE SUCH is the leader, for it comes la a paraffin-lined package which preveats waste, and is cheaper than bulk mince meat bougbt by the pound. The package weight increases three times its weight when the necessary moisture is added. It costs only a few cents—is absolutely clean and keeps like fruit cake.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completly eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomain-like poisons are formed and soaked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

COMMUNICATIONS

To Associations of Commerce:

"The fact that I have just received three letters from Charlevoix county all relating to the articles on "Opportunity" stating that they came at an opportune time, and that they were very much appreciated, leads me to say something more along the same old lines.

"The things I write are not all original with me, and if I had to depend upon myself to furnish material for Association Organizations, Charlevoix county would not get half as much as it could get from dozens of its own people, but I have witnessed so many great big things pulled off at our Association of Commerce in Chicago, that I can not help urging upon you the necessity for united action in all our county affairs.

"We in Charlevoix county are rapidly outgrowing our swaddling clothes and with the new things the Charlevoix County Road Improvement Association is doing (or I suppose they are) will result in a large amount of advertising in the future for Charlevoix county.

"When the Board of Supervisors were in session in October if I remember correctly, they voted to engage an agricultural agent. I remember distinctly on one of my visits to Boyne City the subject came up there and that I approved of it because I know that this is an age of progress, and that unless we are progressing we are surely retrogressing, and that progress is the law of success. The question of location for the agent came up, and I put myself on record as saying—you Boyne City people are the originators of this plan as I understand it and being centrally located in a great farming community, I think that this the proper place for it's headquarters, so when the Charlevoix people understand this they will not think I am working against Charlevoix. With me, as it should be with all of us—it's CHARLEVOIX COUNTY, first, last and all the time.

"Say boys, do you know that I'm going to Florida? If I had remained up in God's country with all the snow you had when I was there I probably would not have been tempted to go to Florida, but to get down here in this beastly, smoky, greasy city, with as much snow as you have up there, and with it the nasty, damp insinuating, penetrating couzining sort of gales, everytime one turns a corner, they are met with this blizzarding, blinkharding couzin, saying—wheezing like—"I got you"—you know it's a sort of a friendly, familiar, family greeting—the idea is—your mine. It just sort of grasps you long enough and hard enough to go straight through you, and to come out on the other side of you taking every bit of red juice you have in you and then to slam you up against the side of the building and then whiz again through your ear—"Ye'a are from Charlevoix county—I know ye'as—I just thought I'd show you up you old stiff you—why when you were up there, why didn't you stay there? And just then another couzin comes up from the opposite side of the street and the two hold you up and slam you down and then you hear them say—"you better get—to Florida out of here—don't ever let us see you in this town again in the winter time. Now these are some of the reasons why I am going to Florida and when I get there I hope to have a more favorable weather report to send.

Yours truly,
VAN PELT

17,000 Barrels of Flour a Day Saved

The grinding capacity of the mills of the United States is, in round numbers, 2,275,000 bushels of wheat per day from which they had previously extracted approximately 500,000 barrels of flour.

On the new basis of greater extraction requested by the Food Administration, which became operative on the 26th of December, these same mills will produce from the same number of bushels of wheat slightly more than 517,000 barrels of flour, or an actual saving of 17,000 plus barrels of flour per day.

In view of the present heavy world-wide demand for wheat flour and the world shortage of wheat, the Food Administration is to be congratulated upon having exercised such good judgment in asking the millers of America to make the higher extraction of flour.

A direct message from Hoover to the mills of the United States informs them that 200,000 people in Finland will starve to death before America will have flour enough to spare them, hence the necessity for an immediate order requesting the higher extraction of flour.

Any miller who does not immediately and enthusiastically respond and thoroughly endeavor to live up to the spirit as well as the letter of this request, is neither a friend of his country nor of the consumer.

Any consumer who does not willingly and gladly accept and cheerfully abide by the results of this necessary change is neither loyal to the best interests of his country nor the boys in khaki.

This action does not require mills to change their brands nor the consumer to eat black war bread, as the vast majority of the mills of America will continue to produce an exeellent flour; better flour than the mills of any other nation on the globe.

We will continue to manufaeture

LILY WHITE

"The Flour the Best Cooks Use."

We will be more cautious than ever, if it is possible to be, in the selection of grain.

The wheat will be eleaned seven times before going on to the rolls for the first break instead of six times; it will be run through four distinct and separate cleaning machines; will be scoured twice and washed onee; then run into tempering bins to be warmed to the proper temperature beforo being ground.

Six separate and distinct grindings will take place before the process is completed.

The fine material will be separated from the coarse by plan sifters, dust collectors, bolters and clean-up machines of the most modern type.

Every ounee of Lily White Flour will be bolted through the very best imported silk bolting cloth, most of whieh is obtained from Switzerland.

This long milling process enables us to clean up every bit of flour; none of it will be permitted to remain in the feed—the coarse material, the bran and middlings—which makes it comparatively easy for us to extract the amount of flour asked without seriously affecting the quality of Lily White Flour.

You will notiee the color of the flour is darker than before, but you will find Lily White Flour retains all of its delicious flavor for whieh it has beeome justly famous. You will find it bakes delicious, tender, nutritious bread and pastry.

Above all else, you are helping to save 17,000 barrels of flour per day, which is equivalent to 6,154,000 loaves of bread, more than enough to feed an army of six million men for a day, or an army of one million men for a week. You will be helping to win the War; helping the Sammies "over there."

You will help to feed the starving mothers and children of stricken Europe by co-operating with Hoover.

That's worth a lot.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

The Christmas helidays saw two of the very good teachers of Charlevoix county leave their work to answer the call of Uncle Sam. Supt. Tate of Boyne Falls enlisted two weeks before Xmas. His place has been filled by Mr. Bert Straight of Petoskey. Mr. Ward Genett of Bay Shore is applying for Recreation work in K. of C. camp life or for clerical work in eviation eorps. His place has been taken by Miss Clark of Spriag Lake. Miss Merrill of the Magee school resigned her position in order to take up other work previously planned. We have assurance of a good experieneed teecher to take her place. The three changes above named are the only changes in the mid year and it is an unusually good record as eompared to seven changes in December of 1916.

Two substitutes have been secured—Mr. Ernest Peaslee has kindly consented to teach at Afton until Miss Crowell is again strong enough to take up her work. Mrs. Hutton agreed to teach again for a short time until Miss Hansen could return from the upper peninsula, where she has been detained by the sudden death af her mother.

The commissioner had the pleasure of attending the Xmas exercises in two or three of the schools nnd noted both in letters and in newspaper correspendence the many aetivities of the seasen.

The Hayes township spelling contest was the best yet. Out of 47 contestants representing every school in the township, there were eight who received 100 on the written test. It was almost impessible to tire theso peeple out in an oral spell-down. Miss Alma Heidorph end Mr. Walter Paul stood up next to the last, and Miss Fern Tillotson, also of the Murray school was the winner of the township and scheol prize. It wes a quarter of the midnight hour when the last word was spelled. Of the 47 contestants 20 were from the Murray scheol and of the perfect papers in the written work, five were from this scheol, so that the crowd really expected that the prizo-winners would all be from this group of workers under the leadership of Miss Georgia Redfield, their teacher. The township had a Xmss treo the same evening for tha entire six districts.

At the request of the atate, pictures of two or three of our school buildings will be included in the state lantern slides. Supt. Keeler is preparing for his lecture illustrating good school buildings and of others that should he made better than they are.

The liberty pole raising at Hepyard on December 17 was the marking of an epoch in the history of the school, similar in inspiration to the presenting of the Standard school plate of last year. Mr. Peaslee presented to the district a new pole and a new flag on condition that the flag be thoroughly respected and that all school property be cared for as any true Amerieaa will eare for publie property under his trust.

We note a great veriefion in attendanee reports throughout tho county. A few districts where it is well known that roads are almost impassable never report an absence due to stormy weather end it is very evident that boys and girls could not he kept at home from these schools even if they were ill with the grippe. On the other hand a few teachers nre constantly required to report many absences, some of which are neeessary and many others that might bo avoided if the interest in the school work were such as te help overcome difficulties.

Due to change of schedule in train service the usual state Institute schedule for the counties of Emmet, Antrim, and Charlevoix can not be followed, and Mr. Cerson has been withdrawn from the Charleveix program. Supt. Keeler has promised to take his place. The sectional programs are new nearly completed, and arrangements will be made this week for the teachers' supper on Tuesday night. The merrymaking promises this year to he the best yet. The Boyne City high will give a light opera for the evening's rest period. Don't forget the date—January 28, 29.

The commissioner has lately baeome interested in summaries of expense for officers with duties almilar to that of the rurel superintendent. County agents are regularly allowed $1,500 for expense in any fiscal year, but for the sake of economy Charlevoix will allow her new county agent only $1,200 for his first year. The commissioner figured up all items that had been proviously listed end sent to the county clerk for peyment. Including all office supplies, printing, postage end traveling expensa, the total for 1917, from January through December was $1,033.01. Of this $4.75 was for clerk hire whereas the law provides that $400 mey bs used for this purpose each year, and the commissioner has done almost all of her own work. If the work continues to accumulete as it has during the past six months the commissioner may not be able to continue without help if the work is to be well done. The figures are especially interesting when compared with other counties and when it is remembered that every school was visited twice during the year, and several threo or four times. One commissioner in the southern part of the state who spent his entire time visiting schools and working with the officers, und who hired a stenographer to do the routine work of the office spent over three thousand last year.

Eighth grade examinetion in reading will be based on "the President's War Message." The Department of Public Instruction has issued theso in pamphlet form with notes end explanations. The hope is to create better informed Americans. The pamphlets will be distributed at the time of the teachers' institute, one for each teacher aad eighth greda pupil. Miss Sloan, who is the author of the eighth grade reading studies will discuss the "War Message" as a classic at the institute, in order thet we mey start our work directly afterward enthused with our topie end the work before us.

LET THE HUNS TURN LOOSE

Seymour Beach Conger, an Associated Press correspondent of wide experience in Germany and Russia, has just returned from abrond and is visiting at his home in Leslie, Mich. In an interview he said:

"Germsn propagands, both verbal and destructive, in the United States has been held in check by the kaiser. As leader of the Huns, the Hohenzollern has chosen to practically ignore the fact that America is in the war. He follows out this policy because he wishes the American people to remain asleep to the German menace for the present. But this policy of auppression of German destruction in the United States may be lifted at any moment—then watch out."

Mr. Conger was in Berlin several years, was in the German capital from the time war was declared in Europe until the United States was drawn into the conflict, and was in a position to get "inside information" through the various channels known only to experienced foreign correspondents. What he says has more weight than reports from ordinary personages and even diplomstic representatives.

"We know the Huns have planted seeds of sedition in America. We know the Huns have brandished the torch snd ignited the homb. We know that about every form of sabotage already has been practiced in the United States before and since we entered the wsr. We know agents of the kaiser hsve spent millions of money in sn organized espionage in our country. We know the Huns are capable of doing anything that is devilish, dastardly, sneaking, hellish, vicious, outrageous, cowardly, reprehensible and mean. We know the ideal policy of the Hun is terrorism.

If the Huns in the United States have not opened up, if they sre waiting for the kaiser to give the word, let him give it, let the Huns turn loose. The sooner the better. No doubt lives will be lost and property damaged to a greater extent than haa already been recorded but the reign of terrorism will be short. The Huns in America will be cleaned out, once and for all time to come. Let them turn loose. Our army may not be prepared and fully equipped for organized fighting in the trences, but Americsns, red blooded Americsns, are ready for the biggest unorgsnized fight that was ever attempted in either hemisphere.

Tha Huns have carried their war over into the United States in its most diaboltcal form—treachery. If they want to fight a part of the war on Americsn soil all they have to do is increase the use of dynamiting a little more, wield the torch a little more briskly, make the copperhead n lttle more bold, and the war in America will be on without waiting for the kaiser's O. K. The patience of America is about exhausted and the Huns here may get what is coming to them without waiting for Hohenzollern orders.

The War Department has been hampered by a lot of red tapo and conventional quibbling, but there is not much red tape about the individual American when he is driven into a fight, or defending his home and honor.

There could be no better example of the colloasl egotism, no better illustration of the misguided Hun opinion that all the hrains of the world are hemmed in by narrow boundary lines of Germany, than the assumption thnt Americans would submit to any such reign of terrorism as the kaiser hss frsmed up for the United States and will turn loose when he is good and ready.

Let every Hun in Charlevoix county and in the state of Michigan and in the United Stntes, get in action at onee. Let bim buckle on his armor use dynamite and spply the toreh, poison the wells and food, start anything simllar to tbe practices of his brothers across the sea ln Belgium and France, and Americans, red-blooded Americans, will give him hls fill of it.

Americans have stood for a lot of viciousnass,-a lot of crooked. desling, a lot of dirty underhanded work, a lot of mallgning of the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus—in fact, all wsr activities, a lot of sneers, a lot of thinly veiled disloyalty, a lot of slyly planned annoyances, on tbe part of the Huns in the United States, and Americans ara not going to stand for such conduct on American soil much longer. Americans may not even wsit for the kaiser to give the word to cut ioose unless these atrocities ceasa. However, if the Huns hsve anything more up their sleeve, let them expose it now, the longer they wait the more

It will be a good thing for America when the time for cleaning out the Huns arrives. America will be purged of a festering sore before it becomes more virulent and malignant. There is no spot in America - big enough to be occupied by a Hun, and he must do one of two things—become an American with all the word implies or get out.

There is no threat in sdmonishing the Hun to beware. It is a sound reasoning, good logic, to emphatically declare that the Hun must get out of Americn or he regenerated preferably the former, and the sooner the better for America and the Hun.

GERMANY AND THE FOOD QUESTION

A loyal United States citizen of German birth, who has bought liberally of Liberty bonds and thrift certificates, recently made an illuminating sintement concerning stories that hsve been appearing from time to time on the food shortage in Germany and the effects of the blockade.

"It is folly to place too much confidence in Germsny's food shortage," said he, "as a factor in bringing peace. I was a laborer in Frankfort for twelve years before coming to the United States, and my father before me also was n laborer there. The pay he received and the pny I received was not generous enough, even in the most prosperous times, to provide us with half the dainties with which the American workmsn's table is provided.

"The German workman is accustomed to short rations. Here in Americn we read that a German family is limited to so many pounds of potatoes a week and so many ounces of hutter and bread nnd sugar, and we say that 'that mesns the war can't last long; nobody cnn live on that.' On the contrary, Germans can live on these rations snd have been living on them for yesrs.

"Unless I am much mistaken, Germany will be able to stagger along, for the simple reason that Germsns never were henvy eaters, except those of the well-to-do class. The German workman never was well fed when I lived in Germany.

"The blockade may hsve its effect, but tha only resl way to defent Germany is by force of arms. That is why I have contributed my share of money to help win the war for tha United States. I know what German faro means. I came to this country to escape slow starvation, low wages and poverty. I hnve been better fed nnd better clothed by far since coming here, and I have been able to save money and keep square with my fellow man. I wouldn't go back to Germany and I don't want any Germany over here. If my savings can help defeat the German plan of life, I shall feel that I am doing a bit in the interest of righteousness and square dealing. I intend to let the government have every cent of money I can spare, for democracy has done n million times more for mo since I have been here thsn the German plan did for nll the generations of my laboring family."

American soldiers gave the poor children of Frnnce a Christmss and lots of things to eat. The German soldiers drove the children of France and Belgium out of their homes en Christmas to make room for themselves. That's the difference between nn Americsn and a German soldier.

And Bonar Law never heard of Billy Sunday! Judns priest, won't Billy put him hep though, when he hops over the sea to bat the devil out of London with one of his whoop-la tabernacle meetings!

If prices of food were as scary as Wall street market quotations, they would take n mighty tumble over peace current rumors.

It's sliright to talk about using knotty old stumps for fuel, but did you ever try to crack one with nn ax.

To Our Customers

To our old customers to whom we have extended credit, and to new customers who may ask for credit, we desire to make plain our position regarding the handling of our business during the year 1918.

Business conditions are abnormal; all current expenses have increased from 25 to 50 per cent. Merchants demand either cash or limit us to 30 days credit. The coal man demands his money in advance or as soon as the coal is delivered—and we consume tons of it during a season. Seemingly everyone is demanding CASH in advance. We cannot meet these demands and do a credit business. If we should continue to extend credit to everyone, we might as well close our doors. We are placing the situation squarely before you and in the future are forced to demand cash for our products. Please remember this—your orders will be delivered with the same care and promptness as heretofore—but have the amount due us ready when the order is delivered. Otherwise you may be disappointed.

We are forced to take these drastic steps by existing conditions which have affected all lines of business and hope our customers will willingly comply with our request.

Turning Waste Into Profit

Tha dsy of discarding expensive machine parts and other metal equipment to the "scrap pile," because of n break, worn spot or defect, is quickly passing. With it is going one of the most wasteful and profit-reducing practices which modern efficiency and engineering have overthrown. Until the development of modern welding processes, the "scrap pile" cost American business millions of dollars annually. Mnchine shops, forging plants, foundries, mills of all descriptions, railways and steamship companies annunlly sent thousands of metal parts to the "junk" yards, because of the lack of a satisfactory method of reclamation.

Oxy-acetylene welding has eliminated this waste. Savings of hundreds and even thousands of dollars are now being made yearly by such firms in restoring this damaged equipment to service by this method.

The possibilities for profitably reclaiming and repairing metal parts are literally without number. Wherever metal parts are to be united, oxy-acetelene weiding will perform the work cheaply, quickly and efficiently. In fact, in the case of broken and worn machinery, oxy-scetelene welding is ususlly the only satisfnctory method of repair.

Under any conditions there are very few instances where welding of broken or worn parts does not effect a large actual saving over the cost of new parts. Not infrequently the welding cost is as low as five per cent of the cost of a new part—seldom is it more than 50 per cent. When it is considered that properly welded parts are as serviceable as new, the great savings are clearly evident. With repair prices soaring to heretofore unknown heights, due to war demands, the proportion of savings are more than doubled.

Frequently the making of a quick repair and getting equipment back into operation is of greater moment than the COST of a repair. This is especially true under conditions where every minute counts, and new machinery or repair parts are not to be had within reasonable time nt any price.

Whenever you are in need of efficient repair service call on us. If you are too far away to call, send in your work and it will he taken care of promptly and effieiently. We will be in a position to take care of your work as soon as sent in. Give us a trial. We guarantee satisfaction and service. Let us cut your old boilers for scrap.

GOVERNMENT TAKES AWAY FEOERAL LICENSE

Washington Produce Dealers Refuse Potato Shipment

The unjustifiable failure of Morris Singer & Co., of Washington D. C., to accept peomptly two ears of potatoes shipped them by Chatterton & Sons, of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., has resulted in their federal license being revoked. This action is the first of its kind taken by the U. S. food administration since the license ruling went into effect. The firm rejected two carloads of Isabella county potatoes consigned to them and permitted them to deteriorate. The official statement issued by the U. S. food administrator says in part:

"The unjustifiable refusal of shipments on the parts of consignees has been for many years an unhealthy feature of the perishable branches of the food business. It has been a common practice for a dealer to order a consignment from a shipper or farmer and if, when the shipment arrived, the macket for the product had declined, the consignee would take advantage of the situation to reject it, thus placing the shippee at n tremenduous disadvantage. The shipper's choice was either to go to the endless bother of a lawsuit with the difficulty of obtaining proper witnesses and taking bis chance on a loeal jury, or make a compromise with the consignee, always to the latter's disadvantage. A further result of this proceduee has been congestions in the railroad yards and delay in car movements. Those inteeested look to the food administration to put an end to this practice under the licensing system and by the powers conferred upon it hy the food control act which peovides against waste of foodstuffs."

The Singer company will not be permitted to handle any foodstuffs subject to license aftee December 8, and they have been warned that any violation of this prohibition will make them liable to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or two years' imprisonment, oe both, as peovided in the reeent license ruling.

The present instance is the first where the food administration has found it necessary to use its powers to revoke licenses, and the ease may he eonsidered a warning to other dealers.

John Essenberg of Grand Rapids, who has been at the home of his parents at Atwood the past two weeks, returned to his home on Tuesday of this week.

The bad weather of last week cut down the attendance at the Hodge auction sale held at the Bennett farm near the Mitchell school house, but everything sold well.

Quite a number of Ellsworth people attended the funeral of John Essenberg of Atwood, who died on Monday of last week and was buried Friday in the Holland cemetery near Atwood.

Abe MacKinnon, private in the auxiliary re-mount Co., at Camp Custer, spent last week at the home of his parents near town. Abe likes the service and is loud in his praises of army life.

About twenty Ellsworth young people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. The party amused themselves with games and music and after refreshments returned to their homes at a late hour, having passed a very enjoyable evening.

A bunch of the boys, formerly members of the Ellsworth basket ball team, journeyed to Charlevoix last Friday night and took on the Charlevoix high school team. The Ellsworth bunch had not practiced, much less played in a game for two years and although they lost, they went down fighting, the score being 29-20. The boys have nothing but words of praise for the Charlevoix players and are planning on a return match at an early date.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

The Irish Kaiser

When the war is over just take a tip from me,
There will be no German submarines
A diving through the sea;
For the fatherland is Kaiser Bill
The guy we're going to lick,
We will have a bran new Kaiser
And the same will be a Mick.

We will change the song,
"Die Wacht am Rhine,"
Into an Irish reel,
And make the dutchmen dance it
If so inclined we feel.
For the police force in Berlin
Will be Micks from county Clare,
When we put an Irish Kaiser
In the palace over there.

Sure, in every German parkway
You will find a sweet colleen,
And the fields of waving sauerkraut
We'll plant with shamrock green.
No liverwurst or sausage
When the Dutchman drinks his suds,
He'll get corned beef and cabbage
And good old Irish spuds.

The heathen guns and gas bombs
We'll throw them all away,
And make them use shillalahs
Or bricks of Irish clay.
There will be no iron crosses
For the shamrock they will wear,
When we put an Irish Kaiser
In the palace over there.

TREATMENT FOR CAULK WOUNDS IN HORSES

When horses are sharp shod and the snow is deep conditions are just right for caulk wounds at the crown of the hoof. Remove caulks or shoes, if sharp, before starting a team out in deep snow, says Dr. M. H. Reynolds, University farm, St. Paul, Minn.

A caulk wound should be thoroughly cleaned at once. Contaminations should then be prevented. Nothing additional in the way of washing or other treatment that is not actually necessary should be done, adds Dr. Reynolds.

Cleanliness at the very beginning of treatment may be secured either by long continued irrigation or injections with a mild antiseptic, such as common salt—a teaspoonful to a quart of water. Military surgeons have found during the present war that a tablespoonful of chlorinated lime to a quart of warm water, applied thoroughly twice a day to every part of the wound, is very satisfactory for this preliminary cleansing. Either one should be applied continuously to every part of the wound for at least an hour before the wound is considered thoroughly and safely clean.

Strong disinfectants may also be used. These give quicker results and are in some cases more practical. Hydrochloric acid or even nitrohydrochloric acid may be used for the first treatment provided it is applied to every part of the torn surface in the depth of the wound and provided the skin is not burned with it. Undiluted carbolic acid or tincture of iodine in full strength may also be used. Two or three thorough treatments with the iodine should be given the first day. Plugs of cotton may be soaked in the tincture of iodine and packed in the wound.

The undesirable qualities inherited from the grade sire may not show up in the first generation, but the worst feature is that they will continue to show up for several generations after. The value of a pure bred is fundamentally based on the ability of the animal to transmit the desirable characteristics. The horse shown is a grade sired by a pure bred Belgian.

After this first thorough treatment use a drying antiseptic powder composed of iodoform, tannic acid and boracic acid, equal parts by bulk, applying lightly three times a day. But it is of the utmost importance to keep such a wound out of mud and filth.

A stockman attempting to treat a wound of this kind will usually do better to avoid bandaging.

To give the calf and its mother a fair chance a cow should be carefully dried off six weeks before the date of calving. This allows her to feed well her unborn calf and to get ready for her period of milk production.—Wisconsin Agricultural College.

AUTOMOBILE NEWS

So closely has the motor car become identified with present day American life, that it requires but a moment's consideration to realize tbat it is just as necessary an institution as tbe tslephone, the telegraph or the railroad.

Perhaps the most obvioua as well as the most important rola of the automohile is that of a time saver. In this hustling country of ours tima is an all important element. To Europeans the speed with which Americans put through their projects has always been s marvel. It was America that first conceived the possibility of sending a locomotive speedling at sixty miles an hour. And it was America that first applied the motor car to the task of increasing the efficiency of modern business. Through its offices we hnve speeded up transportation, widened operating radii and made distanee no longer a matter of miles but a matter of minutes.

Imagine, if you can, an America without motor cars and you will have an America seriously hampered commercially. Can you pictura the rush hour traffic, so fnmiliar a part of our modern city life, transformed suddenly to a tangled jam of horse drawn vehicles? The smooth deftness with which the traffic policeman handles the swift moving motor craft would be impossible, and the sccomplishment now e matter of hours would be drawn into the dsys.

But even were the motor car to be suddenly banished from existence, we could no longer depend entirely on the horse. During the past ten years it has been plainly evident that the day of the horse is numbered. Day by day man has been pincing more and more dependence upon his swifter mechanical beast of burden. Gasoline is cheaper than oats snd hay.

In consequence the breeding of horses has fallen far below the records of previous years. Then with the outbreak of the war in 1914, Europenn governments sent hundreds of buyers into this country to purchase horses for army use. In this way from our alrendy depleted ranks of horses were drafted hundreds of thousands more nnd a greater shnre of the work once done by the horse in fnrm nnd city wns taken over by the automobile.

More and more the importance of the untomobile ns applied to business life has been made apparent. But the city mnn holds no monopoly on the automobile. You have but to resort to availiable figures, or, better still, take a trip through a thriving ngriculturnl community, to realize that the American farmer is now ono of the most consistent buyers of motor cars.

The fnrmer, who formerly depended on his horso and buggy as a means of trsnsportntion from farm to city, now sits at the wheel of his automobile and makes the trip in a fraction of the time formerly required under the old regime.

As a result the farmer of today is a better informed man than the farmer of yesterdny. He is no longer isolnted from society. A matter of ten, fifteen or twenty miles, when the weather is bad no longer kseps him from attending his Grange meeting, or hesring a lectura on scientific farming in the city. Ho can drive to town in tbe evening after his day's work is done. When hs returns home at night there is no horse to unhitch; he merely runs his car into his garage snd it is thers until morning. Ile covers more territory, sees how other successful men aro conducting their nffairs, and runs his farm as a business msn runs his establishment. Not the least important sid that the sutomobile has been to ths American farmer is tho added attraction it has lent to farm lifo by banishing loneliness and influencing the young men thst rural life is not without its attractions sfter all.

The medical profession as a whols has adopted the motor cnr. Every doctor drives his car winter and summer while mnking his daily professional calls. Were he dependent on the horse and buggy, his working rndius would be seriously hampered. Incidontally, if an emergency cali comes in, when quick response may meun the saving of a human life, the physician'a rod cross on his radiator permits him to exceed the speed limit nnd rush first uid when it is needed.

The city salesmen who drive motor csrs have automatically widened their working territory many times over. This has enabled business coneerns to extend better servico to their eustomers.

Consider how our cities reflect the influenco of tho motor car. Suburban towns have aprung up miles from the business centers, their inhabitants depending almost entirely on automobiles. The hansom cab haa nimost disnppeared from our city streets. Swift fleets of taxicabs, stationed at tha various depots, distrihute transients to all parts of the great cities without loss of time.

We have nccepted the revolution as a mntter of eourse. We havo been adjusted to this condition. Whllo the equipment of our atreet car lines and railroads has grown to meet the ever increasing demand placed upon it by the public, it would, nevertheless, be insufficient to take eare of the trnnsportation of the entire populace of this great country were tho motor car to bo banished. Should tho automobile suddenly disappear from our city streets there would follow a congested condition which could not be easily alleviated.

People buy cars now becnuse they need them; because it will make them more efficient members of society; because it will save time and money. The man without a car cannot successfully compete with the man who operates an nutomohile. The funetion of the automobile today is an economic one, pure and simple. It is a vital part of our daily life. It has speeded up trnasit; it has brought thousands of miles of good roads; it has becoine a necessity—By C. W. NASH.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we sre living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advsntage.

Nowadsys, though, we don't have the troublesome lask of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular becsuse nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening tha hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desira a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ATWOOD SECTION

Len Sheldon and Laverne Harwood intend going to Grund Rapids soon to enlist in the army.

John Essenberg, Jr., from Grand Rapids was in Atwood to attend the funeral of his father.

C. DeVries bought some standing timber of G. Stoel and is having it cut by Petter Bros., our local wood cutters.

E. VandeStreek is spending his time this winter at butchering. He has been busy tho past month helping the neighbors.

A great many farmers have given up all hope of getting their beans threshed by machine and have looked up their old two hand power threshers.

Gerrit Hoffman and Egbert Wynsma leave some time this week for Camp Custer. They were to have gone Monday but the storm detained them.

Practically all of the surplus cattle in this neighborhood have been disposed of in the past two weeks to buyers from Charlevoix and Central Lake.

No services were held at the M. E. church Sunday. A few members of the Christian Reformed church were bold enough to venture out in the afternoon and the regular afternoon service was observed.

The Misses Alice and Rose Klooster left Atwood Saturday to spend a few days in Charlevoix. They reached Ellsworth but owing to the nice weather and forgetfulness of the P. M. R. R. train dispatcher they spent their outing in Ellsworth instead of Charlevoix.

Mrs. J. D. Pickart was informed of her mother's death last Sunday at her home in Grand Rapids. She had been ill since leaving here last fall. They left for Grand Rapids Tuesday, but owing to the weather conditions and railroad blocades, were not certain if they could reach their destination.

John Essenberg passed away last week, Monday afternoon. Deceased was 49 years of age and had been ailing for several years. He suffered considerable during the last few months and had not been able to leave his bed for nearly four months. He leaves a wife and eleven children to mourn his departure.

The officers of the local chapter of the Red Cross held a meeting last Tuesday evening and wish to announce that work will bo commenced soon. They have decided to do the work in the town hall, which will receive a thorough cleaning and the first meeting will be held there next Friday, January 18. Everybody is invited to attend and help along the good cause.

Our teacher, Mrs. W. Patterson needs more than a snow storm and a 40 mile an hour gale to deter her from her purpose. She started from Ellsworth Sunday afternoon with a team and did not come more than half way when they were blocked by the drifts in the cuts. Did she turn back as some of us might have done? No, she walked the rest of the way, a distance of about four miles.

Why is it we don't send in all the news?
The trifling calls, the petty quarrels and stews?
The reason folks is quite apparent,
We'd like to air them, but we daren't.
'Tis better not you'll all agree
To write of things you did not see,
But hearsay often enters in our views
Without it there would be but little news.

The Real World Series

The following poem entitled "The Real World Series" will be of interest no doubt to any of our readers who understand baseball terms:

It opened in Bleeding Belgium with the kaiser at the bat.
He won the game at Liege and thought he had the series pat,
Then Johnny Bull went in to pitch, and stopped the foe'a advance,
While a feature of the game became the fielding work of Franco.
Russin went in to pinch-hit, along the eastern front,
While Italy and Rumania each laid down a perfect bunt.
They trimmed old Bill at Vimy Hill with woe they filled his cup.
While out along the foul line Uncle Sam is warming up.
Your Uncle Sam is warming up to mount the pitching hill,
And show auch speed and curves that he will atrike out kaiser Bill.
That war machine to conquer worlds will know the very worst
When we hit one down to Hindenburg and beat hia throw to first.
When Sims goes up to bat and sweeps the subs from off the sea,
And Pershing, sliding into third, spikes the crown prince on the knee.
YES, Uncle Sam is warming up, and after he goes in,
We'll be building unsehnli diamonds in the city of Berlin.

HOW TO FIGURE INCOMES TOLD

EXPLANATION GIVEN TO THE FARMERS

Revenue Department Issues Information to Clear Up Doubtful Points

Many farmers throughout Michigan are in a quandry as to what returns to make in connection with their income tax while the matter of exemptions also is proving a problem. The following information from the income tax department of the United States internal revenue collector's office in Grand Rapids covers those points:

The term "farmer," as applied to the income tax, contemplates the man who makes a business in the ordinary sense of operating a farm, whether the farm be for mixed products, stock, dairy, poultry, fruit or vegetables. His income from such a business includes the gains, profits or income he derives from such an undertaking.

The gross income will be determined by adding together all the sums received during 1917 from January 1 to December 31 for products actually sold and converted into cash or its equivalent. It will include the crops he raised in 1916 or prior years if not sold until in 1917. It will include the stock that has been produced on the farm in preceding years, but not sold until in 1917. It includes the amounts received from cream, butter, eggs, poultry, fruits, wool, hay, grain, hogs, cattle, in fact anything and everything turned into money during the year.

As to Unsold Crops

The crops raised in 1917 but still unsold on December 31 are not to be considered in figuring income for 1917. All these sales from the farm will constitute gross income.

Before any tax is levied or reckoned on his income he is allowed to deduct all sums paid out for labor, seed, fertilizer, threshing, products or stock bought for re-sale. (Stock bought for breeding purposes or trees or shrubs bought for planting cannot be deducted.) He can deduct all such items of expense as small tools and nominal repairs, binder twine, spraying compounds, veterinary fees and a reasonable per cent for wear and tear on fences, machinery, farm implements, vehicles, barns and other buildings, but not on the house he lives in.

The percentage of depreciation is computed on the life of the property. On frame barns and other substantial wooden structures, 3 per cent is allowed; on cement, stone or brick buildings 2 per cent; on machinery, farm equipment and fences, about 10 per cent; auto trucks and tractors, about 12 to 15 per cent. The depreciation is figured on the original cost and the number of years it will wear.

He is allowed to take deductions for taxes paid and interest paid, but he cannot take deductions for any payments he may have made on the farm mortgage or on the notes given for machinery. If the farmer is a "renter" he can deduct for the cash rent he pays. The person who receives the rent will report it is income in his income tax return.

Losses by fire, storm or other casualties, or theft, may be deducted only to the extent that they are not covered by insurance. Property destroyed by order of the state may be claimed as a loss for difference between the reimbursment and the actual value.

Personal or living expenses cannot be deducted as the personal exemption of $2,000 for a married person or $1,000 for a single person is calculated for that purpose.

There is n further allowance of $200 for each dependent child under eighteen years of age; but the father must include as income in his return any amounts such dependent children may earn by "working out." If the wife has any income separate or independent of his, the husband must include it in his report.

A single person who is the sole support of one or more persons through marriage ties, blood relationship or adoption and whose right to exercise control is based on a legal or moral obligation is termed the "head of a family" and is entitled to the same exemption of $2,000 as a married person.

How to Figure

Now, in order to arrive at his tax liability the farmer will deduct from "gross income" all the above items as they apply to his case, together with the personal exemption. The remainder or net income is the item on which the normal tax is figured at the rate of 2 per cent. If his net income goes about $4,000 another 2 per cent is added on the amount over that figure. At $5,000 the super, or additional taxes begin and increase in rate at various amounts as the income increases until the man who has a million dollar income will pay super taxes up to 63 per cent.

If a farmer receives interest from mortgages, notes or bank deposits, profit from a road job, income from some estate, rent for some house in town or for land he is not working himself, royalties, or profit from the sale of a piece of real estate, he must also include such insome in his report.

A person cultivating or operating a farm as a "side line" or for recreation or experiment and on a basis other than the recognized principles of commercial farming, the result of which is a continual loss from year to year, is not regarded as a farmer. In such cases, if the expenses incurred in connection with the farm are in excess of the receipts therefrom, the entire receipts from sale of products may be ignored in rendering a return of income and the expenses ineurred being regarded as personal expenses will not constitute allowable deductions in the return of income derived from other sources.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

January 24—Day of Prayer

A thorough awakening of the Christian people of America to their responsibility on the liquor question would absolutely insure the ratification of the national prohibition nmendment by the thirty-six state legislatures. There is, indeed, no agency so efficacious as prayer to arouse the members of our churches, January 24, appointed by the National W. C. T. U. as a day of prayer for National Constitutional Prohibition, under Divine leadership may prove to be a day of destiny in the drive for the ratification of the federal amendment. Through the train of influences set in motion at the meetings held on that day and on the Sunday preceeding, the hearts of men and women, of law-makers nnd politicians, may be quickened to a sense of their duty and their privilege as patriots to do their part to free this country from its century old enemy, the legalized liquor traffic. This greatly desired end can be accomplished only by a widespread observance of the day. Let every member of a local union on this first week of the new year highly resolve to do her utmost to make the meeting in her community on January 24 and on the Sunday preceeding n Pentecostal service that shall definitely bring nearer the coming of the kingdom of our Lord and Savious—UNION SIGNAL.

A day of prayer for National Constitutional Prohibition will be held at the home of Mrs. John Burns, on Clinton street, Thursday, January 24th, the meeting to begin PROMPTLY at 2:30 p. m. A very interesting program has been arranged, to which the public is most cordially invited.

RED CROSS

The work at the Red Cross rooms is progressing finely. Of the 500 surgical dressings called for, 300 are made. The chairman, Mrs. Harry Nicholls, has worked splendidly and untiringly since the work started last spring and the increasing number of workers shows the result of her example.

Every woman in Charlevoix who has even an hour or two a week to spare should attend and assist in this most neeessary work towards winning the war. Rooms are open from 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

12 helmets.
16 pairs of socks.
17 sweaters.
4 mufflers.

At the business meeting on Fridny Mrs. Clinton Cooper was elected secretary, succeeding Mrs. Rosa Nettleton, who resigned beenuse of absence from the city.

The English IV elass, along with their work in dramn, ars going to compose plays from the storias written by popular authors. As "Funny" Cartier has taken "Oh, Mary, Be Careful," it promises to be interesting.

Of course we havs noticed the conspicuous way in which a certain elevated position has been labeled by the '17 class. If this had been done by lower classmen, nothing would have been thought of it. But it really seems that P-g's could be original in something. Oh, well! It has been said that people grow childish in their old age.

C. H. S. met Ellsworth on the home floor Friday night and ndministered a sound trouncing to the tune of 29 to 16. From the first tip-off, Charlevoix had the advantage. Good team work, coupled with excellent basket tossing and guarding, left little room for doubt that the home team was the better of the two. The first half ended with the score to 18 to 9 in favor of C. H. S. The last half was a repetition of the first. With the aid of Poole and Ed. Krulik, Ellsworth seemed threatening, but even in the face of these obstacles, the home team scored almost at will. Krulik at forward and Butler at center did stellar work. From this game, we conclude that our team is stronger than over before. Our next game is with Alden, Thursday night. Come down and help us win. Help Charlevoix athletics.

LIBRARY NOTES

A special message comes from the librarian at Camp Custer in regard to mailing magazines to the soldiers.

You are urged to place a one cent stamp on magazines and mail them promptly after they are read. Many that are mailed are not worth the effort it takes to placa them in the men's hands. Make the rule: mail every magazine at least as soon as the next issue arrives—sooner, if possible.

Use your old magazines for making a scrap book for a Sammy. Cartoons, short stories, poems, and jokes are used for this purpose. "Kipling Scrapbooks" may be ordered through the library.

When peaco eomes abroad there will still remain a number of little settlements to be made with certain politicians in congress.

..CANNED FRUIT..

No shortage at this store. In fact, we are rather overstocked, and to move the surplus will sell at prices that ought to be an inducement to every housewife. These are everyday prices—good at all times until our stock is reduced:

Chef brand, Peaches, Pears, Plums, and Cherries, No. 3 cans, per can 22c
Pork and Beans, per can 12c, 3 for 35c
Corn and Peas, 2 cans for 25c
Tomatoes, No. 2 cans, 2 for 25c
Tomatoes, No. 3 cans, each 15c
Mixed Fruits, per can 10c

Selling at these prices is less than the cost of putting up fruit during the past season. It is a splendid chance to lay aside a supply for future use.

MERCHANTS FAITHFULLY COMPLY WITH REGULATION

New Regulation of Federal Fuel Administrator Should Accomplish Great Saving

The orders of Federal Stato Fuel Administrator Prudden, concerning the closing of business houses and factories in Michigan went into effect Thursday, January 17th, at midnight. At a meeting of the Charlevoix Commercial association, held Friday night at the Odd Fellows' club rooms, definite hours were decided upnn for the houses to remain open. The Monday closing regulation was properly adhered to, for the most part. There may have been one or two exceptions, but these merely prove the rule.

While there has been some opposition from certain quarters to the closing regulation, it will very probably nccomplish a substantial amount of good towards easing up the fuel aituation. It is assured that schools will aot be closed unless the condition becomes so desperate that it is absolutely necessary. As a matter of fact, figuriag the cost of maintennnce of the schools for one dny, only a smoll quaatity of fuel could be saved at the cost of a much greater outlay.

The hours in which the business plnces of the city will be open for doing business is as follows:

Groceries—From 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the afternoon except Saturday when the hours will be from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. Also open Mondays from 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

Sunday or Monday closing does not affect this class of stores, other thaa on Monday they are allowed to sell drugs only.

BAD FIRE IN EAST JORDAN

FRENCH & REDMON HARD HIT BY BLAZE

High Wind Fans Flames and Water Helps to Wreck Empey Block Sunday 13th

Fire, faaaed by a high wind, totally destroyed the pool room and cigar store of Harry Curkendall in the Empey block on Main street in East Jordan a week ago Sunday morning. No one knows how the fire caught, but it is thought from the wiring.

The roof and ceiling were completely burned off the south half of the block and the front totslly ruined, as were also the furnishings in that part of the building.

On the north half of the buildiag, occupied by Freach & Redmon, with a aew stock of furniture, house furaishings, pianos, etc., the fire ran across the west end between the ceiling and the roof, but the department succeeded in extinguishing that part of the blaze. The damage to the French & Redmon stock is from the smoke and water.

In the basement of the buraed part of the building, the Northern Auto company had stored a half dozen autos and while these were got out, they would not have burned, as the fire did not get through the floor.

The building when new cost $6,000 aad could not be replaced today for $10,000. Mr. Empey's loss will probably exceed $3,000, while he has only $2,000 insuraace on each holf of the buildiag.

As inveatoried recently, Curkendall's stock aad outfit showed ahout $3,300 and he carried about $1,400 insurance. The damage to the French & Redmon stock is difficult to estimate, while their insurance was $1,500. The burned portion of the block will be rebuilt.

IMPORTANT MATTERS DISCUSSED AT LENGTH

Membership "Drive" Now On—Turn In Your Name to the Committee—Charlevoix Needs You

There was a good attendnnce at the meeting Friday night of the Charlevoix Commercial association. President Crane was in the chair and our local business men were well represented.

The matter of closing stores and factories, in compliance with the rulings of the federal fuel administration was takea up, discussed, and the hours for the various places of business were ngreed upon, ths local administrator, R. C. Hammett, who was preseat, beiag consulted as to the application of the measure to vnrious lines of business. Many other important matters were considered.

Aaaouncement was made of ths coming of the state bankers' convention to be held in this clty on the 24th, 25th and 26th of next June and the sorority convention to follow, which will open with 600 members at the laa.

It was moved by R. F. Sloan and duly seconded that the request of George H. "UNCLE ALEC" DIES IN TEXAS

FAMOUS AS HORSEMAN AND WRESTLER

J. A. Cameron, For Many Years a Resident Here, Passes Away at Ripe Age of 81 Years

Died, at Fort Worth, Texas, December 16, 1917, J. A. Cameron, better known by his friends as "Uncle Alec," who had been a well-known resident of this city, at intervals, for nearly fifty of the eighty one years of his life.

aad54tunSrloSNYjyears Mich

Born, in Cnnada, of Scotch parents, his was a long and eventful career, in which he was always found doiag his share of what was to be done; whether clearing a backwoods farm in Canada or mining in the northwest, raising cotton in Texas or breaking and shipping horses from Texas to northern Michigoa. He was the husband of three estimable women and the father of ten children, six of whom survive him and are a credit to their parents and the communities in which they reside.

He was a member for many years of the Masonic order and of the Odd Fellows and altbough blind for the last twenty years of his life was a regulnr attendant nt their meetings until the infirmities of age prevented.

"Uncle Alec" was a champion wrestler and there were few who cared to meet him as such, even in his later years. Always an accomplished dancer, he was ever welcome in the hallroom and as an entertainer, he had few equnls. Generous to a fault nnd hospitable to a degree—none ever left hia house hungry or asked for assistance of any kind in vain.

Those who knew him best loved him most and we cnn safely say that few men of such aa advanced age, after so active a life, have so many friends and so few enemies.

Now is the Time to Buy Your Saginaw Silo

Soft corn, of this past harveat—thousands of acres of it—has caused the silo to be recognized as an ABSOLUTE NECESSITY. There is an unprecedented demand for silos and this demand will far exceed the supply in our opinion.

Large government contracts are consuming silo material, and the available material for use in silos is very limited. Then, again, congested shipping conditions and higher freight rates warrant your acting immediately.

For 1918 the Saginaw Silo line will be complete—a silo for every need and pocketbook. You have your choice—the famous Saginaw Steel-built Silo, the Saginaw Leader Silo or the McClure Tile Silo.

Don't wait and lose money that you can now save, and take chances on securing the type of silo which you prefer.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

The mail man on R. R. one will make the rounds on time, if anyone can, but last week there was no telling when he would come. Only failed to cover part of the route Monday.

We read in the Grand Rapids Press that one of the guards at Camp Waco proved to be a twelve year old boy and had given his age as eighteen when he enlisted. We have a boy twelve years old in Dist. No. one that is taller and heavier than this would be soldier, so is eligible for enlistment if height and weight were the only requirements.

The advice given in a letter written to the 6th grade pupils in Petoskey high school by a soldier at Camp Custer, should be read and followed by every rural school boy. He told them to improve their time while in school. He said he was glad he did not stop at the 8th grade, or high school, for education counted in the army as well as elsewhere.

VITAL SHORTAGE IN SEED CORN

IS FACING AGRICULTURISTS OF MICHIGAN

Situation Desperate—M. A. C. Hints That Speculators Are Holding Back the Supply

Will there be a Michigan corn crop in 1918?

The answer to this question is not as certainly affirmative as might be expected. In fact, at this time when the Michigan farmers are writing for their seed catalogues, and are planning the 1918 planting, there is practically no seed corn available in the state. There is an abundance, of course, of the corn grown in 1917 but authorities agree that the crop is practically worthless for seed.

Alfred F. Brown, president of the Alfred J. Brown Seed Company, reviewed the situation as follows:

"The 1917 crop is not good for seed," said Mr. Brown. "Cold weather came too soon, injuring the germ. As a result only a very small per cent of the 1917 corn will germinate. There are a few exceptions where farmers took early corn and packed seed stock from this where it was artificially dried and fully protected from frost. That corn is O. K., if it was not stored when too green.

Advises Seed Tests

"Any farmers who have such corn or any of their 1916 crop remaining must not waste it. If they will send a sample prepaid with their names to the Brown Seed company, we shall be glad to test it for them free as a part of our patriotic bit. The M. A. C. also will do the same."

There have been rumors that speculators control practically all of the available seed corn, but Mr. Brown is not impressed by those reports.

"There is not enough corn to make it worth while to speculate," he says. And, anyway, I don't believe there is a tendency on the part of Michigan merchants to be unpatriotic in these matters."

Professor J. W. Nicholson of M. A. C. was in Grand Rapids recently investigating the seed corn situation. He conferred with Mr. Brown and was assured of fullest support in any efforts that might be taken to preserve whatever seed is available.

Hint at Speculation

According to Professor Nicholson, the only course open to Michigan is importation of seed corn. Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa corn is of no value for seed in Michigan. However there is a possibility that some might be brought from New York or the Dakotas. If any can be obtained the Brown Seed company has promised to handle it practically at the cost of storage, handling, etc.

M. A. C. officials, however, are not in agreement with Mr. Brown as regards speculation in seed corn. From East Lansing comes a report that one man at least is holding 200 bushels of the valuable grain for a price of 25 cents a pound or $4 a bushel.

The Indiana Food Administrator has fixed $5 a bushel as the maximum price and some action may be taken to obtain a similar ruling from Michigan Administrator Prescott.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

Old Boreas tried and failed. Even despite the blizzard that was sweeping the city, a goodly number of fans wended their way through a driving gale to the roller ring to see the Red and White trim Alden, by a score of 29 to 19.

Alden started strong and showed great class, but the high school managed to keep the lead by virtue of good basket shooting. The Alden score was kept down by Charlevoix's fine man defense, which continually broke up promising plays. The first half ended 12 to 8.

The second half was much like the first and the ball was in Charlevoix's hands much of the time. The locals were apparently not up to form, as many shots were missed, but, even in the face of this, Alden was outclassed until the end. Cartier shot eight baskets, Butler shot four and Krulik two. Cartier made one out of three trials at the foul line.

The work of the teams throughout the game was snappy and very few fouls were made.

Charlevoix meets Boyne City at Boyne on Friday night and, as that team recently defeated Traverse City, a close score is expected.

COMMUNICATIONS

The man of the hour is the ship builder. The submarine danger is not over. Ships are being sunk faster than they are being replaced. Shipbuilding must be speeded. Col. House on his return from the international conference with the allies in Europe, said that Joffre, Clemenceau, and Lloyd George were concerned as to whether we would make good on our shipbuilding program.

Ships are today the biggest factor in winning this war, we must carry food and munitions to the allies, while we train our army. Soon we will have to transport 2,000,000 men to France. These men will require 1,260 ships the size of the largest American liners to keep them supplied with guns, food, clothing and ammunition. Besides this we need ships to bring the imports into this country. We need 700,000 tons of maganese from South America; 175,000 tons of chrome ore from New Caledonia; 1,500,000 tons of nitrates from South America; 1,200,000 tons of pyrites from Spain; 3,000,000 tons of raw sugar from Cuba and Porto Rico; 200,000 tons of wool from Australia and Argentine; 1,000,000 bales of hemp from the Philippines. All this work must be accomplished with ships.

To meet this demand for ships we have to overcome great difficulties. Our shipping has been entrusted to foreign steamers since the Civil war. Shipbuilding has lapsed and we have few shipyards, and few experienced ship mechanics. But much has been accomplished. We now have shipyards in 25 states on both coasts and on the great lakes. The Newark yard was built in 72 days, and will employ 20,000 men. We now have 114 shipyards in this country. We have 1,437 ships started with a tonnage over 8,500,000 tons. Our present program is double that of England's and 15 times greater than our normal output.

The government understands the situation best and at this stage deems ships her most crucial need. Men in the shipyards are regarded by the War Department as doing work equal to military duty. Even men already in the army are being sent to the shipyards for duty.

The great needs of the shipbuilding program today is MEN. At the beginning new men were needed, but now the work demands that every man who can work with tools, give his help to the building of ships. Automobile mechanics, plumbers, tinsmiths, carriage builders, iron workers, and mechanics.

The need is great. We owe it to our country, we owe it to the brave boys in France, we owe it to our allies, we owe it to ourselves. The war against the kaiser will be won only if our shipbuilding program is a success. It is at the present time the pivotal point of the world war. Talk ships, spread the news, possibly you can go and build ships, if so address Hon. Albert E. Sleeper, chairman of War Preparedness Board, Lansing, Mich., for details in reference to wages and etc.—"FOUR MINUTE MAN."

EXPOSED WATER PIPES.

How to Keep Them From Freezing In Cold Weather.

Exposed water pipes are apt to freeze in winter, causing much annoyance, which may be prevented by covering them with the following mixture, says a contributor to Popular Science Monthly: To a solution of thin boiled starch add sawdust until the mixture forms a thick paste. A fine sieve may be used to clear this sawdust from lumps.

Heavy cord is first wrapped around the pipe, spacing the turns about one-half inch. A one-quarter inch layer of the mixture is smeared on and allowed to dry; then a second layer is put on and smoothed up. The string acts as an anchor to make the coating adhere to the pipe closely. Whitewash or paint may be used to give a finish for inside pipes, but for outside work cover the coating with hot tar. If it is desired to have a very neat covering wrap the sawdust coating with cloth or canvas, applying it in narrow strips like a bandage and painting the outside surface. An oven coating of the sawdust is necessary when covering with cloth.

NEW DEATH TESTS.

How to Tell When Life Has Actually Ceased.

An Italian scientist describes the following three new methods of determining the cessation of life:

The first is the ether test. A drop of ether is instilled into the conjunctival sac of one eye. If this is followed by a reddening of the conjunctiva it affords proof that the circulation is intact and that life is still present. The other eye is used as a control.

The second test consists in the subcutaneous injection of fluorescin, which, if the individual is still living, is soon followed by a yellowish coloring of the skin, and mucous membrane of the mouth and particularly of the frenum of the tongue show this coloration most distinctly. A negative result is obtained in cases of marked slowing or enfeeblement of the circulation.

The third test consists in direct exploration of the heart by means of a stylet. This is introduced through a small incision in one of the intercostal spaces. Any movement in the heart is communicated to the stylet.

Cowpox is a highly infectious disease and must run its course. It is easily spread among animals, and even man may become infected if the discharge gets into a fresh wound on the hands, in which case regular vaccination, the same as for smallpox, results. Bathe udder twice a day with a warm 5 per cent solution of creolin and when dry apply a little carbolated vaseline. Affected animals should be milked and cared for after the others to avoid infecting healthy ones. The hands should also be washed in the creolin solution after working with them. It is well to separate the diseased ones entirely from the healthy to prevent spreading.

SHAKING UP OFFICIALDOM

Public censure of the War Department for its dilatory system of equipping and clothing the army is nothing more than a gentle zephyr compared to the storm that would have broken later had not the timely exposures been made and prevented more serious consequences to our troops.

The sudden transition of the United States into a warring nation brought about such abrupt changes in our domestic and foreign affairs that many government officials, ably and well suited to their executive capacities in time of peace, were found wanting in the hour of strenuous preparations to enter the greatest conflict in the world's history. It could not be expected that a cabinet selected to administer routine affairs in ordinary peace times could cope with the exigencies arising out of a war crisis of a magnitude such as the nation is now facing.

Minor changes have been made in the war department already, and it is apparent that many changes of more importance will be made before the war is over. Weeding out incompetent cabinet officers is a part of the regular war program of any nation. Lincoln made short shift of the inefficient. President McKinley did not delay in getting rid of one of Michigan's sons making other changes necessary even in the little brush with Spain. No doubt President Wilson will find it expedient to get another secretary of war and perhaps revamp his entire cabinet before the year is out.

The administrative government of England was a storm center ever since war was declared, until Lloyd George recently became premier, took hold of the reins and brought order and efficiency out of official chaos. France has had similar experiences, and it was the inefficiency of Czar Nicholas and his bureaucrats in the war that gave the revolutionists an opportunity to overthrow the throne and proclaim a democracy. Even in Germany, with its almost perfect military machinery, changes have been necessary in the official family to meet the harrowing vicissitudes of war. And it must be remembered that in Germany officials are not novices in the game of diplomacy and war efficiency. They are educated for it from childhood, tutored by the most expert, sent abroad to acquire learning and given the school of experience at home. Yet with all this expertness, Germany has found occasions when changes were advisable.

"Our object is to win the war," declared President Wilson, "and we shall not slacken or suffer ourselves to be diverted until it is won."

That is the situation in a nutshell. Our object is to win the war, and if we win the war, we must have the greatest efficiency possible not only in the war department, but in every department of the government down to the private in the rear rank, and in every phase of civil affairs which must be adjusted to war needs and requirements. It is no time for quibbling about "who's who." We must deal in "what's what."

PRANKS, "PEP" AND PATRIOTISM

The boy who played several pranks at the high school before he left to join the navy, is the type of boy who will make it hot for any of the kaiser's sailors should the opportunity present itself. Not that mischievousness is a requisite for good seamanship and valor, but harmless mischievousness is an indication that a boy is full of "pep" and energy, and "pep" and energy are needed to make good sailors and soldiers.

The boy who has no sense of humor, ever champs at the bits of restraint and school-decorum, sees nothing in life but a molly-coddle humdrum routine, is not going to get very far in the navy or the army, or in civilian occupation. He is likely to lead an uninteresting life, be content to mope along, and with age, become a cynic and pessimist who would take all the joy out of life for himself and others and see nothing worth while.

Pranks, "pep" and patriotism is a good combination in a boy's makeup and the boy who possesses these three "p's," along with the three "r's" will succeed in life, no matter if it is in the army, navy, office, factory, business or agricultural pursuits.

The kaiser's system of diplomacy reminds one of that old adage "When the devil is sick a monk he'll be; when the devil is well a devil of a monk is he."

No matter if the allies do obtain supremacy of the air, those German diplomats will retain supremacy of the hot air.

When the kaiser is asked if he will annex any one part of the world he shakes his head and says "nine."

The "brutality" of President Wilson's peace terms must make those pan-Germans shiver with horror.

It seems that the war aims of the civilized world also are its peace terms.

Wonder if Lafollette knows what the United States is fighting for now.

If "pride goeth before a fall" the kaiser is in for a mighty long drop.

It will take more than a foot of snow to make Chicago's sins white.

Does the senator from Wisconsin approve firing on the Red Cross.

How dare this man Trotsky give the kaiser so much of his lip.

"Why doesn't the kaiser take a hunch and quit?"

KAISER BILL HAD HENCHMEN ALL PICKED

Certain Grand Rapids Germans Selected For City's Rulers

The pre-war plans Germany made for the invasion and subjugation of this country, says the Michigan Tradesman in its issue of January, 16th, were so complete in detail as to include a tentative form of government for every city Germany proposed to occupy. The Tradesman has in its possession the names of pro-German citizens of this city who had been selected by a member of the German diplomatic staff to act as the kaiser's representative in the municipal administration of Grand Rapids. These names and the positions assigned them in the Germanic schedule will probably be disclosed in the near future. There will be a lively scrambling when the disclosure is made.

There will be a dance at the Ironton Grange hall on Friday, February 1, 1918. Good order, good music and good eats. Everybody come. 4t2 Pd

To Our Customers

To our old customers to whom we have extended credit, and to new customers who may ask for credit, we desire to make plain our position regarding the handling of our business during the year 1918.

Business conditions are abnormal; all current expenses have increased from 25 to 50 per cent. Merchants demand either cash or limit us to 30 days credit. The coal man demands his money in advance or as soon as the coal is delivered—and we consume tons of it during a season. Seemingly everyone is demanding CASH in advance. We cannot meet these demands and do a credit business. If we should continue to extend credit to everyone, we might as well close our doors. We are placing the situation squarely before you and in the future are forced to demand cash for our products. Please remember this—your orders will be delivered with the same care and promptness as heretofore—but have the amount due us ready when the order is delivered. Otherwise you may be disappointed.

We are forced to take these drastic steps by existing conditions which have affected all lines of business and hope our customers will willingly comply with our request.

Yours for a better business,

Charlevoix high school defeated Alden last Thursday night at the roller rink by a score of 29 to 19. Charlevoix was not quite up to form, but managed to outclass their opponents at that.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Verl O. Cram of Flint, Michigan, on January 15th, a six and one half pound boy, Robert Leroy. Mrs. Cram was formerly Miss Florence Hanshew of this city.

Glenn R. Dolberg, formerly of this city, has enlisted in the field artillery and is located at Jefferson barracks, St. Louis, Missouri, temporarily awaiting definite assignment to some command.

Grace Daniels left for Detroit Friday, where she will enter the employ of the Corl-Knott Company, wholesale milliners, to finish her course in that art begun in Miss Anna Wagnanr's Hat Shop here.

From all indications, the boys forming the original Company I, Thirty-third Infantry (now Headquarters Company, 125th U. S. Infantry) are somewhere in France, as word was received some time ago that they were on the move.

So many people are asking how much flour they can buy. The following paragraph is from the official instructions: "Flour in towns and cities should be sold in eight to quarter barrel quantities; in rural and farm communities in quarter to half barrel quantities."

Emil Nasson, of Eveline township, left Friday noon for Grand Rapids, with the intention of taking examination for the aviation corps. A telegram received by his family Tuesday stated thnt the young man was lenving thnt morning for South Carolinn, from which we presume he was successful in his quest.

Letters received last week from Charles Gonser and David Howord who are living in Muskegon, indicate that the snow blockade has been as troublesome in that ci t yeaeswyv troublesome in that city as everywhere else. Funny how fate alwnys gets the wrong man in the right place, or the right mnn in the wrong place, or both, or vice versn, or some other darned kind of a mix-up. We know it, because he says so.—Petoskey News. Yes. We have severol in Charlevoix of the same calibre. But real talent is never recognized.

NOTES FROM CAMP CUSTER

AND THEY ARE BUGLE NOTES — AT THAT

Band of 337th Infantry Is Under Leadership of Bohumir Kryl—Snow Blocks Weekly Trips

(By Our Special Correspondent)

Several of the bands in camp are practicing under the direction of the renowned band leader, Bohumir Kryl. Next week they will make a concert tour of adjacent cities under the leadership of Mr. Kryl. It is inspiring to hear these soldier boys play with a spirit and enthusiasm which speaks well for their success. A Charlevoix boy playing in the 337th Inf. Regimental Band, is anticipating much pleasure and advantage from this trip.

—o—

Now is the time to make helmets, trench caps and socks for the soldiers in camp. In the cold, wind-swept hills of Camp Custer, all protection possiblo is needed, as frozen feet and faces are a poor equipment for them to take to Europe.

—o—

The terrific storm of Saturday and Sunday held up all trains and interurban cars so that the Custer boys were deprived of their usual Saturdny and Sunday nfternoon outings to town. A few of the more venturesome came in on a motor truck and two busses, taking three hours for a trip that should take about twenty minutes.

—o—

In our young days we were taught a pretty little verse which I think runs thusly:

So from force of habit when we go to camp, we very politely turn to the right, presently coming face to face with a patrol, and we are accosted with the brisk, sharp command, "take the other side of the rond, plense." Of course, to show our respect for military nuthority we hurriedly cross to the other side, making a mental resolve that we will not have to be told on our return. Quite proud of our knowledge of camp life we return on the same side we were ordered to going, when we meet nnother patrol who seems to be possessed the same idea as the first patrol—thnt the other side of the road is the place where we belong. Quite bereft of our self-conceit, we cross to the other side again, a sadder and a wiser person, and go on our way, musing on the whys and wherefores of things.

A little roly-poly black bear cub is the special joy of Co. "L" of the 337 Inf. and Co. "M" of the same regiment are delighted by the antics of a monkey. Every Co. should have a mascot.

Pianos are now installed in most of the barracks, each man contributing a small nmount townrd the expense. There are some expert piano players among the selects who entertain the Co. with their skill. It is planned later to give concerts and entertainments in the barracks.

One can still see a company of soldiers with snow shovels over their shoulders, or busy clearing nway what remains of the recent heavy snow fall. The energy with which they have applied themselves to this extra special branch of a soldiers training is apparent by the clear open paths all over camp which a few days ago were partly blocked by snow drifts, in some places six to ten feet deep.

How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Ills Corrected

All over Charlevoix you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Charlevoix people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. Follow this Charlevoix citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

Rome Pappin, 117 Garfield Ave., says: "About three years ago I got wet while watching a fire and about a week later, was on my back suffering from rheumatic pains. For eight weeks I was in such bad shape I could hardly move. My kidneys were weak and acted irregularly and the kidney secretions were highly colored and unnatural. Dizzy spells came over me and spots floated before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills straightened me up in a short time, curing all the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pappin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BEEF'S HEART CASSEROLED.—Thoroughly wash a large beef's heart in lukewarm water, changing the water four or five times. Open the heart enough to remove the ventricles and cover it with equal parts of vinegar and water for two hours. Drain and wipe very dry, then fill with poultry, chestnut or oyster stuffing and draw the opening together with a soft cord. Wrap the heart in two or three thicknesses of cheesecloth and steam it for two hours. Remove the cloth and place the heart in a casserole; pour over the heart hot water and butter (one tablespoonful of butter to one cupful of water), one teaspoonful salt, one-fourth teaspoonful pepper, one tablespoonful sherry; cover and place in oven and bake two hours. Turn the heart in the heat several times after placing it in the casserole. Hot water or stock may be added if necessary.

Casseroled Calf's Liver.—In three or four tablespoonfuls salt pork drippings sauto (cook in a small amount of fat) two cupfuls of uncooked potato cubes, one cupful carrot cubes and one cupful celery stalks cut in one inch pieces. When delicately browned place in a casserole. Wash and cut a calf's liver in slices, lay on top of the vegetables, sprinkle with salt and pepper, add two cupfuls boiling hot water and two teaspoonfuls kitchen bouquet. Cover and cook in moderate oven from one to one and one-half hours.

Veal Chops en Casserole.—Saute in hot butter veal chops that have been lightly dredged in flour. Place in a casserole, add an equal amount of flour to the hot butter (there should be two or three tablespoonfuls) and brown; add one cupful of tomato puree (canned or fresh tomato cooked slowly until reduced to a thick consistency) and one or one and one-half cupfuls of stock (or stock made from trimmings); cook until thick and well blended; season with salt, paprika, grated onion and celery. Cover the casserole, place below the middle of a moderately heated oven and cook one hour. Parboiled onions, six or eight, may be added just before covering the casserole.

Anna Thompson

Absolutely no food at all should be given young turkeys until the third day after hatching, and then the important question is less what to feed than how much. Boiled egg mixed with rolled oats, rubbed fine, and a good third of cracker crumbs is the best food. Don't let them have much, just a bite or two. Don't be overcredulous to the often told tale that a baby turk has no appetite. Some of them are as greedy as pigs, and their digestive apparatus is so delicately adjusted that a few bites too much upset them. Leave corn and corn products entirely out of their menu for best results and keep a varied assortment of grits always in reach.

REASONS FOR HIGH FOOD COST

BATTLE SCARRED NATIONS PRODUCE LITTLE

Every Person Connected With Food Production Receives Larger Wages Than Before

Where there is war, food cannot be produced. A steel plow helps production, but steel is not a good cultivator when it breaks the land in the form of a shell. That has been shown in France, Italy, Belgium and all of the other countries shattered by battle. But a nation can be at war and still maintain production, if the battle lines do not encroach on the farms. That has been shown in Germany and is being shown in the United States. We have been charged with the tremeduous task of feeding our associates in this war, of maintaining production on a scale that will meet our actual needs and still leave enough to fill the gap between Europe's production and consumption. The only solution is to reduce our own use of the foods most needed abroad. We must employ substitutes for beef, pork and mutton, wheat, sugar and fats. This war is as much ours as it is Europe's, and there is no reason why we should ask Europe to bear all of the sacrifices and deprivations.

Did you ever stop to wonder why food prices are high in war time? Or have you just complained about the fact that they are high, and then wondered why in the world the government hasn't stepped in and brought them back to the antebellum level?

The next time you complain about prices, stop to think of the farmer who grew the things you are buying. Do you know that he is paying $2 or $2.50 a day for labor he could get before the war for $1 or $1.25—and that he is having a mighty hard time getting anybody at all? Do you know that every railroad in the country is congested and that it is much more difficult to get farm products to market than it was a year ago? Do you know that the man who buys food from the farmers and then distributes it to the wholesale dealers, has to pay much more for his labor than he did before the war? And do you know that all of his necessary expenses have been on the ascendant? Do you know that the wholesale dealer is paying wages and salaries that he could scarcely have dreamed of a few years ago—and that the same thing is true of the ratailers?

And then, on the other hand, when you wonder why the government hasn't taken a hand, have you stopped to consider that prices have risen on a much lower scale than has ruled in other wars? Have you thought when you paid nine or ten cents for sugar, with the country going through an actual sugar famine, that it would have gone much higher had not the government, through the United States food administration, taken measures to stabilize the market? Have you stopped to wonder why the wholesale price of flour is less than $11 a barrel, when it went as high as $15 last summer and threatened to keep mounting? Have you remembered that the farmer is getting more money out of $10 or $11 flour today than he got out of $14 or $15 flour six months ago?

No, you haven't thought of those things. You just know that prices are high and you wonder why "somebody doesn't do something about it." If you stopped to think, maybe your tone would change from complaint to wonder. Prices are high, but the wonder is that they are not far higher, when you come to think of it.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

WHY THIS GERMAN HATES THE KAISER—EXHIBTS THUMBS

Peter Becht, of Baltimore, Ohio, formerly a soldier in the German army, fearing tabulation by the police as an enemy alien, went to the registration station to set himself right, and displayed two crooked thumbs for which the kaiser was personally responsible as evidence that he had no leaning toward Hohenzollernism.

"I served in the German army three times," he said. "The kaiser struck me while I was a member of the Stuttgart cavalry in 1886. The kaiser was reviewing the cavalry. I was in the front rank. Apparently he did not like the position of my thumbs, as my hands held the reins of my horse, and he struck them with the back of his sword.

"I was a blockheaded fool to stay in Germany long enough to serve the kaiser. I came to the United States twenty-seven years ago."

GOOD ROADS IN NATION'S FORESTS

Uncle Sam Will Open Up New Public Playgrounds.

A SCENIC WONDERLAND

The National Forests Number 150 and Cover an Area of About 162,000,000 Acres—These Are to Be Made Accessible by an Appropriation of $10,000,000.

Uncle Sam is preparing to open up a new public playground to the people of the United States.

The national forests—150 of them, covering an area of about 162,000,000 acres—are to be made accessible by the expenditure of the recent appropriation by congress of $10,000,000 for roads through these hitherto little known sections. A million dollars a year is to be spent by the forest service for the next ten years in this work, and, inasmuch as the states and counties will contribute a like amount, government officials figure that approximately 6,000 miles of new road will be constructed during the life of the appropriation.

This mileage will not only make it possible for travelers to penetrate to the heart of the virgin woods and enjoy scenic pleasures which have formerly been inaccessible, but it will form a species of insurance against forest fires which has been almost entirely lacking in the past, in addition to rendering far more habitable the hot and otherwise disagreeable sec tions lying on the outskirts of the forests, districts from which the residents now have to travel scores of miles to secure relief from the heat.

The forest service had been trying for years to obtain from congress an appropriation which would enable them to construct these much needed roads, but the legislation always failed. The bill, however, was finally passed, and last summer the service was notified that the money was available for the needs of the wooded sections set aside by the government for the use of the people.

"The $10,000,000 appropriation, carried as a part of the $85,000,000 good roads bill," said Chief Forester Henry S. Graves in discussing the matter recently, "will mean a great deal not only to the forests and the residents of the adjacent country, but to the people of the United States as a whole. It will mean that we will be able to construct about five times as many miles of road per year as formerly, that the interior of the forests, containing some of the most wonderful natural scenery on the continent, will be opened to easy automobile travel; that the forest rangers will be enabled to fight the costly forest fires with far greater ease than formerly and that the residents of nearly low sections, who formerly had no relief from the heat of summer, will now be able to enjoy the coolness of the woods near by instead of traveling many miles to some more accessible spot.

"The road problem of the forests is being met in two ways—first, by the work of public improvements being carried on by the government in the forests, and second, by the direct contribution to the counties from a share in the receipts from the forests. Every year the government has built in the forests roads, trails, bridges, telephone lines and other improvements. The national forests have been under administration only a decade, yet there have already been constructed 2,600 miles of roads, 22,000 miles of trails, some 600 bridges and nearly 20,000 miles of telephone lines. Every one of these improvements benefits some settlers and ranchers. Many are the communities made accessible through the roads, bridges and trails; many of the ranchers have been brought into pleasant and profitable communication with neighbors and outside places by the forest service and telephones, and many tourists have witnessed new scenic delights through the work of the service."

DELECTABLE PIE.

BEFORE we have a pie recipe let's have a good pie crust, as the best pie filling ever made can be ruined by poor, tough or soggy crust: One cupful flour, heaped; one-half level teaspoonful baking powder, one saltspoonful salt, one-fourth cupful lard, one-fourth cupful butter. Mix baking powder, salt and flour together, rub in lard and butter till fine and dry like meal. Mix to stiff paste with very cold or ice water. This makes a tender, crispy crust. If baked quickly and thoroughly it is as little harmful to digestion as any pastry can possibly be. If a flaky crust is desired put in only the lard. Pat and roll out to one-third inch thick, dot with the butter, dust on flour and fold in thirds; pat and roll out again, dot with remainder of butter and roll up like jelly roll. Cut from the end and proceed as in ordinary puff pastry.

Transparent Pie.—For pastry take one cupful flour, one-half cupful lard, one-fourth teaspoonful salt; mix with ice water. Line pan with pastry, add a layer of fruit, butter or jam of any flavor desired; then a layer of mixtures made of yolks of three eggs beaten very light with one-half cupful of sugar and one-half cupful melted butter. Bake well. Add meringue made of beaten whites and sugar. Brown in quick oven, and it is rich and delicious.

Apple Meringue Pie.—Pare, slice, stew and sweeten ripe, tart and juicy apples. Mash and season with nutmeg or stew lemon peel with them for flavor. Fill crust and bake till done. Spread over the apple a thick meringue made by whipping to froth whites of three eggs for each pie. Sweeten with three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, flavor with vanilla, beat until it will stand alone and cover pie three-quarters of an inch thick. Set back in a quick oven till well "set" and eat cold. In season substitute peaches for apples.

Cream Pie.—The easiest way to make cream pie is to use whipped cream. The crust is first baked and covered with a layer of jelly; then this is covered with a layer of whipped cream and sweetened to taste. Sometimes milk is boiled and sweetened and thickened with a little cornstarch and then added to the layer of jelly. Sprinkle powdered sugar over the top and then serve cold.

Mrs. Isa Alward is on the sick list this week.

The fuel situation looks rather grave for our school, as coal is out of the question and the snow makes it next to impossible to get wood. But "cheer up," it may not be so bad as it looks.

Mrs. C. E. Bearss called on Mrs. Isa Alward Sunday.

Russell Alward of Atwood visited his brother, Isa Alward Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jacob Bergsma received a short visit from her brother and wife and a brother-in-law of Grand Rapids last week.

Mrs. Andrew Bergsma and baby are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bergsma at present.

ELLSWORTH SCHOOL NOTES

Friday afternoon there will be a Michigan Day program in the school in honor of the eighty-first anniversary of Michigan's entrance into the union.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week the schools will be closed because of the county teachers' institute. All of the teachers plan to go.

Attendance at school has improved greatly since the roads have been opened up.

The following students in the ninth and tenth grade got out of taking a mid-term exam. because they have an average of 90 or above in the subject, Miss Mamie Peebles, Violet Rogers, Blanche Boss. 10th—Alex Sinclair, Walter McElroy and John Ruis, 9th grade. Everyone is going to work harder to see if they can't improve their standings for the remainder of the year.

Albert Larsen has been out of school for a week because of illness.

Mable Walker has been kept home for two weeks because of her mother's sickness.

Ethel Alward had to go home because her mother is sick.

The fourth grade are writing letters to send to children in a school in Virginia.

Two children in the primary room, Margaret Harris and Bertha Miller, have been awarded large certificates for perfect attendance.

Nellie Fnies, from the Pleasant Hill school is a new pupil in the primary room.

PLEASANT HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor spent Sunday in Ellsworth.

Mr. Sinclair was busy last week breaking out roads.

Lee Bearss has been on the sick list the past two weeks.

Mr. Patterson and Reid Gennett are threshing in this vicinity.

Last week many were absent from school on account of the storm.

Mrs. Harry Davey and son are visiting at the home of Smith Rogers.

A few children from the camp were absent from school on account of bad roads.

Jeff Bearss was called to Shelby last week Friday on account of his brother's death.

Mr. Fielstra sold some dry stove wood to Mr. Elzinga and Miss Larsen last Saturday.

Seems pretty good to see the sun out again after these heavy snow storms, doesn't it?

Mr. and Mrs. Mattus Rubingh visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeYounge last Thursday.

Harm DeYounge, who was visiting the southern part of the state a few weeks, has returned home again.

Mr. Patterson and Mr. Gennett were threshing beans around this neighborhood the past week and on account of the bad snow storm they could not finish it.

Our teacher, Miss Edith L. Cady, needs more than a snow storm and a forty-mile-an-hour gale to deter her from her purpose. She started from her home last Monday in that big storm and even if she did have to crawl on her hands and knees, she got there on time for school to start.

ANTRIM CITY

Mr. Baumback has been baling hay which he is to ship from Central Lake

On account of the severe storms, the mail has been delayed, only going through our city once last week.

A. Brower's little girl has been quite sick. Dr. Ramsay of East Jordan was called. Glad to hear she is better now.

We had a couple "Merry Widows" here as Mr. Stoel has been employed at the new school house at Ellsworth and Mr. F. Simon went to Grand Rapids. That's the kind of wives to have.

In view of all the dismemberment of Russia it would be interesting to know who Trotsky represents.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

It makes no difference to us whether your corn, oats, wheat, rye or buckwheat is dry or wet—we grind it just the same, and do as good work as if the grain was dry.

New Machine Installed

We have installed a new grinding machine that will grind either wet or dry grain. In the past wet grain was almost impossible to grind with the old machine we had. The new machine does the work in a most satisfactory manner. We grind every day—and you will have but a short time to wait. Remember we have Oil Meal, Schumaker's Feed, Middlings, Bran, etc., at prices as low as any place in the county. Buy your feeds of us.

NEW SLOGAN BY ARMY Y. M. C. A.

"KINDLY KWIT KUSSING" IS THE NEW SLOGAN

If You Curse In Your Home Curse Here—We Want You to Feel at Home

"Kindly Kwit Kussing."

This is the slogan, spelled in whimsical fashion, which the Y. M. C. A.'s of the various big cantonments in the central military department are adopting in a campaign to reduce profanity among the soldier boys and thereby improve the moral tone of the camps. In some of the big camps a distinct falling off in swearing has been noticed as a result of the "clean language" efforts.

Many pointed phrases, displayed prominently in the red triangle huts, now serve to remind the men of the objectionable character of profanity. One of these reads:

"If you curse in your own home, curse here. We want you to feel at home."

Recently an enlisted man at one of the writing benches in a hut spewed forth a mouthful of oaths which were overheard by a secretary.

"Just put that in a letter to your mother some time," said the secretary suggestively. Four days later the young man laid a neatly written letter before the secretary with the statement: "That's to my mother—the first I've written her in seven years. The hint you gave me the other day made me realize my duty towards her—and I've decided to cut the cussing, too."

Reports from the cantonments show also that gambling has fallen into the discard before the ingenuous onslaughts of the Y. M. C. A. workers. Absorbing athletic games have served to divert the attention of the men and give them something wholesome to think about. In one camp the interest excited in volley ball, as a voluntary recreation, almost completely broke up the practice of crap playing. A secretary happened to witness a group of men engaged in "rolling the bones" and shouted in military fashion:

"All out for basket ball."

The game broke up immediately, the boys naturally preferring a game that brought their muscles into active play.

MATCH SETS FIRE IN CLOSET

VALUABLE CLOTHING DESTROYED IN SMALL BLAZE

Housewife Explores Closet With a Lighted Match—Results Hit H. C. of L.

Saturday evening, at about 5:30 p. m., fire broke out in the home of Mrs. A. VanAllsburg on Antrim street, and created quite a bit of excitement for a time, although it was extinguished before great damage had been done.

Mrs. VanAllsburg had returned from a shopping trip to town and entered the clothes closet in her bedroom to get an apron. As the closet was dark, she lit a match before entering. She passed out into the dining room and a moment or two later heard a roaring sound proceeding from the room she had just left. She went back to find the bedroom filled with smoke and flames bursting from the closet. Running to the door, she called "fire" two or three times and was answered promptly by Earl Shapton and George Block, who happened to be passing. One of the young men went to a nearby telephone and gave the alarm while the other ran to the house to do what he could before the arrival of the department.

By this time, the house was so full of smoke that Mrs. VanAllsburg had to lead the way to the blazing closet. The one who had turned in the alarm returned, accompanied by Forrest Fowler and the three men soon had the fire smothered with buckets of water, so that there was little left for the firemen to do when they arrived.

All of the clothing in the closet was totally destroyed. The woodwork and walls of the closet were completely gutted and the paper burned from the walls and ceiling in the bedroom, while a good deal of damage was done by the smoke, which was very heavy. The house and contents were covered by insurance, but the extent of the loss cannot be as yet ascertained.

THRIFT STAMP DRIVE NOW ON

COUNTY COMMITTEE FORMED TO PUSH SALE

Chairman H. K. Allen Expects to Call on Many Representative Citizens to Do Their Bit

The War Savings campaign drive is now on. Churches, schools and every business activity in Charlevoix and all parts of the county will soon be invaded by workers in the Thrift Stamp cause—a drive which is to continue with unabated earnestness until 1019.

In an interview, the other day, with H. K. Allen, manager of the Blanchard Hardware Company, who is Charlevoix county chairman of the campaign, he briefly outlined the plans of the government for pushing the War Savings Stamp idea, as applied to this county.

The savings scheme includes Thrift Stamps at 25c each, which are affixed to a thrift card. The total cost of this card for Janunry will be $4.12—the val ueof a Savings Certificate—which in five years will be payable at $5.00.

The purpose of the county organization is to conduct the sale of these stamps. The savings plan will be extended from post offices, where the stamps are now on sale, to banks, schools and business houses.

Chnirman, H. K. Allen.

Vice Chairman, Joseph G. Ekstrom.

Director of Publicity, E. A. Young.

Director of Thrift Clubs, A. B. Crimmins.

Assistant Director of Thrift Clubs, Glen Loomis.

Sales Distributor, George Finuean.

Director of Women's Clubs, Miss May L. Stewart.

In addition to the county organizntion, a chairman has been nppointed to take immediate charge of the work in each of the principal cities, towns and vilinges of the county. The roster is as follows:

Boyne City, Sabin Cooper.
East Jordan, W. P. Porter.
Boyne Falls, Herman Meyer.
Horton Bay, Wesley Dilworth.
Clarion and Walloon Lake, Lynn Clark.
Springvale, Peter Belew.
Phelps, H. L. Francisco.
Norwood, Rev. R. C. Parshall.
Benver Island, Rev. Fr. E. L. Jewell.

A large advisory committee will later be asked to serve and will be made up of the leading postmasters, manufncturers, merchants, bankers, boy scout executives, women's organization executives, representatives of foreign population, clergymen of all denominntions, mayors of leading cities and other representative patriotic men and women.

The purpose of Thrift Clubs or War Savings Societies will be three fold:

1. To awaken a realizntion among men, women nnd children that they enn render a patriotic service by refraining from purchase of all unnecessary articles, thereby realing labor nnd materials for the support of our army.

2. To encournge thrift nnd economy.

3. To invest funds saved through individual sacrifice and economy in War Savings stamps.

Pro-German: "It's a disgrace to criticize our administration for not hurrying more troops across. As Secretary Baker says, 'the war is 3,000 miles away, and besidea England has millions in the field to help France hold the line until we are better prepared to get over there."

CHEER UP, SPRING IS ON THE WAY! SAYS SHIVERY CITIZEN

Close upon the heels of winter's snow come the posies and vegetables of springtime. E'en as Mr. Shivory Citizen digs through the drifts to the woodshed he pauses anon to dream over his coming garden to decide where he will plant the onion bed and to figure out how mucb spaco he'll give to the potato patch.

And Mrs. Shivery Citizen, as she draws upon the store of canned goods and preserves she patriotically put up somo five or six months ogo, begins to look ahead to the coming food campaign and resolves to do a bit more in canning, pickling drying and preserving in the fruitful weeks soon to come.

And little Junior Shivery Citizen, diving into the snowdrifts has happy visions of the other diving days only a few weeks away.

This isn't such a bad old world after nll. The chills of winter serve only to make the balmy breezes of summer nll the more welcome.

ICE FORMS IN THE HARBOR OF BALTIMORE

Isaac Willis Writes It Was Foot and a Half Thick—Completely Ties Up Shipping

We have permission to quote the following lettor which was recently received by Mrs. Lnzarus Willis from her son, Isaac, who is a musician in the U. S. navy, written from the Emerson hotel, in Baltimore, Md., and which may be of interest to our renders, many of whom have known the young man, personally.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 13, 1918.

"My dear Mother:

"I received your letter and was very glad to hear from you and that you are well and happy. It was by accident that I am here at this hotel. I am here with a number of my friends. This hotel is considered the best in the city.

"It is such a wonderful city and there are so many things to see. The U. S. S. Kentucky is here on duty, breaking ice to let the shipping out. The river is frozen and it is stated that it is the first time in fifty yenrs since it has frozen so thick. It is such an experience that I cannot forget it, because it is so thick.

"I just received liberty, but it is Suoday and I really cannot do anything by writing letters. As I have stated, this is a wonderful city and the harbor was filled with ships from the different countries. We certainly had a time getting here. The ice was at least a foot and a half thick. The condition of the country is something awful—the roilroads are so congested on account of the shortnge of coal.

"I had some experience coming from Carlisle Indian school. The trains were all late. They certainly were not on schedule. I orrived on the ship 18 hours overtime and went up to the "music" but got off with it ensy. Please write soon.

"So long, from your son,

"I. S. Willis."

BUY A SMILEAGE BOOK FOR SAM

INVEST A DOLLAR IN CAUSE OF HAPPINESS

Sammy Needs Healthy Mental Recreation as Well as Physical—Read on and Dig Down

In all of the army cantonments, the government has erected buildings with a good stage and scenery, in which entertainments of varinus kinds, such as vaudeville performances, lectures, coneerts, moving pictures, and regular theatricals, can be given. To finance this circuit, one million dollars is necessary. A nation-wide campaign is now on, and the amount which our city is asked to contribute is $150.

In each community the secretary of the leeture or lyeeum bureau is asked to take charge of the campaign, and in this city, Supt. H. A. Craig of the city schools is the man thus named. Assistants will be chosen, and our people will be called on to buy what is known as a "Smilage Book," gotten up like railroad milenge, with detachnble tickets which the soldiers ean use for the entertainments. The hooks sell at $1 eneh. And each will be good for at least ten shows, the priees varying aecording to the character of the show, hut the soldiers will be able to see for 25e what they would have to pny at least $1 for in any city theatre, and if they had good seats, twice that sum.

Purchnsers of the "Smilage Books" can send them direct to any soldier friend at any cnntonment, or if he prefers, they will be sent to the Commanding General at some camp to be given to a soldier who has not received one from friends at home. The books ore transferable, and n soldier can tnke in a chum on his book.

Every one of our Charlevoix soldier boys should receive one of these books, and some extra ones to hnnd out to his friends. Nothing would please them more than to be able to say—"Here, old top! Here's a 'Smilage Book' my Chnrlevoix friends sent me to he given to one of my comrades. They are thinking of me back home." Let's mnke it possible for every one of our patriots now in camp to say this, and to show them thot we are with them ond back of them, let's moke this enmpaign to give our soldier boys good clean entertainment, a great success.

Of course, we have given liberally before. But we who are safe nnd snug here at home cnnnot do too much for those who wear the country's uniform. We must give, and give, and give, of our money. And if wo give it all, then we are still far behind in the way of sacrifice, to those who are offering their lives that we and ours may live in peaeo and sofety.

Hurrah for the "Smilage Books!"

NEW PHONE DIRECTORY OUT

MICHIGAN STATE'S LATEST BOOK A WINNER

Narrow Columns, More White Space and Logical Arrangement Make Reading Easier

A telephone directory to the layman seems to be a cut and dried affair ond off-hand there does not appear to be any particular problem involved in the making up of a directory.

The new issue just being delivered by the Michigan State Telephone Company, however, is filled with changes ond the reasons for those changes show that a telephone directory represents a large number of interesting questions.

A rearrnngement of the listings on the pages has made it possible to list twice as many names as heretofore. As a result, the subscriber referring to his directory finds the number much more quickly because he does not have to turn the pages more than half as much as he did before. A new type face has been used and the white space between the lines is more pronounced so that the listings are much more legible. It has been comparatively easy for a reader when consulting the telephone directory to get the wrong number, because his glance failed to follow the printed line. This has been especially true where the printed letters did not completely fill the line.

In the new directory, the column is much narrower and there are fewer listings where the names and numbers do not practically fill up the entire line. In this way, the chance of misreading is greatly reduced. The telephone number comes last, so that when the reader finds the name, he verifies the name, if necessary, by the address and finally reads the telephone number.

In other words, the placing of the telephone number last is perfectly logical and eliminates the possibility of getting the wrong number by jumping back over the line to the telephone number, as has been necessary heretofore.

All of these changes have been made after careful study. In one of the universities of the country, detailed and exhaustive experiments have been carried on as to the legibility of telephone listings. The results of these experiments have been used in making up the directory now being delivered and in addition, many improvements have been developed as a result of a study made by the directory experts of the Michigan State Telephone Company.

The new directory represents a saving in paper and a greater convenience to the subscriber; therefore, it is in tune with the spirit of the times, which calls for the elimination of waste and the greatest possible efficiency.

Services Are Free and Courtesy Will Be Used

In addition to what we published last week in regard to the alien enemy regulations, we give below a notice sent to the press and signed by United States Marshal, Herman O'Connor, which reads as follows:

"Artice VII, paragraph thirteen of Regulations: All registration officers are reminded thot many registrants will need assistance and advice in filling out their registration affidavits and they are requested to aid such persons in every proper way. Registrants are not to be treated as persons of evil disposition and the registration officers are urged to deal with them in a courteous and friendly manner."

It is also requested that no fees shall be charged nor gratuities accepted by registration officers for administering oaths, or for any other reason, and that publicity shall also be given to this order."

The Courier wishes to again impress upon its readers that publication of such notices as the above in the newspapers of the state will be considered as official notification, and the above and other similar notices should therefore be carefully noted.

LOCAL GERMAN ALIENS MUST BE REGISTERED —BY LOCAL POSTMASTER

All Charlevoix German aliens must be registered and the work is to be done by Postmaster, T. G. Finucan. Mr. Finucan has received word from the office of the U. S. marshal of this district that he is to have charge of the registration of all German aliens February 4 to 9, during postoffice hours.

This order applies to all male German aliens 14 years of age or over in Charlevoix and is compulsory. Even theough they may have been registered before will make no difference; they must register again.

The federal law provides that the widest possible publicity be given the registration dates. The newspapers are depended upon to inform all Germans of the provision.

WRITES FROM EL PASO, TEXAS

LOREN HART DOESN'T FAVOR DESERT LAND

Writing In Midst of Sand Storm, He Expresses Strong Preference for Michigan

Just received a letter dated January 12, from Loren Hart, now stationed nt El Paso, in which he says in part:

"There is a sand storm roging outside nnd the tent is uncomfortably full of dust. I suppose Harold told you about it when he was home. I am undergoing a period of watchful waiting—watchful, because about three officers are watching me and waiting for the examining board to sit in solemn session and pass on my qualifications.

"We have about 750 men in the unit nnd as soon as the full 1,163 arrive, we intend to move to Atlnnta, unless our orders are chnnged before then. Personally, I don't care how soon they move. El Poso has too many things not to my liking. You can imagine about how I feel—having always had lnkes nnd trees about me and then come down here to deserts and cnctus.

"The Mexicans go out and dig up the roots of cactus, which is a kind of hulb nbout as big as a large cabbage and extract alcohol from them, using the refuse for fuol."

Mr. Hart enlisted from here in December, being assigned to the mechanical repair department of the quartermaster corps of the army, stationed nt El Paso. We are certainly glad to heor from him, or from any other of the boys who have enlisted from this district. Their experiences are followed by us "stay-at-homes" with the keenest interest.

The college hopes to prepnre all her young men who go out to meet the ordinary dangers of trench and field. A special course in conversational French has also been organized to which only young men will be admitted.

Spring vacation nt the college has been abolished in order to save time for the young men who may be called into service, or who may go to the farms in the spring.

MACHINE KEEPS BOOKS AT BANK

BURROUGHS POSTING MACHINE A TRUE MARVEL

It Makes Entries In the Bank's Ledgers and Writes Up Depositors' Statements—Almost Human

A real mechanical marvel is the new bookkeeping machine that has just been installed at the Charlevoix State Snvings Bank. The machine is the Burroughs Adding-Subtracting Model and will greatly simplify the work of keeping the bank's books.

One should see this Burroughs in operation to fully appreciate what a wonderful thing it is. It automatically prints dates, subtracts checks, adds deposits and computes new balances, all in one movement of the carriage across the page, and with a speed that seems incredible. That is to say, the machine not only posts figures to the ledger page, but computes balances nutomatically as the posting is done.

Error-proof "Steel Brains"

And this automatic bookkeeper can't make a mistake. His "steel brains" nre mothemnticnlly error-proof. Depressing the keys puts figures "into" the Burroughs. Touching a bar adds or subtracts the figures and prints them in even rows. And no matter how fnst or how long you feed figures into it, the machine never gets tired, never lets errors creep in through "brain fag." It has just as lively an appetite for large numbers as for small. As a depositor you might deposit $10,000,000 tomorrow, but the machine would not have to exert itself to enter the nmount, add your old balance, subtract your checks and automatically compute the correct new balnnce of your account. The only time it balks is when you have an overdraft. Then it worns the operntor by the simple expedient of refusing to figure any more without the "subtract" lever is held down, that you nccount is overdrawn, and thereupon proceeds to print a red "OD" signal opposite the amount you need to get square with the bank.

Heretofore, in posting to the ledger it was necessary for a list of checks nnd deposits to be entered by hnnd in order for the bnnk to properly debit and credit each customer's account. The bookkeepers had to add each list of checks mentally, also had to add all deposits and combine their total with the customer's old balance. When that was done, the total of all the checks had to be deducted from the sum of old balance and deposits to delermine the new balance. With the machine all this is accomplished nutomatically and without any mental calculation whatever. The operator has only to depress the proper keys ond touch the operating bar.

Burroughs-posted ledgers have many advantages that even a person who is not familiar with bookkeeping will recognize. As explained, all figuring is handled mechanically, the operator being obliged only to watch the nmounts he is entering.

Then, in addition to the speed and economy such a method affords, there is the infallible accuracy accruing to the use of the machine. The precision with which the internal mechanism operates insures an exactitude heretofore unknown in figure work.

The adoptability of the new machine is another feature of its usefulness. It enn be adjusted to an infinite number of combinations It may be used as an ordinary adding machine, or as a straight substracting machine. It may be used for posting to the ledger or making our depositors' statements. And figures, whether simple or complicated, are gobbled up nnd digested with equal facility by the insatiable appetite of its mechanical "works." There is no human being who enn list nnd add a long column of figures at the same time with speed and with absolute accuracy, but the Burroughs does it.

Our days are whentless, meatless—
Cold and dreary; heatless;
Our pants will soon be sentless,

WAR PIE CONSERVATION

Every home and every army agrees that man must have a balanced meal, with a good dessert, either at home or in army rations.

That doesn't mean that you shouldn't economize in desserts these days.

You should and you can.

NONE SUCH Mince Pie is a very real dessert—none better. And a NONE SUCH package of Mince Meat works out the economy of pies, cakes, puddings, and cookies.

NONE SUCH is economical, because its condensed form and paraffin-lined package prevent waste.

It costs only a few cents and is cheaper than bulk mince meat bought by the pound.

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT is made from the very best ingredients. Just what you would use if you were making it yourself, and it comes to you cheaper than you could make it yourself.

A package of NONE SUCH Mince Meat becomes three times the package weight when the moisture in making is added.

Bake a NONE SUCH War Pie—a regular Mince Pie with no top crust. That saves flour, shortening, labor, and expense. A NONE SUCH War Pie saves and conserves, as we are asked to do by the U. S. Food Administration.

Now is the Time to Buy Your Saginaw Silo

Soft corn, of this past harvest—thousands of acres of it—has caused the silo to be recognized as an ABSOLUTE NECESSITY. There is an unprecedented demand for silos and this demand will far exceed the supply in our opinion.

Large government contracts are consuming silo material, and the available material for use in silos is very limited. Then, again, congested shipping conditions and higher freight rates warrant your acting immediately.

For 1918 the Saginaw Silo line will be complete—a silo for every need and pocketbook. You have your choice—the famous Saginaw Steel-built Silo, the Saginaw Leader Silo or the McClure Tile Silo.

Don't wait and lose money that you can now save, and take chances on securing the type of silo which you prefer.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It clears out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

How to Walk and Grow Thin is the Main Question.

Here is a simple method to reduce weight which has been used with great success:

Rise early and take a half hour walk in the air, walking a steady but alert gait. On returning home drink a cupful of hot water with plenty of salt. After a light breakfast, leaving the table not quite satisfied, take a hand working vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper with a long handle and keep up a steady, long reaching movement. This reduces the tops of the arms and removes the fat about the neck. Then take a duster and dust the legs of chairs and stretch to the tops of doors to get a steady bending and stretching movement. The treatment takes about two hours a morning, and by abstemious eating and occasional cupfuls of hot water with salt during the day, also one on retiring, the desired result is obtained and the health improved.

GROCERS PLEDGE TO HELP SAVE FOOD

Government Wants Control Of Large Number of Food Commodities

The grocery trade of the country is now enlisting in a voluntary campaign to carry out food administration recommendations, and the food administration has issued a pamphlet dealing with this work under the title of "Enlisting the Food Merchants." The basis of this campaign is a retailer'a pledge designed for the 460,000 retail grocers of the country, each of whom will be invited to sign it. This pledge is in the form of a large poster printed in two colors, and obligates the signer to give consumers the benefit of fair and moderate prices on the staple food articlea which the food ndministration seeks particularly to c ontrol. Actual price fixing is left to each dealer, a rensonable profit above cost to him on controlled articles being allowed, with a certain range for differences in prices due to difference in turnover and expenses. The commodities which the food administration seeks to control are as follows:

Apples, dried.
Beans, dried and canned.
Beef, fresh, canned and cured.
Corn syrup.
Cottonseed oil.
Eggs.
Fish, fresh nnd frozen.
Flour.
Fruits, fresh.
Hominy.
Lard.
Milk, fresh, canned and powdered.
Bread.
Butter.
Cheese.
Cooking fats.
Mollasses.
Mutton, fresh, canned and cured.
Oatmeal and rolled oats.
Oleomargnrine.
Peaches, dried.
Pennut oil.
Peas, dried and canned.
Pork, fresh, canned and cured.
Corn, canned.
Corn grits.
Cornmenl.
Corn oil.
Poultry.
Prunes.
Raisins.
Rice.
Salmon, canned.
Sardines, cnnned.
Starch, corn.
Sugar.
Syrup.
Tomatoes, canned.
Vegetables, fresh.

When his signature hns been affixed to this pledge poster he becomes a part of the food administration and hangs the poster in his store or window as evidence thereof. All Charlevoix merchants will sign this pledge.

Another form of poster pledge has been provided for wholesale distributers, who obligate themselves not only to maintain fair pricea on the controlled commodities, but to conserve food, time, energy, materials, and equipment; make personal studies of their businesa methods to prevent waste; reduce display stocks within reasonable limits; avoid speculation, and avoid purchases from or sales to apeculators; discourage purchases beyond the usual needs of both retailera and consumers; curtail credit; encourage cash transactions; eliminate unnecessary delivery and other nonessential service to customers; take a stand against the evil of returned goods; sell in original packages; aystematize their shipmenta to save cars and hnuling; and enlist their traveling salesmen for food conservation and team work throughout the trade. Many wholesale grocery houses and manufacturers in food lines hold weekly conferences for their salesmen, at which they are asked to set aside five minutes for the discussion of food-saving questions.

Federal food administrators in all states will accept pledges from merchnnts and supply the standard posters. They will also be on the watch to see that posters are displayed, and will investigate stores where the pledge is not in evidence. The ideal prompting this campnign is to carry out food conservntion under the most democratic lines, and on this subject the food administration says:

The great majority of American citizens engaged in supplying food to the people are both honest and patriotic—like the great majority of men engaged in any other legitimate business. They have been quick to come forward and pledge their full support. By the thousands they are joining the forces of the food ndministration, beeause they are glnd to find a tangible way of guaranteeing this support. All of this vnst force of public opinion is being thrown into

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hnir can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea nnd Sulphur. Your hair is your chnrm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold

Don't bother to prepare the mixture, you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color nnd lustre of your hair.

Everybody nses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been nppliel. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another npplientlon it becomes beautifully dark nnd appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure mitigation or prevention of disease.

It works somewhat more slowly. It is far more sure. And it leaves behind it ,when the emergency has passed, not a trodden, broken-spirited people, but a people strengthened, purged, and inspired by the knowledge that they hnve won by their own endeavor.

DR. GARFIELD'S EXCUSE

Dr. Garfield has been driven to explain. He has given out a statement that his drastic fuel order was necessary because our harbors are crowded with ships that cannot convey their supplies for our soldiers in France because they lack coal.

This excuse does not excuse.

Dr. Garfield was appointed fuel administrator August 24, 1917. The most sweeping powers were conferred upon him. After five months he confesses that the primary purpose of his office has not been performed, that the first essential of supplying the army has not been performed.

His only way to correct his shortcomings is to paralyze the nation to compel the country to submit to unparalleled suffering.

Dr. Garfield could have gotten coal to the seaboard. His powers were ample. He got coal in abundance to the northwest. The eastward shipment could have been handled as easily.

Dr. Garfield has failed. His own apology convicts him of failure.

How much more must the country suffer from his incompetency? How much longer will he be retained in a position he confesses his inability to fill?—Detroit Free Press.

THINK OF POOR JAHN D.!

Fuel is no respecter of persons. The famine has hit John D. Rockefeller, Jr., along with the rest of us.

Poor young John has been frozen out of his palatial New York home. That home is warmed, ordinarily, by steam from a central heating plant which he owns in connection with several of his neighbors. The plant ran out of coal, and the efforts of all those millionaires failed to renew the supply. Young John owns a lot of mines, but that didn't do him any good.

Then came a still more bitter blow. Surely, he figured, the Standard Oil Company would help him out. He and his father are its heaviest stockholders, and he practically runs it. The company sells not only oil, but stoves to burn the oil. He sent in a requisition for 36 stoves. That ought to be enough to keep any house warm.

And promptly came the answer: "Supply exhausted. Can't get them for you or anybody else."

So there was nothing else for John D. Jr., to do but pack up and take his family out to the country residence of John D. Sr., at Tarrytown. Old John, it appears, is able somehow to keep Jack Frost from the door—probably by burning wood. He has plenty of trees. And since labor's about as scare as oil stoves and anthracite in those parts, we wouldn't be surprised if the old gentleman is chopping them down and sawing them up into cordwood lengths himself.

Truly, these are trying times.

FULL OF FIGHT

Occasionally we run across a strong hearted, hard fisted, clear thinking patriot who is fighting mad and knows why and is bending every effort to serve his country, wishing he could be in France with a gun and at home producing food and making munitions and other things for war purposes all at the same time. Recently we met one such, who is a farmer and had a talk with him. For some of his rich neighbors who gave all of a dollar to the Red Cross and who bought a whole $100 Liberty bond he has little time. And he said some things not entirely complimentary to those farmers ready to give up because, "they can't get help." "Neither can I get help," said he, "but do you think I'll be downed by that handicap? When I get at the old farm next season there is going to be some little stirring around, and I'll plan and work and I'll grow, God willing, as much as I ever grew before. I'll just get through somehow because I've got to. We Americans are not weak-kneed and we're not yellow. We will win because we've got to, but some of us need help to brace up and fight harder and complain less. If we depend on the boys going over to do all the fighting—God help us!" He was not boastful, neither was he excitable, nor hot-headed. He was just full of fight, that's all. Nothing can stop a nation of that kind of men and women.—The Farmers' Review.

An Illinois soldier in a training camp licked 25 men in order to be sure he got the man who called him a liar. That fellow probably would tackle the entire German army to get a crack at the Kaiser.

No one doubts the necessity for the Garfield order, but there is serious doubt of the Garfield policy that led up to and made the order necessary.

In the interim of criticism possibly Secretary Baker and Dr. Garfield may appreciate how an editor feels about 365 days in every year.

Germany is said to be facing a great political crisis. She might be in worse straits; she might be up against a coal crisis.

Over in Europe they resign when the people don't agree with their policy. Over here they neither resign nor are kicked out.

And still England produces enough coal for home consumption and has some to spare to help the U. S. in time of need.

One can't help wondering how England and France have run themselves so successfully during three years of war.

The fuel administration rises to remark that it cannot be blamed for the sort of weather we are having.

This winter couldn't have been much worse if the Kaiser himself had made it.

German newspapers are criticising Secretary Baker, too.

DOG OWNERS MUST TAKE OUT LICENSE BY FEB. 1ST

Violations of New Law Subject to Fine and Imprisonment

Owners of dogs should bear in mind the new dog tax law, which provides that on or before February 1st each year each dog must secure from the clerk of the village or township in which he lives a license tag which must be securely fastened to the dog's collar and worn constantly. The license fee is two dollars for each male dog and each spayed female dog and five dollars for each female dog. It shall be unlawful for any person to permit any dog owned by him or her to be at large without said license tag, and shall be the duty of all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables and police officers to enforce the law.

Owners of dogs in cities must also comply with ordinances covering dog tax, which in some instances is more than that of townships. The penalty, however, is the same in both cases.

Cure For Scaly Leg.

The hatching season is here. Those who hatch by hens should see that they do not have scaly legs, as they interfere with good hatches and the chicks get the infection from the old hen. Take the kerosene can and go through the henhouse after dark, take each fowl from the roost and give those that have scaly legs a good bath of kerosene right on the legs and put them back on the roost. One application is generally sufficient, and in a few weeks time the scales will all have disappeared.

Help Needed At Red Cross Room On Bandages

The work at the Red Cross rooms is progressing well, with a goodly number of women in attendance, but there still is a great deal of work to do and many more helpers are needed.

We all know of women who are too busy or indifferent to help in making the bandages for the wounded soldiers. But if these women knew that wounds are actually being tied up with old newspapers for lack of bandages, they wouldn't be too busy, nor too tired, nor too anything else to help in this much needed work.

A shipment of knitted garments will be sent to headquarters from the local Red Cross on Friday, February 2nd. All those having work completed will kindly send it to the room as soon as possible. The Red Cross room is open Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from two o'clock until five.

NASH KENOSHA WISCONSIN

The efficiency that goes with quantity production by a large and well established organization is reflected directly in the car built by the NASH Motors Company, not only in the matter of first cost but in subsequent cost. Such features as the inherently balanced crankshaft, the machined combustion chambers, the light weight pistons and the enclosed valve rockers, all tend towards economical and efficient operation.

There are two chassis models, both with six cylinder engines; one of these is built in two wheelbase lengths, 121 and 127 inches. The other has a somewhat more powerful engine and a wheelbase of 125 inches. Four stock bodies are listed, a seven passenger touring, five passenger touring, four passenger roadster and convertible sedan for five passengers. The price range is from $1,295 to $1,985.

Anumber of standard models will be displayed at the shows in special finishes, together with a chassis with cut-away engine. The engine is featured among other things, by its head valves and its preheating device.

The above is a report on the NASH display at the New York Automobile show which appeared in Automobile Topics, The Trade Authority for January 5th, 1918. We have a line of these NASH cars on display at our salesroom at the corner of Bridge and Mason Streets.

The Rev. Joshua Roberts, district superintendent of the northern district of Baptist churches of Michigan who resides at Tawas City, is in Charlevoix this week, looking after his official duties.

Mrs. George Tubbs, of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Mary E. Huntley, niece and sister respectivaly of the late Mrs. Richard Lewis, returned to their homes Tuesday after attending the funeral last week.

Andrew Johnson, former Charlevoix boy who worked at Frad Myers cigar store some years ago, recently enlisted in the army from Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin. He is now at Camp Dodge, Des Moines, Iowa.

J. R. Cooper sold two International 8-16 tractors to David Smith and Con Snyder, of Bay Shore. Orders for farm machinery are being placed early this year on account of the expected delay in deliveries.

A Montana editor in publishing the program of a musicale said: "Mrs. Blossom will sing 'I'm Floating Down Life's Tranquil Stream accompanied by Elder Simpkins." The editor is in a peck of trouble over the mattter.

Mr. William Witherell is the new ticket agent for the P. M. at Charlevoix. He comes from Porter, Indiana, and is now living with his mother, Mrs. R. E. Witherell, in the house on Antrim street, formerly occupied by Dr. J. A. Auld.

Notice will be found elsewhere in this issue of the dissolution of the firm of Korth & Brady, engaged in the meat business at number 328 Bridge street. Homer Brady is the retiring partner and the business will be continued as usual by Mr. R. C. Korth.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Coffey, of Detroit, Tuesday, January 29, 1918, in Charlevoix, at the home of her proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McCall, Sr., a fine baby girl, Jane Elizabeth—weight eight pounds. Mrs. Coffey was formerly Miss Marion McCall.

Tommy had been playing truant from school and had spent a long, beautiful day fishing. On his way back he met one of his young cronies, who accosted him with the usual question, "Catch anything?" At this Tommy, in all the consciousness of guilt, quickly responded: "Ain't been home yet."

Charles H. Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hampton, who for several years has been secretary and manager of the Canadian Lamp & Stamping Company, though residing in Detroit, at the recent annual meeting of the stockholders, was elected president of the company. This promotion carries with it an increase of $1,500 in salary.

Harley Ochs and wife returned Friday night from Detroit, where Mr. Ochs went on January 11th to take examinations for entrance to the aviation corps. He passed in fine style and is now awaiting call. Franklin Sears, Jr., who left Charlevoix on the same mission, was not so successful, but deserves great credit for having offered his services.

Messrs. McLean and Ronneau recently arrived in this city from Marquette. Captain McLean owns the fish tug, "Annie" which he brought here last fall and the two gentlemen will engage in the fishing business in the spring. The Ronneau family are occupying the Burdick house, now owned by Mrs. Martin Furst on Antrim street, and the McLeans have recently moved into the Paul Heise residence on Hulburt avenue.

The Hotel Charlevoix offers accommodations for families at reasonable rates for the winter. H. P. Hansen, Manager. 5t1 Pd.

MOORE'S RESTAURANT HAS CHANGED HANDS

Mrs. E. Shockley Has Taken It Over —Moore Will Sail Lakes

Mrs. E. Shockley has purchased the restaurant operated by W. R. Moore at No. 317 Bridge street and will conduct the business as usual, striving to give satisfaction to patrons, as in the past. She contemplates making no changes in the present building until spring. Mrs. Shockley has had considerable experience in the delicatessen business, both in Dayton, Ohio and Indianapolis, Indiana, and we predict an unqualified success for her new venture. She is well known to Charlevoix people, having lived here for several years.

Mr. Moore intends taking has family to Traverse City to spend the winter, and in the spring thinks he will go sailing. He has had considerable experience cooking on the lake boats and says he will be right in his element on the rolling wave. We are sorry, however, to have him leave us.

HEROES ARE NOT ALL IN FRANCE

STATEMENT PROVEN BY FACTS PRINTED BELOW

Irate Farmer Pursues Br'er Rabbit With Same Determination As Shown By Sammies

If any proof is needed that all our heroes are not in France or on their way there, an incident which occurred at the home of our fellow-citizen, Geo. Heller, last Saturday night, will certainly convince the most skeptical.

For some time past the Heller family has been annoyed by a rabbit which in making nightly visits from his home in the swamps, has nibbled the fruit trees, tracked up the yard and then sat on his haunches and howled at the moon until the head of the house was nearly distracted.

Mr. Heller being somewhat of a "Sherlock Holmes," decided that the rabbit was a republican and as such should be extreminated and accordingly made the necessary arrangements to do the deed.

Last Saturday evening, our hero, having made the necessary arrangements and unearthed a blunderbuss of the vintage of 1776, retired at the usual hour but slept with one eye open, and at about 2:30 in the morning, when the usual nightly serenade started, George was prepared. Slipping from his warm bed with murder in his heart, he lot himself quietly from the kitchen door and took up the chase. Mr. Hiller says that when he first sighted the quarry it was sitting "in the shade of the old apple tree" and just starting in on the "Melody in F," but being an old campaigner, it also had its weather eye open for trouble, and at the first hostile move from the house it placed on toe to its nose and gently wigwagged the rest of its foot at the pursuer, and then loped as swiftly as four feet of snow would allow for its home. Right here is where Geo. proved his mettle and with a never-say-die spirit he took up the chase.

Part II

Leaving for the time being pursued and pursuer, we will return to the Heller home. Mrs. Heller, as the time wore away with no sign of the hunter's return, decided to arise and fix the fires and when the lights were turned on, imagine her surprise to see placed in orderly array, the coat, trousers and wool socks of her husband, which in the fever of the moment he had neglected to drape around his manly form. She, fearing that as daylight was fast approaching and realizing that the clothing worn by her husband was not sufficient for the prying eyes of the neighborhood, decided to call for assistance, and accordingly telephoned Mr. VanSkiver, luckily an old friend of the family.

This was at 4:53 a. m. Mr. VanSkiver immediately dressed and on consulting the thermometer on the hotel porch, found it to register 26 degrees below zero.

Fearful of the result of such severe weather on a person so scantily clad, he aroused his neighbors and the entire party armed with snowshoes and shovels started for the Heller home. Arrived there and finding the trail easy to follow on account of the strips and threads of flannel hanging to bushes on the line of march, they easily overtook their man, finding him with the dead rabbit in his hand about three and one-half miles north east of his starting point.

The seraching party happened to have extra coats and blankets with them in which the unfortunate man was wrapped and long before his home was reached he was fast asleep. He aroused enough upon reaching home to inform his friends that he found, after leaving home that he had forgotten to load the gun and would have been obliged to return empty handed but for the fact that the rabbit became so weak from cold and hunger that it had finally died.

George slept the rest of the day and by Monday morning was fully recovered, but says nix on the rabbit hunting from now on.

SHORT LIFE SKETCH OF ANDREW BERGSMA

Death Occurred After a Few Days of Illness

Andrew Bergsma died in the Robinsun Hospital in Allegan Thursday evening, January 3, at seven o'clock. He had been ill for some few days at his home in Hamilton, after which it was advised by the doctors that he be taken to the hospital for an operation upon which it was learned that his case was a serious attack of peritonitis and little hopes for recovery.

Mr. Bergsma was a young man of twenty-one years. He leaves a widow and one child of five months, besides a father, mother, four brothers and two sisters. Although he had lived so shortly in Hamilton he had made many friends and always was of a congenial disposition. He was at the time of his death an employe of the Kolvord Milling Co. Mr. Bergsma's death caused a gloom to us all. It again reminded us that life is short and uncertain and death is certain. We mourn, but not as for one for whom there is no hope.

More than once has Mr. Bergsma confessed Jesus Christ as his Saviour and could well say, "not our will but Thy will, O Lord."

The funeral was held on Monday, January 7, from the First Reformed Church at Hamilton, when Rev. Walvoord and Rev. Meengs officiated.

The remains were laid away in the Henthiem cemetery, at which occasion Elder H. K. Boer had charge.

We certainly sympathize with the bereaved and can nothing otherwise but entrust them to the hand of God. The family expresses their many thanks to neighbors and friends for their help and kindness given—Allegan News.

The Victrola party at the Blue Hall last Monday evening was attended by about fifteen couples and all enjoyed themselves as is usual at these popular parties.

G. C. Townsend is showing a sign of the times by wearing a pair of ears about four sizes too large. He froze them one day last week while out writing insurance.

Joe McElroy made another trip to Grant this week. The treatment for rheumatism given at that place is having splendid results and Mr. McElroy hopes to be entirely cured in the near future.

Mrs. D. Patterson entertained the L. A. S. at her home on Thursday of last week. About twenty members were present and it was decided to meet the next time at the home of Mrs. Henry Yettaw.

The convention scheduled for the last of this week at the Holiness church has been indefinitely postponed on account of the weekly time limit placed on public buildings by the fuel administration.

According to the "Echo" a paper published at Vermontville, Michigan, they have been having some weather down there. On January 12th at noon it was 22 degrees below zero and the wind was blowing seventy miles per hour. According to some of the old residents of that vicinity it was a worse day that "cold New Years" of 1864.

Death has called six Manceloan people during the last week: Almond Kimball, age eighty years, an old pioneer; Mrs. Edward Whitmore, who passed away at Portsmouth, Ohio, where the family was visiting; Mrs. Catherine Walsh, ago fifty-nine years; Mrs. Fannie Finch, age sixty-two; the young child of Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond; the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Smith, and two children of Mr. and Mrs. William McKechnie, who died from bronchial pneumonia.

The report circulated last week of the death of Clyde Denais was proven to be incorrect as Clyde is enjoying his usual good health at Big Rapids, where he is attending Ferris Institute. The telegram announcing his death was received from Miss Giss at Kansas City and was evidently the result of a poor joke attempted by some one at Grand Rapids. Nevertheless Mr. and Mrs. Dennis put in a bad hour until telephone connection was established with their son, and the parents proved to themselves by hearing their son's voice that he was alive and well.

Winter at least demonstrated how thoroughly it can disrupt the best systems if it sets out to do it.

...IC ACID IN MEAT... CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you—Drink more water.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

GET READY FOR INCOME TAX MAN

WILL BE HERE FROM FEBRUARY ONE TO SIXTEEN

Further Instructions to Persons Whose Net Incomes Render Them Liable—Must Report

The person who has made returns in previous years will find no difficulty in making his report for 1917. The same general principles will apply as before. About the only important changes are the new rates, and that donations are now allowed as deductions, not to exceed fifteen per cent of one's net income, if the gifts are to such organizations as the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., or any charitable institution. The income tax paid has heretofore been allowed as a deduction with other taxes, but under the new law it is not allowable. All married persons who have a net income of $2,000 or more must make a report and all single persons having a net income of $1,000 or more must report. A single person who is the support of another person or persons by marriage ties, blood relationship, or adoption, through a moral or legal obligation is termed the "head of a family" and is entitled to the same deduction of $2,000 as a married person. A further exemption of $200 is allowed for each dependent child under eighteen years of age, and this applies to the "head of the family" if he is supporting any dependent children under eighteen years of age. All earnings of dependent children must be reported as income by the parent or the head of the family. For instance, if a boy or girl under eighteen years earns $100 during vacation the father must report it in his return.

The man whose principal income is from salary or wages is allowed deduction of all interest he pays and all taxes, except income tax and taxes for local benefit like sidewalk, paving, sewer, etc. These latter taxes are considered benefits that improve the value of the property.

A traveling man who pays his own expenses is allowed to deduct such expenses in arriving at net income. If he uses an automobile in his work he can deduct for gasoline, oil, repairs and depreciation based on the life of the car.

A professional man, such as doctor dentist or lawyer, can make his return on a basis of actual cash receipts or the equivalent of cash. He deducts all actual expenses, such as office rent, lights, fuel, telephone, office help, supplies used in his profession, insurance on his office outfit, and reasonable depreciation, based on the probable life of furniture, fixtures instruments and equipment. The professional man who makes his return on a basis of cash receipts can not deduct for bad debts. The doctor who uses a car in his practice can take deductions and depreciation the same as the traveling man. No deductions are allowed for a car devoted to pleasure or personal use.

The merchant who takes an annual inventory will arrive at gross income by adding together the stock on hand at the close of the year and the sales during the year. From this subtract the purchases during the year and the stock on hand at the beginning of the year, and the difference will be gross gain. From this he will deduct expenses of doing business, and the result will be net gain on which the income tax is computed.

If he does not take an inventory it will be necessary to arrive at gross gain on a basis of receipts and purchases and an estimate of stock on hand. The percentage of profit differs widely. A grocery business will show a net profit of from 15 to 18 per cent, usually about 16 per cent. No other line can be figured so closely as seasons have a great influence on such lines as the dry goods, clothing and footwear business. Perhaps the business of a druggist or jeweler approaches more closely the grocer on a basis of stability, although the percentage of profit is larger.

A partnership does not make an income tax return, but if the net income is over $6,000 it is necessary to make an "excess profits" return. The individual in declaring his income from a partnership will show his share of the profits, whether the profits are actually paid to him or left in the business. He will also show any salary he received from the partnership.

The husband in making his report will include therein all income received by his wife. The two combined are only entitled to one deduction of $2,000.

In addition to sources here mentioned, other income consists of interest on deposit, interest on notes, interest on bonds, interest on stock (common or preferred) which the government always calls "dividends" whether cash or stock dividends; royalties from mines, oil wells, franchises patents; incomes from rent, income from a fiduciary (that is, income from any estate or trust); profit from a stock deal, or in fact profit from a deal in any kind of property, whether real of personal.

All income from municipal, county or state bonds, is exempt. Likewise government bonds, except the first Liberty loan, and on that the income is exempt to the amount of interest on $5,000 worth of bonds, or $200. Salaries paid by the state, county, township, school district, city, or village to its employes are exempt. Fees received by a register of deeds, court stenographer, or sheriff, or any other officer, from individuals, are not exempt, because such fees are not paid by the state or some subdivision thereof. The profits on contractor makes on a state, county or city job are not an employe in the meaning of the law. A contractor who receives part pay on his job this year and the balance next year when the job is completed need not report any income from the job until his contract is finished and he knows what his actual net profits have been.

Before you attempt to fill out the blank, read it over carefully. Read the instructions at least twice. Do not fill in any of the spaces until you have read over the entire blank.

These reports must be in the hands of the collector or one of his deputies on or before March 1. The law does not require the tax to be paid until June 15, but owing to the present conditions a taxpayer should make payment at the time the return is executed.

The normal tax is two per cent on $1,000 or $2,000 (depending whether the person is single or married) and above that amount it is four per cent. The super, or additional taxes begin at $5,000 and the percentage gradually increases according to the size of the income.

Poultry Farming

BROODING CHICKS

Care Should Be Taken That They Be Kept Warm and Free From Drafts.

Hatching the chicks is the least of the poultryman's worries. Far more important than the hatching is the brooding, which offers all kinds of opportunities for loss if not handled properly, writes a correspondent of the Farm and Fireside. Do be very careful about drafts or sudden changes in temperature in the room where the brooders are kept. The chicks, especially during the first few weeks, are particularly susceptible to irregularities of this kind. That does not mean that there should not be plenty of fresh air in the room, but if it is the least bit cold screens should be placed by the windows so that the air does not strike the chicks directly.

chicks to be thoroughly comfortable without crowding, which is often fatal to them. Enough brooders should be provided so that each chick will have plenty of room without being forced outside the brooder at night.

When the chicks first come out of the incubator they have in their bodies unabsorbed the yolk of the egg, which nourishes them for at least thirty-six hours, so that no food is necessary at first. The water and fine grit are essential to start the digestive organs to do their proper functions. We fed dried breadcrumbs and finely chopped hard boiled eggs as a first feed, feeding this every three hours for the first three days.

Then we gradually substituted rolled oats ground in a meat grinder and mixed this at first with breadcrumbs, as they had to be taught to relish this diet.

By the end of the first week we had begun on the grain food, which we didn't mix ourselves, but bought in the form of commercial chick feed. We fed this every three hours for the first week and then every four hours at the rate of one-half pint for a hundred chicks, which is what they can clean up in about ten minutes. In between times they had before them a hopper containing a mixture of one part of finely sifted beef scraps, one part of fine charcoal and two parts of finely sifted bran, with the addition of one part of cornmeal in the second week, also omitting to sift the bran.

During the first week we fed them also beets or turnips ground in the meat grinder, offering this about once or twice a day and gradually giving it to them oftener in the second week. We also had clabber before them when we had it, and this they relished greatly, and, of course, we kept charcoal and grit before them constantly.

Albert Harwood, our genial township treasurer, is busy these days collecting taxes. The roll calls for nearly $19,000.

Man should hold his religion and politics sacred, daring to proclaim either when necessary in spite of creed or demagogism.

Edna Jolliffe, who has been in the employ of D. E. Clow & Co. at Ellsworth for the past five months, is home on a vacation.

Those who wanted an old-fashioned winter must be completely satisfied. Quite often we have the tail end of a Dakota blizzard.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mitchell, last week, a bouncing baby boy, weight nine pounds. All doing well except dad. Congratulations.

And after all, isn't this snow-bound appearance a beautiful scene? If we can forget for a moment the suffering and inconvenience it has caused.

We understand that Merle Richardson has rented the Amos Richardson farm, and Pleasy Genett has rented his farm to T. Colling of Grand Rapids.

James Heeres is assisting one of the cattle buyers from Charlevoix. Last week they shipped 30 head to Chicago. This week they ship a car load from Ellsworth.

The little son of Irvy Lord, who has been taking treatment at Charlevoix, returned home last Thursday. The youngsters of the neighborhood gave him a surprise party.

FORGER TAKEN AT MANCELONA

PASSED TWO BAD CHECKS IN PETOSKEY

Used Name of John Anderson, of Boyne City—Is Said to Have Confessed

Northern Michigan merchants will have no more trouble, for some time at least, with the man who has been passing bogus checks on which the name of John W. Anderson, of Boyne City, has been forged. He has been captured at Mancelona.

Two Petoskey stores paid out more than $100 on these checks in November . A Grayling store was also caught, as were several concerns in Mancelona. The checks were drawn on the First National bank, of Boyne City, and were made out in such a way as to indicate they had been given in payment for goods bought at some farmer's sale.

Mancelona officials rounded up the fellow with the aid of tips given by the Petoskey officers. He is reported to have confessed. He used the name of Jesse Arnold on most of his checks. So far no bad checks have been reported in this city.

The man will be taken into court nt Bellaire.

EACH SOLOIER SHOULD TAKE INSURANCE

War Board Urges Husband, Father or Son to Protect You

One million American soldiers and sailors nre preparing to go over the top without taking care of their families. If they are killed or rendered helpless by wounds, their dependents must rely upon charity for daily bread.

The last day on which men in Federal serviee can take out the insurance that the government provides is Tuesday, February 12. After that applications are refused.

The Michigan War Preparedness Board estimates that there are fully 10,000 Michigan men with the colors who have been negligent in this respect. In a statement issued recently the board urges wives, mothers and children to write or even wire their relatives in the service to take out an insurance policy before it is too late.

Premiums may be paid out of the man's wages monthly. The average coat is only 70 cents per $1,000 per month. Policies are written from $1,000 to $10,000. In case of death or injury, policies are paid in monthly installments for twenty years.

"If you husband, father or son has not insured himself in your favor, urge him to do so," says the board.

"If he does not do so, you may face starvation because of his carelessness. Should he come home a helpless cripple and hs is not insured you must support yourself and him, too.

"Don't let false pride keep you silent. Remind him he has not done his duty."

How to Make a Lamp Shade For Parlor or Bedroom.

Begin by cutting a strip of silk an inch wider than the depth of the wire lamp shade frame and two or three times ns long as the circumference of the lower part of the shade. Turn under top and bottom of the silk so that a strip just the width of the depth of the lamp shade results and shir both edges twice. Make a small French seam to join the two ends of the material and then slip it on the frame, pull up the shirring threads and distribute the gathers evenly. Tack into place and cover the raw edges with braid. Use a narrow gilt braid for the top and for the bottom fringe on braid. For a bedroom, if light blue or rose silk is used, a cotton two colored braid and fringe may be used instead of the gilt.

Why a Duck Doesn't Get Wet by Water

The nnswer is a simple one: Because a duck greases its feathers to turn away water, obtaining the original waterproof coat and setting an example for man. There is a gland on the back of a duck, near the tail, which emits oil from the creature's body. The duck flirts this oil over its thick, smooth plumage, which then is almost waterproof, and its body is kept dry and warm, though the water in which it lives be cold and the weather severe.

The first meeting of the executive committee has been held and the members are expecting the loyal support of all of those called upon to serve in the various capacities, as this is to be a long and interesting campaign, lasting until January 1, 1919, and requiring the support of all loyal citizens who should be interested in helping Uncle Sam reach the 90,000,000 people who as yet have not contributed to the war fund and who will now be able to make the start with a 25c Thrift Stamp.

Following are a few hypothetical questions and answers regarding the Thrift stamps which may assist in making their nature and purposes clearer.

What is the difference between a Thrift Stamp and a War Savings Stamp?

The 25 cent Thrit Stamps are issued to help you save and exchange for a $5 War Savings Certificate Stamp. The Thrift Stamps hear no interest; the War Savings Stamps earn interest.

Why do I get a $5 War Savings Certificate Stamp for from $4.12 to $4.25?

The $5 is payable January 1, 1923. It includes the return to you of your money with the compound interest that the government will pay you.

Why should I exchange my full card of Thrift Stnmps for a War Savings Certificate Stamp?

Because the War Savings Stamps bear interest and the Thrift Stamps do not.

What becomes of the monev I pay for the stamp?

It is a loan to the United States government.

How can my 25 cents really help

A loan of only 25 cents by every person in the nation will provide the United States government with a loan of $25,000,000.

MCGINNIS BACK TO RECRUIT MEN

OUR OLD FRIEND IS A CORPORAL NOW

Will Open Recruiting Office Here February 12th to 15th—Men Wanted for Skilled Trades

Privete (now Corporal) Oran McGinnis, of the U. S. Army recruiting station at Petoskey, who is well known to Charlevoix folks from his sojourn here last summer, will be here from February 12th to 15th, for the purpose of securing recruits for the army, especially with a view to securing men with skilled trades to supply an ever urgent need for specialists in various lines of work. Quoting from the Corporal's letter:

"I am asking your assistance in giving this es wide n notice as possible through your territory. The time has not only reeched the state of Michigan but every state in the United States, for the thousands of men that are needed for making this army of ours one great fighting machine, for immediate service overseas, and thousands of other positions here in the United States need men from all walks of life and promotions are coming rapid to those who enlist now."

The following list shows the kind of men wanted now for the army:

Chauffers, auto mechanicians, office clerks, carpenters, radio operators, electricians, cooks, coppersmiths, sail makers, photographers, machinists, blacksmiths, motorcycle repair men, atenographers, cabinet makers, telephone repair men, tool makers, packers, telephone operators, motorcyclist, plumbers, painters, tailors, buglers, pattern makers, barbers, truck masters, cobblers, boat builders. If you are in this list above, you can serve your country by giving your skill.

But you must have the skill—because the skilled men will be enrolled as non-commissioned officers—ranking as sergeants and corporals.

Are you the man to be a non-commissioned officer? You will be enlisted as a private and will remain as such until you have been assigned to your proper place in a squadron of the aviation section signal corps.

After enlistment you will be sent to a camp for several weeks of military training and special instructions in the work required.

Squadrons are being formed continuously and as soon as you are qualified you will he assigned to a squadron and given rank according to your ability. All skilled workmen in the special trades shown in this list rank as sergeants and corporals.

Clothing, food and quarters are provided free and the pay in addition It should be remembered that this pay is ALL CLEAR GAIN ,as living expenses are borne by the government. Pay ranges from $30 to $81 per month, according to your rank.

You will be right up behind the lines—as near the front as the aerodromes can be taken safely. You will be right in the midst of the greatest fight the world has ever seen. Have you ever taken part in such blood-stirring events? What better way to go than in your country's service—fighting to make the world safe for democracy.

Show this to your friends. Talk it over with them. Team up with your "pal." He'll go if you will. Sooner or later you will clench your fists and say, "It's up to me." Your red blood won't let you stay at home when there's man's work to be done. Sooner or later anyhow—so why not now.

The engineers corps of the U. S. army has been authorized to raise by voluntary enlistment a special quarry regiment to consist of six companies of 250 men each and to be known as the 28th Engineers, national army. This regiment is now being recruited and the first two companies are in training at Camp Meade, Md.

This regiment is to be made up entirely of picked men from the various quarries of the country. All trades and occupations in the quarry business will be represented. Each company will have a sufficient number of skilled men to operate a separate quarry plant. In addition to the above general utility men are wanted; laborers who have worked around a quarry; pick men, shovelmen, track layers, workers in concrete, etc.

All men who volunteer for this service will be enlisted as privates but those who show themselves qualified will be raised to the grade of non-commissioned officers. Any recruiting officer will enlist men for this regiment, but each man must show proper qualifications by way of experience and pass the usual physical examination. All men between the ages of 18 and 41 are eligible for enlistment, if not actually drawn on the draft.

The 28th engineers offers a great opportunity for the quarryman of this country to show their skill and courage. The success of the American army operations in France is dependent on the roads and railroads. The amount of crushed stone required is enormous. It is the duty of the quarrymen of the country to meet this requirement.

HAS BUT 18 WORKING DAYS

PRESENT MONTH COMES NEAR BEING DAYLESS

Two of the Four Weeks Have Three Holidays, Under Dr. Garfield's Plan

1918 FEBRUARY 1918

Sun.	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28

Besides being equipped with the standard wheatless, beefless, porkless and lightless periods, poor old February comes dangerously near to being dayless.

Dr. Harry A. Garfield has begun to finish up what Augustus Caesar started about 452 B. C. (Before Conservation.) Augustus purloined two days off February to add to August, the month that was named after him. Julius, his big brother, had July named after him, and Augustus felt badly because July was longer.

THERE ARE ONLY EIGHTEEN WORKING DAYS THIS MONTH.

First of all one can not count four Sundays.

Then the public loses out on four HOLIDAY MONDAYS. There are eight days to spend money when one can not make any. They used to talk about a general moratorium early in the war; why isn't it invoked next month?

To these eight workless orphans there is added one more holiday for the Father of the Country. Late reports have it that the folks on the moon are worried about keeping to schedule on this trip around the earth, if Dr. Garfield continues to make changes in the working days.

This is a total of nine workless days. Verily, the man whose labor is by the monthly measure chortles. Think of the gleeful PERSON who during February need not worry about the welfare of the landlord, the grocer, the tailor, the butcher, candlestick maker, etc.

But this isn't all the conservation. There is Lincoln's birthday on the 12th, making ten workless days.

However, it is never darker than just before February. There is good in everything. Next month there will be oodles of time to wait for the trains and no one will need to worry over waiting for a phone connection.

Consider the groundhogs of the forest; how they worry not, either do they starve. With such a dayless month one will have many shadows in his favorite tradesmen.

Then there is Valentine's day.

CODE CIPHER REVEALS ORDER

LUSITANIA SINKING ORDER MADE PLAIN

Proof of Kaiser's Crime Discovered With Use of World Almanac— Plot Well Planned

The cipher message which proved that Berlin directed the sinking of the Lusitania is made public for the first time in the World's Work megazine. John R. Rathom, editor of the Providence Journal, which exposed numerous German plots in this country during the last three years, in an article giving in detail the methods he used to unearth the work of the German agents, quotes this message from his files, and explains how it was decoded. The message, in cipher, rends as follows:

From—Berlin Foreign Office.
To Botschaft, Washington:
669 (44-W)—Welt nineteen-fifteen warae 175 29 1 stop 175 1 2 stop durch 622 2 4 stop 19 7 18 stop LIX 11 3 4 5 6.

This cipher message came through from Nauen, Germany to Sayville, Long Island, at 2 o'clock on the morning of April 29, 1915, and was caught by the operator at a wireless station maintained by the Providence Journal. It was especially interesting because it followed none of the codes which they had previously observed. It was evidently important, because four attempts were made to put it through before the German station succeeded in overcoming the unfavorable static conditions which prevailed that morning. Every attempt to decipher it failed, until somebody with a line on the internal activities of the German embessy remembered that during that morning Prince Hatzfelt of the embessy staff had been looking for a New York World "Almanac." The first two words of the message, "Welt (German for 'World') 1915," supplied the clue. Following the other numbers in the message as representing page, line and word in the World "Almanac" for 1915, the Journal men decoded the message as follows: "Warn Lusitania passenger(s) through press not voyage across the Atlantic." Two days later the Germen embassy printed the now historic advertisement in the New York papers warning travelers not to cross the Atlantic, and a week later, on May 7, the Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine.

A dramatic touch of suggestion of death in the message lies in the fact that the word not in it is taken from the first sentence of an obituary of the late Joseph Pulitzer, former owner of the World, which publishes the "Almanac." And another grim bit of irony in it is that the last four words were taken from an advertisement of a well-known marine motor head "The Seal of Safety at Sea."

Two words of the message spelled out in German. They are "warne," which in English is "warn" and "durch," which means "through." The word "Botschaft" is German for "embassy."

The German ambassador, immediately after the sinking of the Lusitania, declared that the advertisement he had published in the New York papers was inserted on his own responsibility and had no particular reference to the Lusitania. As printed, this advertisement mentioned no ship by name. But the cipher message now reveals the fact that he deliberately lied, and that Berlin directed the whole tragedy.

Incidentally, Mr. Rathom's article adds that on the evening after the Lusitania was sunk, when friends of von Bernstorff declared that he was overwhelmed with grief and secluded in his rooms in a New York hotel, he was in reality giving a dinner in the apartments of a friend in New York and there toasted the commander of the U-boat which sunk the liner.

MRS. WILLIAM LUCIA PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

Well-known Norwood Woman Had Lived 28 Years in Michigan

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. William Lucia at Norwood as well as her friends here were shocked and pained to hear that she had passed away last Saturday after a short illness. It came as considerable of a surprise to many of her friends here who had not heard that she was ill.

Ettie M. Denison was born June 21, 1863, in Allenburg, Franklin county, New York. About twenty-eight years ago she came to Michigan and lived for a time in East Jordan. On August 17, 1891, she was united in marriage with William M. Lucia, who with a daughter, Margaret, survives her. Two children, Aldis and Edith, died in infancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucia have lived in Atwood and Norwood practically all of their married life and a wide circle of friends extend their sympathy to the family in their loss.

The funeral service was held at the home, Monday, February 4th, Rev. R. S. Parshall officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Norwood cemetery.

CURIOSITY KILLED THE CAT

UNCLE SAM DEALS HARSHLY WITH PAUL PRYS

Keep Your Search for Gossip Material Outside Government Limits or Fear the Worst

Masters of government vessels in the harbor here and other government employees have been constantly pestered for some time past by curious persons resident in this city trying to learn from them their duties on such vessels, the cargo carried, destination and various other matters connected with the vessels and their work.

It may not be known, but it is nevertheless a fact, that the movements, personnel, destination and cargo of such government vessels are affairs not to be disclosed to the general public and, as a matter of fact, government employees are expressly required to report to the authorities the names of persons who thus annoy them with impertinent questions about their work and the government property under their care.

It would be well therefore for the man in the street to curb his curiosity and, to say nothing of relieving government employees of the unpleasantness of embarassing situations, to keep themselves out of the serious trouble which is likely to follow from their overanxiety to know too much. A word to the wise——.

SURPRISE PARTY MAKES WELKIN RING

Thirty-one Present to Honor Roy Beeman's 30th Anniversary

A complete surprise was given to Roy Beeman, at his home on the Dickinson farm in Hayes, Saturday evening of last week on the occasion of his 30th birthday.

When the first sleight load of 16 guests arrived, they had to let him know they were there and—well, everyone knows what a noise a party like that can make when they try. When they all got there, a count of noses revealed 31 present, besides the family. The time passed pleasantly with phonograph music and games and the party started for home in time for breakfast, wishing Mr. Beeman many happy returns of the day.

BUTTARS' HOME BADLY WRECKED

FIRE IN BANKER'S RESIDENCE MONDAY NOON

Stubborn Smoke Clouds Baffle Firemen— Much of Contents Saved Though Somewhat Damaged

One of the most stubborn fires Charlevoix has seen in years occurred last Mondey noon, soon after the dinner hour, when the home of Archibald Buttars on State street, corner of Mason, was the scene of a blaze which kept the firemen and many of the townspeople busy for the entire afternoon. The firemen claim that they have never seen a fire where there was so little flame and so baffling and dense a smoke.

Mr. Buttars had been down to the furnace to fix the fire shortly before leaving for the County bank after dinner, and had been gone only about five minutes when the alarm broke out. He had been using soft coal, and a considerable quantity of cedar kindling was piled in the cellar. When Mr. Buttars opened the furnace door, a few hot coals dropped out, which he scraped up on a shovel, but it is thought that he must have overlooked a burning ember which ignited splinters of dry tinder on the floor, rapidly spreading to the kindling wood.

Shortly after he had left the house, Mrs. Buttars smelled smoke and investigating, found smoke rolling up from the basement and turned in the alarm, also telephoning her husband at the bank. Those who first reached the house stated that the smoke was already so thick that they could not force their way in.

The fire evidently worked its way up through the partitions to the roof, from which dense clouds of smoke were soon rolling, but hardly any flame could be seen. This fact baffled the firemen who for some time could not locate the position of the blaze. Several attempts were made to pierce the smoke clouds and get out the furniture and clothing, but not much headway was made until the powerful streams from the hose, directed through the windows which were broken in on the ground floor to get at the fire had changed the smoke to steam.

Willing hands soon carried out the furniture, pictures, clothing and some valuable china and glassware, which were stored, temporarily, part in the neighboring parsonage, in the Baptist church, but for the most part in the basement of the Methodist church, to which a dray hastily pressed into service made frequent trips. This continued until the lower part of the house was entirely stripped of its contents, excepting the grand piano in the parlor, which could not be gotten through the door. By this time the firemen had thrown some of the stuff on the second floor out through the windows.

The fire was not fully under control until about five o'clock when the crowd dispersed and a watch was put over the smouldering remains. The basement was flooded with water and it was not possible to save any of the fruit and vegetables that formed its most valuable contents.

A WET, WET WINTER FOR WASHINGTON STATE

Mrs. Whitford Reports Temperature of 28 to 50 Above; Lots of Rain

A letter recently received from one of our Pacific coast subscribers, Mrs. F. H. Whitford, who writes from Custer, Washington, under date of January 28th, states:

"We are having a wet winter here. The temperature for January has run from 28 to 50 degrees above. Rain for December 13.87 inches. January will be about the same. Had a silver thaw the first of January that did quite a lot of damage to the fruit trees. The coldest of the year was in December—18 degrees above zero."

The above leads us to venture that to our way of thinking Charlevoix's clear, dry ozone at 28 below zero is preferable to drizzling rain and a damp atmosphere at 50 above. We can always find something to be thankful for and always someone worse off than ourselves.

Junip from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

THE PUBLIC PULSE

Charlevoix, Feb. 4, 1918.

Editor, Courier,
Dear Sir:

If you will give me a little space in the Courier I will give my views on the farm help question.

My view of the question is—not, how many crops can I produce this year on my farm but it is, how many can I take care of and harvest in time. Farmers at the present time can plant more crops then they can properly cultivate and harvest with the present outlook for help. So the farmer says to his wife, "What is the use of planting more beans, or potatoes or wheat, or any other crop than we can properly take care of? We might better let our land lie idle as pasture than to plant costly seed and lose the crop by not giving it proper care." Then the next thing for him to do is to plant whatever he thinks they can take care of and if that is enough for his family, he is sure of a living, as the farmer will naturally keep enough for himself and his family and sell the balance, and if the crops are good and if there is a good surplus the people are well fed.

Again, on the other hand, if the crops are poor, the people have to get along with what the farmers can spare.

Now we farmers want to do the best we can this year and produce the very most we can to help win the war, and we need the co-operation of every patriotic citizen and I, for one (and I think all the rest will agree) want to appeal to the public in general to do all they can to supply the farmer with help when they need it.

I would suggest that all the labor unions, such as the carpenters' union, masons' union, business men and clerks, county road commissioners, county bureaus and county agents all help supply the farmer with help whenever they are called on to do so. Even if some of the construction work is neglected, the farm work ought to be well done for the next year at least.

Now, I want to ask, what promises the farmer can get from these points. It is necessary to get some promises in order to get a maximum crop planted, and as no farmer will want to plant more than he is sure he can harvest.

I read that from a careful survey in Kent county, it is found that there is about one man short to every six farms, compared with last year, and another draft is coming soon, which will reduce the ratio still more.

I would suggest further that special attention be given to the month of October. Last fall all of our crops were late, help was almost impossible to get and the weather was bad. I tried to get some of Mr. Loeb's men, offered them whatever they were getting and to board them besides, but didn't get any. The men told me they would lose their jobs if they came and helped me out. Now, it seems to me that my work was more important than building resorts.

I would urge every farmer to produce as much as possible this year and forget the money side of farming until after the war. Our boys at the front and those in training are not thinking of the dollars and cents they are making. They are fighting for our cause and it is up to us to see that they are well fed. We, as farmers can do our bit and it is up to us to produce all the beef, pork, beans, wool and everything else we can rather than think of our farming in dollars and cents,

Yours truly,
ARTHUR BEATTIE.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALTON PACKARD COMES TO CITY WEDNESDAY

Master of Humor Will Bring His Full Bag of Tricks

Remember Alton Packard presents to us, Wednesday next, one of the best programs of the lecture course. Wednesday is wheatless day, but never mind if you hear Packard you will be filled with mirth, and forget that there is a man named Hoover, whose first name is Herb, and for that reason he thinks all of us like herbs, in place of meat.

Packard is entertaining, funny and instructive, a master with the pencil, a personator of no mean ability, telling stories full of wit, humor and laughs. Mr. Packard is above all an artist, he draws the quickest and best pictures of any cartoonist before the American public.

We feel sure that we have a real treat in store for the patrons of the lecture course.

The fuel situation makes it necessary for this number to be held in the high school assembly. We realize that it will not be as pleasant as the opera house. However we are at war, and the boys at the front need the coal. There will be no seat reservation. Those who have stubs from the American Girls Trio, may secure your refund at the Central Drug Store. The admission at the high school will be by season ticket. Single admissions will be fifty cents.

Time: Wednesday, February 13, 8 p. m. Place: high school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flanders of Ironton called at the Dunlop and Jardine homes one day last week.

The school children now sing "America" with a fifth verse included which adds more patriotism to the already patriotic song.

Along with our meatless, wheatless and sunless days we are rather dreading the fact that we may also have to observe mailless days, as Mr. Foote says he may come only three times each week.

Lulu Hammond braved the severe storm last Sunday and walked to Sunday school. If everyone were as brave as Lulu, we certainly would have larger crowds at Sunday school.

WHAT THE VICTORY OR DEFEAT OF GERMANY MEANS TO EVERY AMERICAN

(Contributed by Garrett P. Serviss to the National Security Ieague's campaign of Patriotism Through Edueation.)

The most fatal blindness that can come upon any man is not to know his enemy when he sees him; to mistake a smiling villan, with a dagger concealed in his hand, for a friend!

Such moral cecity has often been the disastrous product of simple, kindly, good nature; of an indisposition to either do evil or suspect it in others. The same thing is true of a nation, and particularly of n republic like ours, founded upon democratic ideas. Out of this kind of blindness the United States has suddenly found itself aroused, and forced to tear the seales from its eyes. The German Kaiser's empire has been our secret, smiling foe almost from the time that the king-loving Bismarck prepared its foundations. Its covert enmity has grown more bitter every year since William II, with a rattle of his sword and a call upon the old "German God," the god of war and battle, ascended his throne as a divinely chosen representative of supreme power over men, transmitted by heriditary sucoession from a robber baron of the Middle Ages.

The antipathy was as natural as that, of a secret law-defier to an upright judge, for the autocrat in Berlin and his supporters knew that their principles of government were in deadly opposition to the new law of liberty enlightening the world. The aversion, the concealed purpose, could not be always be kept from peeping out. It peeped out in Manila Bay, in 1898, only to shrink before the steady eye of Admiral Dewey. It peeped out in Venezuela when there waa a Roosevelt on guard. It peeped out in Mexico, in the Pacific, and, as we now know at many times and plaees which escaped notice at the moment. Like a crawling serpent it erept into our very house, and hid itself there, in the form of spies, unrecognized in their disguise of false friendship.

But "der tag" eame, black with violation of treaties, horrible with outrage and murder, making of sea and land a charnel-house into which were mercilessly thrown old men and helpless women, young girls and innocent babes, while the world was hurled backward toward the chaos of barbarism in order to put "Duetschland uber Allea," to enthrone the German Kaiser over all human powers, and to extinguish the torch of freedom for mankind. These extravagant seeming words tell nothing but the sober truth. The last three years have ao opened the eyes of men that no language can exaggerate what they behold.

Can any intelligent, liberty-loving American ask what we are fighting for? Is it possible for him not to comprehend that we must fight and fight with all the strength of our arms, and all the determination tbat steeled Washington at the beginning, and Lincoln in the middle period, in order to preserve the cause of democracy and human rights? In God's name, let none of our countrymen be so blind as to doubt that an undefeated Germany now would mean, in the near future, an America "bled white" to fill the depleted arteries of the gorgon of military conquest and autocratic rule that is sucking the blood of half prostrated Europe. Let us all fight, in whatever way we can; let there be no word but "fight" until the foul spirit that brought on this abominable war, and abased us all, has been laid dead!

WE WILL RESUME

The Garfield jolt to industry stands, although it has aroused violent criticism all over the country. And the nice thing about it is that the business men who protest the most vigorously will obey just as cnrefully as the few who think the move was justified.

That is one charaeteristic of the United States. Its people always come back. The first day of the Garfield order found business men of the country vigorously protesting, in an attempt to get what they honestly believed to be a big mistake stopped before it had gone into effect. The second, after the protests had been ignored, found them planning on how they could work a little harder in the future to make up for the lost time during the shutdown.

Again—

As soon as the new crop of winter wheat comes in and normal conditions return we will resume our promotion work with more vigor than ever.

Thia was the text of a letter written by a successful advertising manager of a successful concern. That is the true American spirit. Nothing depresses it long, and it comes back "with more vigor than ever"—the indomitable spirit that won't be downed.

The United States—united in one common cause as never before—is feeling the first real privation of a war winter; more curtailing of luxuries tbat have become necessities, than privation in its real sense.

It is what is needed to bring out more forcibly patriotism, loyalty, and the "won't be beaten" spirit of the American people that has caused other nations to look to the United States for leadership.

The war, with its terrors, horrors, the giving of our men and women, and our money—will have its compensations. History is making a change in the old familiar saying, "There is no great loss without some small gain." When the American spirit is fully aroused to its duty and its privilege it will read—"There is no great loss without a greater gain"—Peace for all the world.

Then the United States will lead the world in the work of reconstruction "with more vigor than ever," the invincible spirit—the inborn spirit of the American people.

One report says 14 German spies have been shot, and another that none have been executed. The truth of the matter is 14 or more spies ought to be shot and probably will be as soon as the proper type of gun is selected.

No doubt all candidates in the spring election will run on patriotic platforms, but it is hoped that none will make a campaign on that "I am more patriotic than you" plank.

Somebody haa discovered that the eggs of the crocodile are good to eat. The food situation has evidently driven some folks desperate.

There is a "baker-ized" coffee, but if it had no more pep than the baker-ized war department it would soon be off the market.

Garfield has modified his order. Now if the weather man would only take a hunch we could get along very nicely.

The kaiser seems to be having a dreadful time working up a first rate case of hate against America.

This is one year anyhow when the rich aren't the only ones to take a holiday in the winter time.

Why didn't Senator Stone talk that way when war was declared? We're from Missouri, too.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

As we go to press the case of the People vs. Lewis Maddix—desertion, is still receiving attention in the circuit court.

A Beaver Island juryman walked across the ice—thirty-three miles to Charlevoix last week. We haven't found out who he was yet, but he certainly had his nerve with him.

Leaky flues eaused an aged boiler in the Riverside hotel at Bellaire last Monday afternoon to do a "Busy Bertha" stunt. No one was hurt, but the heating plant of the hotel will be tied up for a time.

Just a month ago we advertised our new proposition or rather inducement for our customers to pay cash, the offer being to give each cash paying customer double their money's worth on the day during the month of February that our cash sales were the least in amount.

Cash Sales the Least on January 11

On Friday, January 11, our cash sales amounted to less than any day in the month. Therefore according to our offer, all persons paying cash for any order of groceries or meats on this day are entitled to the same amount as their purchase ABSOLUTELY FREE. Bring in your cash sales slips and we will duplicate the original order, or give you the same value in any thing we have in stock (not governed by the food administrator.) Cash customers on Friday, January 11, are as follows:

Mrs. A. J. Hamilton
E. J. Kauffman
Fred Gornell
Miss Beattie
Mrs. A. J. Usher
George Glados
Mrs. Myers
W. H. Burns
Fred A. Myers
George Howe
W. P. Fanning
Mrs. Black
John Roen
Millard Olney
A. A. Swinton
John Martin

As these people if they receive double a duplicate order free of charge, and then when Mr. or Mrs. Doubter or fake believer says there is some scheme behind our offer, tell them it is a straight and legitimate offer and that when we make an offer of this kind, we stand behind it and make good.

Offer Good During February

During the month of February, the same inducement to pay cash will be given all customers. If you should happen to pay cash on a $5.00 order on the day our cash sales are the smallest, we will duplicate your order FREE OF CHARGE.

Notice to the Public

Owing to the increased cost of doing business, with the manufacturers drawing in to a close time limit on credit, the extending of long credit has become a burden to the average retail dealer. Throughout the country, dealers have found it necessary to shorten their time limit on credit.

Therefore, after careful consideration, the firms mentioned below, have decided that after February 10, 1918, all our credit will be placed on a strict thirty day basis, and we shall be obliged to refuse credit to those who do not keep their accounts promptly paid within this given time.

Also those customers whose present accounts with any of the firms mentioned below, have extended over sixty days, will be asked to pay those accounts in full, before further credit can be given. Please do not ask us to deviate from the above.

We trust that our customers will see that these necessary regulations are made with the best of intentions, and that they will tend to make business relations between our customers and ourselves more satisfactory.

To Our Customers

During the past year, the cost of everything we use in this business has nearly trebled. In other words, it takes three times the capital to carry on our business that it did a few years ago. Besides this, our wholesalers are insisting on our settling with them, in some cases, every ten days and others every thirty days and to do this we must insist on prompt payment of our accounts.

Consequently, on and after February 18, 1918, we will be obliged to insist on cash for merchandise over our counter. We do not believe that this plan will entail any great hardship to our customers and feel that it will be better for them in the end as it will enable us to give them better service and help them to buy to the best advantage.

OUR BOYS HAVE SOME COMFORTS OF HOME

Big-Hearted Red Cross Workers Extend Motherly Sympathy

Canteen service as provided by the American Red Cross for our soldiers in France is one of the most potent influences for keeping the men contented and in the right frame of mind to smash the Germans, saya Mrs. Jean Hull, who is in this country on two months' leavc.

"A cantcen in a long shack where the soldiers are served coffee, sandwiches and morc substantial food, as well as sweets. Here a soldier may get his clothes mended, may have them cleaned after the filth of the trenches, and if he is homesick may pour out his heart to one of the American women in charge."

In other words, the Red Cross canteen furnishes that home-like touch which means so much to a man three or four thousand miles from his family and friends.

Mothers with boys in France or in training to go to France will be made happy in knowing that such care is given to their sons by the Red Cross. The American women who have volunteered to run the cnnteens are among the nation's most cultivated women. They are enduring conditions which are in marked contrast with the surrouodings of their own homes.

"Lots of times an American soldier will come into the canteen with a spell of the blues" said Mrs. Hull, "he has been out in the mud, is tired and hungry and most of all wants sympathy. When he sees us women cheerfully washing in a mud puddle, sleeping in cold rooms nnd working long hours on a stretch, he gets ashamed of his feelings and hraces up. They are mighty glad to see a woman from home and find our reading room, music and chatter most alluring. We have to run them out at times, they are so enger to stay even after regular hours."

Rounded corners at road intersections are made at all important crossroads and at the junctions of all roads where the traffic is sufficieotly heavy to warrant it in Crawford county, Ia. This practice, according to the service bulletin of the Iowa state highway commission, is regarded with so much favor by the farmers that they donate the land required for extra width in the right of way.

CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Charlevoix Readers

For months Charlevoix citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Donn's Kidney Pills by Charlevoix residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Charlevoix reader.

Mrs. John Cook, 307 Mason St., Charlevoix, gave the following statement in October, 1911: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on different occasions for kidney disorder and backache and they have always given me splendid results."

FIVE YEARS LATER Mrs. Cook added: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble and I have had no occasion to use a kidney medicine since. I am always ready to say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills."

NOTES FROM CAMP CUSTER

(By Our Special Correspondent)

It is interesting to walk down Main street, Battle Creek, on a fine Saturday afternoon when the Custerites are out in full force, and notice the different insignia on the sleeves of the non-commissioned officers. There are all the fifty seven varieties; at least it seems so to the perplexed observer who is trying to classify them.

When you go into camp, be prepared to open all packages for inspection by the guard; and don't think if you should happen to be a woman that you will be immune from this operation. No, indeed! "They can't get away with that" I heard one big, fine-looking soldier say with evident satisfaction, as we noticed the guard insist on one woman opening her bag for inspection to see if it contained any of the contraband booze. I had thought to console her with "never mind lady, you will vote very soon" but she passed on with an indignant toss of her head.

The boys complain that the long infantry overcoats impede their progress when hiking and look with longing eyes at the short, compact, belted coat of the men in the quartermaster's department. The infantry men are not without resources, however, and many of them have "amputated" about three inches off the long-tailed coats, which they claim is a great "improvement."

The band men are being trained in litter carrying, making tourniquetes and other branches of first aid work, so that they will be prepared to help save their comrades lives by their knowledge as well as to solace them with music. They have had the privilege of hearing some good speakers on this subject in the new Liberty Theatre at Camp Custer, where all kinds of entertainments, from sermons to circuses, are given for the diversion and edification of the soldiers.

There are clouds in the sky as the days go by and the atmosphere's tinged with blue, though we never shirk in our daily work yet there seems not a thing to do; and the streets seem bare though many are there and in day time the sun won't shine, for the Boys in Brown can't come to town, they are under quarantine. And out in the Camp they live by rule yet everything seems to go wrong; they fumigate and they ventilate and they can't see a friend nor make a date—they must stay in the barracks both early and late with nothing to do but bewail their fate. And they can't come out and we can't go in and we're grumbling all the time, 'cause the Boys in Brown can't come to town, they are under quarantine.

About half of Camp Custer is now under quarantine including the 337th Inf. in which are most of the Charlevoix boys. There are only a few cases of spinal meningitis developed so far and the drastic measures used for prevention ought to effectually check any further spreading of this disease. The trouble was not caused by conditions in camp which are of the best but on account of men being sent here from other camps which were overcrowded and unsanitary. Then meningitis trouble started after the 2,000 signal service men were sent here from Camp Jefferson.

General Parker now encourages the use of pillows by the soldiers in Camp Custer and has ordered all exchanges in camp to lay in a stock to be at twenty-five cents each. Pillows are not issued by the government.

Of the officers and enlisted men in the 85th Division at Camp Custer, over 88 per cent are carrying government insurance.

At last Atwood has a bean huller in actual operation. DeYoung and VandeBerg of Maple Villa have commenced threshing here and this will end the activities of the good old standby "Poverty Club," although a great many have finished flailing their beans.

The local chapter of the Red Cross had a meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Klooster. It was decided at this meeting to hold meetings at the homes of the members until such time as the town hall could be used without the expense of heating. Such work as will be allowed them to do in the home will be done until they are able to arrange permanent quarters in the hall.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

We Sell Groceries at Such Small Profit

Every man should, in this crisis, do his "bit" to forward the cause. We are doing our "bit" by selling our friends and customers the best groceries at the VERY LOWEST PRICES FOR WHICH THEY CAN BE HANDLED.

Buttars since 1870, when the lean-to part, comprising the present living room, dining room and bathroom, was built by the late David Nettleton for the present owner, on the property which the latter had bought and clenred of stumps the yenr previous. This part was damaged the least by the fire. The maln addition, comprising the west end of the house was built in 1878. The roof caved in over this part and the upper atory wholly destroyed. The present kitchen and woodshed were added about eighteen years ago. Thia part is also ruined by smoke and water. In fact little remains undamaged but the floors and chimney of the building.

There was $1,500 insurance on the house and $1,000 on the furniture, pictures and clothing. The exact monetary extent of the loss cannot be ascertained until the appraisers for the insurnnce company have looked over the premises, and Mr. Buttars has as yet made no definite plans for rebuilding.

This wns one of the most attractively located residences of the city proper and its marring is a cause for regret, not only to the owner who had called it home for so many years but to the community to whom its well kept lawns had seemed a beauty spot.

Much credit is due Mrs. L. B. Bartlett, who had coffee made for the weary and cold-benumbed firemen and brought to the scene of action.

DEALERS MUST HAVE LICENSE

NEW LAW BECOMES EFFECTIVE FEBRUARY FIFTEEN

Action Expected to Prevent Hoarding and Stablize Price of Corn and By-Products

To prevent hoarding of concentrated and mixed feeding stuffs by speculators the United States Food Administration has deemed it advisable to license manufacturers of and dealers in commercial feeds for livestock, cattle and hogs," said Food Administrator G. A. Prescott of Michigan recently. "President Wilson has issued a proclamation placing the industry under license control on and after February 15. The Food Administration declares that hoarding of stock feeds has been more or less prevalent since the beginning of the war, and has resulted in extraordinarily high prices during the period of scant production. It believes that licensing will also prevent the hoarding of hay, which has been practiced in some sections of the country as a result of unusual demands for the army.

"The Food Administration, continued Mr. Prescott, "hopes to stabilize the price of dairy and stock feeds. Without the license requirements it was powerless to prevent many evils which tend to encourage increased prices, especially near the large centers of population, where dairymen depend almost entirely upon concentrated feeds for milk production.

"It was upon the advice of the leading men in the trade that the Food Administration asked for the authority granted by the President's proclamation, under power given him by the Food Control Act of Congress. Representstives of the feeding stuff industry recently met in Washington and passed a resolution asking the Food Administration to place all straight and mixed feeding stuffs under license, protecting the fair and honest dealers against the operations of a few unscrupulous manipulntors. They appointed a War Service Committee of 49 men from various states to assist the Food Administration in dealing with the situation.

"Every manufacturer, importer, dealer, handler or storer of about 50 of the principal ingredients used extensively in making commercial mixed feeds is included in the license requirements. This covers baled hay, shell and ear corn and many other important commodities which are intended for use as feed or as ingredients in mixed feeds. The only exceptions are for millers manufacturing bran and dealers in coarse grains, who have already been placed under Food Administration licenses.

"Failure to secure licenses by February 15 may be punished by a fine not in excess of $5,000, by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment. Applications for license should be addressed to the United State Food Administration, License Division, Washington, D. C., specifying the nature of the business to be licensed."

FAREWELL PARTY

Glen Moore Feted by Sophomore Class and Friends

The Van Dusan home on the Norwood road was the scene of a farewell party last Friday night, at which about twenty-five people were present to say good-bye and good luck to Glen Moore, who moved to Traverse City with his family on Monday last.

The party comprised the sophomore class of the Charlevoix high school, to which Glen belongs, and a number of friends outside the high school who had been invited to share in the merrymaking. The high school bunch came out from town in sleighs, chaperoned by Forest Fowler and Miss Hazel Allen.

A fine supper was served, after which the young people played games and enjoyed music and singing. The farewell address was made by Miss Laura Brown. The gathering broke up at a late hour, the Charlevoixites getting in at 3:00 a. m.

VISITOR DIES IN HER SISTER'S HOME

Mrs. Mary Newland Had Been Here Only Four Days

Sadness came quickly to mar the joys of reunion when Mrs. Mary C. Newland, of Albion, died last Sunday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Weikel, on south Bridge street, whom she had but four days before come to visit, after an interval of eight years.

Mrs. Newland complained of not feeling well about an hour before her death. At about 6:15 p. m., complaining of being very ill, she went to the bathroom where she was stricken with apoplexy. She was made as comfortable as possible, and a physician was called, but passed away, in spite of all efforts to revive her, at half past six.

Mrs. Newland was 66 years of age. She was not a stranger to Charlevoix, having spent several season here some years ago. Besides Mrs. W. J. Weikel—her only living sister, deceased is survived by her brother, George F. Chase, who accompanied her to Charlevoix.

Funeral services were held at the Weikel home Tuesday at 2:00 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. E. Taggart. Remains are to be taken today to Ionia for burial.

ANOTHER PIONEER CITIZEN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. James Ackert, Sr., Dies After Long Illness

In the death of Mrs. James Ackert, Sr., at her home on the south hill last Friday morning, February 1st, Charlevoix lost one of its earliest residents and best known citizens.

Mrs. Ackert was born June 21, 1863, in this city and has lived here all her life. She was married to James Ackert in 1880, and to this union were born seven children, five of whom are now living. They are Mrs. J. C. Loskot, and Miss Rhea Ackert, of Charlevoix, Mrs. Julius Koler of Wyandotte, Michigan, Bert Ackert, of Frankfort, Michigan and Jnmea Ackert of Gloucester, Mass.

The deceased had been ill for many years and since last Xmas has grown steadily worse, nenemin being the principal trouble, attended by various complications. The end came early Friday morning at about 7:30 o'clock.

Funeral services were held from the house Monday at 2:00 p. m., Rev. C. E. Taggart officiating, after which the remains were placed in the vault at Brookside.

The ladies aid of Epworth will serve an oyster supper, Friday evening, February 8th, at the home of Mrs. Alfred Van Dusan and will also auction off a quilt—Adv. 6 t1.

Facts About the New Overland Four

The New Overland That Will Cost Under Five Hundred Dollars

The Willys-Overlnnd big production, low-priced four, which was shown for the first time three months ago at the Toledo factory in chassis form to a few inside observers, has been submitted to the eye of the public at the show. The complete car is not on exhibition but the chassis and an unfinished body suffice to give not only a clear idea of the construction of the new product but also of its complete appearance.

A Really Big Little Car

The result is that the Willys-Overland company has produced a 1500-lb. car on a wheelbase of 100 in., with the equivalent of 130 in. in spring tension. The frame side members are long, pressed steel parts, spaced quite closely together, the distance from the inside of the channel on one side to the inside of the opposite channel being 23 in. The depth of the channel member is 3 1-2 in. and the width across from the outside of the channel flange on one side to the outside of the channel flange on the other is 26 in. These side members are rounded off front and rear, so that the form of the chassis frame is what might be roughly called a flat sided, narrow, continuous ellipse, the ellipse itself being 130 in. from end to end.

Outside of the radical departure from usual practice in the arrangement of the frame members and suspension, the car does not depart from standard design in its other features A conventional type of block L-head four-cylinder engine is used with dimensions of 3 1-4 x 4 in. The valves are operated from a gear-driven camshaft through mushroom push rods. Cooling is by thermo syphon and oiling by a pressure-feed system, in which the oil is thrown by centrifugal force by the flywheel through an oil strainer and then to a lead to the hollow crankshaft. The hollow crankshaft also takes care of the lower connecting rod bearings.

The complete electrical system includes Autolite units for starting and lighting, and the battery equipment may be either U. S. L., Gould or Willard. The battery capacity is 60-amphere-hour. The motor and generator are mounted separately, the generator being on the right side and driven directly from the timing set, while the starting motor is on the left side and is engaged with the flywheel by means of the Bendix gear.

Two sets of brakes are used, the foot brake mounted on the jackshaft of the gearbox, giving what is commonly known as a transmission brake, with the hand brake on at the rear wheels. The control members for operating the brakes and controlling the other functions of the car are placed in the customary manner.

Pressed Steel Body

The body is a production job as well as the chassis, being pressed steel throughout. The type shown is a five passenger job and arranged with an apron-like projection in the front and a rounded off rear to accommodate itself to the overhanging frame suspension. The runningboards are supported from the chassis by two pressed steel U bars inverted to rivet to the frames, giving a substantial support to these boards. The color of the body is not fixed and there are some other details which are also to be settled upon before the car is put into production. For instance, the gear ratio on the model shown is 4, 73:1; this may be altered. It is expected that a definite move towards production will be made during the coming spring.—Motor World.

Its predominating feature from a construction standpoint is the skillful use of pressed steel in both chassis and body. Everything possible is made as a pressed part, giving the desired lightness and low cost. Another feature is the extension of the chassis suspension forward of the front axle and behind the rear axle by the means of an overhanging form of spring arrangement.

As the wheelbase is 100 in. the front and rear axles are both 15 in. in from the ends of the frame, this amount being represented by the overhang of the chassis. The springs are mounted in such a way as to connect the overhanging ends of the frame to the axle, this being accomplished by a horizontal V type of suspension at both front and rear. The front springs being fixed at both the frame and axle and the rear springs being shackled on one side and pivoted on the other to take care of the movement of the body, the front axle member is thus relied upon to absorb directly the spring stresses by slight movements of the front axle from the vertical.

The castings for the engine are arranged in accordance with up-to-date practice in L-head design. The cylinder head is removable and the cylinders are cast in unit with the upper half of the crankcase. This casting also carries the motor supporting feet at all four corners giving a four-point rigid suspension. The waterjacks are large and in connection with a cellular tube radiator with a large tank at the top the cooling system holds a total of 7 gal., which is much larger than that employed in some care of greater size. In connection with this radiator there is a fan driven by belt from a gear on the end of the crankshaft, and the tension on this belt is constantly maintained by a spring.

The clutch and gearbox are mounted in connection with the engine as a unit power-plant. The clutch is an oil disk type, having three disks faced with Raybestos. It is housed within the flywheel and secures its oil from the supply which goes to the engine. In fact, the same oil lubricates the entire unit plant, flowing back also to the gearbox, which is a three-speed, sliding, selective type. From the gearbox the drive passes through one universal joint to the propeller shaft and thence to the three-quarter floating rear axle. This axle is in reality a single bearing floating type with a ball-bearing pressed over the outside of the axle housing, carrying the wheel, and a roller bearing at the differential end. The wheels are wood, carrying 30 x 3 1-2 tires, non-skid in rear.

HOME BOY NOW AT PORT ROYAL

EMIL NASSON WRITES OF TRIP THROUGH SOUTH

Is a Member of 96th Co. L, U. S. M. C., and Likes the Life—Says He Met Leslie Shapton

We are just in receipt of the following interesting letter from one of our boys who joined the marines last month und who is now stationed in South Carolina:

Port Royal, Paris Island,
South Carolina, Feb. 5, 1018.

"Dear Editor—I promised to let you know where I landed after going through Uncle Sam's hands and, as I consider myself permanently located, I will describe my trip and living surroundings briefly.

"I left Charlevoix on Friday, January 18th, and after spending many hours in the snow-bound trains, arrived in Detroit Sunday morning at about eight o'clock. I spent Sunday with good friends, formerly from Eveline, and with five other Michigan recruits left Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock for this place, to become a marine.

On the very offset, we had good company, only one of the five using tobacco in any form. There were two boys from Ypsilanti—one from Detroit and one from St. Ignace.

"We left Detroit on the P. M., going to Toledo, then going on the B. & O. through the finest agricultural county I've even seen, through Dayton and on to Cincinnati, where we were fortunate enough to engage a Pullman berth for our night's trip. The L. & N. road makes good time and by daylight we were through the picturesque state of Kentucky, saw a few tunnels, but missed the famed Blue grass region. We enjoyed the trip through Tennessee, where we left the snow behind for good. But the buildings and trees were covered with a heavy coat of sleet until we got nearly to Atlanta. We saw the new army camp, near Augusta. Camp Hancock is beautifully situated, about twenty miles from Augusta and has already a good many soldiers at drill.

"The country through Georgia is very different from that of Michigan. The buildings are small and very old—all built on posts and with large chimneys for fireplaces. You hardly ever see a barn of any description. The soil is very heavy, having a red color, something like iron ore. Cotton is about the only crop we saw, with a little corn in places. Very seldom did we see more than three or four cows at a place. The land appears to be sadly lacking in fertility. Now and then we saw a real healthy looking crop of cotton. The cotton rows are sown in circles to prevent washing and no fences are in sight.

"South Carolina has more woods than Georgia and looks more like Michigan. Cotton and corn seems to be their best crops. Potatoes grown in the south are sold for 50c in the fall and they are buying them for $2.00 now. They have no cellars to keep them in and dispose of all perishable stuffs every fall and then buy back again in the winter. Negroes are numerous in Georgia and seem to till all the soil along the railroads.

"Here, segregation of the whites and blacks is very prominent. Special coaches and waiting rooms are supplied for negroes all the way from Cincinnati. Our journey ended on Thursday evening, arriving at Port Royal about nine o'clock. We were ferried over to the island with 24 others and had supper, which was much appreciated by all. We went to our cots and slept soundly until 5:45 a. m., when we started on the first lap of our service.

"We waited two days for our papers from Washington; were then re-examined and given our equipment and started drill the next morning. The examination given in the marine corps is very rigid and I considered myself very fortunate to pass. Many were sent back home.

"We have plenty of work but have fine sleeping quarters, good food and plenty of it, and good equipment—never suffering from the cold. I'm a member of 96th Co. L and we will go to the maneuvering grounds in a few days. It requires about three months of training—then we may be transferred to Quanico, Va., for further work.

"Must go to bed now and will write again when I learn more about the work.

Respectfully,
"Private Emil Nasson."

"P. S.—Was very much surprised after three days in camp, to run across a Charlevoix boy in the person of Leslie Shapton. He is in the 95th company and working every day with the rest of us."

BORN IN ITALY HE SERVES U. S.

MICHAEL GALLO LOVES LAND OF ADOPTION

Italian K. of P. Now in Ordnance Deparment and Proud of It—Family In the War

Will E. Hampton, Grand Keeper Records & Seal of the Knights of Pythias, is keeping in touch will all members of that order who are serving in the army and navy, and has received hundreds of splendid letters from the soldier boys, all breathing the true spirit of Americanism. But the one printed below, is from one of our foreign-born citizens, and it ought to inspire some of the "let George do it" stay-at-home American born fellows who growl if asked to contribute a dollar to any war purpose, to at least open up their pocket books if it does not touch their hearts.

Camp Dodge, Ia., Feb. 5, 1018.
Will E. Hampton, G. K. R. & S.,
Charlevoix, Mich.

"Dear Sir and Brother—I received your kind letter O. K. this morning, with the Pythian war medal and I appreciate it very much, and I will keep it always on my person, as a token of good faith. I enlisted in Detroit December 7th, and was sent to Columbus, Ohio, and from there here. We are training, and training hard to learn this new war game. But I am very happy and the work pleases me very much. I know what we are training for, and it is my duty to learn and learn quick, and go over there and do my share like a good American. When I say 'American' I am making a little mistake. I should say, 'the land of God, my adopted country America,' for I was born in Italy twenty-nine years ago, and emigrated to this, God's country, fourteen years ago. But I cannot feel anything else but a good American. I have lived here; made a good living here; learned the way of American patriotism, and why should I not be fighting for this country that has done so much for me? I am glad to say that my family has contributed every living member of our house to this cause. The only brother I have is an aviator in the Italian army, and my only sister is a nurse in the same army. And now I am in the ordannee corps for Uncle Sam, and proud to be there and I shall do all that I can, and exercise the patriotism that our order holds so dear, and I hold so dear to my heart. I have no home or family to be taken care of—as I told you we are all fighting for democracy. But every time that I get a letter from a brother Knight it cheers my heart, as they are the ones that I like best to hear from as often as I can.

"Fraternally yours
"MICHAEL GALLO."

BARNARD ATTENDS MARION SPELLING CONTEST

And Holds Its Own Manfully Against the Center

The ten pupils of the Barnard school who took part in the Marion township spelling conest were: Jane Lewis, Etta Dougherty and Hazel Beattie 7th grade; Lottie Ager, Ellen Swartout, Margaret Swartout and Frank Smith 6th grade; Johnnie Boss and Dorothy Gornell 4th grade and Dorothy Lewis, 3rd grade.

Those who received 100 per cent on the written contest were: June Lewis, Etta Dougherty, Lottie Ager, Ellen Swartout, Johnnie Boss and Dorothy Lewis. Each of the others missed one word and received 98 per cent.

In the oral contest following June Lewis, Etta Dougherty and Lottie Ager remained standing when the list of 1,000 words had been spelled. Dorothy Black and Vida Black of Marion Center school and Bertha Smith of the Johnson school also remained standing.

CRIMEAN VETERAN LAID TO REST

Had Visited Nearly Every Land in the World and Took Part in Two Wars—Was 84

Eveline township has lost one of its earliest settlers, Richard Williams, who passed away a week ago last Thursday, January 31st, at the ripe age of 84 years, five months and 14 days.

He was born in Cornwall, England, August 17, 1833. When but a boy, fourteen years of age, he entered the merchant marine and in the course of his voyaging visited nearly every country on the globe. Until his sixtieth year, he sailed the ocean or the great lakes continuously.

When the Crimean war broke out, he was on a British man-of-war and took part in most of the naval engagements of that historic contest. He also saw service in our own great civil war struggle of '63.

He came to this region in 1864, when about the only white families here were those of Morris Stockman, A. G. Aldrich and Medad Thompson. Here he was married to Miss Charlotte Burns and located a homestead on Pine lake, but finally settled in Eveline where he lived at the time of his death.

To his union with Miss Burns were born twelve children, two of whom died in infancy. He leaves a wife, seven sons, three daughters, twenty-one grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The sons are Will, Frank and Walter of Canada, Ed of Chicago, Pierce of Detroit, George of Beaver Island and Alfred of Eveline; the daughters, Mrs. Lottie Tumath and Mrs. Anna McMulkin, of Ironton, and Mrs. Mamie Straw of Marion. Five of these children were at his bedside when the end came.

Mr. Williams enjoyed good health until about a year ago, when he began to fail. About a week before his death, he was forced to take to his bed. He had a wonderful memory, even to the last. It was interesting as well as instructive to listen to his account of his experiences.

The funeral was held at the home on February 3, 1918, Rev. Pontius officiating. Few beside the pall bearers dared to venture the bitter, cold drive to the Barnard cemetery, where the body was laid to rest.

Mr. Williams was an obliging neighbor, a loving father and a devoted husband, and even when at death's door spoke touchingly and with gratitude of the kindness shown him.

Thirty of the members of the men's class of the Methodist Sunday school surprised their teacher, Rev. Quinton Walker last Thursday night at his home. The orchestra furnished delightful music for the occasion. Jos. Ekstrom, president of the class, introduced Floyd Bettes as toastmaster. Floyd, in his unique way, introduced four members of the class who responded with well prepared speeches. The refreshments, as well as the speeches were enjoyed by all. Mr. S. A. Brown, in behalf of the class, presented the pastor with a signet ring set with two rubies.

The men requested the pastor to give them one hour a week for eight weeks, in which he would discuss the fundamentals. The first of these meetings was held last Monday night at the home of Oluf Nordrum on Park avenue.

FINE SURPRISE FOR LITTLE MISS ALLEN

Her Seventh Birthday was Remembered Right Royally

Miss Jessie Marguerite Allen entertained twenty-one of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Allen, 209 Clinton street, last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. To be more accurate, her small playmates entertained Miss Jessie, as they gathered at the house during her absence and sprung a complete surprise on the little miss, the occasion being her seventh birthday anniversary.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with flags and bunting appropriate to this season of patriotism and a dainty luncheon was served of which the big birthday cake with seven glowing candles was the chief feature. The little folks enjoyed music from the graphophone and under the leadership of the "grown-ups" present played games and had a general good time, as is usual at such affairs. Miss Ethel Zipp, Miss Genevieve Jarvis, Mrs. Usher and Mrs. Irwin were on hand to help the kids enjoy themselves. The heart of the happy young hostess was also gladdened by many fine presents.

CLOSE GAME AT ELK RAPIDS

CHARLEVOIX WINS OUT BY ONE POINT

We Play Boyne For N. M. Championship Friday Next—Come to "Pep" Mass Meet Thursday

For the first time in three years Elk Rapids was defeated on her own floor, last Friday evening.

The game was very close throughout, neither side having the game in what they considered a safe place, until the last two minutes of play, when Charlevoix rimmed the cup for the two baskets, which gave them the game.

Cartier got the first basket in the first minute of play and from then on it was a battle royal. Neither side was able to gain a distinct advantage. The half ended with the score, Elk Rapids 12; Charlevoix, 13.

The second half was every bit as fast as the first and was featured by several long shots by Cartier and Krulik.

Without doubt, Elk Rapids is the most sportsmanlike and friendly opponent that Charlevoix has met with this season.

The line-up was as follows: Charlevoix: Krulik, L. F.; Cartier, R. F.; Butler, C.; Hampton, R. G.; Jones, L. G. Elk Rapids: Lynch, L. F.; Fagilie, R. F.; Troutman, C.; Valley, R. G.

Field baskets: C. H. S.: Cartier, 4; Krulik, 3; Butler, 2. E. R. H. S.: Lynch, 7; Fagilie, 1. Frill threw Cartier four out of seven, Lynch, 2 out of 5. Time of halves, 20 minutes. Lane of Elk Rapids was referee, McKinzie of Elk Rapids, time keeper and Loomis of Charlevoix, scorer.

On Friday, February 15th, Charlevoix will play Boyne City high for practically the northern Michigan championship. Their second team will also be opposed to the local seconds. The Midgets have made arrangements to have the Alden second team here for that evening, so that there will be three games. The first game will begin at seven o'clock sharp—admission 15c and 25c.

In preparation for this game, a mass meeting will be held in the assembly room of the high school, Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend. If you have never attended one of these "pep maskers," come to the one next Friday and give yourself a treat.

CHEAP COAL IS HERE AT LAST

THREE CARS FOR DISTRIBUTION AT COST

And the Fuel Administration Didn't Have a Hand in it Either—Rose Turns the Trick

Help for the coal situation has come from an unexpected quarter.

Some five weeks ago, Mayor S. M. Rose in a conversation with Albert H. Loeb, of Chicago, who was staying here at that time, brought up the coal situation and before the latter left town the mayor had secured his promise to see what he could do to alleviate what was then becoming a critical affair. About two weeks later, Mr. Rose was in Chicago and met Mr. Loeb at his office, where the mayor received further assurances of aid which materialized as may be seen from the following telegram, to Mr. R. F. Sloan, which we are permitted to quote in part:

"Have succeeded in getting three cars of lump coal shipped to Charlevoix. They are consigned to Mr. Rose, mayor. Freight charges prepaid. One car ought to arrive any day and two remaining cars are following. You may tell Mr. Rose that he may make such disposition of this coal as he sees fit, either for city purposes or to residents."

This telegram was signed, Albert H. Loeb. One car has already been received and distributed and the other cars are en route. This coal cost $2.80 at the mines—freight is $3.32 and delivery and 3 per cent war tax—63c makes the net price to the consumer $6.75.

The mayor wishes it to be understood that Mr. Loeb is not interested in any way in the coal business and has lent his assistance only through interest in the town and its welfare and in a patriotic desire to help in a time of dire need.

It is not to be supposed that Mr. Loeb has been able to secure any better terms than would be possible to anyone who should go at the business of getting the coal into Charlevoix in the right way. In fact, substantially the same quotations have been made to other parties in this town, as they are prepared to show.

We cannot resist the temptation of pointing out the remarkable discrepancy between the figures above quoted and the price of government coal as offered by the local fuel administrator, which, if we remember rightly, reached the price of $11.00, when privately owned coal was selling at around $8.00 and $9.00. Does the fuel administration really administrate?

COURT CLOSES SWIFT BUT MEMORABLE SESSION

Four Interesting Cases Rapidly Disposed Of.

Court adjourns this week with the Armstrong-Rachow stock case, which is still hanging fire, as we go to press, although it is expected that it will go to the jury today.

The Maddix desertion case tried last week, as also the case against the hold-up man, Castle, resulted in a verdict of guilty, although sentence in both cases has been deferred to a later term of court.

In the cause celebre of the February session—the People vs. Lloyd C. Vinyard—the evidence, while not sweet, was short, the jury was out about fifteen minutes, one ballot was taken and a verdict of not guilty returned.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Frances Milner Celebrates Ninth Anniversary

Last Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, little Miss Frances Milner, just turned the 9th milestone of her life and had about sixteen of her young friends in to help her celebrate the event. There was a cake and candles, a delicious supper, and then followed games which the little people enjoyed so much that the party, scheduled to close at 5:30, didn't stop until 7:00 p. m. Everybody wished the happy hostess many happy returns of the day and departed to dream about the delightful time they had enjoyed.

A Word to the Wise

Who says advertising don't pay? Read the testimony of Mr. R. M. Babcock, of 201 Lewis street, Charlevoix. He says, "Last week I advertised in the Courier to sell a piano. The very first night following the insertion of the ad, six people called on me to buy the piano. I phoned the Courier at once, either to stop the ad or send me a car load of pianos."

Don't simply advertise. Advertise in the Courier, same as Mr. Babcock did and get results.

SAVE AND SERVE WITH NONE SUCH WAR PIE

No Top Crust

Satisfactory—Economical

Ask your men-folks if they can think of anything better than a good, healthy, man-sized piece of mince pie.

The kind that tempted them as boys more than any other one thing that cooled on the kitchen table—and that tempts them today.

Then think how easy it is with NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT to make this pie that your men-folks like—easy to make on short notice and so economical. Good, too, for puddings, cakes, and cookies.

It is condensed and so prevents waste. You add the water yourself. It is sealed in paraffin wrapping; no hand touches it but your own; it keeps and ripens like fruit cake in the package; costs but a few cents.

Bake a NONE SUCH War Pie—no top crust. Saves flour, shortening, labor, money—saves half the crust. Good, too.

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT makes it easy and economical to give your men-folks the pie they want.

IRONTON

Tha ladies aid met with Mrs. Ogden last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Brown and family spent Sunday with Fred Greenman south of here.

Clyda Ogden returned home last week from Wildwood where he has been working.

We were all very glad to have Rev. Taggart with us again Sunday p. m. He gave us a splendid talk.

The Red Cross will meet with Mrs. Grant Hammond Wednesday afternoon. Everybody is urged to come.

The farmers institute held at the grange hall Friday was largely attended. Only one speaker was able to get here. He bought out some very good points. Dinner was served to 125 people.

SOUTH EVELINE

Nearly every other person has a cold.

Miss Lena Murry is going to pick beans for Peter Nasson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clark and Mrs. Harnden attended the farmers institute at Ironton, Friday.

Mr. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Darby were in attendance at the institute. Those that stayed home missed a rare treat.

Some of the children froze their noses and ears coming home from school this last cold snap and its to be hoped we won't experience any more this year.

We are glad its warmer as the children at school suffered with the cold. We find that our school is lacking a proper heating system at present, or rather it is not properly adjusted.

The Farmers' Institute was a success and the dinner was good. The able speaker, Mr. Taylor from Shelby, presented a very interesting topic during the afternoon session on the dairy business. Mr. Taylor was very enthusiastic in his talk, presenting the conditions very plainly. There was a goodly crowd out despite the roads being in poor condition.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Weight and quality considered we can sell you American Fence at a lower price than you can buy for from any of the mail order houses. Bring in your catalogues and talk the matter over with us. Charlevoix Hardware Co. 6t2.

THE PUBLIC PULSE

February 12, 1918.

To Mr. Arthur Beattie,
Dear Sir:

Your letter in last week's Courier is amusing and a joke in the community.

In the first place the farm you refer to as a resort, will be one of the biggest farms in northern Michigan, and is a patriotic enterprise that the whole county is proud of—hence your remarks are entirely without foundation.

Further you remarks re "Help for gathering crops" are also uncalled for.

If you had gone to the front door and asked, you would have received, but going in the dark to influence men to leave to suit your purpose, merits the results mentioned by you.

The men working on this farm are loyal to their employers—they know that when a request to their manager was made for help to gather crops—they were told to go and all want gladly at the farms expense—so you see, if you had asked properly and shown the necessity for help you would have been given it willingly.

If you have any doubts in your mind concerning the above statements, let me suggest you speak to Mayor Rose who I am sure will further enlighten you on your unjust remarks.

Harry L. Oldham.

To Our Customers

During the past year, the cost of everything we use in this business has nearly trebled. In other words, it takes three times the capital to carry on our business that it did a few years ago. Besides this, our wholesalers are insisting on our settling with them, in some cases, every ten days and others every thirty days and to do this we must insist on prompt payment of our accounts.

Consequently, on and after February 18, 1918, we will be obliged to insist on cash for merchandise over our counter. We do not believe that this plan will entail any great hardship to our customers and feel that it will be better for them in the end as it will enable us to give them better service and help them to buy to the best advantage.

MAXWELL

F. O. B. DETROIT

There is inflexible logic in the fixing of that price for the Maxwell closed cars.

The purpose of the Maxwell builders was to strike the MIDDLE LINE of absolute value.

They have done so with scientific accuracy.

The Maxwell closed cars have grace, beauty, comfort, efficiency, durability, economy and standard equipment.

But, if built to sell for less than $1195 one or the other of these would be lacking.

On the other hand, for a higher price you could get only larger size or fancier furnishings—not any greater VALUE or finer "class."

That is what we mean by "the Middle Line."

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

The past week has been an exceedingly busy one.

Horton Bay school was visited on Febzruary 1st.

The Cramer School was visited on January 31. The new teacher is Miss Sarah Hoar of Levering. The new seats are in plaee.

The Howard school was visited in the afternoon of January 31. The new cloak rooms and Kaustines are giving splendid satisfaction.

The Evangeline township spelling contest was one that would make your eyes open to the splendid results obtainable through constant drill. Three hours of constant spelling in order to spell down four out of six and the remaining two had spelled 1,000 words all correctly. Five of the contestants were from the Wildwood school and the other from the Tainter district. The two winners, Genevieve Erickson and Leone McConnell are cousins and accepted the flag for the school with the understanding the teacher, Miss Ada Bardwell, will plaee under it a name plate showing that they have the honor both for the townsbip and the school.

Officers of the Teachers' Association are Miss Elizabeth Wetmore, president; Miss Mayme Scroggie, vice-president; Supt. Geo. B. Crawford, Secretary-treasurer. The resolutions ndopted by the association indicate that every teacher is to pay ten cents annunl dues to the association, pnyable hy rural teachers to the commissioner and by city teachers to their superintendents.

The attendnnce at the institute shows that 100 per cent of the teaching force was present, 86 per cent of the teachers from the City of Charlevoix, 82 per cent from the rural districts, and 30 per cent from the City of East Jordan. Thls does not include the Beaver Island schools from wbich no teacher could come.

The Walloon Lake school board have completed an addition to the schoolhouse In which they have Installed four Wolverine systems with Kaustine Chemicals.

Clarion school is still planning on immediate progress in school betterment. At present they sro out of coal and doing the bost they can witb what wood they can get.

Five districts reported no absences the past two weeks. This in spite of storms and bad roads. Fifteen reported absences due to sickness with very little of that, and as many more had a few ahsences due to stormy weather. In only four districts have a few boys and girls really had to give up because of the roads.

February is the month for intensified patriotism. Lincoln Day, Washington Dny, Longfellow, Valentine Day—War Saving Campaign started, and the third Liberty Loan under way, with President Wilson's Decemher 4th speech bcing printed in classlc form for the boys and girls.

Reports on mid-year tests from the 61 districts of Charlevoix county mainland were received on time with only five exceptions. Theso five teachers will prohahly be heard from this week with reasons for delay.

The Teachers' corner: Do you KNEAD or NEED supplies? Does a boy stay out TOO work or TO work? Is it CONSEQUENTLY or CONSEQUENTIALLY? SINCERELY or SINCERILY yours? Does a child lack NESSARY or NECESSARY clothing.

No teacher has written to the commissioner this winter to tell of hot soup, instant postum, or cocoa, prepared to accompany the eold noon luneh. Teachers want warm meals. Wonder if the boys and girls would likewise thrive with warm food at noon tide.

Papers omitted from section programs at institute will reach teachers in pamphlet form.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

Notice to the Public

Owing to the increased cost of doing business, with the manufacturers drawing in to a elose time limit on credit, the extending of long credit has become a burden to the average retail dealer. Throughout the country, dealers have found it necessary to sborten their time limit on credit.

Therefore, after careful consideration, the firms mentioned below, have decided that after February 10, 1918, all our credit will be placed on a strict thirty day basis, and we shall be obliged to refuae credit to those who do not keep their aeeounts promptly paid within this given time.

Also those customers whose present accounts with any of the firms mentioned below, have extended over sixty days, will be asked to pay those accounts in full, before further credit can be given. Please do not ask us to deviate from the above.

We trust that our customers will see that these necessary regulations are made with the best of intentions, and that they will tend to make business relations between our customers and ourselves more satisfactory.

TILL AMERICA COMES

Great Britain is soon to send 500,000 more men into the war field to meet the Teuton legions released from service on the Russian front because—

AMERICA IS NOT READY.

Scores of thousands of men are to be taken from British industries going at feverish pace to turn our war supplies because—

AMERICA IS STILL "3,000 MILES AWAY."

To fill places made vacant by these men England must call on her women, the home-makers and potential mothers, because—

AMERICA HAS WOODEN GUNS OR NONE.

The British are facing the grave future stoically and with no word of complaint, but they must be terribly disappointed because—

AMERICA IS NOT "OVER THERE."

Plucky little Belgium and heroic, bleeding France—they are scanning the Western seas with eyes of longing and alarm, wondering anxiously why big, strong

AMERICA DOESN'T COME.

Meantime 100,000,000 impatient American citizens and hundreds of thousands of still more impatient American soldiers await the world's great shout of joy signalizing that

AMERICA IS ON THE JOB.

When will it be? The months go by. The casting of Fate's die draws nearer and nearer. The weal or woe of humanity hangs on the throw. Civilization is at stake. Liberty or slavery is the supreme alternative. Which shall it be? Will America be in on the great decision?

Ask Mr. Baker.

A WILD DAY

The President has stooped from his pedestal to take a hand in the muddled war situation.

He gives no quarter to the critics of his administration, nor asks it. More clearly than ever is it written that he is determined to dominate; to do things in his own way without advice, suggestion or co-operation from extraneous sources.

It is an inbred, ingrowing, self-sufficient, self satisfied administration that he pictures—one which is quite able and willing to conduct this war all by itself, if you please, without advice from former Presidents, captains of industry, Senators, Representatives, military critics, or anybody else.

It is the spirit behind the statement, not its text which is most significant and most amazing, for it says almost in so many words that CRITICISM IS NOT WANTED and almost lends support to Senator Stone's blasts about "sedition" regarding Col. Roosevelt and others who are talking right out in meeting.

As if this were not enough, the President says something which will be nothing less than a red rag to Congress and says it in the bluntest of blunt ways:

"The investigations drew indispensible officials of the War Department constantly away from their work and officers from their commands, and contributed a great deal to such delay and confusion as had inevitably arisen."

The statement under other conditions might mean the political destruction of Senator Chamberlain, but today it is likely to harden his supporters and the Republicans in the belief that they are right, and it is certain to draw the issue squarely between those who support Secretary of War Baker and those who do not. It was certainly good politics not to force this issue at present.

The President has spoken, and he speaks not in the spirit of conciliation, but of anger, because Senator Chamberlain, a member of his own party and chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, had spoken his honest convictions about the "efficiency" of the War Department and has fathered a bill providing for a "war cabinet" in direct opposition to the wishes of the administration.

It will lose more supporters than it will gain for him, and it means that the critics of the administration will become more violent than ever, knowing that the only way they can get results is not by appealing to reason in Washington, but by increasing political pressure from the country.

It is a mistake to "stand pat" on the present war personnel and war organization. It is going to cost everybody concerned dearly.—Washington Herald.

THE MONDAY CLOSING ORDER

Since the confusion resulting from the Monday closing order has begun to subside and business is getting straightened out on the new course, the country can view the matter in the light of sober reason. And we can now see that if the conditions which brought about this order were ever to be remedied, some such action was imperative.

Business is rapidly adjusting itself to the change. Not only this, but the great army of loyal, patriotic business men of the country—the men who were already bearing much of the war burden have come similingly to the front and shouldered this new burden willingly. Of course more or less protests were to be expected, but these arose largely from ignorance of the order or of the necessity which prompted it.

In the main the response has been very satisfactory, and indications now are that all fear of a fuel famine that should become general, has passed, at least for this season.

The Monday closing order, together with the previous five-day closing order, marks the first real sacrifice the people of this country have been called upon to make in the prosecuting of the war. Its reception and the spirit in which it is being met is a barometer that correctly records the degree of patriotism of our people. That the response was so unanimous and so hearty must be a cause for much satisfaction at Washington, and will go far to assure the Administrator that the people are with the leaders in any move that the latter deem really necessary to winning the war.

Experiences of the past few months have demonstrated that the quality of American patriotism has in no sense deteriorated, nor has it become less universal. Its apparent absence can at any time be traced directly to ignorance of real conditions and needs. Given an incentive for sacrifice and a correct understanding of the conditions demanding it, no people on earth are more ready to respond.

Let us hope that further sacrifices will be necessary. But should they become so, rest assured the people will face them with a smiling composure and a ready acquiescence. We have already given our sons (our most priceless possessions,) and beside these our money, our property our comfort or convenience are of small value.

Never fear but the American people will measure up to every demand. They always have, and there is as yet no signs of decadence. We have torn the word "defeat" from our dictionary.

If the W. C. T. U. would hold the ground they have gained in this country, they will take the first opportunity to disclaim the charge of drunkenness in the American army in France. American people are in no mood to listen to slurs on our army. We know we have the finest body of troops in France ever assembled under any flag. No army in the history of the world was ever entirely free from this vice, but we have General Pershing's word that our boys are the finest and cleanest body of men he has ever seen. It would seem that the good ladies in their zeal for a meritorius reform have been made the unwitting tools of pro-German intrigue. If we could be thrown into a national wrangle over the conditions surrounding our boys over there, the enemy would have scored a telling point. Let the W. C. T. U. work in the abstract, and on the high plane of conditions as they should be. But our boys are too dear to us, for us to be willing to listen to a word against them, even though it comes from a misguided friend.

American prisoners are to be caged and compelled to stand four days without food, in an effort to extract military information from them. Just another lesson in German kultur.

We are not so much interested in keeping the Garfield regulation temperature "down to 68" as we are in trying to keep it up to 68.

This third degree business for American prisoners is not going to make many friends for the German people after the war.

A woman no longer knows just what her husband means when he calls her a "hun."

Now it is said "Corn will win the war."

A blaze in the basement of French & Redmon's Furniture store called out the fire department, Monday afternoon. They were cleaning up preparatory to their opening, Tuesday, and were burning up some rubbish in the furnace. A spark from this fire evidently ignited some loose material nearby. WAR IS COSTING UNITED STATES $24,000,000 DAILY

Ten months of war have cost the United States about $7,100,000,000 at the rate of $710,000,000 a month, nearly $24,000,000 a day.

More than one half of this huge sum, or $4,121,000,000 has been loaned to the allies and the balance, about $3,000,000,000 represents the American outlay for its own war purposes, exclusive of more than $600,000 for ordinary governmental expenses.

The war toll in money is increasing at the rate of more than $100,000,000 a month and indications now are that the two remaining months of the nation's first year as a belligerent will run it's war bill nearly $10,000,000,000, of which $5,000,000,000 will be for allied loans and about the same amount for the army navy, shipping board and other war agencies.

ALMOST ANY MAN MAY ENLIST IN ARMY NOW

Requirements So Changed that None But Cripples Are Excused

Changes in the physical requirements of the new national army, by which thousands of men were rejected and would have been rejected under the first regulations, can now be accepted for service, have been announced by Provost Marshal Crowder.

Physical defects that can be remedied and make the men fit for service, will be remedied, or the men will be put into some kind of service not as strenuous as trench fighting, Gen. Crowder says.

Height and weight requirements were both lowered and increased. Flat foot or club and claw foot and several foot troubles no longer are causes for rejection and local boards are ordered to "reject no foot cases." Any rejection from these troubles must be by the medical advisory board.

Chances for rejections for eye and ear defects were greatly lessened and the dental requirements were modified.

Hernia and similar troubles, the cause of many rejections under the first draft, must be very serious to win rejection. Only complete nasal obstruction will reject, which means that adenoids and enlarged tonsils are no cause.

The minimum height for men of the new army was lowered from sixty one to fifty eight inches by the new regulations, although all the cases of men between fifty eight and sixty inches must be referred to the medical advisory board by the local physicians.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

HOW

To Cure an Incipient Cold and to Relieve a Cough

WHAT should we do if we are catching cold? That means if we start with sneezing and chills. Promptly empty the bowels, either by taking a strong laxative, as epsom salts or castor oil or soap enemas, the latter several times, so as to make them thoroughly effective. The second action should be to take a hot bath or a blanket wrap. The latter is made by dipping a sheet into very hot water, which is then wrapped around the patient and followed by at least two blankets and as many hot lids or bottles as the house avails. Give the patient plenty of hot lemonade to drink, and when a copious sweat is produced take care not to chill the patient by carefully rubbing each part of the body with cold water, while the rest of the body is well covered. But do not omit the cold rub afterward. Remember to have the head well covered with cold compresses.

Light diet, consisting of fruit juices with little sweetening, should be given. All solid food should be avoided. This will assist greatly in fighting the cold. Fasting is like housecleaning—giving the bodily machinery time to get rid of all waste. If throat and nose begin to feel dry, so as to be uncomfortable, do not neglect to moisten these parts.

Oil of encalyptus, twenty drops.
Menthol, ten grains.
Liquid paraffin, two ounces.
Dissolve and mix. Use in atomizer.

If chilliness prevails the patient should spend a day in bed. It is both cheaper and more comfortable to do this, for it avoids complications. Once the cold toxins have got into your system you must expect serious discomfort for some time. Nervous diseases, heart trouble and kidney diseases have often been started by one of these apparently harmless colds.

If your nostrils are particularly sore and the secretions very profuse salt water ought to be snuffed up the nose, but never if the cold is in a very severe stage for fear of infecting the ears. If you use the douche glass always keep the mouth open. This does away with the danger of having the solution run to the ears. A disinfectant and soothing solution follows:

Menthol, twenty grains.
Camphor, twenty grains.
Liquid vaseline, two ounces.
Mix and label. Use in atomizer as nasal douche.

ABOUT BILLIARD BALLS.

Why They Click When They Strike One Another.

What makes the "click" when two billiard balls or other spheres of any solid material strike each other? Professor Banerji has found that the distribution of the intensity of the sound in various directions around the line of impact is very remarkable, and he has found methods of measuring the force of these sounds so exactly that he is able to set down the following conclusions:

The sound, he explains, is not due, as has been hitherto thought, to the vibrations of the spheres, which in any ordinary material, such as ivory, wood or metal, are both too high in pitch to be audible and too faint in intensity to be heard. The click is due to air vibrations caused by the reversal of the motion of the spheres as a whole.

He has ascertained that the intensity is at its highest or maximum in a line joining the centers of the spheres. It gradually diminishes almost to zero at an angle of about sixty-seven degrees with a line joining the centers, when it again increases to a second maximum at an angle of ninety degrees. In other words, the click is loudest at the very point of contact of the spheres, which is what we would naturally expect.

Why We Hear More Clearly on a Frosty Night.

When the atmosphere is dense, as on a frosty night, sounds are carried farther and faster than when it is warm. Ordinarily if you walked three times as far away from the source of a noise as you were when it first reached you the sound would not be one-third of its original intensity, but one-ninth

FURNISHES FOOD TO PRISONERS

RED CROSS AIDS OUR BOYS IN GERMAN HANDS

Bureau Transmits Money and Eatables to Interned Americans by Way of Switzerland

Parents who have thought of prison life in Germany as perhaps the worst experience that could befall their sons in the American army will find in the service that the American Red Cross has provided to supply prisoners with food further proof of the great value of this organization.

The plan briefly is this. The American Red Cross committee stationed in Berne, Switzerland will send each American prisoner three tea-pound packages of food every two weeks. Already enough supplies are in Switzerland or on their way there to care for 10,000 American prisoners for a period of six months.

Naturally General Pershing is not planning to let the Germans capture that many American soldiers, but the Red Cross is measuring the prospects by what has happened to the French and English in gigantic engagements when both sides lose heavily.

This same Red Cross bureau will be the sole agency licensed by the War Trade Board to transmit money to American and Allied prisoners in Germany. The German government never yet has had occasion to doubt the good faith of the American Red Cross, so that its relief plans are certain of execution.

Stories about the starvation of prisoners in Germany have been printed so frequently in this country that many parents will consider the Red Cross plan worth all the money they have contributed to it if it did not attempt any other form of war relief work. The kind and amount of food to be sent every two weeks to each American prisoner will be determined by expert dietitians.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST.

Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

The commissioner visited the Bay Shore school nn Friday morning. The new teacher is Miss Verona Clark of Grand Haven. You should have heard those boys and girls sing Mr. Genett, their former teacher. now a soldier boy, would be proud of their patriotism.

The commissioner also found the Hopyard school working faithfully under the guidance of Glenn Snyder. The eighth grade were busy with partial poyments.

The normal class attended the Marion contest in a load from the city. Their song, beautifully rendered was a marked feature of the program.

Three more spelling contests, Bay township at Horton Bay on the afternoon of Friday the 15th; South Arm in the evening of Saturday the 16th in South Arm Grange hall; Eveline at Ironton in the afternoon of Friday the 22nd.

The teachers of Beaver Island wrote this week that they would arrange for a spelling contest in the near future. The commissioner will aak the Rev. Fr. Jewell to pronounce the words and will send rules for conduct of contest, together with prize for champion speller.

Miss Howard of Boyne Valley says that three times in one week her entire school received one hundred per cent in spelling. She has a barrel of sweeping compound now.

Phelps is buying a large supply of new library books—those that a teacher needs in order to follow the course of study.

A request from Evangeline No. 4 asking what would we need to do to make our school "standard" this summer?

A director asks "Why is our school now on the 'Good School' list?" Surely there is a good reason and we are glad you ask the question.

See notice of school officers' meeting in another column of this paper.

BUY NOW BEFORE PRICES ARE ADVANCED

This warning has been heralded many times and can be applied to many lines of goods, but none of quite the importance as the line we handle. For example: Overalls that we are selling today for $1.50 cannot be sold for that price if new stock is bought today. And many other lines are affected the same way. While our old stock of last, the old price will prevail. But as soon as new goods arrive, the prices will be advanced from 20 to 30 per cent. This is our reason for so forcibly calling your attention to the real situation, and urging you to buy what you need right now, and further, it would not be a bad plan to lay in enough for next winter's use.

Leather Goods are Advancing

Prices on few lines of goods have advanced as rapidly as on leather goods. We were fortunate in placing our orders early, and bought practically everything we have in stock before the raise took place. This is the reason we are selling below the average dealer. With our new stock, the increase in price will be considerable. Buy now and save what you can.

DOUBLE SUICIDE SHOCKS TOWN

CASTLE AND GIRL DIE IN EACH OTHERS ARMS

Youthful Bandit and Indian Affinity Took Strychnine Early Friday Morning at Castle's Home

Charlevoix was shocked last Friday morning at the report of another revolting suicide—this time a double one.

Richard Castle, whose trial last week for the attempted robbery and assault on Jack Brock August 14th last resulted in a verdict of guilty, and Prudence Bolton, a young Indian girl of 17 years, with whom Castle had been going ever since his return to this city last June, took strychnine together and died in fearful agony at the home of William Castle, on Hurlbut avenue at 7:00 o'clock on the morning of the 15th.

Castle was out on bail for stay of sentence, which was to have been pronounced the morning of the day he died, the delay being due to the illness of his attorney, A. L. Fitch. He was staying with his parents and Thursday night came home to supper, leaving shortly after for town from which he did not return until eight o'clock. When he came back, he had with him a bottle of strychnine tablets, which he showed to his father, to whom he had already announced his intention of doing away with himself, saying that he had changed his mind and was not going to use it. The old man, who had endeavored to dissuade him from his purpose, took the bottle from him and put it away in a drawer.

At about ten o'clock (as the story was related to the officers) Castle left the house and going to the home of Richard Bolton about a block away on Hurlbut avenue, pried up the window of the room in which the girl, Prudence Bolton, lay sleeping and entered, where he remained for about two hours. At 12:00 o'clock, Castle, having persuaded the girl to go with him, left the house with her and the couple returned to the Castle home, where they remained sitting on the sofa in the living room together until five o'clock Friday morning, where Mrs. William Castle who had gotten up to start the breakfast found them. As she passed through the room, she noticed them drinking something from a glass. A moment or two later, William Castle came down and the young man told his father that they had taken the poison. Almost immediately, as the poison began to take effect, he and the girl went into terrible convulsions, locked in each others arms.

Mrs. Castle was unable to leave the house to get help on account of the deep snow, but by screaming managed to rouse one of the neighbors who phoned the court house. Deputy Charles Jeffries and Coroner Dunham were at once notified and arrived on the scene almost together. When they got there, the little squaw lay dead on the floor near the sofa and Castle, who was still breathing, was in his bed to which his parents had but just removed him as the officers arrived. He died within a few minutes.

Castle had evidently spent the night trying to induce the girl to take the poison with him and the entrance of Mrs. Castle into the room brought matters to a climax. While the Bolton girl was not implicated in any way in the Brock hold-up (which had already cost the life of Ruth McNeven, who was Castle's decoy on that occasion) she was supposed to be the victim of a statutory offense alleged to have been committed by Castle and it was the latter's plan that they should die together.

This is not the first time this desperate youth of 21 years has attempted to take his life. Three years ago, on the eve of his departure for the Ohio State Reformatory, to which he had been sentenced for robbery, Castle and his wife took poison and were only saved by the quick action of a doctor who happened to be near at hand with a stomach pump. A bottle of chloroform and one of ether were found in the Castle home Friday morning by the officers, as well as the strychnine which it is said he had purchased the evening before on the statement that he wanted them to kill a cat with.

Besides his father and mother, Richard Castle leaves a wife, who arrived at the Castle home shortly after the suicide. The funeral of the Indian girl was held Monday at 2:00 p. m. and that of Castle on Tuesday at the same time.

AGED WOMAN PASSES AWAY

MRS. ANNA PFISTER DIED AT SON'S HOME

Mother of Well-Known Restaurant Man Had Been Invalid for Many Years—Was 79.

Mrs. Anna Marie Pfister, aged 79, died last Thursday morning at 2:15 o'clock at the home of her son, Adam Pfister, on Mason street, at the close of an illness of eleven years standing. She had had two strokes of paralysis, but death immediately resulted from cirrhosity of the arteries.

She was born in Germany in 1839, and came to this country at the age of nine years, settling in Chicago. She was married there at the age of 18 and about ten years ago, her husband having died, she came to Charlevoix and has lived here with her son ever since. The funeral was held at the Catholic church at 9:00 o'clock Monday morning and the remains were placed in the vault at Brookside.

QUIETLY MARRIED AT HOME OF THE BRIDE

C. Lynne Thomas and Miss Lois Frazier Wed Last Week

Two of Charlevoix's popular young people joined their fortunes in the bonds of matrimony last week. C. Lynne Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Thomas and Miss Lois Frazier, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Frazier, were quietly married last Thursday noon at the home of the bride.

Only the immediate families and Mrs. C. E. Taggart were present and the knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Taggart, afterwhich the bridal couple made an unostentatious "get-away" on the noon train before the "shivareers" could gather to give them the usual send-off.

They were bound for Grand Rapids, where they will attend the auto show before returning to this city. The Courier wishes them all kinds of good luck and happiness.

CLUBBED GUN CAUSED WOUND

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE HURT BELLAIRE BOY

William Thomas, While Trying to Kill Dog Received Fatal Wound In Abdomen Wednesday

William Thomas, seventeen-year-old Bellaire boy who accidentally shot himself Wednesday night, February 13th, at his home while attempting to shoot a dog, was brought to Lockwood hospital in Petoskey, late Friday afternoon.

The lad fired at the dog and missed. He then clubbed his gun and struck at the animal. In this way the gun was accidentally discharged and the bullet entered the boy's body low in the abdomen.

He was put aboard the Pere Marquette train last Thursday afternoon. The train became stalled in a snow drift just north of Charlevoix all Thursday night and most of Friday. The lad suffered severely during this long delay.

An X-ray picture shows the location of the bullet but the lad's condition was such that it was not thought advisable to operate on him at once.

GRAND TRAVERSE PIONEER DEAD

W. H. CARMAN WAS NATIVE MICHIGANDER

End Came Monday of Last Week At Close of Long Illness—In Norwood 22 Years

William Henry Carman, eldest son of Martin and Eleanor Carman, was born near Martin, Allegan county, May 6, 1848 and died February 11, 1918 at his home at Norwood.

For many years he was engaged in saw mill work in the Grand Traverse region. He has been a resident of Norwood for twenty-two years and was united in marriage with Miss Julia Squiers at Monterey, Mich., January 21, 1869. To them were born ten children, three of whom preceded him in death. Two sisters and one brother Myron Carman of Dowagiac, Mrs. Lucretia Hoppins of Mancelona, Mrs. Lizzie McGowan of Lawrence and the wife, who has shared his joys and sorrows for almost fifty years, survive him.

The living children are Martin, of Republic; Alfred of Iron River; Delbert of Butte, Mont.; Mrs. John Reinhart of Detroit; Mrs. L. W. Owens of Winegar, Wis. and Frank H. and Nellie of Norwood.

For many months the deceased has been a sufferer, but the end came in peace. He will be missed by a wide circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral was held Thursday, the 14th, at the house. The interment was in the Norwood cemetery, the Rev. R. C. Parsholl officiating.

COUNTY DIRECTORS AT DETROIT LUNCHEON

Thrift Stamp Drive Officers Meet at Detroit Athletic Club

H. K. Allen, chairman of the War Savings Stamp county committee, and A. D. Crimmins, county director of thrift clubs, left Monday for Detroit to attend the luncheon, Tuesday, at the Detroit Athletic Club given to county officers of the Thrift Stamp campaign throughout the state.

At this meeting, the organization of thrift clubs in all parts of the state was discussed. Newspaper advertising, it seems, is to play a large part in the publicity end of the movement, and Mr. Allen will no doubt have some interesting material for our readers on his return to Cherievoix this week.

The county organization is taking hold of the Thrift Stamp drive with great vigor and we may soon look for gratifying results. A thrift card for everyone should be the slogan.

DO NOT DISPOSE OF YOUR LIBERTY BONDS

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo urges the purchasers of Liberty Loan Bonds of both the First and Second issues to hold fast to their bonds. They are the best investment in the world.

The secretary's statement was called forth by the fact that Liberty bond holders are being approached from time to time by agents seeking to induce them to part with their Liberty Loan Bonds and take in exchange securities which in a number of cases are of a very questionable value, and was prompted by the desire to protect the bondholders against ill-advised disposition of their bonds.

The Secretary expresses the hope that every purchaser of a Liberty Bond will realize that the only genuine help that he gives his government is keeping his bond as an investment so long as it is possible for him to do so. He states, however, that no just objection lies to the sale of a Liberty Bond where real necessity exists for its sale.

TRACTOR SCHOOL WILL COME HERE

I. H. C. MEN WILL LECTURE ON MACHINE

Idea Is to Enable Farmer to Save Expense of Calling In Experts When In Trouble

Four expert tractor men from the International Harvester Company's plant in Chicago will arrive in Charlevoix about the 22nd of this month to hold a two day tractor school in this city, bringing one of the machines with them. They would have been here earlier, but have been prevented by the heavy snows.

An effort will be made to secure one of the city's public halls, where lectures will be delivered during the two days of the school on the care, operation and repair of the I. H. C. tractor.

No sales will be made during the visit of the experts, the purpose being merely to educate the farmer in the use of this make of tractor, five of which have already been sold and are now in use in this region.

Heretofore, when the tractor owner has had difficulty in the operation of his machine or necessity has arisen for repairs, he has had to send to the city at considerable expense and much delay for an expert to come and help him out of his difficulty. If the farmers will attend this school, they can learn how to make their own repairs and also become thoroughly familiar with the actual operation of the tractor and will have an opportunity to inspect the one which the I. H. C. men will bring with them and which will be set up in one of the garages and operated for their benefit.

CARROTS WERE CHIEF TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

Next Week Meat Substitutes Will Receive Attention

The Ladies Literary and Sewing club held a very enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Benj. Brown Thursday afternoon. A ten cent tea was served to about 30 people.

One very interesting feature of this meeting was the recipes given by the various members on the use of carrots.

The next meeting of this club will be with Mrs. Ada Dutcher when meat substitutes or what to serve on meatless days will be discussed.

NEW THEATRE NOW UNDER WAY

CONTRACT LET AND MATERIAL PURCHASED

Structure Seating 700 To be Ready June 1st—Will Present Fine Appearance

We are printing this week the first definite and authorized announcement concerning the new theatre building soon to be erected on the old Major Greene property, opposite the State bank and the Levinson block on Bridge street. The Courier has long been aware of the fact that this building was contemplated by Messrs. Stoddard & Wallace and in fact knew some of the details of its construction, but out of deference to the wishes of the management has deferred making the matter public until now.

Material has already been purchased and the contract let for the construction of the building to William H. Wallace and it is planned to have the theatre ready to do business by June 1st.

The walls will be constructed of solid cement block and the front will be faced with red, pressed brick, which will make it an attractive addition to the small but steadily increasing number of modern, fireproof buildings which will in time transform our present, rather ugly main business artery. In dimension, the edifice will be 100 ft, in depth by 50 feet in width, of one story, 16 feet in heighth and standing on a concrete foundation, contract for which has been sublet to George Lusk by Mr. Wallace. The stage, which is designed for both motion pictures and vaudeville, will have a 24 foot opening; will be 20 feet deep and 45 feet in width from wall to wall behind the proscenium arch. Dressing room facilities will be provided to accommodate fifty people.

The lobby, facing Bridge street, will be ten feet in depth and thirty feet wide. Two public lavatories will be situated, one on each side of the lobby, for men and women, and a drinking fountain is also included in the plans. This lobby will be open all day and until late at night.

Two of the latest type moving picture machines will be installed. This insures a continuous picture, with no interruptions, because when a reel is run off one machine the succeeding pictures are instantly started on the other, both machines having the same focus. In this way, eight reels can be run in the same time it takes a single machine to run five.

The stage will be equipped with a full set of up-to-date scenery, to be furnished and put up by the Columbus Studio Company, of Columbus, Ohio, who have an A-1 reputation for this class of work.

The auditorium, which is planned to seat 700 people, will have two exit doors with six foot openings, doors swinging both ways, on the south side of the building. There will also be exit doors in the front end and one on the stage, 8 feet wide. The north wall of the building will be 7 feet from the south wall of the Buttars building and far enough from the line to prevent any structure being built up against the theatre wall on that side, that might increase the fire risk. There will be two fire plugs; one in the front of the building and one back on the stage, each with fifty feet of hose attached.

The theatre will be operated and managed by W. S. Stoddard, who has had long and successful experience in this business and who in fact was the first to introduce the motion picture to a Charlevoix audience.

It is planned to change the vaudeville program twice a week during the summer months and one night stand productions will also be a regular feature of the program, with musical tab every two weeks. There will be feature moving pictures every Sunday night. Music will be furnished by a ladies orchestra of eight pieces.

There will be seats for all. Under the new law, a theatre must be emptied after each performance, so it will be necessary to come on time to see the whole show. There will be no standing room, and those leaving the theatre will be required to use the side doors, thus leaving the aisles free for the crowd entering at the front. This is also in compliance with the new state law.

COMMUNICATIONS

DISTRICT NO. 1, HAYES

Our R. F. D. man failed to make his trip last Friday.

Miss Bernice Gray is taking music lessons of Mrs. M. Glaser.

Miss Clara and Helen Speigle are taking music lessons of Miss Redfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Osear Tillotson passed their 49th wedding anniversary the 10th of February.

Our school intended having a social for the benefit of the Red Cross, bat owing to cold weather and bad roads, has been postponed.

Sugar and corn syrup were a minus quantity in Bay Shore Saturday, but as a little boy said---"they had honey and that was just as good."

A few days of good weather last week made everybody happy, but along came Thursday's storm. As Venus was the cause, the complaints could not reach the source.

There are few items worth noting in this corner of Hayes. Could write several columns about cold weather, snowdrifts, and tha effects of war, but everybody has more or less experience with these things, so would be no news.

Paul White was on the train that was stalled near Charlevoix late Thursday night. He got tired waiting for a ride to Bay Shore, so started out Friday morning for home and thoroughly enjoyed his breakfast when he got where he could get it, as he had no supper the night before.

The many friends of Earl Diekerhoof were sorry to hear he was ill in the hospital and hope be soon recovers. He had been moved from camp hospital to a first class hospital and had the best of care. A real wide bed, everything so clean, good nurses and was as comfortable as one can be when sick.

Tha recent cold weather has made it difficult for children to get to school. Several have frozen ears. A nine year old boy froze one ear February 4th. Instead of staying home Tuesday he put on an extra cap and with two caps on he went every day of that cold week, but last Friday he started out and met a drift higher than he was and had to turn around, his dream of a "large certificate" upset.

MAXWELL

F. O. B. DETROIT

There is inflexible logic in the fixing of that price for the Maxwell closed cars.

The purpose of the Maxwell builders was to strike the MIDDLE LINE of absolute value.

They have done so with scientific accuracy.

The Maxwell closed cars have grace, beauty, comfort, efficiency, durability, economy and standard equipment.

But, if built to sell for less than $1195 one or the other of these would be lacking.

On the other hand, for a higher price you could get only larger size or fancier furnishings—not any greater VALUE or finer "class."

GERMANY'S DILEMMA

Just now Germany is facing a perplexing problem in what to do with 1,500,000 prisoners returning from Russia. Whether this vast number of former armed supporters of the Fatherland will take up arms again and loyally reinforce the armies on the West front, or import into Germany the Bolsheviki revolutionary spirit, is the problem that even the shrewdest diplomat in Berlin is unable to solve. To scatter them along the lines in France or Italy might permit them to spread revolutionary propaganda among the other troops; to use them as a unit might result in a powerful revolt that would be disastrous to the whole military establishment; to assign them to civilian duties might spread the strike fever and result in an uprising of the populace. Yet Germany must have the loyal support of these 1,500,000 or the much heralded drive on the West front will be lost before it is started.

Can Germany trust the prisoners returning from Ruseia?

Time alone will tell. Recent strikes in Germany are considered by many well informed men as the beginning of a revolution while former Ambassador Gerard does not hava much faith in a revolt by the German people. That there is a tremendous current of unrest throughout war-weary Germany there can be no doubt. Certain economic distress ie apparent, and no censorship or boasting csmouflage will remove the conviction of the outside world that Germany is bleeding and starving to death. Cut off from the world for nearly four years human sacrifice in Germany must be near the end and the time is ripe for revolution.

The million and a half prisoners in Russia could not help assimilating some of the revolutionary spirit which surrounded them in Russia and they will carry it back home. Then, too, they have learned something about the war from other than Berlin sources, which will cause them to think. If the United States has neglected to "educate" these prisoners when the opportunity presented itself, a tremendous mistake has been made.

The kaiser has missed many calculations since be started to conquer the warld, such aa eating his Christmas dinner in Paris, taking France in six weeks, whipping Russia in three months and bringing England to her knees within a year, and it is barely possible that he will miss it in calculating that he has gained reinforcements for his army to the extent af a million and a balf trained men.

The collapse of Russia as a fighting natian has opened up vast stores and food snpply to Germany, it has relieved tbe tension of maintaining a long battle line and released the soldiers on the East front for duty on the West front, but how will tha returning prisoners affect the military cetablishment of tbe empire?

They may be the undoing of Prussian militarism, and they mey becoma the support at a critical tima that will only prolong the defeat of the Fatherland. We must wait with Germany for the solution of the problem.

AN AMERICANIZED GERMAN WOMAN'S OPINION

There is onc German woman in Wisconsin who does not hesitate to call a spade by its common or garden name in commenting upon the land of her birth. A letter from Neillsville in that state printed in the "Tribune" quotes her ae saying:

"If the Germans here don't like America let them go back to Germany, where the poor people live like swine. It took me threc years to save enough money to get to thie country, and I had to borrow a little then to get a ticket for the trip. The people there wear wooden shoes, held on by a strap across the top, and I wore a pair when I came here; but I saved enough out of my first week's wages to buy a pair of leather ones. That was more than I could save in a month in Germany. They live like hogs over there, whole families in two small rooms, where they dress and undress before each other. It eeemed like heaven when I got to America snd had a room all to myself.

"The American people have treated me fine and never once made me feel like a lickspittle, as the rich people do in Germany. The German people here must not take the American courtesy and forbearance for fear or cowardice—no, sir, or they will get an awful bump soon. I know the American reserve and strength better than most people of my nationality. I think they have given us every chance in the worl dto get along and prosper, and it is a maan and dirty thing now to go to bragging and encournging our country's enemy, Germany, a country that is so conceited that it thinks it can run the world. Germany is the worst place in the world for a person to live, and I would as soon be in hell this minute as to go back where I came from in Germany.

ON THE ROAD TO BERLIN

Every American experiences a thrill of satisfaction in the knowledge that at last American troops are definitely and permanently on the firing line. There is an "American sector" on the battle front in France.

It is not much of a sector yet. It extends apparently only a few miles out of the several hundred miles of twisted gridiron lines that run from the North Sea to the Swiss border. But so far as it extends it is complete. Everything is there that makes modern warfare—trenches, rifles, machine guns, grenades, artillery, shells, airplanes, motor cars, ambulances and all the rest. And that sector will grow, steadily and surely, until it becomes a battle front worthy of the American nation.

We may derive special satisfaction too from the location of the sector. It is in conjunction with the French line flanked by French troope on both sides, and—it is close to the German frontier. We owe a debt of gratitude to our French and British associates for placing our fighters, at the very start, so far on the road to Berlin.

Already we are literally almost in Germany. The exact spot is not revealed, but it is known to be on the Lorraine front in a bend where a gain of only a few miles would actually carry the American army over the German border.

When they have crossed that border, we may say that our war has begun.

No sooner did the Ohio river valley emerge from zero weather than it was flooded. Life down there seems to be just one——thing after another.

Judging from recent events in Russia the kaiser will have more difficulty in governing the Bolsheviki than in fighting them.

It won't take the boys over in Wisconsin long to tell the kaiser what they are fighting for.

Dr. Garfield hopes there will be no more heatless Mondays. We all hope so, doctor.

Indications are that tourist travel in Germany next summer will break all records.

It may be that we have exported too many railroad experts to Russia.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills if the human body. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than tbe statement of a Charlevoix citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Mrs. W. L. Cowan, 210 Antrim St., Charlevoix, says: "I suffered from a severe backache and pains across my kidneys. My kidneys acted irregularly also. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Metcalf's Drug Store fixed me up in good shape."

Almost daily reports of responsible citizens who claim they have seen robins are being phoned to this office. John Sanford, a farmer living four miles east of Ironton, saw one last week. In fact, was that close to it that he could see the white of its eye and the frost on its ears. We have carefully gone over the list of names of the "Ananias" club and do not find that of Mr. Sanford, so we are inclined to believe there is real truth in the report.

The new theatre is one of the most ambitious projects ever started in this city and there is much more to be said regarding its activities than the management cares to disclose at the present time, before their plans are fully matured. It should go a great way towards remedying the main drawback which the summer visitor finds in Charlevoix—lack of amusement facilities. We often hear the criticism from the lips of the outsider: "Oh, yes, you have a beautiful little town, wonderful climate and scenery, and all that, but there is nothing to do there." Nature has indeed done wonders for us, but restless Americans soon become "fed up" on scenery alone.

PREVENT POTATO SCAB.

Treatment For Tubers Intended te Be Used For Seed:

The per cent of scabby tubers in this season's crop will be reduced if seed potatoes are treated with formalin or corrosive sublimate before being cut to plant, says Professor E. L. Kilpatrick in the Orange Judd Farmer. The formalin treatment consists of soaking the tubers for two hours in a solution of formaldehyde and water at the rate of one pint to each thirty gallons of water. The other treatment uses two ounces of corrosive sublimate to each fifteen gallons of water. (Corrosive sublimate is very poisonous and should be used with care.) Tubers are given the same time in this liquid as in the formalin.

Either treatment may be given by placing the tubers in an old gunny sack and lowering them into a barrel or tub containing the liquid. Tubers may be spread out on the grass or barn floor to dry, after which they are ready to cut and plant. Any number of sacks of potatoes may be treated in either solution. Since formalin evaporates very rapidly, the vessel containing it is kept covered to preserve the strength of the liquid.

KENTUCKY RECRUIT RECEIVES TIMELY GIFT

Mail From Home Went Astray But Christmee Cheer Come From Unexpected Quarter

Proof of the warm-henrted contact of the Americnn Red Cross with the enlisted man is furnished in numberless instaiices, of which tho following is typical.

A farm youth enliated from Kentucky and was sent to nn Atlantic training camp of tho regular army. It was the longest trip he ever had made ond the first Christmns he was to he separated from the family.

Ile was looking forward to the box which he knew mother ond sister would send to him, but three dnye hefore Christmas he wss ordered to Washington to do guard duty. The young soldier was imniensely proud nt being nssigned to guard the White Housc.

But his sudden change in addresa resulted in his Christmos hox going to hie originol camp and Christmas day found him with neither letter nor package from home or friends. It was in this mood of depression that a Red Cross Christmas packago reached him.

"I sure did appreciate that remembrance," he wrote home. In due time the army forwarded bis Christmas mail from home, but it reached him from one to two weeks after the holidays. The Red Cross gift contributed to sustain his spirits and not only to him but thousands situated like him.

General Pershing and other high officere consider such work hy the Red Cross a vital factor in winning the war. It makes all the difference in the world how a soldier feels. When a whole army becomes depressed, disaster follows.

Worms In Swine.

For stomsch worms in swine a good remedy is one to two teaspoonfuls of turpentine (vary according to size) well mixed with two to four ounces of castor or olive oil, repeated for three days, and in two weeks repeat the entire treatment. For kidney worms the following medicated salt works well: Four parts of charcoal and three parts each of salt, sulphur, Glauber's salt and sal soda. These should be well mixed and placed where they can get it at will. Where hogs are infested with any parasite seriously it is not advisable to allow them to run in the same lots year after year; in fact, the run should be changed each year. Another source of infection is the drinking water. They should not be allowed to drink stagnant water nor water that is polluted by surface drainage, especially from the yards and runways.

Even the croak of a frog will be music when this winter is over.

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if ynur meals sour and turn into gas aad acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

To-morrow morning, immediately upoa 'arislag, drink a glass of hot watsr with a teaspoonful of limeetone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize aad then wash out of your atomach, liver, kidneya and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile aad toxins, thue eleansing, sweetoniag aad purifying the entire alimsatary caaal.

Those subject to sick headachee, backache, billous attacks, constipation or aay form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limeatoae phosphate from the drug atore and begin enjoying this morning inside bath. It is said that men aad womea who try this becomo enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean aod pure on the inside than oa the outside, because the skin pores do aot absorb impurities into the hiood, causing disease, while the howel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is aot new, aemillions of people practice it. Just as hot watcr and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspooaful of limestoae phosphate act oa the stomach, liver, kidneys aad bowels. Limestoae phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

The State superintendent, F. L. Keeler writes this week to explain the educatianal value of the Junior Red Cross, to explain the organization of the Junior auxiliary and show how it trains for citizenship. He asks that the commissioner write to all teachers to work along this line.

The U. S. Treasury Department mails circulars this week to the commissioner urging that all teachers realize the educational value of thrift and the inculcation of this habit by the use of Government Thrift and War Savings Stamps. They ask that every educator immadiately work alang this line.

The U. S. and State Departments of Agriculture are starting a spring campaign for bigger crops. They urge that every country boy and girl own a garden for training for education and citizenship. Every commissioner is urged to work along this line.

The commissioner is working along these lines this week but which view point is eolely right?

Circulars are now on hand stating rules for public examinations of 1918. These will be meiled soon.

Eighth grade reading exsminetion based on the Preeident's War Meesage of Dec. 4th. Bulletins on their way to this office from Lansing will be distributed forthwith. Teacher, how many do you want?

Teachers' examinetions in history are baeed half on the President's War Messege of April 1917. Have you now a copy in your school? It would be pretty good thing to preceed the second speech with the first in your classes.

Renewals? Cnre for then now. Perhaps you will want time ta prepere the reading circle reports hefore the board meets.

The East Jorden Board of Tredo is exsrting every effort to make our school officers welcome and well fed on the 26th.

The East Jordan schools are preparing music for the School Officers' meeting.

Boyne City's now Victrola end the now Victrola in the county normal room make us wonder, "why couldn't at leest a few of our rural schools awn small Victrolas for teaching penmanship, marching singing, appreciation of music, athletic exercises, etc.

The Bay township spelling contest praved to be the best yet and that is no idle compliment. The best record gained previous to the 15th was thnt of Marion in which 31 contestants, dwindled to 13 in the oral contest. Of these 13 six could not be spelled down on the given list. In Horton Bay on the 15th under the red, white and blue everywhere in evidence, 27 boys and girls wrote the usunl fifty words. Of these 19 stoad 100. The 19 stood in line for oral spelling and 6 refused to be spelled down, so the record goes to Bay. We have still to watch Eveline on the 22nd. Miss Pearl Baird, Simon Bos hes written his folks from Europe thet he arrived safe and is feeling fit as a fiddle. He did not state where he was, but his parents think he is in France.

Henry Petter expected to go to Bellaire this week Thursday to he examined by the local board. In case he does not pass, his brother Graddus, will enlist, showing there is nothing lacking in their patriotism.

We understand that our county agent is to direct all of his work from his office at Bellaire. We wish him success, but believe he would be of more benefit and could co-operate better with the farmers right on the farms. Often a case erises which needs immediate attention and to wait for an aswer by mail would mean a loss of both time and crops.

John Faber has been rather anxious to do his bit for his country. He made a trip to Grand Rapids to enlist only to find that he could not on account af having been examined by the local board. Not satisfied with being turned down there, he etered into communication with the "Air Personnel Div." at Washington, D. C., and last week received his notice to report et Waco, Texas, for service as a blacksmith. He made a trip to Bellaire Thursday to have the local boerd sign an affidavit and furnish him transportation and meal tickets to Texas, leaving from there on Friday.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The "Kiser's Prayer Answered

An answer to the "Kiser's prayer
Came when he got in bed.
He trembled when he heard the voiee,
And covered up his head.
For stars he saw and stripes, you bet;
He aighed and groaned and began to aweat.
But the "Kiser" knew it was no joke
When low, but stern, the Great Voiee spoke.
"Lo, leader of the Iron Cross band,
Thou shalt no longer rule the land.
Thy partner I shall never be;
To whip the U. S., no help from me!"
At this the "Kiser" raised his head
And sat up straight in his royal bed
"Minc Gott," said he, "Vot vill I do
If you help me not oudt, und der war aind't through?
Dey say, de Chermans, dey don't know beans,
But we foll dem mit our submarines.
De whole vorld now iss down on mo
Und I'm chust ass siek as a man can be."
Then he shuddered and shook like aa Autumn leaf,
'Twss plain to be seen he was full of grief;
But he listened again with an anxous ear,
As the voiee again spoke soft and elear:
"Don't boast about your submsrines,
They might yet get blown to smithereens;
Tom Edison is a man I've blessed,
When he pushes that button, you'll know the rest.
Thou'rt not through with John Bull yet,
Keep thou in from the rain, for thou mightst get wet.
Tho big show is on, all the world is invited,
If you get a back seat, why, don't feel slighted.
You say, tomorrow night as the elock strikes eleven,
If I don't help you out, you'll declare war on heaven.
Well, that's pretty big talk from a man like you;
You might liek the whole earth, but not heaven too.
A prayer I'll answer when its right
But don't ask me again to help you fight.
Now, Kaiser, tell we where and when,
You'll sing, 'Peace on earth, good will towards men?'"

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have bladder trouble—Take glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

New books ready for circulation:

Practical Child Training, by Ray C. Berry. Four volumes containing easy lesson for teaching obedience and self control in the home, morality and the developing of mind and body.

The Indian Drum, by Wm. MacHarg and Edwin Balmer. It was an Indian superstition—that the drum, hidden somewhere in the woods of northern end of Lake Michigan, tolled the passing of every soul on the lake. When the new steel freighter "Milwaka" with twenty-five on board went down the drum beat only twenty-four. Years after there came to Chicago Alan Conrad, who had grown up to manhood in ignorance of his birth and parentage. The mystery shrouding Alan and the lost "Milwaka" is cleared away with the wreck of Carferry 25, when the count of the Indian drum is again one beat short.

The Polar Hunters, by Francis Rolt-Wheeler. The author describes life within the Aretie eircle and gives an aceount of Perry's discovery of the pole together with thirty-four illustrations from photographs, furnished mainly by the Amerieaa Museum of Natural History.

The White Blanket, by Belmore Browne.

age nine, spelled 800 words before making one little mistake and Lena Voelker, age nine, spelled 900 words before misspeaking. The vietorious schools were North Bay represented by Miss Harriet Voelker, age 12. She received the prize for her school. In Lakeview Miss Mary Kriteher age 14 and Miss Louise Sknornia, age 11 reeeived the prize jointly. From Horton Bay Manie Wheaton, age 11, Velms Crouterfield, age 12, and Clyde Page, age 14 reeeived the prize for their school. The teachers Miss Georgia Scroggie, Miss Alta Vogg and Mrs. Lila Sknornia are to be most heartily congratulated on a eontest showing such thorough preparation and such enthusiasm on the part of the students. There are but the three schools in Bay township but these three eertainly worked might and main for the championship and found they were equal. Supt. Stead of the Boyne City schools assisted the eommissioner in eonduеting the contest and he had many words of praise for the teachers in charge and for the pupils in their work. He was particularly because they eame prepared to work with pencil and paper, beeause they had a program ready to go ahead, in the intervals and because there was such general good feeling throughout.

The South Arm spelling eontest was held in the South Arm grange hall. There was 32 contestants of whom 13 reeeived 100 per eent in the written test, one from the Miles school, seven from Roek Elm, all three from Chaddoek, and two from Ranney school. Arthur Secord of the Roek Elm school spelled down all his opponents and received as the prize an Amerlcan flag for his home. Miss Anna Kowalski, age 10 from Rock Elm was the next to the last to go down. Mr. Nathan Liskum gave each of the last two standing a quarter for the good work whieh they had done in preparing for the test. Every rural school in the township was present for the contest and this gathering was no exeeption to the joyous good-natured spirit that pervaded all. Not a grouchy boy or girl yet found and it is a big thing to learn that our boys and girls know how to take defeat and that the parents are teaching them to be brave. Each ehild had brought a few sandwiches and the teachers furnished eoffee. After the program and contest, light refreshments were served free to the assembly and all gathered for friendly visits before departing.

Antrim eounty voted to hold the Institute in Bellaire again next year but only 48 per eent of her teaehers were present. The commissioner hopes to get a more sueeessful straw vote by mail. They are with us, however in insisting that their Institute shall he in October. We wonder if the state department will wake up to the kind of drifts we have here.

Emmet eounty has not yet been heard from on the Institute vote.

BUY NOW BEFORE PRICES ARE ADVANCED

This warning has been heralded many times and can be applied to many lines of goods, but none of quite the importance as the line we handle. For example: Overalls that we are selling today for $1.50 cannot be sold for that price if new stock is bought today. And many other lines are affected the same way. While our old stock of last, the old price will prevail. But as soon as new goods arrive, the prices will be advanced from 20 to 30 per cent. This is our reason for so forcibly calling your attention to the real situation, and urging you to buy what you need right now, and further, it would not be a bad plan to lay in enough for next winter's use.

Leather Goods are Advancing

Prices on few lines of goods have advanced as rapidly as on leather goods. We were fortunate in placing our orders early, and bought practically everything we have in stock before the raise took place. This is the reason we are selling below the average dealer. With our new stock, the increase in price will be considerable. Buy now and save what you can.

LETTER FROM LIEUT. HAMPTON

CHARLEVOIX SOLDIER TELLS OF TRIP "ACROSS"

Steering Gear Disabled, Ship Rolls Helpless for Twelve Hours In a Gale.

Lieut. Victor H. Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will E. Hampton of this city, sailed from New York, or some near-by port, on January 19th, for France. On January 31st, Mr. Hampton received a cablegram announcing his safe arrival at a French port. No further word was received until February 23rd, when a letter, written on board ship, came to his parents. The Courier had requested the privilege of printing any letters, for we know that our readers are all interested in the Charlevoix soldier boys who go abroad to fight for our country, and except few paragraphs of a more personal nature, the letter is given verbatim, the censor having passed it with no eliminations. It tells in interesting words of the trip across the Atlantic:

Jan. 24, 1918.

On Board an Ocean Steamer to "Somewhere."

"Dear Mother and Dad: Well I am at last on my way to take part in the big adventure, it now being our fifth day out at sea. We left a certain seaport on a bright sunny day about noon, but had scarcely left the dock when all men in uniform were ordered below decks, so that I did not get a chance to see the fading shore line of the good old U. S. A., as I had expected, and when we were once more allowed on deck there was nothing to be seen but the great rolling ocean. And the last I saw of America, was a dirty old coal dock.

"Although our steamer is not a new one, yet she is fairly speedy, and the accommodations are comfortable, and the table very good indeed, a fact which I am now able to appreciate to the utmost. She is a little longer than our lake steamers, about the same beam, and very deep which enables her to roll, then roll, and roll some more.

"On our first day out we encountered what I supposed was a fairly heavy sea. It would be a gale on Lake Michigan, but the pilot, a typical old salt, gravely informed me that it was 'calm.' If this is calm, I'd like to see a 'norwester.' I have not been seasick, but the first four days were rather strenuous, for I felt somewhat unsettled, in mind, spirit and stomach, but I now feel tip top, and claim to be a follower of old Neptune.

"On the second day we passed a school of porpoises, frolicking and playing in the sea like a bunch of young steers. When I saw the first one of them I was positive I had spotted a 'sub,' but when seven or eight rose into view I breathed more freely and was glad I had said nothing. The porpoise is about twice as large as a big muskalunge and looks like a small whale. This same day we ran into a storm and the sea began to roll higher. This old boat tossed and rolled, believe me. I thought it must be rather rough, but on asking the opinion of a good-natured tar, ascertaining that it wasn't at all bad. I don't suppose these chaps would call it 'rough' if the ship stood on her nose.

"On our fourth day we did have a little excitement however. The sea had continued to increase, and about four p. m. our steam steering gear became disabled, and we were wallowing helplessly in the trough of the sea, all day and until early next morning, and then how this boat did jump, shake, groan and pitch, with her decks awash some of the time. I couldn't help but think how you, mother, would be frightened, if you could have seen us. It wasn't half bad, however, except that I slept on my ear all night, it being impossible to lie still in my hunk. After twelve hours, during which many wild rumors as to what we were going to do, among them that we were headed back, they succeeded in repairing the steering gear and we were once more steaming swiftly on our way. The steward did admit that it was fairly rough, in fact it was stated that it seldom gets any more interesting. I'm glad, for now I can be able to tell when it really gets rough on this hally old ocean.

COUNTY AGENT'S WORK BEGINS IN EARNEST

C. F. Smith Now on the Job at Boyne City Headquarters

County Agent C. F. Smith, with his wife and little daughter, have arrived in Boyne City, where Mr. Smith will take up his duties at his headquarters in the office of the chamber of commerce on Park street.

He will be glad to meet everyone in the county who is interested in any way in its agriculture, and has developed immediate plans for an active campaign among the farmers.

First will come a complete survey of the county and Mr. Smith will make an effort to "get next" to the farmer's point of view and learn his needs and requirements.

As soon as the condition of the roads permits, seeds will be procured and their distribution and testing will commence. As the season is late, the county agent is likely to have his hands full for some time.

EARLY CLOSING ORDER ENDED

MERCHANTS MAY RETURN TO OLD SCHEDULE

Prudden Wants Two Lightless Nights to Remain in Force—Hours of Opening Not Affected Here

Michigan Fuel Administrator W. K. Prudden Saturday called off his entire early closing program and allowed the state to return to the former regular hours, as far as light and heat are concerned.

The fuel situation has improved so rapidly in the last ten days that Mr. Prudden believes it safe to withdraw his rules and regulations over the entire state.

His only restriction is that there shall be some saving in the matter of electricity and will keep the lightless night clause in effect on Thursdays and Sundays for the present.

The news of the cancellation of the fuel saving order came in the following telegram to Fuel Administrator Hammett:

"Lansing, Mich,
"11:20 a. m. Feb. 23, 1918.

"R. C. Hammett, Charlevoix, Mich.

"Fuel conditions within the state of Michigan having improved, further modifications of the order of January 25, 1918, are desirable, therefore entire order is from this date suspended except as follows: The restrictions regarding lighting and illuminating by electricity on the 'two lightless nights' Thursdays and Sundays, to remain in full force and effect.

HOME BOYS NOW "OVER THERE"

GUS BEUKER CABLES THAT 125TH IS ACROSS

Old Company I Is Now on Foreign Soil and All Well—126th Also On Board Transport

A cablegram has been received by his family from Gus Beuker, of Ellsworth, that the 125th and 126th regiments of infantry have crossed "over there" and are all safe and sound. These organizations include Company I, of the old Thirty-third Regt., M. N. G., and many of the Charlevoix boys who enlisted from the southern part of the state.

This means now that our home boys will have an equal chance for their lives with the foe and are not destined to sink like rats in the torpedoed hulk of a troop ship. Many have been eagerly and anxiously awaiting this glad news and the heart-burden in many a Charlevoix county home will be materially lightened.

SPUD PROBLEM IN MICHIGAN

CONDITION IN STATE TO BE INVESTIGATED

Efforts to be Made to Determine Why Thousands of Bushels of Tubers are Rotting

The potato problem in Michigan this winter is attracting widespread attention. Private investigations have been started to determine why thousands upon thousands of bushels of tubers have been allowed to rot in the country districts, while war prices have been maintained in Detroit and other Michigan cities.

Information obtained from various sections of the state indicate that potatoes which sold for 45 and 50 cents a peck in Detroit are a drug on the market in sections less than 200 miles from there. Farmers have tried to get $1.00 a bushel for their products and failed. Recently they have been offered about 90 cents.

Commission men have been charged with unfair tactics.

Railroad congestion has been held responsible.

The weather has been blamed.

The "poor distribution system" has been attacked.

"Something Happened"

Last spring when potatoes were selling for sky high prices, a tremendous campaign was prosecuted all over Michigan for a record yield. Seed potatoes sold as high as $3 a bushel and farmers have claimed there was a tacit understanding that they would receive $1.00 a bushel for their product.

Vacant lots were planted all over the state. Hundreds of families raised their own potatoes and the result was that millions of bushels of "spuds" were dug from Michigan soil last fall. The average crop was 102 bushels an acre, against 45 bushels an acre in 1916. Reports to the secretary of state estimate that more than forty million bushels of potatoes was Michigan's yield.

Then something happened and, at present, everybody connected with the potato business in the state seems to be blaming somebody, or everybody else. There are two outstanding facts, however, judging from various investigations. One is that railroad congestion and weather conditions had something to do with the situation and the other is that Michigan farmers have something like 20,000,000 bushels of potatoes, good, indifferent and bad, on their hands.

Potato shippers have come forward with charges of transportation defects. One shipment of potatoes from Cadillac to Detroit was on the road 18 days, it is claimed. One freight train was held up near Clare, Michigan, and four carloads of potatoes froze.

On the other hand, farmers have been blamed by commission men. Detroit dealers have asserted that farmers held on to their stock too long, and that, when the crash came, they tried to unload but couldn't. It is claimed that it cost the farmer about 65 cents a bushel to raise potatoes last summer. It is claimed, also that commission men last fall offered between 90 cents and $1.00 a bushel for big consignments. Commission men in Detroit assert that their offers were quite generally declined and claim that as Detroit's potato supply began to dwindle, bad weather came.

Finally, when transportation conditions were at their worst, it is asserted that the potato situation there and in other cities became serious. Emergency prices were offered and accepted. Everybody dealing in potatoes, it is claimed, was satisfied. But there were no cars, or at least no cars that could be moved.

So millions of bushels of potatoes which might have been eaten are still lying in storage on the farms from which they were dug.

PRECIOUS CARGO IN DANGER

Allen Daniels Writes of Midnight Rescue Off Nantucket's Bleak Coast—Will Return Soon

A letter has recently been received here by the family of Allen Daniels, a Charlevoix boy, now a member of the coastguard service stationed at Station No. 47, Nantucket Island, Massachusetts, contains an interesting description of a shipwreck which we will relate as it was told to us.

On the night of February 2nd, Mr. Daniels turned in for a night's rest at about 9:00 p. m. The weather was very foggy and he could hear a boat blowing out at sea to the west of the station and thought it must be in the harbor because it was so very seldom that they saw a boat on that side of the island, which is fifty miles out of the steamship course.

At about eleven o'clock, the members of the station's outfit were wakened and told to "pile out," as there was a ship on the shore about a mile east of the station. They proceeded at once to where the ship lay far out from the shore and by means of their flashlight signal discovered that the unfortunate craft was the S. S. "Ruby," en route from New York to "somewhere in France" with a general cargo.

The station men signaled to the crew of the vessel, informing them of their whereabouts, but the latter refused to believe the coastguard men, thinking them to be Germans trying to trap them. At about 12 midnight, however, the fog lifted and then they could see the land and learn that their fears of the Hun were unfounded.

The shivering crew were removed from the wreck as soon as possible, fifteen of them being taken care of at the station. The ship's owners were notified at once of the wreck, and a wrecking tug was sent from New York to get her off the rocks. The great bulk of the cargo and the unusually high tide made it difficult to get the ship off and a good bit of the cargo, which was valued at one million dollars, had to be thrown overboard, consisting mostly of copper and casks of machine oil. Much of the oil floated ashore and was put under strict guard of naval men until it could be taken care of. The ship was valued at $500,000.

Mr. Daniels expects to leave Nantucket this week for Charlevoix, as his assignment to the Massachusetts station was temporary only.

LOCAL BOY DEFEATS BAY CITY SPEED CHAMP

Vercial Seaman Rolls Off Two Miles In Three Min. 14 Seconds

A letter recently received from Ed. Seaman, who is now at Bay City, Michigan, states that he has a large rink there and is doing a nice business but that he will be glad to see "good old Charlevoix" in June. Ed. also says that he will be able to give Charlevoix people some fine music the coming season, as he has a new $1,800 band organ of the very latest model.

Mr. Seaman's son, Vercial, who is claimant of the roller skating speed championship of Michigan, recently very easily defeated Dave Ferris, the Bay City speed artist in a two mile race at the Market rink in that city, Seaman manipulating the distance in 3 minutes and 14 seconds, which is considered pretty good time for that particular rink.

Seaman announces that he is open for any kind of a race on roller skates, for any distance and on any floor in the state and it is possible that matches with other skaters will be arranged for him at Bay City.

P. M. TRAIN SCHEDULE CHANGED FOR BETTER

South Bound Leaves at 10:47 a. m. While 4:14 Is Unchanged

A change in time of service for the passenger trains on the Petoskey division of the Pere Marquette railway was placed in operation Monday.

The train south out of Charlevoix will leave at 10:47 a. m. instead of 12:57, the former leaving time. There will be a stop of twenty minutes at Traverse City, at 1:05 for lunch and the train will arrive at Grand Rapids at 8 p. m.

The train from the south will leave Grand Rapids at 7:35 a. m. Instead of 7:20 a. m. as formerly. It will arrive here at the same time as before, 4:14 p. m.

This new arrangement will allow people out of Charlevoix to visit any town as far south as Traverse City, and to return home the same day. There will be forty minutes time at Traverse City between trains.

SUMS VOTED FOR BUYING SEED

MISSAUKEE COUNTY DOES THE HANDSOME THING

H. L. Barnum Gets $1,000 And Full Authority to Use It—May Call for Further Amounts

Missaukee county believes in doing the county agent proposition up right.

The board of supervisors at their last meeting in Rose City voted a credit from the county's general fund of $1,000 to our old friend and neighbor, H. L. Barnum, who is the present incumbent in that territory, for the purchase of seeds. The amounts, prices and times of purchase are put up to Mr. Barnum's judgment and as a further aid to his work, the county clerk and treasurer are authorized to issue orders and pay to the county agent from time to time sums of money not exceeding $1,000.

Purchasers of the seeds must, however, deposit with the county agent at the time their orders are placed an amount equal, at least, to one half of the estimated value of their purchases, the agent accounting for the moneys so received to to the board of supervisors and the county farm bureau.

Now that the county agent for Charlevoix has taken up his duties, it would be well for our local board to consider the feasibility of similar action. Conditions are practically the same, and substantial assistance offered at this time will be worth a larger amount later in the season.

CHARLEVOIX LOSES TO HER BOYNE OPPONENT

But Midget Victory Offsets Some of the Loss

Friday night's big game at the rink was considerable of a walkover for the visitors from Boyne City, as the score stood 24 to 7 in the first half in their favor.

Charlevoix picked up in the second half but our boys were unable to overcome so great a lead as their opponents had over them.

A portion of the sting of defeat was, however, removed by the victory of our second team who played first with the Boyne seconds and won from them by a score of 22 to 21.

EXTENSION SCHOOL

The order of the Eastern Star will serve a 25c supper Friday night. 9t1

BANKERS' CONVENTION ASSURED

TO BE HELD AT THE "INN," JUNE 24, 25 AND 26

Seven to Eight Hundred People, Each One Paying His Own Expenses—32nd Annual

That we are to entertain the Michigan Bankers' Association at the Inn this summer is now an established fact. This convention will number some 700 or 800 people and will be a three day affair. Perhaps the best way to convey the idea of the nature of the convention and the extent of the preparations to be made is to print the association's bulletin No. 403 which has been sent to all of its members. We give the text below:

"June 24, 25, 26, 1018, have been selected to hold our Thirty-Second annual convention and plans are being perfected by the management of "The Inn" to entertain the Michigan bankers and their ladies during their visit at this resort, where all the delegates will assemble, each one to pay his own expenses, thus burdening none of the towns about there.

"We are advised by the manngement of "The Inn" that it has a large number of rooms, which are almost entirely connected with private bath, and that the golf course will be open at the time of the convention, and there will be a good string of saddle horses in connection with "The Inn." The delegates will be able also to secure good boat service for individual or party excursions, fishing will be one of the attractions and pastimes to be enjoyed by the delegates combined with the advantages of a splendid resort town located nearby, which will furnish delegates with various amusements should they desire to avail themselves of the same. "The Inn" will be open for the early arrival of guests on June 22nd.

Our annual conventions are always interesting and of benefit, and we expect this one to keep up the record, as a result of our continued progress and success in our work. With this end in view, the program and all details of the meeting are being very carefully worked out by the committee and you will be kept informed by us of the arrangements as they develop and of the securing of prominent speakers on subjects which will make most interesting our business sessions, which we are featuring as the attraction only, during the period of the war.

Within a short time you will be advised by the secretary of the name of the person to whom you will make application for accommodations at "The Inn." All delegates will be pleasantly and comfortably housed during the convention, and prompt application for space should be made by the delegates, after announcement is made by the secretary that the same is in order."

EGG PLANTING STARTS SOON AT HATCHERY

New Heating Plant Was Installed Last Week

A new steam heating plant has recently been installed in the U. S. fish hatchery building here and next week the business of putting in the eggs will begin. The equipment of the old hatchery will be used, as before improvements or additions can be effected it will be necessary to wait for the government appropriation, which will not be made before the latter part of July.

This handsome, concrete block building, which is 75 feet wide by 145 feet long, has a capacity of 95,000,000 eggs and is the largest government hatchery in the United States. D. C. Leach, hatchery superintendent at large, is here from Washington, D. C., this week, going over matters of business with local manager A. T. Stewart.

WAR PIE CONSERVATION

Every home and every army agrees that man must have a balanced meal, with a good dessert, either at home or in army rations.

That doesn't mean that you shouldn't ecoonomize in desserts these days.

You should and you can.

NONE SUCH Mince Pie is a very real dessert—none better. And a NONE SUCH package of Mioce Meat works out the economy of pies, cakes, puddings, and cookies.

NONE SUCH is economical, because its condensed form and paraffin-lined package preveol waste.

It costs ooly a few cents and is cheaper than bulk mince meat bought by the pound.

NONE SUCH MINCE MEAT is made from the very best ingredients. Just what you would use if you were making it yourself, and it comes to you cheaper than you could make it yourself.

A package of NONE SUCH Mioce Meat becomes three times the package weight when the moisture in making is added.

Bake a NONE SUCH War Pie—a regular Mince Pie with no top crust. That saves flour, shortening, labor, and expense. A NONE SUCH War Pie saves and conserves, as we are asked to do by the U. S. Food Administration.

Everyone seemed to enter the contest with all energy to win. The result of the contest was sixteen new members and three reinstatements, making 19 in all. The loosing side is to furnish the supper. "Der Kaiser's Dream"

There's a rumor now current, though strange it may seem,
Of the German Emperor's wonderful dream.
Being tired of war, he lie i down in bed,
And among other things, he dreamed he was dead.
And in a deep coffin, lying in state,
With his cold, waxen features frozen in hate,
He wasn't long dead, when he found to his cost,
That his map of the next world, and passports were lost.
So, leaving this world to Heaven went straight,
Jauntily strutting right up to the gate,
But the look out angel, in voice strong and clear,
Said, "Begone, Kaiser, we don't want you here."
Well though William, that's very uncivil.
Does he mean I must go straight to the Divil?
So he turned on his heel, and off he did go,
Running full speed to the regions below.
But when he got there he was filled with dismay,
For whilst waiting, he heard to his imps, Satan say:
"Now, look here boys, I give you all warning,
"I'm expecting the Kaiser down here this morning."
"But don't let him in, for to me it is clear,
"We're far too good for the mongrel down here,
"If he gets in there'll be the dickens to pay,
"For bad as I am, he's much worse any day."
"O, Satan, dear friend," the emperor cried,
"Excuse me for listening while waiting outside.
"If you don't let me in, then where can I go?"
"Indeed," said the devil, "I really don't know."
"O, do let me in, I'm feeling quite cold,
"If money you want, I've plenty of gold,
"Just give me a corner, no matter how hot,"
"No," said the devil, "most certainly not."
"We don't let apartments for riches or pelf,
"Here's some sulphur and matches, make a place for yourself."
Then he pushed Wilhelm out, and vanished in smoke.
And just at that moment the kaiser awoke.
He jumped out of bed in a shivering sweat,
And cried, "Gott, that dream I shall never forget.
"That I won't go to heaven, I know very well,
"But it's awful tough luck to be kicked out of hell."

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

The spelling contests are drawing to a close. Eveline held the last one on the mainland at Ironton on the afternoon of Washington's birthday. The commissioner told the visitors at the beginning of the contest that so far Bay stood first in excellence of spelling, Marion a close second, with Wilson and Evangeline tied for third place. Someone whispered that Eveline would be first in about three hours and the commissioner just smiled. Such forecasts are not uncommon. There were 59 contestants, the very largest class yet prepared in any township. Of these one was from Advance. The rest had no way to get to the place of meeting and all expressed regrets at such a condition. There were 25 from Ironton, 2 from the Mountain school, 12 from the Star school, 9 from Walker and 10 from Three Bells. After the written contest the score stood as follows in numbers of 100 per cent papers: from Advance, one, from Ironton, 14, from Mountain school one, from Star, two, from Walker, four and from Three Bells eight. While the teachers were looking over the papers the schools united in a partiotic program in honor of Washington and our boys in the cause of freedom. Favorite songs were: "Keep the Home Fires Burning," beautifully sung, "Your Flag and My Flag," and "We'll Never Let our Old Flag Fall," sung by the Star school. Several recitations were given, all well rendered, but the one by Miss Mildred Wangeman, was especially appreciated.

Directly after the report of the written contest was announced, the 29 students with perfect papers, took their places in a semi-circle at the front of the hall. It was the largest class yet standing for oral work in the county spelling tests, and the crowd was intensely appreciative. There was no such thing as confusing this class. Two hundred words were spelled before a mistake was made and even then the mistakes were few and far between. Little Wilma McClure stood up until over 800 words had been pronounced and then made only a light mistake, but of course had to go down because of the old time rule "one trial only." When the entire thousand words had been pronounced there were still 13 standing. These 13 were as follows: From Three Bells seven students—Perry Lane, age 13, 7th grade; Bertha Simmermnn, age 11, 6th grade, Mamie Gaunt, age 14, 7th grade, Rosabelle Lane, age 10, 6th grade, Mildred Wangeman, age 13, 7th grade, A. J. Wangeman, age 10, 6th grade; from Ironton four students—Frances Coblentz, age 12, 6th grade Elsie Ward, age 15, 8th grade, Glenn Allen, age 15, 8th grade and Edward Hammond age 14. From the Walker school, one student, Vernon Boyer, age 15, 7th grade, and from the Star school, Archie Hayden, age 15, 8th grade.

The rejoicing and the clapping became such a continued ovation that it was impossible for some time to even attempt to award the prizes to the victorious schools. It proved only too true our oft quoted philosophy that it is not the prize that counts—it is the work we do. There was no need to tell this crowd that Eveline had gone over the top, nor was there need to explain that Three Bells alone had more victors than any previous entire township, nor did we need to explain no other school had previously quite come up to the goal reached by Ironton that day. Nor did we need to forget Walker and Star for their standard could be surpassed by none. It was a fight worth fighting and all had worked to the limit. The record now stands for the county, Eveline first with 13 points, Bay second, with six points out of a possible 27, Marion a close third with six points out of a possible 31, with Wilson and Evangoline tied for fourth place with 2 points each. Beaver Island will hold a contest soon and though the commissioner cannot be present for the occasion she hopes to receive a description of the event for public interest. The Ironton ladies served sandwiches and coffee for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The commissioner feels stronger than ever before that the contests have been worth while. The preparation has been most thorough and the spirit fine. There has been a keen interest manifested and on many occasion parents have asked "what can we do next year?" or have commented "we must keep something going like this next year too, but I wonder what it could be. Back of every meeting there has been the joyous spirit of the contestants, and the spirit of fair play that has made it a pleasure to work with them. Never once was a grouch discovered. A few of our boys and girls were disappointed of course, in losing out, but they are learning to take defeat and be brave.

The teachers of the county are especially to be commended for the excellent work which they have done in working for the interests of their pupils. Not a school teacher in the rural schools of the county but who had prepared at least one contestant who had averaged the 95 per cent required, and of all our rural teachers only two or three were unable to get to the contest on the appointed day. When we take into consideration the poor roads and severe winter, we must certainly deem this as most remarkable, and we must likewise give a vote of thanks to the interesting parents who brought the merry loads to the different meeting places. It has been a joyous winter and one long to be remembered for its many activities and the deeper meaning behind them.

A brief visit at Afton on Thursday. The commission found Mr. Peaslee deeply interested in teaching the meaning of locks to his pupils by means of plastleine, formed into the base of Panama Canal with a little boat which they hope to raise to the top of the lock when the water is let out of Gatun lake.

Hexa supplies on their way to the teachers this week.

Read and rejoice, ye teachers:

"Lansing, Feb. 20, 1918.

"Miss May L. Stawart,
"East Jordan, Michigan.
"My dear Miss Stewart:
"I have your letter of Feb. 18th. Mr. McKenny got as far as Grand Rapids but did not leave there. This certainly has been a very hard winter to conduct institutes or any kind of meetings.

"If you desire to unite with Antrim and Emmet counties next year and it is agreeable to the commissioners of these counties, I shall try to send you the best talent possible. I shall appoint your institute next year in October. I am not going to try to have any institutes in the winter from now on.

"Yours very truly,
"Fred L. Keeler."

Antrim county must take a straw vote by mail in decision le to be reached. Emmet county not yet heard from.

Just as this goes to press a sad letter from St. James tells of the death of Anita Ward of the village schools from diphthoria, and explains that all schools on the Island are closed. The writer says that the village looks as if the Pied Piper had visited the village and taken all the little tots with him. The spelling contest is indefinitely postponed.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder disease.

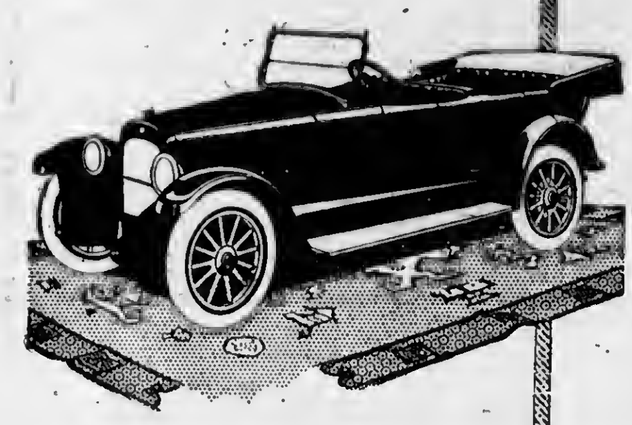
NASH SIX

PERFECTED VALVE-IN-HEAD MOTOR



Two important facts have been registered since the introduction of the Nash Six.

First—the buying public did expect Nash Motors to produce a remarkable car.

Second—they have found in the Nash Six a car that fully realized their expectations.

Probably no other car in the history of the industry has received a more remarkable welcome.

The one feature that seems to make the biggest impression on everyone is the Nash perfected valve-in-head motor.

GERMANY LEGALIZES BIGAMY

Germany, anticipating the drain on her population early in the war, urged her soldiers to marry, enjoining marriage upon women as a patriotic duty. The government is now going further in the endeavor to arrest the diminishing birthrate, which has continuously fallen since the war began. Pamphlets advocating "secundary" marriages are being circulated among the troops with the tacit approval of the officers—we cannot imagine such circulation unless with authority; these have been translated and are commented upon by the newspapers of other countries while German papers are signally silent. Thus it appears that the circumstances which followed the Thirty Years' war are to be repeated, in order to fill the empty cradles of Germany.

The percentage of illegitimacy has been high in the empire, owing to the financial restrictions as to marriage imposed upon military officers and the higher classes. It is now proposed to give the unconventional connection a semi-legal standing. One of these pamphlets says married men should contract alliances with unmarried women, who are not only authorized, but called upon to enter into such unions. That is, to perpetuate her military traditions Germany would make the women of the nation mere vehicles of reproduction, "breeding animals," to provide for the future needs of a Germany army thus dedicating children yet unborn to the Moloch of war.

Germany, as we know, has violated every rule of international law and humanity in the present conflict, carrying out her theory that any means toward the designed end is justifiable. Now her "Kultur" would violate every convention of religion and civilized conduct, although one of these pamphleteers takes the ground that "good morals are only what the upper classes of society approve." Morality must be at a low ebb in German upper circles! Here is Protestant Germany sanctioning bigamy as a "duty," while Catholic Austria forbids the circulation of this form of German propaganda in her armies.—Detroit Free Press.

POOR RUSSIA

It is a sad spectacle which Russia is presenting today—down and out and being overrun by the barbarous Huns. It is a condition from which the noble Kerensky tried to save his country, but the anarchists and socialists and the labor unions drove him out and proceeded to show the world how really bright, smart men could run a government.

And they have run it.

Had Russia stood firm the Allies would ere this have been dictating terms of peace, with Russia sitting in at the pie-cutting. But, instead of that the decisive campaign is still to be fought and the only thing that will save Russia is a victory by the Allies which will enable them to take back from Germany that which the Huns have taken from Russia.

The situation in Russia today is about what we would have in this country if the socialists and labor unions were running the country.

In our issue of February 13th last, on page four among the editorials, appeared an article relative to the W. C. T. U. and the charge alleged to have been made by them of drunkeness in Pershing's army.

This article was sent in to us from outside from sources which we believed to be authentic. We have since discovered however, that it formed a part of the liquor dealer's propaganda which they are keen to slip over on the press at every opportunity and was designed to get the W. C. T. U. "in bad."

We desire, therefore, to disclaim any agreement with the sentiments of the article in question and to express our regret that we should have been the unwitting instrument of so unwarranted an attack upon as worthy an organization as the W. C. T. U.

If Germany wants to discourage America from taking an active part in the war it would be a master stroke of diplomacy to tie up the submarines.

Cincinnati has fired the German language from its schools. Someone we know probably greeted the announcement with "Bully for Cincinnati."

It seems that the German people would get tired of that "We will soon be in Paris" gag.

It's about time for the Bolsheviki to make another drive on the wine cellars of Petrograd.

JUST BETWEEN TWO FARMERS

Down the road came a farmer in a little black car. The car was new, shining with prosperity despite a liberal spattering of early spring mud. The farmer, too, was suggestive of prosperity, for he was the typical American farmer of today. Seeing a friend in a barnlot, he drew up at the side of the road and called to him.

"I hear they got your son in the last quota of the draft, Bill," said he. Seems like the farmers are just about feeding the world and should be let alone on other things."

"Well," said the man in the barnlot, "that isn't just the way I feel about it. Of course it isn't easy to see your only son go off to war—but then, there are many other only sons. At first mother felt pretty blue, arguing that we were doing enough by growing crops. But we got to talking the matter over, and now we feel we haven't done anything more than we ought to do. Uncle Sam has got our boy now and it's up to me and you and the other fellow to see that boy is given a square deal while he's fighting over there in Europe. I've given my boy, John, and I'm going to let the government have every cent I can spare on top of it all."

"I've got to admire your spirit, Bill," said John, "but I kind o' feel I'm doing my bit by furnishing all the food I can. I feed the soldiers, I do—working all day in the field. Let the city fellows provide the money to buy the guns and things."

"But you don't feed the soldiers," said Bill. "The government feeds 'em, paying you a good price for the stuff you raise. And the city fellows have been doing their part in backing up the government."

"Well," said John, a bit stubbornly, "we're the backbone of the nation, and I think we're doing our part in growing the crops."

"Sure, we're the backbone," agreed Bill, "and that's why it's pretty largely up to us. Remember that cousin of mine who came to visit us around Christmas? Well, he's a professor at the state university. He teaches all about government and money and labor and the general balance of things. We figured things out together on this Liberty loan business. People in the city work hard making clothing and shoes and guns and shells and things; men who

NEXT WEEK IS NATIONAL FARM REPAIR WEEK

Farm Machinery Should be Taken Care of at Once

"Repair your farm machinery now and order missing or broken parts immediately," this is tbe tip tbe department of farm mechanics of the Michigan Agricultural college is passing on to farmers of the state as a result of conditions it has found are prevailing in manufacturing and transportation circles.

"Repairs should be made early and orders put in now for what you will need," the department says, "for the railroad tie-up, and the uncertain conditions with which the manufacturers are compelled to contend make it highly unwise to wait until the eleventh hour to secure the things you will need.

"In ordering give the implement dealer all the informstion you can. Give the number, diameter, length and kind of belts; give the namos of forged parts or make sketches of them, giving the sizes of material and all dimensions necessary to make it fit attachments. Sometimes the part itself should be sent. Give the year of manufacture of the machine, and name, size and serial number of the machine, where these are given. Verify the casting name and numbers where possible by means of the catalogue or repair price list, which should always be kept on file for reference. Make a single order for the dealer which will include all items possible, going over it carefully with him before it is sent in. Order extra parts which wear out quickly, and screws, bolts, rivets, mower sections, snaps, harness parts, machine oil and miscellaneous supplies."

YOU CAN USE YOUR OLD SEEDS THIS YEAR

M. A. C. Experts Tell How Long They May be Safely Kept

Evidence that Michigan's army of gardeners is beginning to bestir itself for its 1918 operations is coming daily into possession of the Michigan Agricultural college through letters inquiring about seed matters. One of the most frequent questions asked in these is this:

"I have a considerable supply of seed left over from last year. Can I use these seeds this spring, or must I order a fresh stock?"

A table indicating the length of time during which seeds may be safely kept has accordingly been issued by the department of horticulture. "Asparagus seeds," the department says, "can be kept for 2 years, beans 3 years, beets 4 years, cabbage 3 years, carrots 1 year, cauliflower 4 years, celery 2 years, corn 1 year, cucumbers 5 years, egg plant 5 years, endive 2 years, kale 2 years, kohlrabi 3 years, leek 3 years, lettuce 4 years, muskmelon 5 years, okra 4 years, onion 1 year, parsley 1 year, parsnip 2 years, peas 3 years, pepper 3 years, radishes 2 years, salsify 2 years, squash 3 years, tomatoes 5 years, turnips 5 years and watermelons 5 years.

"In all cases the department recommends the testing of seed for germinability before planting. The plate and blotter, or the plate and cotton flannel methods are simple means by which this can be done."

Gardening work among the boys and girls clubs of the state will be under the general direction this year of Emil G. Volz. Mr. Volz who recently was appointed to the position of state gardening leader is a graduate of M. A. C. and of Cornell university and is a man of several years experience in the work which he will undertake.

The commission will assess railroads, telephone, telegraph and car loaning companies in April for the specific primary school tax.

COUNTY AGENT GIVES WARNING

REGARDING ALPHANO INOCULANT HUMUS CO.

Says Wonderful Claims Made by Company Are Too Good to be True—Right on the Job

The following werning to farmers issued by County Agricultural Agent Williard C. Cribbs shows that this gentleman is right on the job, and that if fermers heed his warning, they will undoubtedly steer clear of meny fake or useless "so-called" remedies or other preparations widely advertised to do certain things and which usually fail in the end. The following letter is explanatory: "To the Farmers of Antrim County:

"A circular has been brought to my office, which is put out by the Alphano Inoculsnt Humus Co. of New York. It states in glowing terms that Alphano Inoculant will cure all troubles of the farmers in regard to nitrogen. They claim it will inoculete every leguminous plant which we raise and also will gather nitrogen from the air without the aid of thess plants. That it will inoculate the fields by putting it on the manure piles and that the County Agricultural Agents know all about it.

"Your County Agent never heard of it before and believes the claims are too good to be true. He would not advise the farmers to pay $1 per acre to inoculate their ground when they can get enough culture from their agricultural college for twenty-five cents to inoculate enough seed for five or six acres and then know just what they are getting.

"We cannot afford to buy new and untried things of this kind and run the risk of losing our high priced seeds at this time when we should make every effort count. Every one knows that the sunlight will kill the bacteria when exposed for any length of time and if the manure where this inoculation was put was allowed to lay upon the surface of the soil, as most all of it is, for any length of time as most of it does, the bacteria would die.

"I do not believe it is possible for a substance of this kind to take nitrogen from the air without the aid of the legumes, as they claim and would keep my money until I knew more about this article they are selling.

"WILLARD C. CRIBBS."

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

F. R. FENTON HEADS MICHIGAN ORGANIZATION

First and Second Loans Were Well Taken Care of In This State—Under Federal Reserve

Frederick R. Fenton, who has been named by the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago as Federal Reserve director of sales for Michigan for the forthcoming Liberty loan campaign, states that the organization which will handle the big drive for war funds in Michigan is well under way, and, in fact, practically every chairman for the sixty-eight counties comprising the lower peninsula has been selected.

"In selecting our chairmen," said Mr. Fenton, in outlining the general plan of campaign, "we have consulted with local bankers and business men and with hardly an exception the men selected have been the unanimous choice in the particular counties from which they come.

"Michigan did well in both the first and second Liberty loan campaigns. In the first campaign the subscriptions totaled about $64,000,000 and in the second approximately $108,000,000. The interesting fact of the Michigan campaigns has been the large number of persons to whom bonds have been sold. The people of the lower peninsula have looked upon this as their war. That each person has been willing to do his share is best borne out by the fact that the second Liberty loan bonds were sold to 391,020 persons, which is a very high percentage for the state.

"The Treasury Department, which has charge of the sale of Liberty loan bonds, has delegated its powers to the Federal Reserve banks, in the various districts, and they, in turn, to Liberty loan campaign committees. The Federal Reserve bank of Chicago has increased its organization so that there are a number of regular organizers in each state acting under the various Federal Reserve directors of sales. Every one serving in the capacity of chairman of a county committee is a Federal Reserve bank appointee and is directly enlisted in this very important war activity of the government.

"There never was a time when the bankers and business men had a better opportunity to render valuable service to their country, and I am pleased to say that after going through two Liberty loan compaigns and having entered upon the organization for the third campaign, we have received loyal support from this class of people all the way through. Occasionally some man asks—'Don't ask me to be a chairman again. I have done my work.' My response to such a statement is that our boys who enlist and go over seas do not list for an individual battle, but for as many battles as may be necessary to win the war; and so we who stay at home and are called upon to raise the funds to supply the wants of our army and navy must not enlist for any particular Liberty loan campaign, but for as many campaigns as it may be necessary to have until the victory is won.

NOTES FROM CAMP CUSTER

(By Our Special Correspondent)

A Day In Camp

A bright, sunshiny day and a desire to see one of the boys quarantined in camp was sufficient reason for a visit there shortly after the prolonged rain storm, although I was told that the roads were impassable and impossible; but I found the men had been quite as busy making good roads as they were after the heavy snow storm of a few weeks ago, and with quite as satisfactory results. The soil of the Harmonia Hills, where Camp Custer is situated, is of a soft and particularly adhesive clay, but many of the barracks are approachable from the splendid cement road which extends the full length of the camp, and in other places, where the foot traffic would otherwise be impossible, paths are made of cinders from the heating plants.

There are a number of companies still under quarantine for mumps and measles, but, with the exception of several hundred men who are to leave soon for France, the quarantine is not very rigid. These men are not allowed in Battle Creek or to remain for any length of time in the "Y's" Canteens, or other public buildings, but aside from this they seem to have the freedom of the grounds and do some exercising, drilling and "hiking."

After visiting some of our soldier friends in different barracks we all went on a tour of the camp. In a short time we came to the center of the grounds where are located the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium, the Liberty Theatre, the well-equipped camp library, and the site where the new Gymnasium is to be built. Our escort now suggested it was time we returned to the particular barracks where we were to eat dinner. Being visitors to camp, we were allowed to be seated with our soldier friends before the general mess call was given, and had just got personally attached to some excellent roast pork when we heard a noise resembling thunder, followed by sounds like guns being fired. Turning round in startled wonder, we were reassured when we saw it was not an invasion by the Germans, but our own khaki clad protectors and the sound of guns was the noise made by hitting their aluminum mess kit on the table to loosen the tight fitting cover.

After a hearty dinner, we went outside to watch the washing up process. Three boilers are placed outside the barracks, the first two containing hot suds and the last one clear hot water. The boys came down the side steps of the mess room with their long-handled aluminum plates, the curious shaped pint cup, the knife fork and spoon, and with much good natured jostling and joking, washed their dishes in the sudsy water and rinsed them in the clear water. I was informed that this method was adopted since the quarantines were put on the camp and was supposed to be more sanitary, but as my informant said, "I don't know whether it is or not." I may mention here that Headquarters Co. where we ate our dinner contains 233 men—nearly the full number of a company.

Standing beside us and watching the proceedings with apparent interest, was a large, handsome collie which had adopted one of the men in this company. Doubtless he also was after "inside information." A number of these collies may be seen on the camp grounds. A short time ago a little white bull dog arrived at Camp Custer tagged from LaPeer county, but he wandered disconsolately about not seeming to find any owner till at last the boys in this section of camp lost track of him.

When our escort had deposited his dishes with his other treasures in a box under the bunk, we started out to see the drilling and exercising. A company of soldiers near by were having drilled in body exercises. Further on we saw a lieutenant teaching the men exercises which seemed to be for the purpose of strengthening the neck muscles. From this point on we were kept busy dodging soldiers exercising, marching, bomb throwing, signalling, practicing firing, etc. until we found a safe retreat in front of a canteen, from where we could watch almost every description of a soldier's training, including "leap frog" and "fox and geese" which some healthy looking young fellows were playing with evident enjoyment.

One of the most interesting and impressive drills to be seen is the training of the soldiers in the use of gas masks. These masks are made of soft rubber with a large breathing tube attached about eighteen inches long, and are placed in a khaki covered bag hung around the neck and across the chest. At the word of command the helmet is removed and mask put in place in as few motions as possible. We noticed that conservation of energy was especially emphasized in all the drills. The training at this time seemed to consist in teaching the masked men to carry a message along the line from man to man, and repeat it so that it would be understood by those near by. After watching for fifteen minutes, we decided these men were doing the most difficult work we had seen during the afternoon.

We were especially impressed by the serious, earnest manner of most of the men in training. When one considers that the men in Camp Custer are drawn from all over the state and from all walks of life, it is not surprising to know of men of intellect, talent, and special training in some of the companies. In one company I am told, they have a veritable rival to Paderweski, a man who plays all "highbrow stuff" and in one of the "Y's" I saw some very clever caricature sketches.

Before we leave at the end of a perfect day, let me tell you about "Irish," the best loved man in one of the companies. Like most nick names this describes what he is not. He is not Irish but Italian, which he shows in his general appearance though well Americanized in manner and speech. A helping hand, ready smile, and a word of cheer for all he brings a ray of sunshine with him on the gloomiest day. May there be many more like "Irish" amongst our boys at this time whatever their nationality may be.

LETTER FROM LIEUT. HAMPTON

"There are two or three hundred officers on board, made up from all branches of the service, from quartermaster to naval aviator. We spend the time parading the promenade deck, sitting in the deck chairs, studying French, singing, reading, playing cards and smoking, so that the days pass quickly enough. It is not at all cold, and you are quite comfortable walking without an overcoat. I was really surprised, for I had thought that the Atlantic was about the coldest place anywhere. Maybe it will get colder later on, although we are now about half way across.

"We have all been assigned to life boats, and I am in that lucky one, 'Number 13,' and we are prepared for any emergency. Every precaution is taken. No lights are allowed outside and all portholes are carefully covered, and a continuous lookout is maintained. It has been moonlight and there's a certain romance about the old ship as she plows silently on her way, with not a light showing, and here and there a hooded figure silently peering out over the waves, but we are very much awake, as much so as the waves that leap and jump at our camouflaged sides.

"Looks as if we would be at sea for about ten days; it all depends; maybe longer; whatever may be necessary to fool the Boche subs.

"I have read Dad's letter that he sent me, sealed and not to be opened until we were at sea. It was a masterpiece and gave me a great deal of happiness and pride. Just like Dad. Be sure to save me a copy if you have one, in case I should lose the original. I read it to my chums, Pete Kuhr, and Tom, and the former came down to read it again, it appealed to him so much. It will surely be an incentive and a help to me.

"We have 'tea' every afternoon at four, on the promenade deck. I enjoy it, and so does everyone else, although it looks odd to see a bunch of soldiers sipping tea and munching cakes, while the boat rolls from side to side. You'd never think that any of them thought about a submarine, and I guess they don't very often. Why worry? I think we can give them a good fight anyway, if the beggars will give us half a chance.

"Tonight we had an entertainment—singing, piano artists, recitations, and sleight-of-hand performers to make up the program. It was really very good and we all enjoyed it much more than we would a high-class cut-and-dried city affair.

"We receive news bulletins via wireless every day, so that at present I am posted as to the incidents of the war much sooner than you are, and I'm in the middle of the ocean, too. This letter will be censored, and you will note that I have torn off the name of the ship from this stationery. I am also unable to tell you where we are going, but I guess it don't matter a great deal so long as we arrive safely. Did not receive any mail before leaving New York, so expect will get a big bunch of it eventually, as I recall you said you would write as soon as I could give you my address. Am beginning to realize what a great deal it means to be without means of communication with the folks at home, and to know that they are well; but then I feel that you are, and I can't help you if they aren't—so 'what's the use of worrying?' It never was worth while.

"When you receive this letter you will be sure that I am safe across, if the card I left to be mailed does not reach you, and I am unable to cable, which is very probable.

"Had a wonderful time in New York, until the day I left. Saw everything I could in the time I had, which was considerable. The boat rolls so it is hard to write—one minute it's up hill and the next down. She creaks and groans as if she disliked the burden and was endeavoring to shake herself free of the greedy sea that envelopes her.

"You ought to be here tonight! The moon is bright, and its brilliancy is reflected on the white, mountainous waves, with their creamy crests. It really is too beautiful for words—prettier than the lake because of its magnitude, and great, long hills of water, ever-changing and never still.

"I wonder if you are sitting by the fire-place at home? Trust that you are not worrying about me, and hope that Dad's subterfuge with the postcards will be so far successful that mother will not know I am on the ocean until I have safely landed. Pretty clever of us, eh, mother? Remember me to all of my friends. It is time to turn in, so will put this in the mail box, to be mailed as soon as we land 'over there.'

"Your affectionate son,
"VIC."

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

MISSIONARY PLAY A GRATIFYING SUCCESS

Need of Foreign Mission Graphically Portrayed

The entertainment given by the Woman's Missionary Society st the Congregstional church on Thursday evening last, brought together a large number of the memhers and friends of the society and proved a very pleasant occasion.

After the devotionals led by Mrs. Hsrsha and the usual busiress session, came the program, consisting of a solo by Mr. Taggart, entitled "Pass it On," a Church History drill by the Junior Endesvor Society, and a drsmatization of the "Voices of the Women."

In this, Miss Issbel Mitchell acted ss the part of a Christian woman who did not believe in foreign missions. After refusing financial support to a missionary soliciting funds for her work, she finds hersclf unsble to keep her mind on the book she is rcsding snd finally drops asleep, and as she dreams, the women of heathen lands (in costume) surround her snd tell of their sorrowful lives. Conscience reproves her and she at last swakes to a sense of her duty. Miss Genevieve Carrel represented Conscience snd the parts of the women were taken by the Misses Winifred Wells, Leone McNeil, Hazel Gilmartin, Martha Paulson, Beatrice Harrington, Wilma Stevenson and Vivian Porter. Elnora and Georgia Kelderhouse, as the child widows of Indis, were particularly pathetic, and made a strong appesl to the sympathies of the audience.

own mines and the men who work in the mines produce metals. Every one of those men hss got to eat, so they can't just give their products to the government. And we who farm have to have machinery and merchsndise, and we can't give our products to the government. So the government has to buy from the people. It's lucky for us that there is such a market. You know what it means when there is an oversupply on the market."

John was beginning to show a new interest by this time.

"But this government buying business is a hsrd thing to get through your head unless you realize what the government it," went on Bill. "Sometimes we think of the government ss some rich power that ought to do these things and do 'em right. But, John, the government is YOU and I. This is OUR country, and we have been proud of it ever since Washington cleared the plsce of tyrants. Now the government is fighting to keep the place clear of tyrants. There you are! Who is the government, John? You and I! So thst means you and I have to help foot the bills. Tsxes, back breaking taxes—that's what it might mean, but the government is giving us s chsnce to lend it our money at a profitable rate of interest instead of taking it all away from us in taxes. By buying Liberty bonds, John, we simply lend money to ourselves to pay ourselves for our crops and we have the money we get for our crops right in our hands—and back of it all we have Uncle Sam's promise to pay back the principal after a few years. That's turning money to a good advantage."

John was alive with interest now.

"As for my son," Bill went on, "why should he refuse to fight just because he is a fnrmer's son? Most of the men behind Washington came from the farms—and we all know what the farmers, northerners and southerners alike, did in the Civil war. I feel now, John, that if my son had shown unwillingness to go to war, I should have kicked him off the place—either that or felt sorry for him all the rest o' my life. I'm proud o' that young buck, John, and the government is going to get all I can lend it to care for him properly."

"You're right, Bill," said John after a little thought. "It's our government nnd we can't just put the job up to the other fellow, can we? I've been looking at this thing from a kind nf side angle and I haven't been getting the full view. I'm sorry I haven't got a son of fighting age too, Bill."

"But I've got one, John, and he's going to fight for both of us," said Bill.

"And I'm going to go the limit, Bill, in seeing that the government is in a position to do the right thing by him."

"Liberty bonds give you the opportunity, John."

"How many ought I to buy, Bill?"

"Just as many as you can, John, —snd maybe a few more."

PERSHING PRAISES WORK OF REO CROSS

Says Efforts Rank With Shot and Shell in Beating Kaiser

Praise such ss General John J. Pershing recently gave the American Red Cross seldom is received by sny organization and not only Red Cross officials, but its twenty odd million members snd other millions of well wishers appreciate his words highly.

"I want to ssy to you," General Pershing said to Idah McGlone Gibson, "thst no other organization since the world began has ever done such great constructive work with the efficiency, dispatch, understanding, often under adverse circumstances, that has been done in France by the American Red Cross in the lsst six months."

That appesrs to be about the limit in commendation. It was followed hy more remarks equally complimentary to tbe Red Cross for its work in rehabilitating the devastated homes of France and thereby improving the morsle of the French army.

This work of restoring the homes wrecked by the Germans so that the French soldier at the end of the war would find a reunited family and a foundation for a new life, was said by General Pershing to have helped the American army fight the Kaiser before machine guns began to fire and shells to burst.

Mrs. Gibson reached the conclusion from her personal investigation of Red Cross relief work in France that the American people could not give too much for the extension of the work.

"You may well carry back such a report to the American people," General Pershing agreed.

BUY NOW BEFORE PRICES ARE ADVANCED

This warning has been heralded many times and can be applied to many lines of goods, but none of quite the importance as the line we handle. For example: Overalls that we are selling today for $1.50 cannot be sold for that price if new stock is bought today. And many other lines are affected the same way. While our old stock of last, the old price will prevail. But as soon as new goods arrive, the prices will be advanced from 20 to 30 per cent. This is our reason for so forcibly calling your attention to the real situation, and urging you to buy what you need right now, and further, it would not be a bad plan to lay in enough for next winter's use.

Leather Goods are Advancing

Prices on few lines of goods have advanced as rapidly as on leather goods. We were fortunate in placing our orders early, and bought practically everything we have in stock before the raise took place. This is the reason we are selling below the average dealer. With our new stock, the increase in price will be considerable. Buy now and save what you can.

CAMPED IN A FRENCH CONVENT

MORE LETTERS FROM OFFICER "OVER THERE"

Lieut. Victor H. Hempton Tells of Experiences and Scenes Across the Sea

"Somewhere In France."
"Jan. 31, 1918.

"Dear Folks:

"Arrived here at a rest 'billet' yesterday forenoon, and axpect to receive further orders today. I spent two days in England, mostly in traveling, as they put us through in a hurry. England is very pretty, much more so than what I hava seen of France so far. The trip bas been uneventful, excopt that at one tima wa nearly had a collision, and it is not very conducive to sound sleep to wear a life proserver all night long.

"There are many Americans over here, although some of them who left before we did are just arriving. I have talked with many Englieh officers, and very fine chaps they are, and they teli many interesting things about the front. So far I have enjoyed the trip, in spite of the rough weather we have had at times. It will be far more comfortable when we finally reach our station. I think my bunch made about tho fastest trip of them all, it taking us only about ten days.

"The French town we ara in is a very quaint and interesting place, but what you see makes you realize how terrible the war is. There are many soldiers, English and American here, resting or awaiting orders. The Y. M. C. A. is very much in evidence. Have seen no pretty French girls as yet. I prefer English. Will write more when have more time and paper. Heaps of love. Don't werry.

"Somewhere in France"
Feb. 7, 1918.

"Dear Folks:

"Arrived at this, my station somewhere in France, on the 4th, after a rough trip in French Pullmans, lasting, I can't sny how long, but during which I saw considerable of France. And in my opinion it is not half the country it is supposed to be, although very pretty and attractive in an ancient sort of way, with its odd-looking pensant folk and queer houses.

"We nre quartered in an old convent which dates back to 1650, and is situated in a small town of far more rccent date, still as primitive as to streets, buildinge and customs ae in earlier daye. It is rougb living but we are well fed and soon become accustomed to the iack of toilet facilities and electrie lights. No one will be any tho worse for the experience, but we will appreciate tho comforts of the U. S. A. in all of its modern devicee for convenience.

"Tho censorship rules will not permit me telling you many things of interest. They will keep until we have licked the Boche, and we are making every preparation to do it well. It is not at all cold where we are; no snow, and tho weather has been sunshiny every day. In some parts of France I was in, however, when we first arrived it wae colder than any weather I have ever experienced.

"I have receivod no mail and probably will not for a month or more, until they get me locatcd, and then I expect it will come through O. K. We are working like nailers and do not have as much time to ourselves es we did at Fort Sheridan. However, the work is more interesting, and there is absolutely nothing elee to do, or place to go, so don't notice it as much.

"Be sure to send me cigarettes and candy, as they are about the only things not obtainable here. No cause to worry about me as I am in no danger here and in very good health, and only hope you nre all the same at home. If you don't hear anything from me don't worry for I shall he perfectly all right, and my letters may go astray or be held up, or never reach the U. S. A. at all; whereas if anything should happen to me you will be notified at once by cable; so no news is surely good news in this instance. I am still with the chum I started with, which makes it nice for both of us.

"Must turn in, as we get up early over here. Will write again Sunday. Good night and God bless and keep you all. Remember me to all inquiring friends.

FIFTEENTH RIDER TOO MUCH FOR "BILLY"

Maple Grove Grange Goat Collapses Under Strain

Maple Grove Grange met on February 26th for a special initiation. Thera were to have been 17 candidates, but two of the number did not show up.

The goat cama climbing into the window, led by one of the captains, the other being outside, engaged in the pleasing occupation of "frashing" up the animal. He "stood the gaff" pretty well, until the last one of the 15 candidates bestrode him, when one of his legs gave way.

Talk about fun and good times. The side led by Leo Pant furnished the supper and it loft notbing to be desired. Too much praise cannot be given them. The second course was ice cream, servad in cones. The new candidates had to marcb around the table and find their names written on the little souvenirs that the committee had placed on the plates.

The lecture hour was observed while the committee was preparing supper. Noses were counted and showed fifty present. So good a time were they having that it was nearly morning when the meeting broke up.

We can do it—now is the time—don't wait until you want to use your car before having those tires put into shape.—Benj. Brown Garage. 10tf.

FEMALE YEGG A SLICK ACTOR

COULD STEAL FROM RIGHT UNDER YOUR NOSE

But She Has Departed From Our Midst and Charlevoix May Draw a Long Sight of Relief

Tho shoplifting case which has excited the interest, and in some measure, the amusement of our people this week has realized a happy solution through the departure of the offender across the borders of the state.

The lady in question (name withheld at the request of the authorities) was very clever and very busy while she lasted. In addition to a very smelly hay deal in which she was mixed up (and it wasn't new mown hay, either) this person, we understand managed to abstract a pair of shoes from Bedford's, a muff and a pair of gloves from Mason's department store and a fur neck piece from Levinson's, a black one specked with petches of white fur which she carefully picked out one by one so as to have a perfectly black piece of fur which the owner wouldn't recognize. She even boasted, we hear, that she could go into any store on the street and abstract goods therefrom as there wouldn't be anyone live enough to detect her.

This light-fingered dame has, however, promised to leave the state and is now well on her way. The authorities thought this was the best way out of it and perhaps it was. She might be infected with the suicide germ, you know. We hope she doesn't return to Charlevoix, as this little burg has had quite enough unpleasant notoriety to last it for some time. But if she does—well, that is another story.

COUNTY SCHOOL OFFICERS MEETING

FEBRUARY 26 GALA DAY IN EAST JORDAN

School Officers From all Parts of the County Present—Meeting a Successful One

Tuesday the 26th, in East Jordan K. P. Hall, a number of school officers from all corners of Charlevoix county met for instruction in phases of school law passed by tha 1917 legislature. Supt. Geo. N. Otwell of the Stata Department of Public Instruction acted as instructor and also delivered an address on a "Decade of Progress in Michigan Schools." His address was amply illustrated with lantern slides taken from actual conditions throughout the state and included very interesting pictures also of farm life, registered stock, approved barns, and board of health bulletins. Commissioner Stewart explained the nature of many of the pamphlets published by tho state and distributed needed material for tho districts represented. Tho county agent, C. F. Smith, explained the purpose of his agricultural survey and asked all to work with him for the general good. Tho Girls' Glee Club favored the assembly with two splendid selections.

One of the most interesting features of the occasion was the splendid dinner which the officers enjoyed through the courtesy of the business men of East Jordan. This dinner was served in the armory by the ladies of the East Jordan Red Cross. Decorations were in keeping with the organization and the times, the most stirring appeal being made to all by the display of the East Jordan City service flag with its one gold star surrounded by the many blue. The Metropole orchestra furnished music throughout in keeping with the spirit of '76.

Mr. Mackey, president of the Bonrd of Trade introduced Mayor A. E. Cross as toastmaster of the occasion, who then called upon Miss Stewart, Mr. Otwell and Mr. Brintnall for brief discussions on the moment of the event.

Miss Lola Stuart gavo a fine reading for the program. Mr. Otwell highly commended the East Jordan business men en the dinner, saying thet in his five yenrs of experience in conducting similar meetings throughout the state, this is the first time that he has known of the welcome being thus expressed by the morchants. On one or two occasions he has found that the city board of education has paid for a dinner served by the domestic science department but he believes thet the welcome should be extended by the business interests and that the get-togother spirit is productive of much good. He discussed the business relations of merchant and farmer showing to each the viewpoint of the other with the result that both feel pretty good over the event and East Jordan feels doubly happy to know that when the officers have met with her for the first time in her history she has been the first in the state to extend her welcome through every channel of her city organization.

AUTHORITIES ARE TOLD TO ENFORCE THE LAW

Secretary of Stete Issues Bulletin to Officers Giving Them Information

Secretary of Stato Coleman C. Vaughn has written to all police and city and county officers directing them to eee that the state motor vehicle laws are enforced.

Tha secretary has issued a bulletin in which he saya in part:

Probably not one-half nf the oporators of motor cars have paid as yet the tax for 1918. Many are still using 1917 plates, some using nona at all.

We call your attention to the following:

1. The tax for 1918 is now due, and machines cannot lawfully be operated until payment is made.

2. The passenger car plates are green in color with white letters, and should not be used on any other type of car.

3. Dealers' and truck plates are yellow in color. Truck plates cannot legally be used on passenger cars nor passenger car plates on trucks. Colors are different that fraud may be detected.

4. Passenger cars engnged in carrying passengers for hire cannot be rated as trucks and should not be permitted to use yellow plates.

5. Every car should be compelled to show front and rear license plates. Display of one plate indicates the other is being used on another car.

6. Motorcycles carry but one plate on rear.

7. Every person engaged to drive cars, or making that business a part of his daily vocation is a chauffer, and must be registered. A chauffeur must be eighteen years old.

8. Every driver of cars for hire (owner or not) must be registered as a chauffeur.

9. Dealers must use their plates upon their own cars only, and cannot loan or transfer dealers' plates.

10. Plates cannot be transferred from one car to another, but when cars are transferred, formul transfer of ownership must be made at this department. Transfer fee is $1.

11. One-half of the tax collected goes back to the county from where it originates and all tax is spent for the benefit of the highways.

S. S. MINNESOTA A HOSPITAL SHIP

IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE ON THE ATLANTIC

Steamer Northwest Rebuilt and Taken to Coast for Service

It has just been learned here that the former Northern Michigan Transportation company ship Minnesota, which in summer was on the Chicago-Buffalo passenger run, is now a hospital ship somewhere, either on the Atlantic coast or in British or French waters. The boat was taken from Buffalo, cut in two, taken through the Welland canal, welded together, refitted for salt water, rerigged for a hospital ship and put into the service of the American army.

The hull of the passenger ship Northwest, a sister ship of the Northland of the same fleet, and which was burned of her upper works two years ago in Buffalo, nas been rebuilt, taken to the Atlantic and is also in government service.

The great white passenger ship Northland, which last summer was not taken away from her Buffalo moorings, is also more than likely to be put in the service of the nation for war services when lake navigation opens in the spring.

These ships called in Little Traverse bay and brought summer tourists to Petoskey and the Petoskey summer resorts, Charlevoix, Mackinac and elsewhere. The taking of these paintial boats out of service on the lakes is expected to increase the number of private yachts of size enough to cruise the lakes in comfort. The larger yachts are practically all in government service—Petoskey News.

CLARENCE LOPER SAYS BIG MOVE IS COMING

Daily Inspections, He Thinks Indicate "Something Doing"

Another Charlevoix boy writes from camp. Clarence Loper, writing his mother, Mrs. Charles Loper, here, says in part:

"There is going to be a big move here in a very short time. We have to stand an inspection every day while we are here and that is something no other organization here ever did. We have to take off every bit of our clothes to go through this inspection. Then they have fixed all of our teeth so that we can eat hard tack 'over there,' too.

"Now, mother, do not worry about me. Of course, I suppose you will, but, remember, it is for the country. I am only one small portion of it, but I will do my best to help win this war and that is all anyone can do. So, look on the bright side of it, for I am not going over there thinking I may not come back, for there are all kinds of things told about it and if you believe everything you hear you would go crazy. So, cheer up and take it the best you can. I sure would like to get a furlough just as well as you would like to have me. But you know that when a company is waiting orders, they cannot give furloughs to the men. That's why I am not home now. But, we will look forward to the time when I can get one and come with the country free from war.

"I am sorry it is so cold up there. It is so nice and warm down here."

Mr. Loper is a member of Motor Cycle Co. No. 303, known in the army as "the Hurdlers of Death." He volunteered for the Mexican trouble in 1916.

WAS PICKED TO GO OVERSEAS

"DICK" JARVIS CHOSEN FROM ONE HUNDRED

Goes to London, England, as Morse Operator for the Navy—A Great Lakes Jackie

The following is an extract from a letter written recently by Dick Jarvis from the Great Lakes, Ill., naval training station to his mother, Mrs. Agnes N. Jarvis, of this city, which we publish, feeling that it will be of interest to our readers, especially to thore who are acquainted with the young man:

"I have been lucky enough to get on the next foreign draft. Expect to leave Great Lakes for Philadelphia Thursday and then on to London, England.

"I'm mighty proud to say, mother, that out of 100 Morse operators, I was one of those picked for foreign service. The rest have to serve at home. Could only get a three day furlough, so could not get home and back on account of distance and condition of roads.

"I hope you will look at this from the right standpoint. You know it is just what I have longed for for years. I have gained twenty pounds since I came into this training and am now feeling fine and in the best physical condition I ever have been. They certainly take care of us here.

"In answer to the question, 'do we have to pay for our clothes'—we do not. We have $100 worth of clothing, etc., free. You know what my outfit consisted of (everything) and I still have $20 to my credit. Have not been paid yet, but its good when Uncle Sam gets around to it. Best regards to all. Don't worry.

"H. D. JARVIS."

ONLY A FEW DAYS OF GRACE

COME ACROSS OR BE LISTED AS A DESERTER

County Clerk Lewis Is Stretching the Rules to Give Delinquents Time to File Papers

We have just received from the county clerk a list of the names of registered men who have not, as yet, filed their questionnaires with his office and also those whose papers have been returned to it unclaimed.

To use Mr. Lewis' own words, "We would like to have this list published in the next issue of the paper, so that if the parties themselves, or any of their friends should see their name advertised, they can communicate with the local board and see that their questionnaire is filed so that they would not be placed on the deserters list.

"There is no provision, to my knowledge, made for this kind of printing, but we would like to have this list published so as to give the boys a show to get their questionnaire in and not be listed as deserters.

"It is now past the time that this list should be made up but, unless compelled to do so by the government, we are going to delay a few days to give the boys another chance to file their questionnaire."

So you see, fellows, your local board is playing more than square with you and has your best interests at heart. Buck up now and come across with those papers. Is your name on this list?

VOTES FIVE THOUSAND MORE

STATE REWARD NOW FOOTS UP FORTY THOUSAND

At Government's Request Nothing Will be Done Now on Roads Other Than Trunk Lines

So far, this session they have voted $5,000 additional of federal aid, making the total, with the $35,000 voted last October of $40,000. This issue will not be floated until the state department gives permission and the making of the survey will probably be deferred until some time next fall, as the government is anxious that the strictest economy should be practiced and nothing done in the way of road building except on trunk lines and where repairs are imperative.

Earnest Peaslee has been appointed a committee of one to act in conjunction with the city of Charlevoix

The Battle Cry of Feed 'Em

Yes, we'll rally round the farm, boys
We'll rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of Feed 'Em.
We've got the ships and money
And the best of fighting men,
Shouting the battle cry of Feed 'Em.
The onion forever, the beans and the corn,
Down with the tater—it's up the next morn—
While we rally round the plow boys,
And take the hoe again,
Shouting the battle cry of Feed 'Em.

RUMOR ABSOLUTELY FALSE

RESERVE VOLUNTEERS ARE NOT STRIKE BREAKERS

U. S. Public Service Official Emphatically Denies What Labor Unions Fear They Will Do

At the request of the county enrollment officer, we are publishing the following telegram received by him relative to the attitude taken by the government in regard to members of the United Statee Public Service Reserve, with special application to ship carpentors and their relation to strikes of shipyard workers. It seems that a very false and dangerous impression has become current in labor circles that volunteers of the Reserve are to be used for strike-breaking purposes and this pernicious rumor has already had a serious, deterrent effect upon enlistments in this branch of the service. The following telegram from W. E. Hall, national director of the Public Service Reserve should allay all fears.

Detroit, March 1, 1918.

R. W. Kane, Enrollment Officer for Charlevoix County.
Charlevoix, Mich.

"Please give the following telegram the publicity in your locality it deserves. You have undoubtedly seen in the newspapers the articles concerning the strike of carpenters in one or two of the ship yards. This has resulted in a decided decrease in the number of daily enrollments in the United States Public Service Reserve throughout the entire country. You may announce for the Department of Labor, that at no time will they permit ship yard volunteers of the U. S. Public Service Reserve to be used for strike breaking purposes of any nature whatsoever. This statement is unqualified. The matter is entirely in the control of the Department of Labor. You will notice the instructions concerning the ship yard volunteers that no such volunteer is under any obligation to accept a notification of an opportunity to work in the ship yards unless he is satisfied with all the terms and conditions at the time he receives such notification. The entire voluntary character of the Reserve makes it impossible to use it for strike breaking purposes. Anything you can possibly do to refute the impression that those being enrolled now are to be used as strike breakers should be done and doné at once, as, unless this propaganda is emphatically denied, the country will fall far behind in it's quota desired for ship building.

"W. E. Hall, Nat'l. Dir.
"LYNN,
"Director for Michigan."

Annual Distribution of Plants

For seven years Central Normal has made Arbor Day a day for real planting for many thousands by sending out to schools and others interested about 30,000 walnut trees, 8,000 grape vines, and 4,000 maple trees. These have been sent by parcel post.

The following plants will be distributed this year: Black Walnut trees. These trees are from one to two years old. "A walnut tree on every farm" is our slogan. Concord Grapes. These vines are two years old and have and excellent root system. Silver Maples. These trees are from four to six feet high. There is no question about their growing if properly planted. Spireas. This is one of the prettiest and most hardy shrubs in Michigan. The plants sent out are from two to three feet high.

Orders for plants may be sent to Professor Myron A. Cobb, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

Five hundred thousand more draft men will be called to the colors between now and June 1. Looks as if some of the cantonments are being vacated.

Why He Comes Back

Bill Dix was feeling mighty sore,
He had just come back from the plumbing store.
Says he "I've been to all but one
And all my stuff is on the bum.
My bathtub has refused to fill.
My closet looks like Kaiser Bill.
The closet tank is beyond repair
The valve is whistling funeral airs.

The basin has enamel cracked,
The waste pipe too is out of whack.
Through all the day I am full of fears,
My faucets are all shedding tears.
Right now I am going to try a shot
Where price and quality are not chopped."

"It has now been six months or more
With fear I walk about no more.
For I have found the firm that's right
Now all my work is good and tight.
The Sanitary Engineering Company is the name,
They have made my troubles look right tame.
There are no flaws about their work
Their plumbers too are never shirks.
I am now more than satisfied that theirs is just the place to buy."

What's the name again?

ENGLAND AND LIQUOR

Dr. J. Fort Newton, the breezy Iowan who went to London to fill the City Temple pulpit formerly occupied by Joseph Parker and Reginald J. Campbell, has startled the Britishers out of their self-complacency by his frank fearlessness regarding the drink question. In a recent sermon he made bold to say this:

"On the very day when we were once more warned of threatened starvation, it was decreed that the output of brewery supplies might be increased 20 per cent. That is, when we are on the verge of hunger, food is turned into rum to drug our brains. When I see American boys staggering in the streets, drunk, I hate London. In America, even in those places where liquor is sold, it is a criminal offense to sell it to anyone wearing the uniform of the army and navy. But in London it is not so. Here every opportunity is offered, every trap set to debauch our boys on their way to and from the front. How long will America send foodstuffs to England, only to have it used to make liquor to ruin her boys. It is not fair. Are we to understand that England thinks more of her breweries than she does of her Allies? I wonder if it is really so. But I speak for many millions of people, and should like to make you feel as keenly about this matter as we do."

The "Strength of Britain Movement," an organization which is vigorously fighting the booze business, prints a double column advertisement in the London Times, alleging that while the people are scrimped in sugar to the lowest point, 10,000 tons of sugar a week are being used in brewing beer.

JUST ONE GRAND LOOT

The German advance into Russia is taking on the aspect of a looting foray on a large scale. The Berlin government has evidently decided to strip the country bare of everything of value, no matter what may be the result to the inhabitants. Material of every sort, including food and war munitions, is being gathered up and hurried to the rear for distribution among the people of the Central empires. The invading section will hereafter offer little support to its people and they will presumably be left to starve as the Poles were left to starve after the Teutons first overran the lands.

When the supplies from Russia begin to appear in the Central empires and the stomachs of the Germans have been filled and their backs warmed through the use of the stolen goods, the scruples of the Teutons against wanton invasion of an unresisting and helpless land are likely to diminish and vanish. The rewards of the iniquity will be so welcome that they will stifle conscience. Berlin understands this and unquestionably has been counting on the effect of the sight of large supplies of loot on the now dissatisfied and half hostile populace.

If the Ukrainians are ordinarily wise they will on their part observe with apprehension what is happening to their fellow Slavs. In the fate of the north Russians, they will read a prophecy of their own probable fate. At present they are being left to fatten while supplies for immediate need are being stolen in other quarters; but their turn to suffer will come later, when the Berlin government considers them ready for slaughter.

IS IT "JUST A COLD?"

Charlevoix People Should Ask Themselves This Question

Don't say: "It's just a cold."
It may turn into backache, rheumatic aches, achy joints.
Or other serious sickness that comes from weak kidneys.
Colds are due to congestion.
Congestion makes the kidneys overwork to filter the blood.
Colds often leave the kidneys weak.
First break the cold;
Then use Doan's Kidney Pills to avert the kidney dangers.
Let this Charlevoix resident tell you about them.

Mrs. Albert Lamieur, 704 State St., says: "A heavy cold settled on my kidneys, causing me much suffering. My back got so sore I could hardly get around. Spots appeared before my eyes, blurring my sight; I can never forget how badly I felt. I had dizzy spells also. Mornings I felt more tired than upon retiring. On the advice of a druggist I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and three boxes removed the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lemieur had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Will Germany bore out the guns the Bolshevikl turned over to make them fit Hun ammunition, and will the Huns make ammunition to fit the guns? Here is where Baker's old "war-council" ought to shine.

Last spring it was a problem to get potatoes into the ground. Now it seems to be a greater problem to get them out of the cellars and through the various channels of commerce to the consumer.

If Hindenburg will come close enough to the front line possibly he can get into Paris by April 1, but he will be able to see the sights only through the bars.

The captain of the United States army who was dismissed and sentenced to 25 years imprisonment will have plenty of time to memorize the articles of war.

American soldiers have captured two German officers. However, they will not be crucified as was a Canadian officer captured by the Germans.

"Our invincible army" continues breaking down the defenseless barriers in Russia and looting undefended property.

Why should Germany want to make peace with Russia when she can have more by simply taking it?

Germany is said to have been involved in the recent revolution in Costa Rica. Certainly.

Bolsheviki in Russia appears to be closely related to Boloism in France.

Electric Starter Saves Fuel—Saves Time—Means Profit

Does your driver let his motor run idle when he halts the truck to load or discharge merchandise?

Probably, yes; especially if he must crank by hand, in cold weather.

If so, the money burned up in wasted fuel amounts to an important sum in a year's time.

The driver of a Nash Two Ton Truck soon learns to stop the motor when the truck stops.

Because it is equipped with an electric starting and lighting system he has only to press a foot button to start the engine.

This also means a substantial saving of fuel and money.

Particularly good work was done during the last thaw by the city in the way of creating an outlet for the immense volume of rapidly melting snow. Cutters and traps have been kept clean and trenches dug in the drifts, and even the casual observer can see that there is less water standing in the streets than in past seasons. Every pound that can be used for human consumption is desperately needed

We want your wheat. We also want your Rye and Buckwheat. For Rye we will give you $2.10 per bushel. For Milling Buckwheat we will pay $3.25 per hundred. If you have any buckwheat suitable for seed, we will pay you $3.50 per hundred for that.

If you have any more Spring Rye, Barley, Spelts, or Oats that are fit for seed, than you want yourselves, we will buy it from you and agree to hold it in this neighborhood for use.

That you may save your Rye and use Corn for feeding purposes, we will sell you the Corn at $3.50 per hundred while our present stock lasts.

As a usual thing we do not urge the sowing of spring wheat in this region. But this year every farmer is urged to raise at least enough wheat for his own and his family's consumption. Therefore we have shipped in some Minnesota Spring Wheat for seeding purposes, which we will have on the market in a few days.

PIONEER WOMAN OF BANKS DIED LAST WEEK

Mrs. Joseph Harwood Was Nearly 93 —Born in Cornwall, England

In the death of Mrs. Joseph Harwood, nearly 93 years of age, Banks township has lost one of its oldest residents.

For nearly 50 years, in fact, until the death of her husband in 1911, they lived together on the homestead which they purchased from the government and it was her home for 54 years.

Sarah Morgan was born in Cornwall, England, March 13, 1825, and died at her home in Banks township, February 26, 1918, lacking only fifteen days of reaching the advanced age of 93 years. She was married in England to Joseph Harwood in the year 1857.

Soon after they emigrated to America, settling first in Wisconsin in 1864, they came to Michigan, settling in Banks township. To them were born four children; a girl, Isabel, and a son, Daniel, both of whom died in infancy, and two sons, Albert and Aaron, now living in Banks township.

The deceased was a life long member of the Church of England and was universally liked and respected. The funeral was held Thursday, February 28th from the house, Rev. R. C. Parshall officiating. Interment was in Antrim cemetery on the hillside overlooking Grand Traverse Bay.

The Essenberg auction sale scheduled for March 8th has been postponed until March 11th on account of the former date conflicting with the township caucus.

Mrs. A. L. Ely visited her sister, Miss Emma Brosche at Traverse City over Sunday. Miss Brosche will leave for France this week with a Red Cross unit from Grace Hospital of Detroit.

Several Ellsworth people attended the funeral of Mrs. Harwood last Thursday. Mrs. Harwood was born in England in 1835 and was 93 years, 11 months and 15 days old at the time of her death.

Prospects are good for an almost complete change in township officers for the coming year. F. H. Skow has announced his name as a candidate for supervisor to succeed the present incumbent, H. S. Peebles. Mr. Skow has had plenty of experience in township work and thoroughly understands the duties of the supervisors office. Ethan Jolliffe seems to have a clear field before him for treasurer as the only opposition talked of, C. E. Bearss has decided to withdraw his name. Owing to press of other business D. E. Clow has decided not to enter the field for a second term as clerk, and this office seems to be up to two men, Edd Boss and H. J. Timmer. For highway commissioner the outlook is somewhat on the order of "pay your money and take your choice." George Hiller positively refuses a second term, and the office seems to settle on any one of several, Ike Logue, George Bradford, Frank Foster, Frank Walker and Harry Taylor being among those whose names have been mentioned. D. E. Carpenter's term of office as Justice expires this year and it is an open question as to who will take his place. And above all, don't forget that Friday p. m of this week is the time in which this will be settled. Be sure to be on hand at 2 o'clock sharp.

Auction Sale Postponed

The auction sale of Mrs. J. Essenberg, advertised to be held on Friday, March 8, has been postponed to Monday, March 11, on account of Friday being township caucus day, the sale being in the western part of the township and the caucus in the eastern part, thus making it impossible for many who wished to to attend. Note the change of date and attend the sale.

COMMUNICATIONS

Central Lake, Feb. 2, 1918.

Editor of tha Courier:

Kindly allow me a little space in your paper (Ellsworth section if possible) to give expression to what I bave on my miad.

Our country is involvad in the great World War. It is our duty to be patriotic. In various ways and by various mesns we are urged to show our patriotism, and on the whole, we, as a people, aro respond-ing nobly.

One of the means to foster patriot-ism is the press. The Courier as a community paper is alao trying to do its mite to urge loyalty to our colors. But is it really fostering n truly patriotic spirit when it publish-es sucb articles as "Tha Kaiaer a Prayer" of recent dato and "The Ksiser's Prayer Answered" in the issue of February 20th? I, among others fail to see it, even though some may call it great. It grieved me to read such things. Why? Be-causa it is abusing something sac-red, namely tha name of God and prayer. The latter is tho only means of communing with God; it is as it were, the telephone through which wo speak to God and He to us. Henca sacred to the child of God. Can we think of the Kaiser even dreaming of auch a prayer, or of God giving sucb an snswer? Is it not ratber a mocking of God?

Our times are too serious for such things. In theso dark daya we especially need to pray. We are called a Christian nation. Since prayer is one of tbe chief character-listica of a child of God, ought it not also to ba such of the inhabitant of a Christian nation? Sbould we then jest with prayer?

In my considcration, be is truly patriotic, who, as a conscientious citizen, does his duty as he is called upon; remembers in prayer bofore God our president and tbose in au-thority over us; our soldiers where-ever they may be; the welfare nf our country and our homes, and in Christian love our enemies. Such lovers of our country wc aced and our nation desires, as is evident from our President'a Thanksgiving procla-mation.

Let us in this vital hour cherish such a devotion to our country. Let us rather help by means of tho press and othewirse to educate to a true patriotism. Let us instil the right spirit of loyalty into our country snd community; not by imagining vnin things about the enemy and by nbusing things sacred, but by pointiag out to us our duties and privileges as a christian eitizen in this time of war.

I am interested in the "Courier" as a paper seeking the welfaro of tha community aa a whole—henea this article.

Thanking you for the space, I am respectfully,

J. D. PICKART.

(We understand the view point of our coatributor in tha above article and are inclined to sympathize with him in a feeling, natural to a "man of tha cloth," that things sacred should be reverencad. We believe bim to be sincere and inspired by tha promptings of an honest conscience in his criticism. Perhaps, nmong our fun-loving people, who seo the humorous in averything, good, bad or indifferent, if thera ba ever so little to find, this reverential attituda is not as strong as it should be.

If the above were the only criti-cism that we have heard on the var-lous "Kaiser" poems thot we have published la our columns, wa should be willing to accept his censure meek-ly and excuse ourselves by saying "everybody's doing it." But other "murmurings" have come to our ears, and of such a nature that we are suspicioua, in tbeir case, at least, that the matter goes deeper than mere religious scruples out-raged.

We cannot, tberefore, resist the temptation of using this opportunity to point out that the shock of read-ing the "Kaiser" articles is dnubt-less great to those misguided few in this country, as elsewhere, who ba-lieve that "Gott" is "Mit Uns" and the espccial backer of that prodigy of more than human infamy who sits on the throne of a hostile country and, distainful of the distinctions and classifications of the Almighty, holds himself to be not a little low-er but a little higher than the angels. Hia name, whlle ss sacred aa God, church and prayer to these people, should be and is "a hissing and a by-word among the nations," and a stench in the nostrils of every honest Christian citizen of this country. To tho latter, he seems a creature, devil-ridden, inspired by motives that a beast would shame to own nnd endowed with more malig-nant characteristics thon Sntan him-self. It is no wonder then that the "Deutschland Uber U. S." bunch in this region of staunen Yankees should feel some qualms of con-scienco when they read the funny things we say about their cherished idol, which merely serve to empha-size their lonely and altogether ua-enviable position.

If any of the Kaiser'a good friends in Charlevoix and Antrim county care to say a word in his defense, let them say it now. Surely, outraga enough has been done in these col-umns to the sancity of his "holy" name to warrant a few, feeble pro-tests, at least.—Ed.)

22 Million Families in the United States

4 CUPS OF WHEAT FLOUR TO THE POUND

If each family used 4 cups of flour less per week, the saving would be 22 million pounds or 112,244 barrels every week.

The greatest help housekeepers can give to win the war is to make this saving and it can be done by using this recipe in place of white flour bread.

Corn Meal Biscuits

½ cup scalded milk	½ teaspoon salt
1 cup corn meal	1 cup white flour
2 tablespoons shortening	4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

Save ¼ cup of the measured flour for board. Pour milk over corn meal, add shortening and salt. When cold, add sifted flour and baking powder. Roll out lightly on floured board. Cut with biscuit cutter and bake in greased pan fifteen to twenty minutes.

FOILED GERMAN PLOTTING

KAISER FAILED TO ALIENATE ITALY FROM U. S.

Red Cross Work In That Country Spoiled Effects of Wily German Propaganda

How the American Red Cross foiled German propaganda in Italy and changed the attitude of the people of that country from hostility to friendliness for the United States is one of the most important and interesting achievements of this humanitarian agency.

The Red Cross, of course, does not include the foiling of enemy propaganda in its aims directly. What happened in Italy came about as a by-product of the regular Red Cross relief work. German and Austrian spies had spread reports throughout Italy at the time of the retreat of the Italian army, that the United States was indifferent to the fate of Italy.

But when the Red Cross arrived and began feeding the hungry, ministering to the sick, housing the homeless, clothing the naked and otherwise relieving distress, the Italian people got an entirely new viewpoint and the German propaganda was nipped in the bud.

Now the people of Italy love the United States and henceforth it does not seem likely that German cunning can devise any lies and so sugar coat them as to induce the Italian people to swallow them to the detriment of the United States.

The Red Cross in relieving suffering in Italy and other allied nations is building future peace among nations and creating for the United States a good will which will work out for the benefit of generations yet unborn.

FRENCH DETERMINED TO MEET FOOD SITUATION

Expect 40,000,00 Bushels More Wheat This Year Than Last

France, without a "bumper" crop of corn to fall back on is making a brave effort to increase a yield of other foodstuffs and there are now the first signs that the effort is producing results.

Nearly a million more acres of wheat were sown last fall than in 1916, according to recently compiled statistics. With ordinary good luck this means nearly 20,000,000 bushels more of wheat. Spring seeding this year may exceed that of 1917 by nearly the same extent which will bring the French wheat crop this year up to forty million bushels more than that of last year. The bread card, taking effect January 29th was intended to save from food consumption the million bushels required for the extended seeding.

M. Compere-Morel Commissary of Agriculture, charged with the extension of seeding, has already divided 600,000 bushels of Manitoba wheat among farmers. He is confident important gains will be made in the crop of 1918.

The decision of the French Food Minister to "issue cards regulating the distribution of bread to three hundred gramms (about 11 ounces) a day is causing much comment. Some criticise others approve but the concensus of opinion may be summed up in a good natured remark of a morning paper which says "that for one man who dies of starvation there are a hundred who succumb to indigestion."

Generally however, the press seem to adopt a very serious point of view of the innovation. The French are notoriously the greatest bread eaters in the world and much doubt is expressed as to the ration of a little over half a pound per day being sufficient.

France has another "Commissary of Agriculture," Monsieur Le Rouzie, deputy from the department of Morthan, who is sometimes called the "Potato Distributor." He is charged by the Ministry of Agriculture with direct supervision of planting with reference more especially to vegetables. He is trying to increase the production of beans as well as potatoes, and is especially encouraging the planting of topinnambours or Jerusalem artichokes. The topinambour plant is about as hardy as a goat; it will thrive in poorly cultivated and slightly fertilized soil and is strong enough to throttle any weeds that tries to encroach upon it.

The season will furnish interesting experiment in this comparatively new food product as a large acreage will be planted for the first time.

HER EFFORTS MET WITH GRATITUDE

Soldier Writes Appreciatively to Miss Adeline Holly

We reprint the following interesting item from the St. Augustine Evening Record, of St. Augustine, Fla., appearing in their issue of February 14th last: "Miss Adeline Holley, a sister of Mrs. J. S. Baker, proprietor of the Hotel Granada, who has been knitting busily for the Red Cross, inserted her card in several pairs of socks which she knitted for army lads. These socks it seems, were sent with a shipment which went from the Knitting Division of the St. Johns County Chapter, American Red Cross, to Camp Grant, at Rockford, Ill., for Miss Holley has receeived threo very grateful letters from soldiers in this camp who received socks bearing her name and address. That the soldiers are more than approciative of the kindness and the thoughtfulness of the women who are knitting is evidenced from the sincerity of the letters, as is also the fact that the warm, handknitted articles prove a genuine comfort to the men. One of the lads writes 'The boys are grateful to the ladies of the country who are knitting for them. We don't get much time to write, but what we do write, we mean." This same chap, a Southern lad, declares, "You can imagine how deep the snow is when it has today taken me three hours to drive three miles. Every time I go out I have to take a few shovels with me. I've seen enough snow to last me the rest of my days, and when this little fight is over, I am going back South, where we have summer weather at lenst six months in the year.' "

ARE YOU SUBJECT TO INCOME TAX LAW

If Your Income is Taxable Do Not Wait to be Notified

If your income is taxable—and it must be a modest one to escape taxation under the War Revenue Act of October 3, 1017—don't wait to be notified that you must pay an income tax. The government is not required to seek the taxpayer. The taxpayer must seek the government.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has extended the time for filing income and excess profits returns from March 1 to April 1, 1918. You may file your return any time before April 1, but if you wait until April 2, you are subject to a fine of not less than $20 nor more than $1,000 and an additional assessment of 50 per cent of the amount of tax due.

Returns are required of every unmarried person—man or woman—whose net income for the calendar year 1917 was $1,000 or more and of every married person whose net income was $2,000 or more.

The rate of tax is at least 2 per cent on net incomes of unmarried persons in excess of $1,000 and on net incomes of married persons in excess of $2,000. Payment must be made on or before June 15, 1918.

The estimated revenue to be collected this year under the War Revenue Act is $2,500,000,000 of which $666,000,000 is in individual income taxes. Last year 500,000 persons paid income taxes; this year it is estimated the number will be more than 6,000,000. If you are one of them, remember that your dollars are for the support of the war. By promptly filing your return and promptly paying your tax you are helping the government to early victory. Pay your income tax in the same spirit in which you bought your Liberty bond. The proceeds are for the same purpose—to make the world safe for democracy.

LT. HAMPTON PRAISES WORK OF RED CROSS

Thinks Folks at Home Would Wake Up and Help More if They Knew Conditions

Will E. Hampton received two additional letters from his son Lt. Victor H. Hampton, now with the Expeditionary Forces in France, last week. One is dated Feb. 10th and one Feb. 17th, and both arrived in the same mail. With the personal paragraphs eliminated, they are printed below. It will be seen that he commends very highly the work of the American Red Cross, and it ought to induce a lot of Charlevoix women, for whom and for whose sons and daughters, our soldier boys are making the supreme sacrifice, to wake up and think of something else besides clubs, cards and chatter. The local Red Cross unit needs workers badly. There are a few faithful ones trying to do the work that hundreds should be helping to do. It is not enough to stay at home and knit. That is very good, but what is wanted is work in the Red Cross room itself. Will the women wake up? Or will it take a death in their own family, due to this war, to make them realize that the very life of the nation is at stake?

A. E. F., France,
February 10, 1918.

"Dear Folks at Home:

"Am sitting on my trunk, tablet on my knees, writing this by candle light. It is a beautiful starlight night, but a trifle chilly, as it usually is here evenings. You should see this room that I occupy with seven others. It has a fireplace, (which we are not allowed to use) with a mantel of marble and a large square looking glass which is quite a convenience. Closets at both ends of the room are also convenient. Some of the boys are not so lucky in their room assignments. Our beds are bunks, built up of slats and double-tiered, thus making room for twice as many. They make fairly good beds, with the use of the bedding roll.

"As I told you, we are quartered in an old convent, dating about 1650 A. D. It is a two story stone building in the form of a rectangle, with one short end gone. The stairs and most of the floors are stone. Halls go winding in and about and it is quite a job to keep your bearings on a dark night, although with my flash light I get along fairly well. Funny old cast iron bells are hung in different places, and most every room has a large mirror, and some have three or four, which shows that the nuns were vain as well as holy. A large yard of about five acres surrounds the building, and a stream of pure, clear water winds its way through the grounds. An orchard and an ancient pool, as well as numerous trees and shrubs add to the beauty of the place. As in all of France, a high stone wall surrounds the place. It seems to me that France is a network of walls. They line every street and alley, as well as surround the houses, and once in a while go wandering off in no particular direction at all.

"We arrived in France January 31st, and after two nights at a rest camp, to which we proceeded after disembarking, boarded a train early one morning. We had first class coaches attached to a freight and troop train, which made our progress slow and subject to numerous halts. Over here supplies and freight take precedence over all else, consequently we were on the train for two nights and three days before arriving at our final destination. I was fairly tired and some dirty when we reached camp, but some good American "chow" and a wash, with a little sleep put me right again.

"I saw some very interesting sights and quite a good deal of the country. Saw some of the battlefields of the early days of the war, which were easily detected by the crosses marking the graves of soldiers killed there, as well as the effects of artillery fire on the buildings in different places. But the country otherwise does not show any signs of the struggle, as it does in other parts of France where whole towns have been razed to the earth. On the contrary, everywhere is seen signs of thrift and good husbandry, and except for people in mourning, soldiers, army supplies, and the absence of young men except those in uniform, you would not know there was a war on. In fact, in some places everything is as quiet as a Canadian Sunday.

"After arriving and reporting we were assigned to quarters and took up our duties without delay. Time is everything and we make the most of every minute. The place where I am situated is near a small French town located on a beautiful and famous river. The town is very ancient, and I don't suppose has changed to any extent in years and years. There are many interesting spots. I visited one today. My bunkie and I walked up to the ruins of an old castle, which has two turrets still standing. It is built on the top of a huge hill of solid rock, reached by a stone stairway. The old kitchen and two of the towers are still standing, and we climbed on top of one, thus gaining a wonderful view of the surrounding country. Underneath one of the towers is a secret passage over a mile in length. The rest of the castle has long ago crumbled away, and the court, or central part there of is a cemetery, in which several famous personages are sleeping the last sleep. A very pretty church of more modern construction but still very old, now stands at one end of the rocky promontory. Its architecture is very pretty and the inside, with its carved altar and huge candles is a treat to gaze upon. After looking all around we made our way down a winding path lined with trees, like our pines, covered with ivy and moss, forming a sort of tunnel, until we came to the river bank, along which is a promenade. It is very beautiful. The road is lined with great trees; on one side is the clear river with its mossy green bottom, while on the other great high

CHARLEVOIX TO HAVE "MIDWAY"

CHARLEVOIX AMUSEMENT CO. WILL PROVIDE FEATURES

Lots on Clinton Street to Take on Appearance of the Famous Coney Island

Ground was broken last week on the Green property across from the State Bank for the new theatre and some of the material for the foundation is already on the grounds.

W. A. Stoddard and his associates in the theatre project have incorporated under the name of the Charlevoix Amusement Company, and have secured concessions from the city authorities for various forms of amusement which they intend to feature from time to time during the summer. Such popular fun producers as doll and polar bear racks, bowling alleys, merry-go-round or carousal, ferris wheel, shooting gallery, candy wheel, candy floss, etc., will help to make a little Midway Plaisance where many an idle hour may be pleasantly whiled away.

The vacant lots back of the County Bank building and fronting on Clinton street will be leased and devoted to at least two of the amusement features which will require the most room, possibly the Ferris wheel and the baseball machine.

Operations will begin sometime between the 15th and the last of May and June 1st will probably see the "Streets of Cairo" running full blast.

PYTHIAN LEAGUE PLANS MEETING

Annual Convention to be Held in East Jordan This Year

Plans are under way for the annual meeting and contests of the Northern Michigan Pythian league, composed of Knights of Pythias lodges from Petoskey, Harbor Springs, Cheboygan, Charlevoix, East Jordan, Gadillac, Traverse City, Manistee and all of the other Northern Michigan lodges of this order.

This year the league will hold its annual convention at East Jordan as guests of East Jordan lodge. That city has arranged to give the visiting Knights a royal welcome. It is likely that the city opera house will be used in which to put on the work of the degrees by the contesting first and third degree teams.

PROUD TO WEAR THE OVERALLS

FINDS KITCHEN POLICE DUTY NOT SO BAD

Forrest Fowler Writes That Type of Men in Aviation Corps Is a Revelation to Him

Here is another letter from one of our boys who has volunteered to help Uncle Sam clean up on the "sacred" kaiser. Forrest Fowler, who enlisted with Ted Kibbe in the signal corps of the aviation unit on the 23rd of February writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fowler, from Columbus Barracks, Columbus, Ohio. The following is an extract from his letter.

"I am now at the Y. M. C. A. It is a trifle difficult to write, as there is a religious meeting on now, but it is a good thing and does not bother, only that it is hard to keep my mind on what I am writing instead of listening to what the speaker is saying, for he is very good.

"I want to say right now, dear parents, that no one can say too much good of the Y. M. C. A. for the boys. I say boys, because whether 18 or 40, we speak of each other as boys; but, on the other hand, we are always addressed by the officers as men.

"For about eight days I will get little opportunity to write, as I have joined the royal order of K. P.'s—don't get alarmed, as what it really means is "kitchen police." That is the job (with the exception of cooking) of feeding the three thousand boys here wearing the olive drab, in a single mess hall. This job is a part of every recruits training, unless he is immediately entrained for the south. I am as proud of wearing the dark blue overalls over my uniform all day, from 5:30 a. m. and doing the same unpleasant tasks that come up during the day's work, as I ever was in my best civilian clothes, and then some. I do not feel this alone, as it is the spirit of every man in the service and especially in a camp of this type, where every man is a volunteer.

"The final examination took five hours to go through, on one's feet continually and always moving on from one man to another, each an expert on the organ or parts of you examined. I would give anything if you could drop into this camp and see the type of boys (or men in civilian talk). They would amaze you as they did me—men from every walk of good, clean work and life, and that, combined with being physically perfect is sure great.

"Knowing the many unpleasant fentures of army life I now know, if I had to do it over I would not wait until tomorrow to enlist with the cause of the good old U. S. A. and humanity, but would do it tonight.

"The 'eats' are good and plenty of them, but no one is allowed to waste, as you must leave a clean plate. The three rules of the army are cleanliness, punctuality and obedience. Army standards are high. Don't worry, folks, for we are well taken care of.

Your loving son,
"FORREST."

Mr. Fowler is only eighteen years of age and while not included in the draft felt the urge to "get in the game" and deserves much credit, along with the thousands of other young fellows who were bound to go, draft or no draft. In a telegram received Monday by his parents, he states that he and Ted Kibbe left Sunday night for Kelly Field, Texas, near San Antonio, which will be his address for the present.

DOVE FLIES AT PETOSKEY'S PATRIOTIC MEETING

Congregation of M. E. Church Assembles 800—Honor Patriots

That the spirit of patriotism is very much alive in Petoskey was evidenced Sunday morning, March 3rd at the Methodist Sunday school when 800 persons filled the spacious auditorium of the Methodist church to pay tribute to 57 members of that Sunday school and church who have gone to serve their country upon the battlefields of Europe. The church was decorated with the national colors and a life sized portrait of George Washington was displayed in front of the pulpit.

Following the opening exercises of the school and special selections from Professor McCollum's orchestra, W. G. McGuno, superintendent, called the names of the young men, the parents and near relatives rising as the names were called; after which the audience rose and softly sang the words:

"God save our noble men,
Send them safe home again,
God save our men.
Keep them victorious,
Patient and chivalrous,
They are so dear to us,
God save our men."

At this tender and sacred moment a very suggestive episode happened which was not included in the program. A beautiful white dove flew into the church, circled around the audience a few times and then flew out. As the dove is symbolical of peace, the inference is obvious.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN IN APRIL

COUNTY'S QUOTA IS $350,000 DOLLARS

Six Billion Dollars Must be Raised to Beat the Hun and Every Loyal Citizen Will Help

We are publishing the following communication at the request of the county war committee, of which R. W. Kane of this city is the chairman:

"To the citizens of Charlevoix County:

"The campaign for subscriptions to the third Liberty Loan calling for six billions of dollars will be launched April 6th next. The quota of Charlevoix county will be a little less than $350,000. And we must raise it.

"The work of organizing the county for the drive is under way and will be pushed energetically to completion. A number of people in each township and ward will be called on to assist, and all will be asked to subscribe. 'And there's no retreat from the war.'

"So good people, get ready for a glad response to this our country's call. Let the result demonstrate that the patriotism of Charlevoix county is not confined to words but delights in deeds, and is vigorous enough to sustain every strain that can be placed on it. So, now, for a strong pull, a steady pull, and a pull altogether, until we extract those 350,000 shining dollars from our pockets and place them in the capacious pocket of Uncle Sam.

"Yours to win,

VICTIM OF FIERCE STORM

BAY SHORE MAN FOUND FROZEN FAR FROM SHORE

George VanSchoick Wanders Ten Miles Out on Lake Michigan—Death Overtakes Him

George VanSchoick, of Bay Shore was a victim of last Saturday's fierce nor'easter.

He was found out on the lake, ten miles from shore late Sunday afternoon, lying on his little sled and frozen stiff and stark.

VanScholck, who was a man about sixty-seven years of age, had a fish shanty near the shore, but Saturday he secured permission from a man who owned a shanty located about five miles out on the ice to use the building that afternoon. He was warned by his friends, in case of a storm, not to attempt to return, as they feared that he would succumb on account of his advanced age and the fact that he had been ill for several days previous.

Mr. VanSchoick started out to fish in the morning, and when the storm became bad at about 2:30 p. m., he had evidently started home. A man by the name of White, who was fishing about a half mile farther out, started back to shore and passed Van Schoick's shanty at about half past three, finding it locked and the old man gone. The fire was out, showing that he had started some considerable time before. Thinking nothing of this, White continued on to shore, as several others had been fishing in that vicinity and, as he thought, the old man had probably returned with them.

After several hours, the town became alarmed and late that evening a searching party started out but could find no trace of the missing man. They gave it up for the night, but Sunday morning the search was renewed, about fifty men going out, some of them on horseback. Believing that the man had wandered with the wind, the searching party continued on west from the fishing ground.

At about three o'clock Sunday afternoon people on the hills back of Bay Shore, watching with field glasses, noticed the searchers gathering in one party and knew that some trace of Van Schoick had been discovered. The party arrived back at Bay Shore at about five o'clock, bringing the body, which they had found fully ten miles from shore and five miles beyond the shanty he had occupied.

When found the body was lying flat on the sled, which was headed towards the shore. The old man had evidently wandered around in a circle through the deep snow until exhausted, being unable through the blinding storm to see more than a few feet ahead, and had possibly been roaming around all night. Sitting down on his sled for a few minutes rest, the paralyzing sleep induced by the intense cold came upon him and his fishing excursions were ended forever.

Coroner B. Dunham of Charlevoix was summoned Sunday evening but was unable to leave for Bay Shore until Monday morning, when he, accompanied by Sheriff Novak took the belated north bound train. His verdict was death by freezing, the only possible conclusion.

Mr. VanSchoick was one of the early residents of the Bay Shore region, having come there and settled on a farm nearly forty years ago. Recently, he sold his farm and moved into the village of Bay Shore. Besides the widow, he leaves one son, Frank VanSchoick of Flint.

MARY WAS SURPRISED

Potluck In Her Honor Friday Night Much Enjoyed

Last Friday evening at about six o'clock, sixteen of her girl friends walked in for a surpriss pot luck supper on Mary Groenink at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bergmann. The supper was fine and everybody enjoyed the time spent with the hostess. That young lady was considerably surprised.

The township caucus held last Thursday resulted in nomination of supervisor, Ernest Peaslee; clerk, E. H. Burgesa; treaaurer, A. G. Tillotson; commissioner, Robert Anderson, justice, E. E. Stroud.

This community was shocked on hearing Sunday that George VanSchoick of Bay Shore went out fishing Saturday morning and had not returned and everyhody wae out aeaching for him. Mr. VanScholck ia a pioneer resident, having come here and hought a farm near Bay Shore In May, 1880 which he sold a few years ago and aince haa lived in Bay Shore. We can only hope he is found safe somewhere, hut when we think of tha fury of the storm and the man'a age and endurance it seema like hoping against hope. (Newa of Mr. Van Schoick'a death appears in another column.)

The town hoard met Saturday to discuss the propoaition of moving the town hall. The question is where can it he moved? To the center of the township or to another corner. Our legislature changed the annual school meeting from Septemher to July and Misa Stewart is having the Teachers' Institute changed from January to October. Why not wait until the ladies vote and they will petition the legislature to change the annunl town meeting from April to Novemher in hopes that snowdrifts will not interfere with travel In November, at least everyone owning a "Henry" could get there, irrespective of where the town hall was located.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to ha constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmoet to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid atomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

The Honor Roll of the County Teaching Force contains eight names with more possibly to be added this week. The list was sent to the Moderator Topics this week at the request of H. R. Pattangill.

April 4, 1918—the centennial of the final making of our flag. It was on April 4, 1818 that the law remaking the flag, taking it back to the original 13 stripes, was enacted. The same law provided that we have a new star for every new state, such star to be added to the union on the 4th of July succeeding the entrance of the state to the union.

The commissioner finds in making out her month summary that in February $16.20 was spent for postage. If she had not realized it before she might know from this that she had indeed been busy, and not an examination month altner.

Supt. F. L. Kesler of Lansing asked for a report on teachers' training in this county in ONE and TWO room schools. The following conditions were found to exist and were reported to the state: Number of teachers employed in one and two room schools, 68; Per cent of such teachers having at least one year of normal training, 62 per cent; Those having had at least one year in state normals, 14 per cent; Those having had at least one year of county normal training, 48 per cent; Those having had any normal training, 96 per cent; Those having had no normal training whatever, 4 per cent.

Miss Fineout reports that she had to give a few extra more difficult questions at time of midyear tests. The questions the commissioner sent out were not hard enough for her girls.

To the many teachers asking "What can we do to help in the Red Cross work," the commissioner wishes to say that she is this week preparing a list of suggestions abridging the manual sent out and with explanations on points not previously clear. Busy work? This has always been a question. We can solve it now and teach true citizenship at the same time. Remember, teachers, that children are not to bring the Junior Red Cross money from home. This is against state rules. It must be raised in a democratic manner that gives joy of service to all and brings pain to none.

Supt. Straight of Boyne Falls has resigned. He says he is to enter the band for U. S. A. but rumor has it that he has been shot by Cupid's arrows. The two are not necessarily conflicting. At the present time no one has been found to fill the position.

Attendance letters, school surveys, leters to school officers and letters to teachers are in the printer's hands this week.

The long looked for Round Table Pamphlet will be ready in about ten days. It contains some choice reading for teacher's winter evening.

RED CROSS

Seventeen pneumonia jackets and seventeen irrigation pads is the quota given to Charlevoix for this month.

We must have more workers to complete this work. Let all the women who possibly can, come and keep up this necessary work.

The donors this week are Mrs. Frazier, Mrs. Agnes Jarvis and the Congregational Sunday school class —the Champions.

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Fifty thousand benefited people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 50,000 tongues sound glad tidings to any Charlevoix sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Charlevoix case. Don't experiment Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

Barney Herington, cement contractor, 108 W. Garfield Ave., says: "About eight years ago my back gave out on me. It became so lame and sore I could hardly bend over and when I did, sharp, knife-like pains caught me in my back and I could hardly straighten up. My kidneys were not acting regularly. As I had often read about Doan's Kidney Pills I tried them and three boxes cured me and fixed me up in good shape. Since then when I have had to use a kidney medicine, Doan's Kidney Pills have always done good work."

A fund of a million and a half dollars was raised last September to build Camp Library Buildings at thirty-four camps, equip them, provide library service and to purchase such books as are not given. The buildings are finished and the libraries are being actively used.

All sorts of books are in demond. Non-fiction is called for as much as fiction. The libraries need books of reference; books on the war, books on the trades, technical and professional subjects, recent textbooks in mathematics, civil, mechanical and electric engineering; books of new and standard poetry, biography, history and travel. Also books in foreign languages.

Please go to your book shelves, select as many good books as you can spare; wrap and send them to the library or telephone 157.

HOW

To Have Flowers Blooming Indoors All Winter Long

If people living in cities knew how easily they might have flowers blooming all winter every home would be cheered by these loveliest of decorations. The requisite articles are one or more boxes, a sprayer, some good soil and the plants.

The box should be about eight inches deep by two wide and of any required length. The material may be pottery, which is handsome, but somewhat expensive, or iron with false bottom for drainage. Wooden boxes are as good as any if painted inside and out with two coats of some neutral color. Place in the bottom of the box an inch or two of coarse stones, broken pottery, etc., to facilitate drainage.

A tin pan to set the box in will keep the brackets neat. It can be secured from a tinsmith.

The box can be mounted on brackets or on a portable stand; the latter is preferable because it permits the box to be moved easily from room to room for spraying and also to be turned with its best side outward.

The chief difficulty with house plants is lack of moisture. However, if the plants are well soaked once a week by placing the boxes on their sides in a bathtub of warm water for ten minutes the roots will have sufficient moisture, and by spraying the foliage well with water every other day and occasionally with kerosene emulsion the plants will be free from insects.

Obtain a good top soil from a florist. Make four inch pots from strong brown paper and put a plant in each pot, filling the pot with soil. Put two inches of soil in the bottom of the window box over the broken pottery, place the potted plants on this bed of earth and pack the space between the pots with soft soil and moss. This helps to retain the moisture and keeps the soil damp.

Satisfactory plants for winter blooming are cyclamens, geraniums, heliotropes, flowering maples, calias, tulips, primuls malacoides, narcissi, etc.

Some good climbing plants are English and German ivy, cobaea, Japanese hops, smilax and manetta vine.

When plants are wanted for winter blooming they must not be allowed to bloom through the summer; their buds during this season must be pinched off as fast as they appear.

A few plants drooping over the front improve the appearance of the box. Tradescantia, English ivy, sweet alyssum and maherula odorata are a few that are suitable for this purpose.

The only care plants need aside from spraying, which is very important, and soaking is a fairly even temperature, from 60 to 65 degrees in daytime and not less than 50 degrees at night. If weather is very cold cover them at night with a few newspapers. Admit air on mild days, but remove plants to some distance while windows are open.

PLANTING LILIES.

Why and How They Should Be Planted in the Fall.

Most lilies do best planted in the autumn. If left until spring the planting is very likely to be done too late in the season.

It pays to take pains in making a lily bed, and if best results are wanted for small beds remove eighteen inches of soil. Turn over the bottom of the bed with a garden fork and cover this soil with six inches of the good topsoil. On the topsoil spread two inches of dried sheep or stable manure sold by seedsmen. Turn this over with a garden fork so as to thoroughly incorporate the manure and layer of topsoil, leveling it with a rake. This done, cover the whole evenly with six inches of coarse sand. Place the lily bulbs on the sand, setting them a foot or more apart each way.

When the bulbs are all in position cover them to a depth of six inches with soil. Never use manure so it will come in contact with the bulbs.

"Of all the thousands of patients I have seen in bed I have never met with one who arranged his pillows hygienically," said an eminent doctor. "All too high, far too high. High pillows curve the spine, bend the neck and thus prevent the free circulation of blood in the brain. You can never get the full value out of a night's sleep unless you fix your pillow so low that the head and neck are just on a level line with the spine."

How to Get a True Bias Without Too Much Fussing.

To obtain a true bias place the material flat on the cutting table and with a ruler or a yardstick laid across one corner draw a line with chalk or colored pencil. Use this line for a guide in cutting.

Why He Comes Back

Bill Dix was feeling mighty sore,
He had just come back from the plumbing store.
Says he "I've been to all but one
And all my stuff is on the bum.
My bathtub has refused to fill.
My closet looks like Kaiser Bill.
The closet tank is beyond repair
The valve is whistling funeral airs.

The basin has enamel cracked,
The waste pipe too is out of whack.
Through all the day I am full of fears,
My faucets are all shedding tears.
Right now I am going to try a shot
Where price and quality are not chopped."

"It has now been six months or more
With fear I walk about no more.
For I have found the firm that's right
Now all my work is good and tight.
The Sanitary Engineering Company is the name,
They have made my troubles look right tame.
There are no flaws about their work
Their plumbers too are never shirks.
I am now more than satisfied that theirs is just the place to buy."

What's the name again?

WHAT IS A PRO-GERMAN?

A pro-German is anyone who stands in the way of our successful prosecution of the war. Every word that falls from the tongue of any American or is written by him carries with it a responsibility greater than ever existed in the history of this nation. Look well to what you say or do.

Germany has in this country hundreds of papers printed in German tongue. Whether this ought to be or not is a grave question.

These and other papers and many individuals say they are for America, but none of them say they are against Germany.

He who is for us is against Germany. He who is not against Germany, tooth and nail, in this war is not for America.

You can tell the pro-German by another test: If he is against France, or against Italy, or against Russia he is pro-German.

The armies and navies of these powers are fighting our fight. They are dying by thousands every day to make the world safe for democracy. If we win we must win because they do most of the fighting and dying, while we only do some of it.

The enemy of Italy is against America.

The enemy of France is lost to every claim of patriotism.

Do not let these pro-Germans poison the atmosphere by slandering our allies without challenge. It is time to call down the man who fights against our armies with tongue or pen, no matter what flag those armies are fighting under.

DETROIT MAY DECIDE THE WAR

It is not an improbability that the fleet of submarine detectors and chasers to be built on the River Rouge by Henry Ford will be the deciding factor in the world war. This dramatic contingency rests of course upon the hypothesis that the war will be fought to a finish and will not be terminated by a peace of negotiation and understanding.

The vast preponderance of men and resources is with the enemies of the central powers. The only question is that of bringing that preponderance to bear. To accomplish this the submarine menace must be overcome that the vast aggregation of shipping now being built may be used to the utmost of its efficiency. Hence, the victory over the submarine of the thousand ships Henry Ford is to build may be the deciding factor.

New York Owner Will Coovert Hulk Ioto Sea-Going Tug

Captain Jerry J. McCambridga, of New York City has purchased tha charred hulk of the steamer Columbia from the Beaver Island Tranaportation Company and will convert her into an ocean going tug for coastwise service.

Charlevoix people will remember the disastrous fire last fall that destroyed tha See coal docks and the Columbia, then newly fitted out for the Beaver Island run. Little was left of the steamer but the hull and the badly twisted machinery it contained.

Captain McCambridge plans to rebuild her completely whera aha lies at her pier in Round Lake, revamping and repairing the machinery, putting in new deck beams and stringers and fitting her out generally for service. She will, when completed, be taken through the Welland canal to the coast and receive her new baptism in the salt seas of the Atlantic. FISH SPEAR IN SHANTY BRINGS JAIL TERM

Aged Step-father, Gag Didn't Go In Court

Roy Parks of East Jordan, who was arrested December 23rd for having a fish spear in his shanty on the ice in the South Arm, is now in the jail here, serving a thirty day aentenca.

When arraigned in the justice court, he plead guilty and was fined $5 and costs, which he refused to pay, giving as his reason that he needed the money for the support of his aged step-father, a war veteran, who was dependent upon him. The prosecuting attorney had decided to recommend him for suspended sentence, but decided to look into the matter a little further.

Investigation disclosed the fact that the aged stepfather plea was akin to the office boy's dead grandmother gag in the baseball season, and he was promptly sentenced to s term in jail to serve as a warning to future offenders.

SUNOAY SCHOOL CLASS ENJOYS A SLEIGH RIDE

None-Such Class of M. E. Church Visits Meggison Homa

The Non Such class of the M. E. Sunday school enjoyed a sleigh ride party to the George Meggison home Wednesday evening, March 6th. The night was an ideal one for the ride, yet the party were glad to reach their destination when they were cordially welcomed by the Meggison and Walter Black families.

Games were enjoyed until refreshments were served. The sandwiches, coffee and wafers disappeared like the proverbial dew before the sun, but when the Mesdames Meggison and Black served their delicious home made ice cream the visitors just had to go slow and taste it as long as possible and when they have forgotten how inconvenient it is to have feet on a sleigh ride and how hard it is to become acquainted with "Toledo" they will still remember the indescribable flavor of that ice cream.

A powderless machine gun which will fire from ten to fifty bullets a second, the invention of two Massachusetts men, showed unusual power when tested at the Wakefield rifle range, Boston. Three-eights inch boiler plate was pierced at one hundred yards and a two-inch door at the same distance proved no obstacle to the bullets. The basis of the gun is a disc revolving at high speed which throws the bullets off with terrific force as they are feed onto it from a hopper. The gun was operated by electricity, but in the next test, it is said steam will be used to give more power.

Mrs. Budd Pettyjohn insisted there was either a bear or an I. W. W. in their cellar one day recently, and the family went out armed to investigate, but found only a calf that had found a place among the fruit jars and pickles.—Columbus Dispatch.

VACCINATION IS NOW THE RAGE

FEAR OF SMALL POX CONTAGION AROUSES CITIZENS

Quarantined Man Takes French Leave from Central Lake Health Headquarters

Ellsworth has been having an epidemic af vaccination the past week in fear of a visit of smallpox, our neighboring towns of Central Lake and East Jordan having several cases already.

Ellsworth was in hopes it might escape and probably would have done so, had not Henry Struik, mention of whom was made in last week's Courier as being quarantined at Central Lake, got homesick and took "french leave" of the health officer of that town in order to see home and friends.

This occurred on Monday of last week when that village woke up next day to the fact that Mr. Struik had gone and they got in communication with the Ellsworth board of health to find out why.

Health officer, Wm. Eastcott, was notified and when he, in company with D. E. Clow, visited the Struik home they were informed by the irate gentleman that he had been released from quarantine, he following the statement by asking his callers to close the door from the outside.

Mr. Eustcott was somewhat doubtful of the "release" however, and when the Central Lake health officer emphatically denied having given Henry permission to depart, he called out the reserves and proceeded to the Struik home which he placed under quarantine. Mr. Struik had, however, visited several places in town during the intermission between the first and second call of the health officer, and nearly every person who came within speaking distance of him took the first opportunity to safeguard themselves by vaccination.

The telephone office was closed and fumigated as was the post office, and it is hoped that no cases of the disease will develop.

The laws of the state of Michigan provide for a stiff fine and imprisonment for offenders of this sort, and Mr. Struik may consider himself lucky if he escapes having to face the music for his act of carlessness.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particulary those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

SEED CORN FOR SALE AT COST TO FARMERS

Emergency Committee Bringing In 100,000 Bushels

Almost 100,000 bushels of seed corn will be sold to Michigan farmers at cost in districts where a shortage exists, are enroute here, or have already arrived, according to an announcement from the governor's seed corn committee. The announcement, made by the committee through the Michigan Agricultural college, gives out that the corn, all of which is adapted to Michigan conditions, will be distributed at $5 a bushel on the basis of acreage, adaptability and need.

The supply was purchased by trained corn men, under authority of the governor's committee, as a result of the report made by field men of the college disclosing a shortage of seed corn in the state amounting to something like 250,000 or more bushels.

A part of the corn is of dent varieties, secured from South Dakota, some of flint, mostly from New York and 51,000 bushels are of New Jersey corn of standard types. All of this corn will be inspected at the leading point and germination tests run by representatives of M. A. C.

Arrangements have been made by the committee with grain elevators, seed men, co-operative organizations and farmers associations to aid in the distribution of the corn at cost in their localities. In portioning out the shipments the needs of communities, the source of the corn and its adaption will all of them be considered.

Individuals in need of seed, the instructions read, should get in touch with their county agents and local grain dealers to ascertain where they can secure a supply. The college itself has no part in the distribution of the corn, but inquiries mailed here will be forwarded to the proper authorities.

SANITARY PILLOWS.

Why One Should Be Careful In Selecting These Necessary Articles.

With feathers an ounce of prevention is worth several pounds of cure. Read the tags on the pillows you buy to see if the feathers are new. Dirty feathers, from which the lumen or protein matter in the quill has not been removed, carrying barnyard filth, mean a smelly pillow, with possible danger from disease. It is very difficult to purify them perfectly even by factory methods.

Never buy pillows made of second-hand feathers. You can never tell whence they came or whither they go.

This was where our grandmother got her start. She had feathers of known origin, from her own barnyard, sun or oven baked, and she changed the ticks faithfully, often with thorough washing of the feathers themselves.

Modern cleaning establishments, using either live steam or an electro-chemical process, offer the housekeeper every opportunity for the bacteriological cleanliness of her feather beds and pillows. If the inside of the cup should be clean, so also should the inside of the pillow.

Buy only pillows made in factories which have a process for complete sterilization. One woman after seeing a film picture of the factory method of removing dirt from feathers and the mute evidence of how much it was needed wrote to the factory for a supply of the sterilized article, saying that she hadn't had a night's sleep since seeing the pictures.

Why You Have Gooseflesh In Chilly Temperatures.

Gooseflesh is nothing more or less than a contracting of the muscles under the skin. This causes the tiny blood vessels also to contract and drives the blood out. The skin tightens, and this acts directly on the hair follicles, which are always at an angle with the skin and not directly inward. Therefore as the skin exerts a pull the angle is changed and the hair is made to stand straight up. As the growth of hair on the body is so slight, the hair follicles are clearly visible, and what we term gooseflesh is the result. But it is nothing more or less than the hair standing on end.

banks of solid rock covered with trees and vines tower above. It was a beautiful warm day, and we walked leisurely along, stopping now and then to sit on the benches provided, and watch the French families in their Sunday best strolling by. We wore no overcoats so you can imagine how nice it was. And all the days have been that way since we reached this place, although they say we will get rain every day later on.

"I wish I had time to describe everything that is interesting about the place, but it would take a book.

"Thus far, I have seen no real pretty French girls, so don't worry about my becoming infatuated with a French mademoiselle. They may have them in Paris, but all that I have seen, with one or two exceptions, are rather ordinary. It's all 'bunk' about the girls 'falling on your neck,' etc. The kiddies are the most friendly of all, and pick up English very rapidly, being particularly fluent in asking for candy and a penny. The little rascals come up and take you by the hand, and say 'hello,' and make friends at once, and some of them are as cute and pretty as can be.

"Have received no mail to date, but expect in a short time the routine work will have progressed so that it will come quite regularly. It is quite a job to get everyone located, and it usually takes a month or so to get things fixed up. However I am sure that you are all well, and the only thing to do is to smile and look forward to the day when I will receive a bunch all at one time.

"We feed very well, and it is now possible to buy from the commissary tobacco, cigarettes, candy, etc., at fairly reasonable rates. In fact everything but candy is cheaper than at home. Can't get gum, so send me a few packages.

"Tell Mrs. Nicholls that the Red Cross is right on the job. We had hot coffee served to us at one station, free of charge, by an Englishman who must have been a duke at least, and his wife a duchess. She served the counter, and he pushed a little cart with a can of coffee up and down the train. You should have seen the 'poilus' (French soldiers) and our boys go to it. You have no idea how a thing like that cheers you up when you have been in a French coach for a couple of days. It's such a little thing, but oh! how it warms your heart to see someone trying to lighten the other fellow's load. This man and his wife were genteel people with no idea of gaining praise, but just bent on doing their bit to cheer and comfort the soldier, and it always does him good, too, to have SOMEONE show by practical methods that they appreciate him. And I hope that before long those people back in the States who have failed so far to show a little feeling and do their bit for Sammy will wake up and realize the sacrifice he is making for them. Perhaps the sinking of the Tuscania will do it. I certainly hope so. We must, and I am sure we will have the people of the U. S. A. behind us, if we are going to lick the Boche. And I know that we will, because although we Americans always have to wrangle about so much, still when we do get down to business we don't stop half-way, and perhaps profit by our differences of HAMPTON—GALLEY THREE ... opinion in the end. If everybody back there works as we do here, we can do the job, but we don't want any slackers. Good night.

"VIC."

Sunday, Feb. 17, 1918.

"Dear Folks:

"A most wonderful day here, warm and clear as an autumn day in Charlevoix. This is my second week here and I am now acclimated and beginning to have a liking for our muddy little village. Went for a long walk this afternoon and climbed to the top of a rocky hill from which had a wonderful view of the surrounding country. It is really beautiful. Fairly rolling land of a brown color with pine trees scattered here and there to add a trace of color to the scene. A farm house nestling quietly in the valley here and there indicates that the country is inhabited. It is very quiet and peaceful here. No automobiles except army trucks, no street cars; electric lights would be a miracle, so would running water in the houses. They all draw their water from public hydrants which are located about every block. We are rapidly introducing American methods however, and we can now get a hot bath in an iron tub. And you can imagine what a luxury it is. The French men LOOK clean, but I'll be blessed if I can see how they manage it.

"Am working hard as is everyone else, and am getting as hard as nails. The rough fare and outdoor life certainly builds you up, although some of mother's cooking would go mighty fine for a change. But you needn't worry about my starving to death, for we get plenty of meat and potatoes, and today we had pudding for dessert. I prefer my coffee without cream and am no longer excited at the sight of butter. Jam is a very good substitute when we don't have the other. Hardly know what to write. The censor is particular about mentioning places. And anyway you know I am all right in every respect. Presume I will be receiving a lot of mail soon. Be sure and tell me all the news, for we don't have papers and magazines here, although they have a Paris edition of the New York and Chicago papers which give us the principal headlines. Am going to mail you a little souvenir as soon as I can get to the P. O. to find out how to mail it. I can close my eyes and see you all sitting around the fire-place and wondering what I am doing. Whatever you do, don't worry about my welfare, for I will be all right, much safer in some respects than if at home. There are none of the temptations of the big city here. Any boy is perfectly safe so far as his morals are concerned.

"Send me gum, candy and cigarettes. Everything else that one needs can be purchased here. Would also like kodak pictures of you all, or any other camera picture of anything back in the U. S. A. Have found that mother was right as to all the things she insisted on putting in my trunk. They all come in handy every once in a while. Mother, you are always right. Good night all.

"Your affectionate son,

How to Have Homemade Silver Cleaners Without Elbow Grease.

To clean silver by the electrolytic method it is not necessary to buy any of the expensive pans and plates for sale. Any aluminum quart cup, saucepan or dishpan you may have will do as well. Add a teaspoonful of kitchen salt and one of bicarbonate of soda to a quart of water. Place silver in pan when water boils and be sure it touches the aluminum utensil and is not just held in the water.

An inexpensive silver powder is whiting. Ten cents' worth at any paint shop will last about a year. A teaspoonful of whiting dissolved in half a cupful of water, then rub on all silver to be cleaned. Begin again with the first piece and rub off with a bit of flannel. In case of deep carving rinse the article if necessary.

DRAFT CALL LESS THAN A MILLION

NO NEW DIVISIONS TO BE FORMED IN 1918

Aim to Fill Up Cantonments As Quickly as Troops Go Overseas

While a large number of men will be called out during the present year to fill up the army and complete its organization, it was learned last week that war department plans do not call for the creation of any additional divisions in 1918.

The announcement concerning the second draft, expected soon from Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder, may outline the manner in which less than 1,000,000 men—probably not much in excess of 800,000—are to be summoned gradually during the year to complete the existing organizations. Delay in the announcement as to the next draft is understood to be due to uncertainty as to which method of alloting quotas to the states is to be followed. The senate already has passed and the house military committee has favorably reported an amendment to the law to base the quota on the number of men in class one. This change is regarded as certain to be made.

Some May Go Soon

As to the date of the second draft members of congress from agricultural sections have been practically assured that no withdrawal of men from civil life was contemplated which would embarrass harvesting. It has been indicated, however, that a relatively small number of men must be called to the colors prior to June 1, and that process may start in April, when equipment, clothing and quarters will be available. The men are needed to fill up to full strength, divisions slated for early departure to Europe and also for field army and corps troops not attached to divisions.

The replacement detachments also must go forward at an accelerating rate, since American troops are now actually holding a sector of the French front and men are being killed or wounded in action every day.

The completion of the full program of the war department without creating any additional divisions probably will absorb in the neighborhood of 600,000 men. The extent to which it has been necessary to increase artillery quotas throughout the army and to add special units of all sorts has surprised every officer and accounts for the existing shortages to a large extent.

The number of replacement troops necessary is worked out in a scientific way, based on experience at the front. A fixed percentage for each arm of the service is established. Among the non-combatant arms, this is very small; but it is quite high among front line troops. While official figures are not available, it is estimated that something more than 200,000 will be necessary for the 1918 program, making 800,000 necessary to call out during this year.

Shortage in Divisions

The last increments of the first draft now in process of mobilization totalling about 80,000 men, are being used to fill regular and National guard divisions, shown by their efficiency reports to be available for early duty abroad. Some of the men are being used also to fill up the special forces although an additional source of supply for highly specialized technical units is being used continuously. This is, by special drafts of particularly qualified men of the trades necessary. Orders were issued on Wednesday to local boards calling for 528 artisans of various sorts for non-combatant units.

Even with all of the first draft men mobilized, there are considerable deficiencies among the national army and some of the National guard divisions. The first purpose of the second draft will be to make up this shortage.

Designs Pleasant and Healthful Surroundings for Men from Hospitals Slowly Recovering

Convolescent soldiers at the cantonments in the United States are to have still another service from the American Red Cross. At each camp a convalescent home is to he built and will he called "The Red Cross House," where soldiers may recover under pleasant, home-like surroundings.

The furnishing of these houses will be attractive and has been entrusted to the Junior Red Cross members—school children who have been enrolled in the membership campaign closing on February 22. Boys who are Junior members of the Red Cross may compete in a contest for designs for the furniture, and they also will be given the job of making the furniture.

Red Cross chapters everywhere are nuthorized to call for a submission of designs for tables, chairs, benches and stools, among other pieces of furniture. The designs by the Junior members should be in the hands of the chapters by March 1.

All designs submitted will be sent to nationol hcodquarters at Washington and those approved will be acknowledged appropriately in the Red Cross magazine and prizes will be awarded the winners. Any boy Junior member of the Red Cross may submit designs, or obtain further information from the Red Cross chapter in his town.

The Red Cross House at the cantonments will be solely for ill or injured soldiers who have reached the convalescent stage and may be transferred from the hospital. It does not take the place of the hospital but supplements it.

WASTE AND EXTRAVAGANCE ARE GERMANY'S SILENT ALLIES!

They will help the Kaiser. They will kill American soldiers.

Every bit of waste, every extravagance takes force from the power America must put into the war to win. Every penny spent for luxuries and unnecessary things is a penny lost to the production and purchase of food, clothing, supplies, ships, and munitions for our soldiers.

As long as we spend wastefully, Germany will receive silent but powerful help from America; just so much farther away is the Day of Peace.

Don't spend thoughtlessly or unnecessarily. SAVE! With high wages and plenty of work for everyone there never was such an opportunity to help yourself and help your country.

Save to help the government. Lend your savings to your country.

Clover Pays in Rotation.

Have you planned to seed more sod to clover this spring? The crop pays by making the land more fertile, besides yielding a good hay crop. For seventeen years at the Ohio experiment station corn on unfertilized sod yielded 6.2 bushels more to the acre in a three year rotation of corn, wheat sod clover than in a five-year rotation of corn, oats, wheat, clover and timothy. On manured land in the three year rotation during this time corn yielded 8.4 bushels more to the acre than in the five year rotation, even though more manure was applied in the latter rotation. The experiment station credits this increased yield of corn largely to the clover crop because it comes once in three instead of once in five years.

A Good Milk Goat.

The popularity of milk goats in the west has led the California experiment station to conduct an official test of their milk producing capacities. A two-year-old pure Toggenburg produced in one year 2,158 pounds of milk and 72.8 pounds of butter fat. This is about one-sixth the production of a first class cow and is more than twice as much as an ordinary milk goat gives. The cost of feed per pound of milk was about nine-tenths that of dairy cows in the station herd.

THUNDERSTORM FOLLOWS QUEER AURORA DISPLAY

Friday Night's Phenomenon Affects Telephone Lines

Wonder how many of our readers noticed the marvelous display of northern lights in the heavens last Friday evening. Never before in the writer's experience have these lights taken on the reddish hue that they had last week or have they appeared in all quarters of the sky. This phenomenon was observed all over the country, and in Washington, D. C., there are some who claim that they were able to make out regular stripes of red, white and blue and the form of the American eagle, with wings outspread, as if hovering at the zenith.

Some of the old timers recall a similar display of the aurora just prior to the close of the Civil war, in which the sky turned a blood red.

At Ft. William, Ontario, the Ojibway Indians have their own theory of the eagle vision. Many of them saw in the mystic bird the spirit of Mineto, who, they believe dwells at the summit of the Sleeping Giant, 1,400 feet above the waters of Thuder Bay. His appearance, say the Indians, betokens great happenings in the world.

While we are not prepared to support the supernatural significance of these auroral wonders, we understand from press reports that on last Friday night difficulty was had with telephone and telegraph service in all parts of the country. This would seem to confirm the generally accepted theory of the electrical origin of the phenomenon. The electrical storm on the following afternoon was also peculiar, as such manifestations, while frequently occuring in the late spring or esrly fall, come generally after a period of thawing and not in the midst of a blinding blizzard, such as we experienced Saturday, and which gathered force enough in a couple of hours to tie up the north bound P. M. train.

OLD DEAN SCROGGIE PLACE A TOTAL LOSS

Fire Destroys Well Known Homestead Thursday Morning

A bad fire occurred last Thursday morning on the old Dean Scroggie place, one half mile south of Gray's corners, now owned by a man named Burke, who came there laet fall from Hammond, Indians, and purchased the farm at that time.

At about eix o'clock Mr. Burke built a rousing fire to get tha house warm for the family and then went out to the barn. He was not there long before one of the children called to him and he returned to find the house in flames.

It was with extreme difficulty that Mr. Burke and his wife were able to get their six small children out of the house and to a place of safety. The twins, only two weeks old, were carried to the iee house, and the other children (the oldest of whom is thirteen years) escaped in their night clothes.

The house was a total loss and nothing of the contents was saved. The neighbors in that district met in the town hall at Bay Shore Monday and took steps to provide the family with much needed assistance in the way of clothing and bedding. Five comforters were made and much clothing turned in. Everything possible will be done for tha allevlation of their distress.

DELIVERY SYSTEM FAVORED

PEOPLE LIKE TO SAY "SEND IT UP"

Various Methods of Retailing and How They Work as Regards Profit and Popularity

Methods and ideas in retail business generally are constantly changing and we may gather from this that there is something about our present system that does not function properly.

There can ba found plenty af advocates far each of the main retailing plans; namely, the cash-and carry, pure credit and cash and delivery, making a epecific charge for delivery.

The cash and cerry plan will suit people who live near enough the stors they deal with for some member of the family to go at frequent intervals and buy and carry home the stuff. From 12 to 15 cents per week may be saved in this way. If he uses a fifty pound sack of flour each week, the delivery will cost at least 10c, especially, if a licensed draymen is employed. In most cases, this would exceed tho weekly saving.

Cash and carry with a delivery privilege means that the merchant must either keep a delivery wagon or arrange with some delivery system outside of his own business in order that the deliveries may be made. It has been shown and proven that under this plan delivery expense does not exceed 1 1-2 per cent of sales where efficiently managed. But those who desire the delivery service must pay proportionately more than if all the customers of a store are taxed to pay for its dalivery service, regardless of whether they take advantage of it or not. This necessitates the retailer adopting the wholesaler's plan and making a delivered price.

Tha third method, that of credit and delivery, is the most popular of any method which has been tried and is also the most universal. The expense attached to this method is far more equally distributed than in the cash-and-carry delivery privilego way. Furthermore, it enables the merchant to extond his business by solicitation and it has been generally found that the customer is willing to pay a little higher price for the convenience of having his purchases delivered at his door.

Some of the people who kick the hardest agninst the delivery system will take their cars and spend a dollnr's worth of gasoline to gu to some nearby town and buy and bring back stuff on which they have saved the few cents difference over what delivery would cost them, besides carrying their money out of the community that gives them a living.

It is just as necessary that telephone companies charge by the call for telephone service as for the retailer to adopt the cash and carry plan with a charga for delivery. It can be done, but nothing would be saved thereby.

The majority of people want their goods delivered. If the retailer studies efficient methods and learns the secret of good service, following at the same time tha creed of the square deal, he will alwaya find the customer willing to pny for the extra accommodation of delivery.

MISSIONARY BIRTHDAY PARTY MUCH ENJOYED

Golden Jubilee of Congregational Women's Board Celebrated

The birthday party given at the Congregational parsonage last Friday afternoon, in honor of the ten foreign missionaries who are supported by the Congregational women of Michigan, was well attended and a very enjoyable affair.

Each missionary was impersonated by someone who told the story of her life and service and several of these were attired in the costume of the people among whom they work.

This is the Golden Jubilee year of the Women's board, it being fifty years since its organization and great plans are being made for an increase of members, missionaries, interest, prayers and gifts.

A new feature of the local work is a mission study circle which will meet weekly, for six weeks, to read, "An African Trail," a very interesting and up-to-date missionary text book.

COMMUNICATIONS

St. James, Mich., Mar 15, 1918.
Editor of Charlevoix Courier,
Sir:

"In reading over the Beaver Island news column of the Charlevoix Sentinel of the 7th inst., I find in it an item which states that our island schools were closed—on account of diptheria, as the people thought, but that there was nothing to it.

"I, as a resident of Beaver Island, deem it expedient nnd regard it as my duty to refute that statement by describing the following facts pertaining to this disease.

"On the 5th of last month, a little girl, seven or eight years old died, after a few days' illness, from the effects of a throat malady. The nurse who was treating the child saw some symptoms that she thought looked like diptheria, but was not certain.

"As this girl who died was attending school when taken sick, the school officers ordered the schools closed until further notice. In the meantime, several other people were found, affected with the same throat trouble. The people became alarmed and wired to the mainland for a physician, as we had no doctor here. Doctor Brown, of Levering, responded to our appeal and arrived here on the ice on the 9th and was taken at once to a patient afflicted with sore throat and, upon investigation, pronounced it a clear case of diptheria. The doctor was rushed to other places at once and found seven or eight cases of this disease. Our health officer established a quarantine on those places and steps were taken to prevent the further spread of this scourge.

"As the doctor could not stay with us but a day or so, the Rev. Father Jewell assumed responsibility in taking care of those stricken with this disease.

"After the doctor left us, a few more cases broke out, and Father Jewell treated those cases according to the instruction the doctor gave him nnd was successful in his treatment of the disease, as no case became fatal.

"Some skeptics among us would not believe it was diptheria and, in order to convince them that it was, Father Jewell sent some of the toxin (taken from a patient's throat) to Ann Arbar to be analyzed and he received the information that it was the real diptheria germ. Still, some of our people are skeptical—whether it is through malice ar wilful ignorance, I am not prepared to say.

"The Rev. Father Jewell deserves great credit for the able manner in which he handled those cases; in administering the antitoxin and bringing this contagion to an end. If those experts on disease germs would announce that this toxin they received was not diptheria, Dr. Brown would be branded as an impostor and Father Jewell would be classed as a fool for following his instructions.

"As it is now proven without a doubt that it was diptheria that we had among us, this Beaver Island reporter to the Sentinel, whoever he may be, should come out openly before the public and apologize for fabricating such an erroneous theory among the people. Otherwise, the unreliability of this person as a writer for the Sentinel will be considered hereafter by the readers af that paper.

"OWEN C. McCAULEY."

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Miss Eunice Carr of East Jordan is the new stenographer at R. W. Kane's office.

Miss Elizabeth L. Parker and Miss Helen Arms, of M. A. C., East Lansing, were in town today visiting friends.

Allen Arnold, who has been attending the M. A. C. this winter, arrived in town Tuesday, wearing the military uniform of the college, which is modeled on the U. S. army pattern. It sure looks like business when the colleges that formerly taught arts of peace are garbing their students in the khaki.

One name was omitted from the honor roll of Charlevoix teaching force, containing the names of those now in the national service, which we printed last week—that of Irving Hilliard, who formerly taught at the Clark school and whose address is now 1005 Virginia Avenue, S. W., Washington, D. C.

WAR SAVINGS NOTES

This week's W. S. S. bulletin in the Blanchard Hardware Co.'s window reads: "Norwood school reports 100 per cent, who will be next?" Rev. Parshall says: "A quarter a day keeps the Kaiser away." "The cheapest ticket to the Kaiser's funeral is a 25c Thrift Stamp." "W. S. S. Wilhelm's sure sentence to St. Helena." Parshall lives in Norwood, that's why it is 100 per cent.

Rev. Parshall telephoned in to headquarters that Thos. Scroggie, teacher in the Norwood school should share largely in the credit for making the school 100 per cent. This is the first school to report 100 per cent and the committee wishes to congrntulate the school and the community in being the first to make the charge and go over the top.

Miss May Stewart, county school commissioner, is doing splendid work in the interests of the War Savings Campaign in the capacity of Director of Women's Organizatians in the county, and every school under her jurisdiction should be glad to help make a fine showing for Charlevoix county schools in this great work.

Chairman Allen wishes to thank those who are so unselfishly giving of their time to this worthy cause and takes this opportunity to solicit suggestions from those interested in the campaign, as to anything the committee might do to further the success of same.

This is another opportunity to show your colors.

The spring motto for Charlevoix people should be, "Use the Sidewalks." Don't cut the corners. Keep off the school grounds, the library lawn and the city parking on State street. DEATH TAKES PIONEER IN FRANK O. LARSEN

Deceased Had Been a Sailor Practically During Life Time

Frank O. Larsen was born at Markes, Norway, October 2, 1857, and died at his home in South Arm township, Charlevoix County, at 3:00 o'clock Friday morning, March 15, 1918, aged 60 years, 4 months and 21 days.

Mr. Larsen spent the greater part of his life on the water, beginning his career as a sailor at the age of 14 years, sailing continuously until he came to America in 1880 and settling in Michigan, but spending a large part of his time since that time on the great lakes. Mr. Larsen was married at Cheboygan, Michigan, to Miss Caroline Larson, December 22, 1881 and of the twelve children born to them, eight still one living, three daughters and a son having preceded their father to the great beyond.

Mr. Larsen purchased the farm and home in which he died about nine years ago and has proven himself a loving husband and father and a true friend and neighbor throughout his lifetime.

His funeral was held Monday, March 18, at noon from his home and he was buried in the family lot at Boss cemetery, Rev. Eldred of the M. E. church of which Mr. Larsen was a member officiating.

The children who attended the funeral were Mrs. John Petrie of Central Lake, Mrs. Phil Ohman of Elk Rapids; Ralph from Great Lakes, Illinois; Albert of Zion City, Illinois and Gladys and Oscar who reside at home. The other daughters, Mrs. A. R. Horington and Effie of Winnipeg, Canada, were unable to attend. The entire neighborhood extend their sincerest sympathy to the sorrowing family.

We are informed by county agent W. C. Cribbs, that farmers of this vicinity may secure their seed corn for the coming crop at the Ellsworth Produce Co.'s warehouse. The varieties are Yellow Flint, White Cap Dent and Yellow Dent and it will be delivered to the farmer at $5.00 for 70 pounds. This is at cost. They may also secure at the same place spring wheat for the spring planting at about $3.15 per bushel. There is absolutely no profit on either corn or wheat and Mr. Cribbs advises that orders be placed at once as the seed has been secured by the state and the Produce Co. must know in advance the amount needed in order to secure sufficient for the requirements.

No, dear readers, the rumor that porch climbers and second atory men are at work in Ellsworth is absolutely false. The gent discovered climbing the porch post at the hotel early last Tuesday morning was not after the family plate as suspected, but was only one of the boarders, (we refuse to give his name) who, returning in the wee hours of the morning and finding the doors locked, or rather not yet opened for the days business, attempted to reach his room by way of said porch column. Luckily landlord VanSkiver heard the noise and let the belated arrival in by the correct entrance and he was able to teach school as usual the next day.

Dear Madam:

"I wish to call your attention to the following extracts taken from various letters which have come to the chapter headquarters recently.

"Cable advices have been received from France stating that stock on hand of the following articles is sufficient to meet their present needs: comfort pillows, hot water bottle covers, table napkins, handkerchiefs, ice bag covers, heel rings, operating stockings, knitted wash cloths. It is possible therefor for chapters to curtain materially or suspend entirely, until further notice, the production of these articles.

"Washington has asked that all chapters discontinue the making of muslin bandgages, with the exception of the many-tailed and triangular.

"Washington also asks that splint straps be folded in accordance with ARC401, as formerly.. These are to be packed unwrapped. Split irrigation pads are to be sent to us unwrapped.

"It is requested that your chapter have tags printed and attached to each knitted garment. The following directions should be printed thereon.

"DIRECTIONS FOR WASHING KNITTED ARTICLES.

"Wash in warm water with plenty of soap; put small amount of soap in warm water and rinse; change of temperature in water causes shrinkage; hang garment up lengthwise to dry.

"Will you see that publicity is given in your town to the following story:

"At the request of Herbert Hoover, chairman of the commission for relief in Belgium, H. P. Davison, chairman of the Red Cross War Council, has granted the use of the National Red Cross organization beginning March 18, and ending March 23, for collection a minimum quantity of 5,000 tons of clothing for the destitute people of Belgium and occupied portion of northern France.

"The donations will be shipped at once to the Atlantic seaboard and sent overseas for immediate distribution. The need is said to be pitiful beyond words and calls for an unlimited supply of wearing apparel of every size and description.

"Please see that this appeal is published in your local paper and is given the widest circulation possible.

"E. A. GEE,"
County Secretary.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR

RED CROSS IS FARM AGENT

HELPS SERBS WITH SEEDS AND MACHINERY

Brings 21,000 Acres Near Monastir Into Productivity By Its Timely Assistance

Relief work by the American Red Cross is far more varied than is commonly known. Take the situation in Serbia for an illustration. Here, not only the customary medical relief was given but a practical form of civilian relief was accomplished by providing seeds and agricultural machinery.

The Red Cross mission to Serbia found the remnants of this nation starving, with 21,000 acres of fine land near Monastir idle because of a scarcity of seed and farm tools. A cable to America resulted in a prompt shipment of enough seeds and machinery to assure thousands of bushels of corn, barley, rye, potatoes and other food produce this year.

There were many advantages in this plan of relief. First of all, the shortage of ships made it imperative for the Serbians to produce as much of their food supply as possible. Next, it gave the idle people useful employment. Third, their efforts will feed not only themselves and take them out of the charity class, but provide a surplus for others.

The greatest value of tha Red Cross work was in raising the spirits of a nation which has suffered unspeakable horrors. The Austrians had practiced shooting in cold blood, burning civilians at the stake, starvation of whole villages, hanging and other forms of frightfulness to annihilate the Serbians as a race.

Those who are left of this valiant people look upon America with imperishable love hecnuse of the aid given them through the Red Cross.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

Returns from the mid-year test of January 17-18th were completa some time ago but the loss of one or two of the reports and an extra amount of work has somewhat delayed thia summary. There were this year very few schools with low averages and a larger number with very good returns. The great bulk of the returns were so nearly even that it is difficult to make a comparative study. This is however a good fault. Schools having grand averages above above 90 per. cent are as follows: Springvale school, average 92 per cent, tencher, Miss Ruth White. Tho Mackie school, average 91.5 per cent, teacher, A. E. Stanchina. 1-2 grades of St. James, 92 per cent, teacher, Sr. Veritas. Mountain school, average 92 per cent, teacher Catherine LaLonde. Clarion primary room, average 95 per cent, teacher, Mona Bardwell. Cedar Valley, average 91 4-10 per cent, teacher Irene Murphy.

Schools with averages above 85 per cent and below 91 per cent are: Nowland, Curfew, Walloon Lake, Howard, Johnson, Dnvis, Hoffman, Three Bells, Gill, St. James (grammar grades,) Sudman, Cramer, Ironton, Primary, Wildwood, Bay Shore, Polish, Boyne Falls, Intermediate grades, Sunnyside.

There were many individual pupils who did very excellent work, some of them not included in the enrollments of the nbovc list of good schools. Shortness of space will not allow all of the good records to be published nor will it permit of the names of schools in these cases, grades, ages; and other details. Suffice it is to say that the record is much better than it has been at any previous time and the list of excellent averages is just three times as long as it was last year. The following received school averages in all subjects above 95 per cent on the mid-year tests: Margaret O'Donnell, Catherine Gallagher, Edward Hetzel, Frank Pacl, Herman Lew, Rose Novotny, Josephine Organek, Della Trojanek, Mary Chiak, Will Zoulek, Hilda Young, Clinton Older, Alice Ecker, Laurcen Milne, Alice Colten, Fred Holmberg, Mary Holmberg, Luclus Younce, Henry Holmberg, Maude Hankins, Lens Hime, Kenneth Milne, Nellie Kent, Elizabeth Green, Preston Green, Irving Coykendall, Irma Jones, Eva Jones, Reva Brooks, John Parshall, Kenneth Russell.

In Chandler No. 1, tho three Skelton children have been neither absent nor tardy for five months—and the roads? Sometimes they were a minus quantity.

In addition to the commissioner and all three city superintendents, the following wide awake teachers of Charlevoix county subscribe for Moderator Topics: Ernest Peaslee, Mabel E. Dunlop, Lola Genett, Esther Palmer, Agatha Kenny, Catherine LaLonde, Ada Bardwell, Effie Cook, Muriel Kerry, Emma Knop, Verona E. Clark, Dominican Sisters.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches And Ills of Charlevoix People

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fnil there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Charlevoix testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Jennie Smith, 1206 Bridge St., Charlevoix, saya: "My kidneys acted irregularly and my back got so lame I could hardly get about my housework. Finnlly I had to take to my bed, where I remained several days, absolutely helpless. I couldn't even turn over. I felt miserable and was in a terrible condition when I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They brought relief from the first and continued use cured me."

DEEDS OF KAISER'S ANGEL MINIONS SHOW THIS

Our Pro-German Friends Should Shed Tears of Maudlin Joy Over the Following Recitals

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, made fumous by the greet Henry Ward Beecher, a pulpit orator of nationsl reputation and of unquestioned veracity, at a leeture in Brooklyn recently, by word and picture arraigns the German officers and soldiers who aro guilty of the most horrible crimes against the men, women and children of France and Belgium, recorded in the history of the world.

"Any man who epent last summer in France and Belgium can never be the same man again," said Dr. Hillis. "Children and photographs are the best proofs of the terrible atrocities of the Germuns.

"One of these horrible crimes was that committed upon a young man and his wife nbout to become a mother. The woman wns attacked by four German officers and a private who were holding her down on the floor when her husband entered the house. He attempted to kill the Germans but was shot and then the invadere ripped open the young woman's beautiful body, took nway the child, cut off her husband's head nnd put it where the child's body had been.

"Twenty-six volumes have been filled with the testimony of these terrible atrocities taken from 10,000 inhabitants in one-tenth of the territory retaken from the Huns. The Germans still hold nine-tenths of the territory they captured at the start of the war and of the horrible crimes committed there we will never know.

"Their first atrocities were committed on August 17 and Septomher 19, 1914. They wore carried out on an appninted day. Nothing haphazard about it. Germany has perpetrated crimes upon bodies of human beings in northern Italy the like of which the world has never seen because Italy's king broke awny from the triple entente.

"One hundred und twenty thonsand women, children and nld women have disappeared from the territory recaptured from the Huns. A Frenchman in northern France had nailed a calf skin to one side of his hay barn to dry. Ono day he returned to find on the other side of the donr the crucified body of his little daughter, nniled there by the Germans. Under it was written, "Two calves, one two legged, the other four legged"—a sample of German's humor.

"While spenking in Philadelphia lsst fall on the Liberty Loan eampuign, I was touched on the shoulder by u man who had mounted the platform, very near the nervous breakling point. His right arm had been shattered by a bullet. He told me that he had taken down the body of a French nun who had been violated nnd crucified by the Germans because she attempted to protect another young nun who was attacked hy Germun soldiers.

Efficient in Atrocity

Germany's atrocities have a meaning. They are not haphazard deeds of drunken soldiers. They represent the efficiency of the German military system. They were prepared in advnnce, outlined and taught to soldiers us an art to make them successful. The only man who understands them is a German and aro explained by German generals and the kuiser. Germany's officers were drilled for two years before the war in the science of murder, srson, rape and other hideous crimes. Her soldiers hnve been told that anything ie permissable so long as it will aid Germany in reaching her gonl.

"Suppose a German officer and his soldiers came to this town and found 100 boys. He wouldn't attack them but he would plan to break their nerves so that their hands and eyes would no longer be steady enough to alm a rifle.

"It took Germany two and a half weeks to break Belgium's nerve snd last fall just three weeks to shatter the nerve of the Italian srmy hy its horrible atrocities. Italian soldiers heard that the Germans were foully murdering their wives and mothers and they went to pieces. It would break the nerve of the United States soldiers if the kaiser's men landed here. These atrocities sre Germany's most efficient wenpon and have done more fer the Teutons than their giant guns, liquid fire and gases ever could accemplish.

"They are Germany's chief military discovery and instrument. What they have dono in Belgium, Franee and Italy they have dene in Poland, Roumania and in all the territory through which they hsve passed. Her uim is to break the nerve of the world.

Occupied Territory Devastated

"Northwestern France is hutchsd end devastated. Land and cities have been ruined. Everything is gene. Houses, churches, librarles and net even a tree or bush has been left standing. All swept by the ruthless hend of the German war lords. Wells and springs were poisonsd.

"This devastation was committed during Germany'e retreat last year. In one town through which they pasaed oneoming Frenchmen found the body of a woman, stripped of her clothing, the left sids of her nsck torn open and her wrists tiod to roots of treea by ropes. In thia same village the Germans guthered together the old men, fiftoen of them, and shot them.

"Two German soldiers pointed rifiee at tho breast of each man and when the gensrnl snapped his fingers pulled the trigger. They mortnlly wounded a Red Cross ambulance driver, the son of an old woman of the vilinge, and before the boy was dead poured kerosene upon hie body nnd burned him to denth. In a gnrden I found a strip of wood beuring

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE OF THIS

UNCLE SAM WILL PROVIDE FARM LABOR

Campaign Started to Enroll 500,000 Mambars in Emergency Farm Reserve

Farmers of Charlsvoix county, read ths following bulletin and take heart. Your Uncle Sam has taken steps to dissolvs your labor troubles into thin air. This comes through R. W. Kane, one of tho county's government officials.

Emergency Farm Labor

To make sure that there will be ample labor to cultivsto and harvest the largest crops which American farmors can plant, the U. S. Public Service Reservo will ereate an Emergency Farm Labor Section. It will start soon a campnign to enroll at least five hundred thousand members for this purpose.

An Emergency Reserve

This force is to bs essentially a reserve. It will be composed of men who are ready to give from one to two dnye a week to working on farms in their neighborhood up to those who can devote a month or more wherever they muy be needed most. Men who ure ublo to start at once, und give nli their time during the greater purt of the furming senson should not go into the reserve, hut should find work on the farms immediately.

In view of the possihility that tho supply of labor thus to he prnvided, supplemented as it will be by a large force of boys who are joining the U. S. Boys Working Reserve, may not prove sufficient to meet the needs, It is imperative that there be built up nn emergency reserve lnrge enough to supply any possiblo demands. Tho health and comfort of millions of Americans, as well as the fate of the war, hang largely upon our ability to raise and harvest this year a larger supply of fnodstuffs than ever we have produced before.

Part Time Workers

There is availablo a host of men who will be able and glad to devote a part of their time this summer to farm werk if the country needs them. College etudents, professinnal men, clerks and other emplnyees, who have vacations eheuld be willing to give them this year to productive work out of doers. Men who have heretofore worked at farming should be especially sought after. Already employors in many communities are getting togother and agroelng to give up some of their men for limited periods to work on neighboring farms. In Canada, and last summer in many placea in this country, employers have been fnund who make up the difference in pay for the men whom they release. This is not only patriotic, but in many eases le no mere than fnr-sighted self-interest, for the whole efficiency of a community may depend on the nbility of the local farmers to ralse nnd adequate food supply to meet local needs.

Largely a Local Problem

It must not be forgotton that the farm labor problem is in very large part a local problem which cannot be fully met except with the aid of local initiative and energy. No greater mistake could be made than to believe that it is possible to provide a national or state machinery which can take eare of it all. The greatest service which the Public Reserve enn perform is to co-ordinate nnd stimulate locnl activities along sound lines. Movements already under way in any localities should not he discouraged but assisted and perhaps given greater power by being incorporated without great change into the nation wide campaign.

With a National Aspect

On the other hand the lesson must be driven home that the lahor resources of any county or state, insofar as they can be spared from local needs, should at all times be avnilnhle to meet shortages elsewhere. We are engaged in a great common enterprise, and the national crisis far transcends any local consideration.

Reporting Local Conditions and Plans

Through your own study and by getting reports from your agents you should be able to get some valuable suggestions not only to pass nlong to your other agents but also to send on here for us to give other states. Plans which will not work in one place may he just what is needed somewhere else where conditions differ.

CRIME TO IMPEDE BOND SALES

TWENTY YEARS IN JAIL FOR ONE WHO INTERFERES

Must Not Even Make Statements That Tend to Discourage Buying of Liberty Bonds

The following bulletin has been turned over to us for publication by R. W. Kane, and should be carefully read:

Bulletin No. 34

"I desire to call your attention to the following clipping from the Chicago Tribune of March fifth, which is self-explanatory. I thought it might be a matter of interest to you and send it ulong for what it is worth.

Beware of Tongue

"'Washington, D. C., March 4.—The house today passed a bill making it unlawful to circulate falso reports with intent to obstruct the sale of Liberty Bonds.

"'As explained by Chairmun Webb of the Judiciary Committee, the measure is 'to protect the government against those who would weaken its ability to raise the necessary funds to finance the wnr in the manner prescribed by congress, by making it u crime for any one to wilfully make or convey false reports or false statements with intont to obstruct the sale of the United States of bonde or other securities of the United States or the making of lonns by or to the United States.'

"The punishment is a fine of $10,000, twenty years imprisonment, or both."

Signed: W. W. Kneath,
Executive Secretary.

DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN TO BE OBSERVED HERE

Business Men and Churches Are Pledged to Change

The day-light eaving law recently enacted by congress will he observed generally in this city from present indications. In un interview with Mayor Rose, this morning, he expressed it as his opinion that the law in its werkings makes the change in time compulsory only in the ense of government bureaus, government factories and offices, post offices nnd the railroads. To the rest of the public is hae the effect of a recommendation.

However, business men generally have agreed to adopt the new time change nnd churches in this town as elsewhere have pledged the compliance of their members. In fact, the new schedule will automatically compel its own adoption, as no one will cnre to boar the inconvenience that will inevitably arise from holding to the old schedule against the majority. On March 31st, twelve o'clock midnight, every clock minute hand in town should be moved ahead 60 points around the circle.

ANOTHER CHARLEVOIX BOY WRITES FROM FRANCE

Lee Allard Says Rough Seas Put Fellows Out of Business

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allard huve kindly turned the following letter over to us for publication. It is from their son, Lee, now with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, who writes as follows:

Somewhere in Franee,
February 24, 1918.

"Dear Mother and Father:

"I knew that it has been a leng while since you have heard from me. But you see you won't be able to hear from me as often as if I were in the states.

"When we were entering a harbor over here, we saw some of the most benutiful scenery I ever saw. Somolling like Charlevoix in spring. Everything is just getting green.

"Most of the Charlevoix boys were left back in Camp Merritt. I must tell you ubout our trip over here. The first few days out, we had fine weather, although some of the boys were seasick. After that, we got some henvy weather and most all of the fellows were sick. But you see, that is whern my experience on water came in handy.

"Each day the band gave a concert. Every night we had movies; one night for the sailors, the next for us. I am sending you a programme of the ship, also a menu from the supper we had on Washington's birthday. That pute me in mind—do you know that I have had nnother birthdny snd am now going on 25?

"Well, I will write you as often as possible und don't you forget to write. I am going to bed now, as I am half dead for sleep tonight. So goodbye, with love. "LEE."

O'LEARY HOUSE BURNED SUNDAY AT BAY SHORE

"Rashe" Murray Who Lived There Lost Heavily

The frame house owned by Henry O'Leary, at Bay Shore, situated diagonally opposite the railroad station, burned to the ground last Sunday morning.

H. S. Murray, formerly of this city, who rented the house from Mr. O'Leary, was living in it alone at the time of the fire, his wife being in the hospital.

Mr. Murray lit the oil stove in the kitchen early Sunday morning and prepared his breakfast. He took the food, when cooked, into the dining room and sat down to eat it, but soon smelled smoke and returned to find the kitchen in flames.

Although he did everything possible to save the contents, Mr. Murray was unable to save anything out of the upper part of the house, although he managed to get most of the stuff out of the lower rooms. Nine hundred dollars insurance covered the house.

The ladies of Marion Center Grange and Red Cross Society will serve a potluck election dinner to the voters at the grange hall on Monday, April 1st. Red Cross meets then and all should attend. 13t1

FORREST WEED SAYS TRIP OVERSEAS WAS QUIET

Likes France, Whose Climate, He Says, Resembles That of Michigan—Chocolate Scarce

We are reproducing below three letters from Franco written to his family by Forrest Weed, formerly a C. H. S. boy, and now a member of the 107th Engineers, Company C, with the Expeditionary Forces.

Somewhere in France,
Saturday.....1918.

"You have probably received my other letters before you got this, so will know that I arrived safely and am feeling great.

"Had a very pleasnnt journey, with hosts of good things to eat, but very little to do. Tho only thing I missed was candy and chocolates, but I ate a great number of those before I left, as you know.

"Saw some very wonderful sights on our journey and also since our arrival but, unluckily, we are forbidden to tell of them. Saw some large fishes; whales, and many other varieties of sea fish. Did not, however, see any submarines on our way over. The only ones we saw were French, and that was after disembarkment. As a whole, our journey was very quiet.

"Like it quite well here, as it seems to be about the same climate, only not quite as cold, as Michigun, or rather as it was when I was in Michigan last. Of course, I will now have to get busy and learn the value of money, und also to speak a few words of French, in that respect, soon, or, I should say, a long time, as it takes me nearly an hour to learn a couple of words. Not quite as bad as that—but nearly so, as I can't twist my tongue right.

"Met the fellow I played against in football at the Soo in '13, who is in our company, so you can see I am finding a few familiar faces.

"Will try and write twice a week from now on, and might eahle, if it is possible to do so—once, I mean.

"Must close and go to work. Best wishes."

FORREST

Co. C, 107th U. S. Engineers, American Expeditionary Forces, Somewhere in France.

February 19, 1918.

"Dear Folks:

"As usual, about all I can say is that I am well and enjoying the sights and scenery of France very much, because they are all new to me. Am also getting a little used to French money and the language—in fact, can say already about a dozen words, learned through hearing them in constant use.

"Am eating lemon drops now, as I cannot get any sweet chocolate, or chocolate here. Rather, I might add, that it is very high and also very scarce. However, we can have very good 'eats' and really much better than I supposed we would.

"A good many of the French people can speak a little English, so it makes that part much easier for us. The children can all say 'cigarettes,' as they like the American cigarettes very much and would do most anything to obtain them. It really seems rather amusing to us Americans.

"I really like it over here, since I have seen a little of the place. We received a few packages the other day, but no first-class mail, so I have been unfortunate, so far, regarding my correspondence.

"By the way, you can send the Courier to me. You can find out at the P. O. the best way to wrap it. We had some New York papers today and I got quite a lot of news from them, but it will certainly seem better to see the home papers. Send the last three or four.

"Lovingly, your son and brother,"
FORREST.

Somewhere in France,

"Dear Folks:

"We are at last situated, for a while at least, and will probably not move for some time, as we are to have some training here, I think.

"Am feeling fine and very healthy and, in fact, have no reason for complaint.

"As I said before, the more I see of this place the better I like it and here's hoping that we remain here for a time, at least. I have

WAR SAVINGS NOTES

Plans are about complete for the big drive in the Charlevoix schools for the sale of thrift stamps. It will be the aim of the drive to have every child in the school own a thrift stamp and to practice economy along all lines so as to make the habit of saving permanent.

It is planned to make the sale a contest. Each grade being a unit, and each class being a unit. After the unit has become 100 per cent perfect, then a weekly total of the thrift stamps bought will be made the basis for the Thrift Stamp Contest.

Parents are urged to encourage the children in saving, less picture shows, less candy, less unessentials, and more for Uncle Sam, and the boys over there.

State Director Hubbard reported recently that Michigan was number 46 among the states in the sale of War Savings Stamps which is very humilating to all interested in making our state show in the front ranks of patriotism and we must all work just that much harder to make Charlevoix county as nearly 100 per cent as possible before the drive is over.

A much greater interest in the sale of stamps here in our county is being shown during the last few days and we feel confident that when the people fully understand the importance and necessity of the campaign, they will cheerfully respond as they always have done when their country calls.

witnessed some wonderful sights since my arrival in France and hope to see more, which we probably will.

"There is no snow in France now and there was very little upon our arrival. Seems rather queer, as there must be lots of snow in the states yet.

"Read a report that the 107th Engineers were on the Tuscania and practically all lost their lives, but this was a false report as we were not on board and arrived without any special incidents. Of course, there might have been some engineers there but I am not exactly certain.

TEARS HAND BADLY

Charles Taylor Victim of Painful Mishap

Charles Taylor, of this city, suffered a painful injury last Wednesday, while transferring baggage from the baggage car of a train to a truck at the P. M. depot.

Someone in passing, accidentally bumped into Taylor on the platform and shoved him against the side of the train. In some way, he caught his right hand between the handle of the baggage truck and the side of the car, splitting the flesh between the first and second fingers. It will be some time before Mr. Taylor recovers the use of the injured member.

A THOROUGH TEST

One to Convince the Most Skeptical Charlevoix Reader

The test of time is the test that counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.

The following case is typical.

Charlevoix residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. M. Olney, 310 W. Hurlbut St., Charlevoix, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on different occasions for kidney trouble. I suffered from severe backaches and Doan's Kidney Pills greatly benefited me. Others of my family have also used this medicine for lame back and pains in the kidneys with good results."

Confirms Her Statement

Five years later Mrs. Olney said: "I have never found another kidney medicine that can equal Doan's Kidney Pills. The occasional use of this medicine keeps my kidneys in good condition. I will never go back on what I have said before in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Olney had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

CHARLEVOIX WOMAN THINKS TEXAS NOT BAD

Mrs. Agnes M. Jarvis Says She Had Inspiring Trip

Mrs. Agnes M. Jarvis, who is now in Texas, has sent in the following postal communication, which we believe will interest our readers, as it contains a rather breezy little sketch of Taxas.

Gainsville, Taxas, Gen'l. Del.

"Mr. Usher:

"Will you please send last week's and this Courier to the above address. Was very unexpectedly called hence by my son, Bob. Saw Dix at Great Lakes, also my daughter at Kansas City—each for a few hours. Will try to write you a little account of my trip later.

"Have been out in the Texas sunshina all morning, but the air is still cool and they keep the steam on full blast (its about like the first of June at home). It was a very inspiring trip at this time of the year—more than any other—although I think about July or August it would be more inspiring coming north. The water here is soft and much to my surprise not alkali, as in a great many sections down here, so my initiation is not so bad.

"Yours,
AGNES M. JARVIS."

GRIT YOUR TEETH AND BUY A BOND

Work Your Dollars While the Sammies Work Their Bayonets

Casualty lists are being printed in the papers and occasionally we see pictures of our wounded at the hospitals in France. War is being brought home to us in the middle west. We know that the Americans are fighting over there and this third Liberty loan should find us more willing than ever before, and more eager, to contribute our share townrd defeating the kaiser.

The boys are working the guns. Here we must work the farms and the factories and furnish the money. Buying Liberty bonds is now as much our duty as it is their duty to grit their teeth and beat the Hun to it with the bayonet thrust when the charge comes.

After a young man's fancy has experienced a few light springtime turnings to thought of life it learns discretion and thereafter turns with considerable satisfaction to fishing.

HELP TO MAKE SAMMIES SMILE

"Smilage" Books Are Now On Sale At Agencies

The "Smilage" campaign, which has just closed and to which the people of Charlevoix responded to the tune of $116.00, was an unqualified success.

The pupils of the public schools and the instructors should be complimented upon the ease and efficiency with which this campaign was conducted.

"Smilage" books may be obtained from the agencies: H. K. Allen of the Blanchard Hardware Co., George Glados, Charlevoix Hardware Co., Hotel Charlevoix and Charlevoix State Savings Bank.

It is hoped that our Charlevoix people will not forget to keep the soldiers at the front smiling, which can best be assured through the periodical shipment of "Smilage" coupon books.

General discussion of the subject by the members of the club and a piano solo by Mrs. A. A. Swinton will follow.

This being the last meeting of the Woman's club for the year, election of officers will take place and other business of importance will be transacted. All members are urged to be present.

TRAVERSE WINS HEATED THREE CORNERED DEBATE

Question "Shall Labor Difficulties Be Arbitrated"

A triangular debate between Petoskey, Cadillac and Traverse City was held at Traverse City, Friday, March 22nd.

The question was, "Resolved, That There Should be Compulsory Arbitration of All Labor Disputes; Constitutionality Conceded."

The debate was hardly fought and the decision was two to one in favor of Traverse City, who had the affirmative side of the question.

EMPTY BOTTLE TELLS STORY

Two Indians Meet Death on Railroad Track

An empty whiskey bottle tells the tale of the loss of two lives on the railroad six miles east of Boyne Falls. The bodies of two Indians were found along the track literally ground to pieces by a logging train. Remains of a camp fire and lunch were found on top of a high bank along the side of the track. The men are supposed to have fallen into a stupor and rolled down the bank. The names or addresses of the men are not known. The remains were gathered up in a blanket and buried.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy on the recent occasion of the death of our son.

¶ Do you know that there are over six million farms in the U. S.?

¶ Do you know that there are over two hundred thousand farms in Michigan?

¶ Do you know that only about two per cent of these farms raise enough wheat to feed the owners and their families?

¶ Michigan's Spring Wheat average per acre is better than Dakotas.

¶ Now if each farm in Michigan produced wheat from only five acres the increased yield would be over one million bushels.

¶ Mr. Farmer, this is your duty.

¶ The Government has insured you a good price for any surplus you may sell.

¶ Raise your own wheat and you are sure of your flour without substitutes.

¶ Raise at least enough to support yourself and family.

¶ Spring wheat to do any good must be in early. Mud it in.

¶ Every effort is being made to get seed. We will have some and have some now. Number one northern grown, testing sixty-two pounds per bu. Price is right, $3.00. When this is gone we will get more.

Antrim County Committee Makes Appeal to Citizens to Buckle in and Do Their Bit

Yes. The Third Liberty Loan will be asked for soon. Saturday, April 6th the great drive will begin. Just one year ago on April 6th our own country entered into the world war. We are now into the finish.

General Pershing says, "Germany can be beaten, it must be beaten, it will be beaten." Antrim county will again go "over the top" with its full quota. Banks township must do its part. This appeal goes to every man, woman and child in Banks township. Get ready now to help in every way you can.

Gov. Sleeper has named Rev. Pickart of Atwood, Rev. Wiebenga of near Essex and E. R. Harris of Ellsworth as a committee to arrange the work for this great drive.

The state authorities has suggested the plan that three persons be named a committee in each church and school district to care for the local work. Programs with public speakers will soon be arranged and cared for. If we all get fully awakened, this loan, our part of it, may all be subscribed for in one day.

One county has already made all arrangements to do it all in one day. All other business of every kind will be laid aside one whole day in Kalamazoo county, and they will "do their bit" which will be a "big bite," all in one day's time. Shall we do the same?

During the thirty days set aside for this Liberty Loan Drive, no other funds like the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., etc., will be asked for. Your committee will have all the local arrangements made by April 6th, then you must do your part.

Those of us who are privileged to stay at home and not go with the army can and must do more than "wish the war would close." The person that just wishes "the war would close" and does not go the limit now in helping win the war, has got a "wishbone" and not a "backbone" in his body. Our General Pershing said as he laid the wreath on Gen. Lafayette's grave the other day over in France: "Lafayette we are here and here to stay." Let us also now help, and stay to the finish of brutal kaiserism.

Sincerely,
E. R. HARRIS.

Ralph Larsen returned to his duties at the Great Lakes training station on Tuesday of this week.

ELLSWORTH LOCAL NEWS

Wm. O'Dell's auction sale drew a fair-sized crowd last Saturday.

John Fielstra purchased a team from Guy Pearl ona day this week.

The L. A. S. met at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Madill on Thursday of last week.

Clyda Griffin expects to leave this week with the Antrim county boys for Camp Custer.

Joe Cooper visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearl on Monday of this week.

Don't forget the auction sale at the Tracey Boss farm scheduled for Friday of this week.

The board of registration for Banks township were in session on Wednesday of last week.

F. H. Skow and Rev. Albert Kridler are attending a Holiness convention at Owosso this week.

J. H. Elzinga just received a carload of Chevrolets and unloaded them the first of the week.

Joe Hoffman, who has been confined to the house the most of the winter, is able to be out again.

Laverne Harwood of F troop, 15th Cav., is now at Camp Merritt, N. J., waiting for transportation overseas.

Mrs. Wm. Cole left the first of the week for Flint, where she will visit friends and relatives for two weeks.

Geo. Heller, D. E. Clow and J. H. Elzinga attended the state roads meeting at Traverse City the first of the week.

Some of the boys from the wood camps got filled full of "forty-rod" last Saturday evening and tried to start a riot.

The new school bell arrived last week and is now in place. It is a thirty-six inch bell, exactly like the one on the Holiness church.

The township board were in session at the town hall from Thursday of last week until Monday of this week, making their final settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaLonde received the news last week that their son, Albert had enlisted in the army and is stationed at Kelly Field, No. 1, San Antonio, Texas.

Wm. Patterson has been carrying mail on the R. F. D. the past few days while D. Patterson has been confined to the house is recovering from the effects of vaccination.

Eugene Best left the first of the week for Carson City, Pontiac and Detroit, where he will visit relatives he has not seen for twenty-four years. He expects to be gone about two weeks.

Several letters arrived this week from the boys from overseas. Gus Beuker writes his mother here that the place where the 125th is quartered is fine, but, that it is almost impossible to talk with the French people on account of the difference in the language.

About seventy-five farmers attended the farm meeting at the Blue hall on Tuesday of last week, The meeting was called by county agent, W. C. Cribbs, and several points of the greatest interest to farmers were discussed. Mr. Cribbs created a very good impression on his first appearance here and seems to thoroughly understand his business.

We notice several posters displayed in conspicuous places throughout the village reading something like this: "The Ellsworth High school will give a penny social at the school house, Friday evening, March 29, 1918, commencing at 6:30. Eats will be served at 7:30 and a program will start at 8:30. Bring a smile and lots of pennies. Beware of the cops." Guess we'll have to drift down to the school house and see the fun.

Henry Struik was arrested by deputy sheriff Andrew Densmore last Thursday, charged with breaking quarantine, and was taken to Central Lake by the deputy. When arraigned before Justice Triplett, Mr. Struik plead guilty and was fined thirty dollars and costs which he promptly paid and returned to Ellsworth on the afternoon train sadder if not wiser. The result of Mr. Struik's premature return to Ellsworth following his illness at Central Lake was a bad scare and a harvest for the Doctors, as about one hundred people were vaccinated, some being still very ill from the effects, and it is the opinion of these sufferers that the penalty was far too light for the offense.

Geo Heller returned last week from Washington, D. C., where he had been with potatoes for the Ellsworth Produce Co. On his return trip, Mr. Heller stopped a couple of days with L. K. Clark and family at Buckner, Va., and says he spent two of the pleasantest days of his lifetime visiting his old friends. George is loud in his praises of the climate of that part of the country, and fell completely in love with the splendid farm and beautiful home of the Clark's and Fords. The praises bestowed on the reception and treatment accorded him was unnecessary in this vicinity, as every one who were acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Clark know of the splendid courtesy and hospitality always shown to their friends and the writer, among the many others in Ellsworth, would almost give his chances for a happy home in the hereafter to drop into Buckner for an old-fashioned visit.

PLEASANT HILL

James DeYoung is now through baling hay.

Joe Reamsma is hauling timber for Mr. Fielstra.

Mr. and Mrs. Dekkenga visited at the Fielstra home last Wednesday.

Mrs. H. Fales and son, Cecil, returned from Gaylord last Thursday.

John Fielstra purchased a very valuable team Monday of Guy Pearl.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Rubingh visited at the DeYounge home one day last week.

A man by the name of J. J. Powell, with his family moved from near Bellaire onto the Harris farm last week which they will work this summer.

Mrs. Nick Prince, of Detroit, who was called to see her brother, William Thomas, who got shot by an accident and was very low at Petoskey hospital, visited at the Fielstra home a few days.

ATWOOD

Miss Grace Essenberg is working for Mrs. John Bos.

Wm. Hoffman, Jr., is very sick with pneumonia at this writing.

John DeGroot sold two cows to Gerritt Essenberg a short time ago.

Will Adema is in Graad Rapids at present taking treatments at a sanitarium.

Services will be observed in the Christian Reformed church next Friday, it being "Good Friday."

The L. A. S. of the Christian Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. J. Essenberg last Thursday.

Egbert VandeStreek sold a cow and calf to John DeGroot last week Mr. DeGroot traded the cow to Henry Klooster for three yearlings.

Ed. Klooster from Charlevoix was in town one day last week for a load of beef and pork which he bought from his father, Henry Klooster.

Rev. J. D. Pickart and Bert DeYoung left Monday for Muskegon, where they will attend a meeting of "classes Muskegon" of the Christian Reformed church.

John Parsons, Jr., has not been feeling well of late. He has rented his farm to Chas. Edson for the coming season and will move to town to regain his health.

Mrs. Elizabeth Byers passed away at the Petoskey hospital last Thursday. The deceased was 73 years of age and had been a resident of this section for a great many years. The funeral was held from the Atwood M. E. church, Rev. Parshall officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the Antrim cemetery. The entire community sympathize with the family in the loss of their mother.

Last week Wednesday a meeting was held in the town hall by our country agricultural agent, Mr. Cribbs. We were informed by a gentlemen some time ago that the work of the county agent would be conducted from his office at Bellaire and gave our opinion through these columns of the work of conducting in that way. Mr. Cribbs has disproven this statement, however, by appearing and holding a meeting and informs us he will be out in the field demonstrating the entire season, only devoting the time absolutely necessary to his office. We are convinced that he can do a great deal of good if we are willing to co-operate with him, and here's hoping his work will prove such a success this year that we will not want to be without a county adviser again. One thing more, be sure not to knock at least not out loud. You may be the very man that needs a little advice and if you do, come around to the next meeting and find out for yourself how things stand.

During January, February and the first 18 days of March, A. Bos & Son marketed 1,033.2 pounds of butter fat from 12 cows. Three of them are heifers and two of the number freshened about January 15. The balance freshened in November and December. Last year mention was made in these columns of how well A. Bos & Son's cows were doing and some people seemed to credit the creamery with the results of careful feeding and methods in the dairy barn. This is not to tell how well the creamery is doing by them, as the cows produced this amount and the creamery was merely the means of the disposal of the product. Made into 85 per cent butter, this would be a total of 1,214.8 pounds of butter or 15 3-4 pounds per day for the 77 days. They milked one cow besides the twelve mentioned, but this milk was used for vealing calves. This is probably not a record breaking amount of fat, but is a very good average for an ordinary farm herd.

ANTRIM CITY

Robins are back again to tell us spring is here.

"BATTERY C" HAS A SONG OF ITS OWN

And the Guns Play "Nearer, Nearer Bill to Thee" in Accompaniment

One of our readers has contributed one of the Sammies' war songs which she recently received in a letter from her brother in France. It is a pretty clever bit of composition and we are glad to reproduce it herewith.

(Composed by Corporal Aardema —Somewhere in France)

(Air: Marching Through Georgia)

"Marching into Germany with Battery C, some day,
With the colors streaming and the boys all feeling gay
Then the Huns will flee homeward, many miles away,
While we go marching through Berlin."

Chorus—

"Hurrah, hurrah, for dear old Battery C.
Hurrah, hurrah, we're off for Victory.
And we'll never rest until the kaiser's on his knee,
Beneath the stars in Old Glory.
"How the Kaiser trembles on his throne of tyranny,
How the U-boats scamper back into the Zuyder Zee,
While our guns are playing, 'Nearer, Nearer, Bill to Thee,
While we go marching to Berlin."

Chorus—

Thundered out by the husky Sams when they go over the top—that above certainly ought to put the fear of God and the U. S. into the hearts of the "gray-backs." You can't beat a singing soldier.

SOLDIERS EXEMPT

22 Million Families in the United States

IF EACH FAMILY saved one cup of wheat flour it would amount to 5,500,000 pounds, or more than 28,000 barrels. If this saving was made three times a week, it would amount to 858,000,000 pounds, or 4,377,000 barrels in a year.

You can do your share in effecting this saving and really help to win the war by omitting white bread from one meal today and baking in its place muffins or corn bread made according to this recipe:

Corn Meal Muffins

¾ cup corn meal
1½ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons sugar
No eggs
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Sift dry ingredients together into bowl; add milk and melted shortening and beat well. Bake in greased muffin tins in hot oven about 20 minutes. Same batter may be baked as corn bread in greased shallow pan.

RED CROSS WORK COMPRISES MANY ACTIVITIES

Nursing of Wounded Only a Part of Association's Varied and Important Efforts

What the American Red Cross has done with the millions of dollars entrusted to it by the people of the United States is shown in a statement just issued by national headquarters. Appropriations to date amount to $79,450,727, and to cover the period from the time wa entered the war last April, until April 30, 1918.

For foreign relief the sum of $44,657.795 has been appropriated and much of it spent as follows: France, $30,519,259; Belgium, $1,999,521; Russia, $751,940; Roumania, $2,617,298; Italy, $3,146,016; Serbia, $871,180; Great Britain, $1,703,642; other foreign countries, $2,536,300; for American soldiers who may be taken prisoners, $343,627.

As the government supplies nearly everything our soldiers and sailors need, the appropriation for the United States is only $2,612,532. All snlaries and ndministrative expenses are paid out of membership dues so that every penny of the war fund goes to relief.

The great variety of military and civilian relief by the Red Gross may be indicated briefly: canteens that afford food, baths and lodging for aoldlers at the front; rest stations and recreation centers for soldiers in transit and at port or arrival in Franre; care of orphan nnd destitute children; supplies for 4,000 hospitals; teaching mutilated soldiers new trades; reconstruction of homes and villages; sanltariums for tubercular and other patients; food, clothing, medicine and shelter for adult civillans in distress and mnny other activities.

Anyone sufficiently interested may obtain a full report, showing in which country and for what purpose every dollar was spent, by npplying to the American Red Cross at Washington.

WORKS PROVE DIVINE ORIGIN

these words, 'Marie, aged 14, died afternoon August 27.' This delicate little girl had been stripped of her clothing, her arms tied to tree roots with ropes, had been violated by Germans and left to die.

People Can't Realize Horror

"You men think you know something of the German atrocities. You might as well think you know hell because you heard a sermon last Sunday morning about it. The only way to know them is to talk to the people who have seen them occur along n battlefront 600 miles long, where you see boys that can never be men because of German atroeities, and girls that can never be mothers because of the cruelty of these devils.

"Little children in the hospital in France and Belgium curse Germany and ask God to damn the kaiser and all Germans to everlasting hell in their nightly prayers, despite the injunction of their nurses that they must love their enemies. When pure little children say these things in their prayers there comes a realization of the scars left by the Hun.

A Phase of Efficiency

"German soldiers are first inoculated against typhoid fever then against typhus fever. Next thoy are vaccinated against small pox, after which follows a test of their bloc l to determine whether or not they have contracted syphillls. If they are found clean they are given a ticket which gives them access to the camp girls. If syphillis is found they are cursed and damned by thelr captains who commands them never to visit one of the camp girls. But they can capture French and Belgian girls whom they victimize and to whom they transmit this dread diaease. After a German has communicated this disease to a French or Belgian woman, he cuts off one breast so that no German soldier or the kaiser may contract it.

"Germany's endorsement of crimes aro pieces of round cardboard distributed to her soldiers. On one side is the face of 'The Good Old German God' as the kniser says. Under it instructions nre to strike all dead for when the day of judgment comes no questions will he asked and the German kaiser and his war staff will stand sponsor for the soldier.

Kaiser and God Mixed

"The kaiser has had the devil and God mixed for four years.

"Dairies taken from the bodios of dead Germans further expose the hideous method of Germany's crime efficiency. They aro little yellow booklets, a color typical of Germany.

"If there is a German in this town who disputes what I say I will give him the money to go to the room where he can see these things as I saw them. The dairies taken from twenty dead Germans were practically the same and twenty Germans were not telling the same lies.

Enough of Pro-Germans

"We have had about enough of pro-Germans. When I crossed the Atlantic last fall the air was snapping with wireless messages being sent by pro-Germans in this county to German submarines telling them of the movements of United States transports filled with troops. We are about done with camouflaging and we are going to end this nfter awhile.

"A German captain, who had been wounded in the spine, was cared for by a French priest and his wife. One morning they found him in a stupor. They roused him and he told them that because of their kindness be would give them a pass through the German lines to escape the ravages of the Huns. He fell into another stupor and in a mumbling voice kept repeating over and over, 'Either God is dead or Germany is doomed—doomed—doomed!' Dr. Hillis paused. "God," he said, "is not dead but—Germany is doomed.

"A just God cannot permit murder to triumph over right and liberty. Germany will never smash Great Britain, who acting the part of the Good Samaritan, has given 2,000,000 of her men and $30,000,000,000 to take up Belgium's fight while this country stood by. That is the blackest page on our history. Now we are doing what we can for our neglect, blindness and deafness of two and a half years ago. Christ said the strong must bear the burdens of the weak.

"England has 3,000,000 girls working in her munitions plants who in twenty-four hours turn out as many small cartridges as England did durlng the first year of the war; who in forty eight hours turn out as many large cartridges as England did in the first year and who in four days turn out 1,000 machine guns. Secretary of War Baker told congress recently that this country hnd one machine gun ready for testing and would have nine more about the first of April.

"Patagonia is mobilizing her two soldiers and will lend us her shotgun. The time has passed for us to congratulate ourselves. We must face the cold facts. Germany is laughing at us and we might as well laugh also when we haven't made good in a striking degree. Germany is not going to smash France, either. If there is any one place in which an American should be tonight it is in France."

The lecture closed with pictures of mutilated bodies and ruined towns.

FEELING FIT AS A FIDDLE

FORREST FOWLER WRITES OF DAILY LIFE IN CAMP

Thinks People of Southern State Have Not the Hustle to Them as Their Northern Cousins

Another interesting letter from Forrest Fowler, now at Camp John Wise, San Antonio, Texas, has been handed to us for publication, and we are sure it will be read with great interest by all. The folks at homo are interested in the welfare of tha boys in service, and we deem it a privilega to be able to voice their vlews on what they have seen and are doing through the eolumhs of tho Courier. The letter follows:

April 12, 1918.

"My dear Mother and Father:—Yesterday I received the joint letter you wrote on Sunday, and yesterday wns a big day in another way, too, hecause it was pay day. I never heard the bugle play 'Pay Day' before, but if you never heard it, you would know what it was saying.

"I went down town last night for the first time and I sent you u folder of views and hope they interest you. There nre lots of things a fellow would like to buy, some for himself and the greater part to send bome, souvenirs of Texas, the service and such you know. I however went light except in one respect, I got supper down town just to see if I could eat civilized again, and was very surprised to find that I could. I am ashamed of myself, the size of the order I gave and got away with, but I won't do it again for u whole month, so feel gratified.

"After supper we all went to a big movie and vaudeville house. The tbeatre was up-to-date and the show first class. There were five of us in the bunch—Lloyd Young from Colorado, Mark Coran from Pennsylvania, Kenneth Nevers from Massachusetts, Wm. H. Parker from Wisconsin nnd Forrest Fowler from Michigan. Parker is a millionaire's son, and they are a fine bunch of boys. You see the convention contained five prominent men from five prominent stntes.

"After the show we came back to camp in a Buick Six. Oh! Sammy. How I ached to drive it.

"I got through drilling this afternoon at 4 p. m. (earlier than usual) and it is now exactly 7:30 p. m. nnd I have answered mail enll and received a letter written Mondny from you nnd nlso your box. I hnve eaten supper which was fine as all the meals have been lately. Between supper nnd mail enll and writing, I have done n large! washing. one flannel shirt, underwenr, four pairs socks, big towel and six handkerchiefs. How is that for going some. I got your hox after supper and say, everything was good. I have only sampled each thing beeause I wns full from supper. I am going to take some of the sugar, the butter and steamed brown bread to breakfast with me and eat it with my meal. The eake looks good and the cookies taste great. I am always glad to get the gum and I presume dad, I have you to thank for the chocolate chips, they are fine.

"It is nice nnd warm out tonight and this has been another day, warm but not too hot, and a good fresh breeze.

"San Antonio is the largest city in Texas and is a pretty, qunint city and everything is tropienl in nature, palms and sueh. Lots of dark skinned people. What gets me is the slowness of traffic and the narrow streets. Everything—people and all, move as if asleep. I was nlways bumping someone in the rear. Soldiers everywhere thick as flies, and I saluted offieers until my arm was tired.

"We are hnving gas mask drill every day now and I put it on from the earry position in the haversack at my side in five seconds today. That's pretty fnst, isn't it? Was mensured for a new uniform day hefore yesterday and got a new mess kit, a canteen, a belt and holster. They seem to be outfitting us for the field step by step, and I don't know just what's in the wind.

"By the way, a balloon company is as n rule from three to four miles back of the front, but the disadvantage is that although out of rifle range you are a good target for the artillery and hnve to mnneouver the balloon in raising nnd landing in the open.

"I hope you are feeling bettsr by now, mother, you must keep well so you can enjoy my coming home, because the grand day will sure come when we will all eomo marching home and I know I will be one to return to dear parents and friends and I will never shame their love and faith.

"Received a smileage book, accompanied by a letter and compliments of 'Ferris Institute.' Nieo of them and will acknowledge it at first opportunity. Hope you all boost hard in the Liberty Loan Campaign, for the boys in khaki need the support of the civilians.

"I was very glad to get the Red Cross kit and give Mrs. Nicholls and the Red Cross my thanka and tell her the Red Cross is the mainstay of the boys in many ways—health, comfort and little conveniences. I am feeling great and there is nothing to worry nbout. Well, goodnight folks. Lots of love to you nll. As ever your loving son,"

FORREST.

FRIDAY "OVER THE TOP DAY"

CHARLEVOIX WILL FOLLOW PRESIDENT'S REQUEST

Mayor Rose Issues Proclamation and Firday Will be Day of Patriotic Demonstration

President Wilson has issued a proclumation urging every city and community in the land to observe Friday, April 26th, as the day when every effort will be mnde to not only complete the quota of Liberty Bonds assigned to that community, but to "Go over the Top" with double the amount assigned, if that be possible. The needs of the government require huge sums, and unfortunutely some parts of the country are not coming up to their quota, and will doubtless fall short when the drive closes. To mnke up for this defieiency, other communities must do not only their bit, but their best. Charlevoix has already attnined more than her quota, but our people are not satisfied with being simply as good as others, they want to be better than most, and it is hoped that the subscriptions to be received up to Friday noon will foot up more than double the amount assigned to us, which is in round number $47,000.

If this can be achieved, Charlevoix will hnve the distinction of a blue star on the honor flag that is to fly from the top of the Liberty Loan thermometer. So confident is the local committee that this can be done, thut a celebration is being planned, and below is the proclamation of Mayor Rose relative thereto:

Mayor's Proclamation

"Innsmuch as President Wilson has set aside Friday, April 26th as a holiday to be observed by speeial efforts to raise the Liberty Loan sales to the utmost limit possible, and in co-operation with the Commercial Association which has passed resolutions appropriate thereto, I hereby proclaim that Friday, April 26th is to be 'Over the Top' day in Charlevoix. All stores and business places are directed to close between the hours of 2:00 and 3:00 p. m. Bridge street between Park and State will be closed to traffic during those hours. An appropriate eeremony will take place at the Flag Staff, starting at 2:00 p. m., and all patriotic citizens are urged to be present and partieipate therein. Let us all be present, to rejoice together, should the hopes of the war board come true, and our city win the star for doubling our quota."

FIRE DESTROYS FERRYMAN'S HOUSE

Summer Home of Sam Alexander a Total Loss

Shortly after nine o'clock Thursday night, the small frame house at the foot of the hill near the ferry landing, owned by the county and occupied during the summer months by Sam Alexander and family, who operates the Ironton ferry, was discovered on fire, and within a short time was burned to the ground.

The house hnd been occupied during the day hy Mr. Alexander, who hnd spent his time there while not opernting the ferry. He was at his home near the grange hall when the fire was discovered. Practically everything in the house, consisting of many articles of furniture, summer clothing, dishes, and nbout 30 bushels of beans, are a total loss, the entire structure being a mnss of flames before anyone arrived on the scene.

While a part of the fire loss was covered by insurance, it will be keenly felt by Mr. Alexander.

The Christian Endeavor of the Congregational church will give a May breakfast on May 1, from 6:00 to 8:30 a. m. 17t1.

COUNTY FAIR DIRECTORS MEET

HORSE RACING AND WILD WEST SHOW TO BE FEATURES

Grounds Will Be Wired For Electricity, New Buildings And General Clean-up Planned

Tho annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Charlevaix County Agricultural Society was held at the Russel House, East Jordnn, on Friday, April 5tb. All directors and offieers were present with the exeeption of Richard Lewis, who was detained at the lust moment by war work.

It was a very anthusiastie meeting and all indientions point to an unusually good fuir this fall. The association is planning a number of improvements of the grounds, among them being the tearing down of the present poultry building, the building of a new ono north of the sheep building and tha elearing away of underbrush so that a maple grove can be started next year. It is also planned to wire the grounds for electricity to permit the exhibition of machinery run by electricity and the holding of night faira at a future date.

The dates for the 1918 fair were set for September 17, 18, 19 and 20 and Bee Ho Gray's Wild West show has been secured as a free attraction. Contracts for merry-go-round, several tent shows for the midway and a lurge tent show were approved of by the Board of Directors.

The following officers were appointed: H. B. Hipp, vice president; Dwight L. Wilson, secretary; Samuel E. Rogers and Martin Ruhling, president and treasurer, respectively, were elected last fall.

Committees and superintendents of departments were appointed as follows: Exeeutive eommittee: Robert Priee, H. B. Hipp, E. B. Ward. Finance Committee: Lewis, Wangeman, Burns.

Nat Burns of Charlevoix was appointed chairman of the Speed Committee with power to select the other members.

Superintendents were appointed ns follows: Div. A, Henry Nowland; div B, Terry Barber; div C, Ira Olney; div. D, Ira Olney; div. E, D. F. Meech; div. F, D. F. Meech; div. G, James Meggison; div. H, John Newville; div. I, Mrs. Robert Priee; div. J, Mra. W. Empey; div. K, Mrs. Robert Price; div. L, E. B. Ward; div. M, May L. Stewart.

It was voted to have horse races in connection with the fair and repair work on the track is to be commenced within a short time and the track worked all summer so that it will be in good condition for racing next fall.

The association voted to pay railroad fare one way on thoroughbred cattle shipped in for exhibition purposes from any point in Charlevoix, Emmet and Antrim counties.

Plans were made for gathering up exhibits in part of the county remote from East Jordan and taking them to the grounds free of charge so that our exhibits would be representative of the entire county.

Many other means for bettering the fair were discussed and referred to the executive committee.

Free tickets to school children who are neither absent nor tardy during the spring term of school will be given this year ns last. Miss Stewnrt, the commissioner of schools, will have ehnrge of the securing of these names and teachers should send their lists to her.

The board of directors wish to assure the people of Charlevoix county that they have the success of the fair very much at heart and would be very glad to receive constructive criticism and ask that each man, woman and child start pushing for the 1918 fair and that farmers in all parts of the county lay their plans now for exhibiting the best products of their farms. The exhibits of the 1917 fair gave the Kaiser one black eye and the 1918 fair should black the other eye and knock ont a tooth or two at least.

PROCLAMATION

I, Simon M. Rose, Mayor of the City of Charlevoix, do hereby set aside Tuesday, May 7th, 1918, as "Clean-Up Day" for the City of Charlevoix.

FIRE DESTROYS PRESTON HOME

Blaze From Roof Sets Fire to Barn, Silos and Granaries

The residence buildings of the William Preston dalry farm, in the southeastern outskirts of Petoskey, were destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon, entailing a loss of some $15,000.

The dwelling was one of the finest in the farm district of Northern Michigan. The blaze caught from n spark from the chimney and, driven by a strong northeast wind, was quickly fanned into a roaring furnace. Firebrands were carried to the large barns, silos, granaries, milk house, garage and other farm buildings.

Mrs. Preston, (formerly Miss Lillian Emrey of this city) was at work in the house while Mr. Preston was in the field. The fire was discovered by neighbors.

In addition to the loss of the buildings Mr. Preston lost 500 bushels of oats, a large quantity of hay, $100 worth of grass seed, etc. Loss was partinlly covered by insuranco.

GOVERNOR APPROVES CHARTER

PUT HIS O. K. ON WORK OF THE CHARTER COMMISSION

Full Text of New Charter Will Be Published in Next Issue of the Charlevoix Courier

The new Charter for the City of Charlevoix hns been formally approved by governor Sleeper and under the requirements of the law, will be printed in full in the next issuo of the Courier.

The people will have a chanee to read its provisions carefully and it will then be voted on the first week in June. If it is adopted, the first election of officers under the new charter will occur next November, and the officer then chosen will take office January 1, 1919.

The Charter Commission have given much study and time to the task assigned them, and we believe the people will find that the work has been well done. A brief summary, showing the most important changes from the present charter will be printed by authority of the Commission, with the Charter, and a public meeting will be called later when the matter can be thoroughly discussed, and the advantages of the new form of government explained and questions answered.

Briefly, we can say that the Charter provides for a government consisting of three commissioners, one of whom acts as Mayor. All elections are non-partisan. Commissioners serve without pay and a City Manager is to be appointed, who will he vested with the responsibility of managing the city uffairs and will have all the nuthority necessary, working under the commission, to direct all the various branches of civic affairs.

This is the plnn which has been adopted with marked success in many cities and is simply following out the idea of concentrating responsibility as well as authority in the hands of one man. It will be up to him to "mske good." If he fails to do so he will be "fired." But in his efforts to run the city in a business manner, he will not be hamperedsby political influence or necessity. His joh will depend on his own ability, and not on the outcome of n political contest.

There are many other splendid provisions in the new Charter which will be apparent on reading it and we urge all citizens to watch for it, nnd peruse it enrefully.

STATE READY TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

MEN WHO STOCK UP FACE THE WORKHOUSE

Having Liquor in Possession Is Liability to Arrest, Prescriptions to Be Very Hard to Secure

Everything is in readiness, as far as the state officials are concerned, for the Saharaizing of Michigan May 1. Tho ban upon alcoholic liquors which will becomo operative May 1, weeks from tomorrow at midnight, has been figured out to a nicety. State Drug and Food Commissioner Fred L. Woodworth, with his assistants, is ready for the "drop to fall."

For weeks and for months preparations for the great event have been going on. In fact, ever since Governor Sleeper signed the Wiley and the Damon bills a year ago, there has been some plan under consideration tending toward the enforcement of the law after May 1 of this year. Careful study by lawyers, by experieneed police officers and by sheriffs, prosecuting attorneys and other officials brought about a general understanding among them all as to just what to do and how to do it.

Michigan laws will forbid the possession by an individual of more than eight ounces of liquor under any consideration. That in itself is some law to enforce. But on top of that, any person caught with eight ounces must show conclusively that he or she has acquired, and holds, said eight ounces legally and lawfully. And to prove that it will be necessary to show that it was procured and is being used, or will be used, for mechanical, scientific, sacramental, chemical or medicinal purposes.

No Chance for Camouflaging

For the purpose of the ordinary mortal he may as well forget tho first four of the five causes for booze enumerated above. Around the procuring of these four the Wiley bill has thrown so many peculiar twists and turns that it is going to be mighty hard work for those really entitled to have alcobol for such purposes, to get it. The ways are devious and the methods are so checked up that but little chunce for chicanery is left.

But for "medicinal" purposes is another matter. A nip of good hard liquor for one's stomach is a custom of the ages. But May 1 that custom will be kicked well nigh clear overboard in Michigan. The law is so clear as to how you can get it for your stomach's sake that you can't miss it. Neither can the officers of the law miss you, if they think there is a fake pain and that your "physician" has stretched matters just a little to give you the prescription.

In the first place the old ordsr of a doctor merely pulling out a nice leather-bound prescription book, grabbing his fountain pen and handing you a nice "Rx" for "one quart spiritus fermenti" and some sort of a "sign" on the bottom telling about "one tablespoon in hot water before retiring" is gone for good. Prescriptions are still prescriptions, but this time the law has taken in hand the exact wording of them. They must be on a blank to be furnished by the county clerk, and they must all be alike. They must set forth how many prescriptions that doctor has written for you in the year, and from the looks of them it is going to be pretty hard work for the doctor to do any faking and get away with it.

No Chance for a Prescription "Doc"

Time was when the "prescription" doctor made quite a living in the local option counties. In some spots he may continue to flourish for a few months, but under the system as outlined by the state officials he is not going to get very far with the state absolutely under a dry wave.

As to how the law is going to be enforced, there is still some doubt. That is, as to details. At the start the state is going to be divided into its congressional districts with a sort of a chief investigator in each district. He is to be the representative of the drug commissioner and whatever he ferrets out is to be turned over to the local authorities for prosecution. The state men are to work under the supervision of the local authorities. Of course, on their

Your Bond May Bring Him Home in Safety

The supreme tragedies of war are not enacted on the battlefield, but in the home.

Above the shouts of command and encouragement, the roar and shock of the great guns, and all the swelling tumult of battle which bear the husband and father to a hero's grave and a martyr's glory, there rise the weeping of the bereaved wife and the cries of little children deprived of a father's love and care.

American fathers are now on the battlefronts of France. Many must fall; how many depends upon us who remain safely at home.

A single Liberty Bond will help to save a soldier's life, YOUR soldiers life, and bring him home in safety to those who hold his life far more precious than their own

BANKS TOWNSHIP OVER THE TOP

$10,800 RAISED UP TO MONDAY NIGHT

Committee to Make Strenuous Effort to Reach $14,000 Mark During Drive—Buy a Bond

If anything was needed to wake the people of Banks township up to the necessity of the Liberty bond movement, the speech given by Mr. Oosdyk of Grand Rapids at the Congregational church last Wednesday evening, April 17, certainly rang the bell.

G. J. Deikema of Holland was advertised for this occasion, but a change was made at the last moment. Those who came expecting to hear Mr. Deikema were agreeably surprised, however, as Mr. Oosdyk knew his subject from start to finish and gave one of the best talks heard in Ellsworth.

Mr. Oosdyk was born in the Netherlands and has been in this country about seventeen years, and his familiarity with conditions, both in Europe and America, was a valuable argument in favor of the Liberty bond proposition.

The speaker, although not arriving until four o'clock in the afternoon and being an absolute stranger, had sold over a thousand dollars worth of bonds before supper time, and it was his talk, together with the splendid meeting at Atwood the following night, which was addressed by Rev. Dolfin of Muskegon, which enabled Banks township to go "over the top" ahead of any other township in the country.

Banks township may well be proud of its record in the Third Liberty loan. The quota of $6,000 has been reached and passed and now at noon Monday, April 22, the amount purchased is $10,800 with plenty more in sight. The committee has their goal fixed at $14,000, and this mark is hoped to be reached this week.

The following is the Honor Roll of the Liberty Bond buyers of the third issue up to Monday noon. Those who buy bonds this week will be added to this roll in next week's Courier. Will your name be there?

SMILEAGE SALES REACH LARGE FIGURE

Smileage coupons already redeemed indicate that from 20 per cent to 80 per cent of the attendance at camp theatres is made possible by Smileage. This figure varies with the camp. For example at Camp Meade, 50 per cent of the average attendance is by Smileage. At Camp Bowie on one occasion the unusual condition arose where the entire theatre (over 1,000 seats) was taken exclusively by holders of Smilenge Books. This was a 100 per cent record.

The following extract taken from a letter of F. W. Gunsaulus, president of Armour Institute Technology states impressively the vital military importance of Smileage:

"The Smileage Books are the greatest publication of the year, if I am to judge from reports of the boys to me. Hundreds of my boys are in various kinds of work under the government where they need to smile. The letters I get from them are radiant and jolly with the report of what the Smileage enterprise is doing for their patriotism, haalth and streagth and the Sunday Evening Club by thousands and Central church at the Auditorium in Chicago regard the effect as reported from Smileage scheme as the most valuable piece of spiritual and social artillery at work agninst the kaiser and all other things that ought to be laughed to death."

Forest City, Iowa.

"Betcher life I'll serve. The War Department won't let me put the "I" in fight, so I am doing what I can at home. Issue your orders, I'll do my best to carry them out."

H. F. Thompson, M. D.

This enthusinsm is charackeristic of all Smileage chnirmen throughout the country. Is it nny wonder that Smileage has met with such nation wide success.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

By Willard Cribbs

Sugar beet syrup for the people of Michigan produced from your garden. A very good substitute for sugar can be made in a small way from sugar beets. Cut one half bushel of beets and grind them with a food grinder. Add water and boil for one hour; press through a colander or cider press; add more water and bring to a boil twice and then boil down the syrup. The beets keep well in a cellar and can be used as desired. One half bushel of beets will make almost one gallon of good syrup. This is the way one Ohio woman helped her sugar problem last winter. The residents of Antrim County can do the same.

The monthly meeting of the Antrim county farm bureau will be held at the court house on Saturday afternoon at 1:30, April 27. All the cream shippers of Antrim County should be present at this meeting.

The County Agents office can save the farmer money by co-operating in the listing of tools for sale which are not needed by the owner.

Owing to the farmers changing their crop production from one crop to another, there are a number of tools stored away which some other farmer may be in need of. These tools if listed might be sold to advantage. The lowest cash price should be stated and also the condition and length of time they had been used.

Anyone having horses or any kind of clover seed etc., might find a buyer through the county agent. This bringing the buyer and seller together costs you nothing if you wish to take advantage of the opportunity.

Anyone who has a deposit of marl near their farm should have it tested and see what per cent of lime it contains.

Boys' and Girls' Club Work

Now is the time to organize crop clubs. The boys of Michigan must help us feed ourselves and our Allies by raising more corn, beans and potatoes.

Clubs should choose the crop best adapted to their soils, market and climatic conditions.

The following notes concerning the situation with regard to the different crops may help some clubs decide which crop to raise.

Corn: Seed situation very poor this year. Good seed will be at a premium next year. Boys can raise good seed on an acre if they can get fair seed corn now. Must have enough corn raised to feed our livestock and to substitute for wheat. At present wheat crop looks poor.

Beans: Cost of good seed per acre is not excessive. Can get good seed by testing. We must have large amounts for food next year. Beans should be a profitable crop for club boys this year.

Potatoes: The seed situation is good, the seed is cheap. Not as many farmers planning to plant this year as last. We are rapidly learning to substitute potatoes for wheat in bread and they will be more in demand next year. Potatoes should be a profitable crop for boys this year. Good opportunity for club to standardize seed this year.

Maybe the reason the war department censorship refuses to permit the printing of stories of individual heroism at the front is that it might divert the attention of the people from contemplation of the exploits of the swivel chair heroes at Washington.

Citizens by birth or choice, of a common country, this country has a right to concentrate your affections.—George Washington.

Henry Berens expects to work in Charlevoix the coming summer season.

Dene VanderHeide is working in Ellsworth at the home of Wm. Bradford.

John Faber is head blacksmith in the Aero squadron, of which he is a member. He sent his photograph to a number of his friends last week and he looks as if army life agrees with him.

A great many from Atwood who did not attend the meeting in the interest of the Third Liberty Loan are subscribing at the bank at Ellsworth. Anyone desiring to can fill out and sign an application blank with John Bos, who will see that it reaches the bank. Do not forget that if you wish to pay the entire amount of your bond it should reach the bank before May 4th.

The "Liberty Loan" meeting held in the town hall last week Thursday evening was a decided success. Owing to the condition of the roads, a great many were unable to attend. In spite of this fact $4,000 was subscribed. Rev. Dolfin from Muskegon was the principal speaker and he gave a very fine talk on conditions that exist in Europe and at home, and gave a number of reasons why it was everyone's duty to buy bonds.

Wm. Knight and family deserve great credit in the fact that they subscribed $1,200 to the third loan, besides having subscribed liberally to the second loan last fall. Among those that deserve honorable mention are the families of J. Petter, H. Heeres and the family of H. Klooster, each of these buying $300 worth. The rest were of smaller denominations and all but a few of those present subscribed.

BREEZY SIDE OF BANKS

TIRED OF PROMISES

Says Henry Ford:

"You may tell the American people for me that the aircraft department will live up to the expectations of the American people and the allies."

But when, Mr. Ford?

The point now is that the department has not come within a thousand miles of living up to those expectations which were based on its own promises. The public is sick of such promises and it wants performances.

The cold fact is that the aircraft board's announced program of delivery has so collapsed that the president, as reported, intends to reorgsize the board.

And, the board can not make a scape gont of the factories. Democratic investigations has shown that the fault lies primarily with government officials, mainly the signal corps, who by everlastingly tinkering with and improving upon original designs and altering specifications have caused immense waste of a delay of production which is sufficiently indicated by the statement that the announced program is 74 per cent behind time and that instead of the promised delivery in France by July 1 of 12,000 battle planes only 37 could be delivered at the present rate.

Bureaucratic fussiness has made of the announced airplane program what even the New York Times calls a "mirage of irredescent tints," and manufacturers at their wits' end to comply with the unending changes in specifications cry out in despair. "If they would let us alone we could build planes."

The public has great esteem for Mr. Ford, but it is tired of this everlasting tale of the marvels which the aircraft board is going to perform. It is high time it did some performing or at least permitted the factory people to do some.

Too many government cooks are manifestly spoiling the broth, and if the president's promised reorganization would take the form of putting the job in charge of a single capable head—like that, for instance, on the shoulders of Charles M. Schwab—and compelling the bureaucratic perfection cranks and pendants to keep their meddling hands off the men on the job of production we should presently get several thousand real planes instead of several hundred rainbow promises.

And while we are about it, what about delivery of those perfect Browning machine guns promised by Mr. Baker? How is that promise marvel progressing? If those guns are going to be what they have been cracked up for they are badly needed by our men in France at the present time. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

Recent news dispatches indicate that Germany is plotting through the new Russian socinlist government to start labor troubles in the United States and the allied countries. And still many of our long haired statesmen are very strong for the bolsheviki.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS NOTES

Only 12 visits made to schools during the past week. 17 more will complete the spring round of visits.

The spring term test questions ordered from H. Pattengill of Lansing should have been here for April 1st. A special request that they be sure to be here so that they could be mailed to teachers by April 13th has failed to bring them. All schools were in readiness to conduct the tests for April 18-19 but no questions arrived. The commissioner regrets the delay but such seems to be the nature of the times when we are dependent on express or freight. The only thing there is left to do is to be prepared and give the tests when the questions have come, for we can not very well give them before.

The National Education Association has adopted a resolution requiring all teachers to sign a pledge of unequivocal allegiance to our flag and country together with the contract for next year's work. Certainly any teacher who would refuse to sign such a contract would not be wanted in our schools. If contracts are already completed it might be well to ask the applicants to add this clause to the agreement. We have few slackers among our teachers but the greatest crime in all our communities is indifference, and we have no use for hyphenates.

The National Educational Association, the U. S. Department of Superintendents, and the committees on a living wage have all written to the commissioner this week urging that this county take a stand for higher wages for teachers. They argue that in the shortage of labor we must not allow war conditions to affect the quality of teachers that we employ. The patriotism of the school and the boys and girls, as well as their training for the future, are largely dependent upon the kind of teachers whom we now employ. In order to know that our schools will have teachers, and that these teachers be the right kind we must pay a price which will attract good teachers to the profession.

Miss Mayme Scroggie has accepted the Horton Bay school for $70 per month.

Miss Agatha Kenny returns to the Chaddock school with a fine raise. She will receive $60 per month, have janitor work done for her and will be provided with good sweeping compound with which to furnish her janitor.

School officers have nearly all sent in the summary of school conditions requested some time ago. Officers not having done so will please remember the stamped envelope which they received some time ago.

Miss Bardwell of Wildwood is preparing an excellent exhibit for her last day of school. The health bulletins with illustrations found by children in catalogues and magazines are especially worthy of mention. She is also planning Red Cross booklets for language lessons.

Teachers should note carefully the work of the Fair Association in requesting that they send in names of pupils neither tardy nor absent during the spring term. This should be done at close of school. Do not wait until next fall. To these pupils complimentary tickets to fair will be given. Note also that arrangements are being made for bringing exhibits to the fair from distant parts of the county.

Boyne Falls has promoted her principal Miss Marion Savidge to the superintendency next year and has given her a fine raise in salary. Each of the grade teachers will receive $75 per month. The entire teaching force remains, four teachers in all.

Glad to hear our schools singing the fifth stanza of America.

MUSICAL BENEFIT A BIG SUCCESS

Participants Displayed Exceptional Training and Talent

The musical for the benefit of the Red Cross, given at the Opera House on Friday night of last week, under the direction of Mrs. Madill, is entitled to the one glowing adjective, which would seem to describe it fully and accurately—magnificient.

Some of the pupils displayed exceptional talant, while all showed the result of excellent training. We earnestly request Mrs. Madill to reproduce her musical for the benefit of the many patriotic citizens who were unable to attend.

FARMERS!

Now is the time to test your loyalty. Immense quantities of seeds must be planted this spring on every available spot of earth in the great United States. Yes, farmers, remember you must grow enough crops to feed this great United States; your soldiers in France; your sailors and your Allies. This is real loyalty, indeed. You know there is no half way to Patriotism—you are either for America and our Allies or you are for the Huns. We must be true Americans, not weaklings. We must stand firm for the rights of all mankind as against the aggression of the Kaiser. Farmers, make your crops strike a blow at your enemies. Plant every inch of soil you own, and don't only plant the seeds but take care of every stalk and plant as in doing this you perform the greatest loyalty to your country so near and dear to you. This awful war, remember, has become the engrossing work of the world, so be loyal and do your part—yes, we must all do our part. We are doing our part oeffring you seeds of all kinds; seeds of quality offering you seeds at rockbottom prices. Be loyal to your home merchants and buy your seeds at home, yes, buy everything at home—there is a reason. Mr. Tom, Diek and Harry, out of town merchants don't help you pay your taxes; they don't help you bring your Liberty Loan quota over the top—don't forget these facts.

We are your true friends and hand in hand we should work. Our profits are small on all our seeds; our profits are small on our groceries; our profits are small on our feeds. Uncle Sam says you must put a very reasonable margin of profit on articles; we are with Uncle Sam and we are obeying every demand. Remember, food is going to win this war. Grow it and you are doing your bit.

STATE READY TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

own hook, the local authorities are supposed to be watching everybody and when they find some citizen who is disobeying the law it is their business to get after him.

Where the local authorities refuse to do their duty, recourse is to be had to the governor and if no good explanation is made, that official can remove anybody from office. In case the local authorities say they haven't force enough to enforce the law, the state constabulary may be called in. That, however, is perhaps the last resort. The chances are that a real liquor law violator will be caught before the state constabulary is invited to participate.

For months past, or ever since the laws were passed, many citizens of Michigan have been loading up on liquor. The state officials know that many men who want their "eye opener" regularly have been stocking up their cellars, their cellarettes and their sideboards in anticipation of the dry time that is to come. It is the problem of handling this sort of citizens that is worrying everybody. And it is this class of citizens who are doing a lot of worrying themselves. They are wondering how they are "going to put it over."

Possession is Law Violation

It must not be forgotten that the law specifically states that the possession of liquor, unless it be legally acquired and legally held, is a violation of the law. That is to say, the man who buys a quart at a saloon on April 30, takes it home and taps it on May 1, is technically a violator. As long as he has a spoonful of it in his house on May 1 or thereafter, he is a law violator.

But everybody asks, "Are they going as far as that?"

Commissioner Woodworth and his assistants merely answer that question by pointing to the law. They point out that under the old search and seizure law which is rehabilitated by the Damon bill (the bone-dry bill), they can go anywhere and see if there is liquor to be found. Of course technically they are withheld from entering a man's private residence. But, under the law—the old search and seizure law—an affidavit from somebody that the house is a place of resort and noise, will produce a search warrant. Then it is all off, for the moment liquor is found the trouble starts.

Of course it is not expected that search warrants will be promiscuously obtained on flimsy affidavits. But it can be done, and if some officer of the law who does not like you, becomes convinced you have a bottle in your cellar, he can nail it. That's plain English, but it is something the drinkers of Michigan will have to understand.

Hide Bottle in Coal Bin

If a man has a bottle, the only safe thing for him to do is to hide it in the coal pile; to drink from it when nobody is looking, and when he has taken a drink, use some breath killer so that nobody will be suspicious. And above all else, he must not talk about that bottle. And if he invites a friend in, he must be careful about that friend. Some friends may wobble after one drink. If he has friends of that sort, the best thing to do is to put them to bed until they can walk straight. For a drunken man coming out of a private residence is going to be pretty good evidence that there is liquor in that house. And if the drunken man is caught a search warrant is just as likely as a solicitor for a bond during a Liberty Loan drive.

Every possible tippling place is blocked under the new law. The old-fashioned prescription counter in the drug store is abolished. When a man went in to the drug store in a dry county and went behind the counter to "see that his medicine was properly compounded," he usually went back there to take a drink. Now he won't find that nice big bottle to drink out of. In fact, many of the leading druggists of the state have informed Commissioner Woodworth that after May 1 they will cease handling whiskey at all. They do not want to fuss with the stuff which has to be handled as carefully as dynamite.

Law Sure to Be Enforced

Commissioner Woodworth will not discuss any of his plans for the law enforcement except in a general way. With his special attorney, Lee H. Pryor, he has visited all sorts of gatherings of county and city officials, drug store keepers, wholesalers and almost every person who will have something to do with liquor or the liquor law. He has told them all the same—the law must be enforced. Just how far depends entirely upon how far it is violated. As a plain matter of fact there is going to be trouble at the start chiefly for the bootlegger and the blind pig operator. After he is attended to, there may be some prosecutions of the individual who takes a drink, just to show that it must not be done.

In state officialdom, it is not expected that there will be any noticeable violations of the law until the stock on hand when the state goes dry, is consumed. In other words, when the men who drink, have consumed what they have saved up for the "dry day," there will be a market generally for the bootlegger and for men of his kind. As long as the supply lasts, however, little trouble is looked for.

Junior Red Cross Notes

Applications for enrollment for Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries have been received by Cedar Valley school, Nowland school, Mountain school, St. Joseph's school of East Jordan, Greentown school of Beaver Island and the McGeagh school. Part of these were not made out on the required blanks and will have to be returned but all will be recognized some time this week. All have met the requirements in raising the fund and in the manner of raising the money, but a few are weak on the pledge required. Each school is allowed to write its own pledge of service to the Red Cross. The Chicago schools have adopted a form which contains six different paragraphs, but we feel that the Mountain school of Eveline township has condensed the entire thought in one sentence as follows: "I pledge that I will give at least one half day each week to some kind of Red Cross work, that I will not waste, but carefully save for our soldiers, that I will study and work so as to become a true American citizen, and that I will love, honor and respect my country and my flag."

The activities which the Mountain school has undertaken are knitting of blocks for quilts, making gun wipes and scrapbooks. They are making a strong point of self-denial.

Schools that have nearly attained their funds ready for application are Boyne City high and grammar grades, the Boyne Falls public schools and Three Bells. Socials are being given in many other schools this week.

Deer Lake has several times her required fund.

The Slaughter school is ignoring the making of mere blocks and is doing splendid regulation work in the knitting of wristlets. Miss Howard, the teacher, is carefully inspecting each pair which the pupil undertakes.

We are proud to learn that the Ironton boys all know how to knit and that the girls knit socks as well as our grandmothers of fifty years ago.

Summer work of the Junior Red Cross is largely agricultural. Girls are urged to can food products that otherwise might be wasted. Boys and girls are both urged to keep a pig, raise chickens or have a garden.

M. A. C. extension clubs are being organized for this purpose. Splendid clubs have already been organized in the Village of Boyne Falls and Ironton. Next year the movement will be affiliated with the Junior Red Cross in each school room. At the present time clubs are being organized only where the direct co-operation of the parents and pupils is offered.

The Mountain school, Three Bells and Star schools have requested that the club leader, Mrs. C. F. Smith, of Boyne City, and her assistants, Mr. Smith and Miss Stewart visit them and help them to organize a Junior Red Cross Agricultural club under Federal lead.

The county secretary of the chapter school committee, Miss Pauline Munson, visited a number of the prospective school auxiliaries during the past week.

The keynote to all school auxiliary work—citizenship training, and each teacher on the job and each parent working for the cause.

Baptist Church

At the Baptist church Rev. C. A. Rice filled the pulpit both morning and evening of last Sunday to the enjoyment and profit of all who attended.

The usual services will be held next Sunday. The speaker will be announced on the bulletin boards. Especial attention is called to the B. Y. P. U. service at 6:30. Do not miss it.

Kelly-Springfield Tires and Tubes

We have taken the agency of these fambus tires and tubes and have them now in stock. From what we have been able to learn there is not a better tire made and sold on the market today. They insure all pneumatic tires bearing their name and serial number to be free from imperfections in material and workmanship and if upon examination they are found to be defective, they will replace them upon the following basis: Plain tread 5,000 miles; Driving tread 6,000 miles; Kant-Slip tread 6,000 miles. In Ford sizes—Plain tread 6,000 miles; Kant-Slip tread 7,500 miles. What fairer offer can be made by any manufacturer or dealer?

Goodyear Tires and Tubes

When you buy a Goodyear Tire from your dealer, and it is delivered to you over his counter, think of it not alone as a product purely utilitarian, a servant of your comfort and your need; but view it also in the light of its larger accomplishments. Think of the many miles of service you are obtaining and the security of knowing that the tires under you will hold up at any stage of the game and give you the very best of service. There is a great deal of satisfaction in this—just knowing that when you start out a day's or hour's ride, you will not be obliged to stop on the road and make a shift in tires. This is but a sample of the service the Goodyear tires and tubes will give you. Are you a user? Why not—hundreds right here in Charlevoix city and county are.

We have other tires in stock, but especially recommend the two mentioned above.

Another former Chnrlevoix boy writes bis relatives here of army life and expresses his disappointment over the delay in being sent oversens. Cleo Trnfford is a son of D. L. "My dear Glennie:—Your letter came Saturday and found me in good health and enjoying life tho best that I know how. I was glad you sent the Courier clippings for I enjoy them very much. The weather is quits bad here now. It bns rained and snowed for two days and is quite cold. I hopo it stops pretty aoon for I have seen enougb cold weather for one year. I nm used to the warm weather, after belag in tho tropics so long. The climate here is finc, although it is damp, but I hope that i will be on tho other aido by tbe timc that the warm weather comes this yenr. You know that I saw some active service while I was in Haiti in 1915-16 and it is bad to be here on this side when there is something on the other side that I should be in. This is the way that I feel, and I hope to get over there before long. I have received my Red Cross things and they were fine. Every one has received their's that I know nbout. They are sure warm and I enjoy wearing them very much.

"There is two things that Uncle Sam does for his men. The first is to give them all the clothes that they need, and tbey are not clothes of any other nation as some people think. The second is to feed them all they need, that is, all that is required to keep a man in tbe condition he he ahould be in while he is in the service. Of course you do not get pie, cake, etc., every meal but you get food that will keep you in fighting trim.

"I have met several boys from Michigan since I have been in tho service, but none that I knew. Most of them came from Detroit. Well there is not much to write this time so will close and do a little work. I will try and write more next time. With love to all,"

CHARLEVOIX CITY DOUBLES QUOTA

HOME TOWN WINS HONOR FLAG WITH STAR

First City in State of Michigan to Achieve This Distinction in Third Liberty Loan

Charlevoix forever! We are mighty proud of our city, as every citizen has a right to be, for this is the first city in the state to double its quota in the Third Liberty Loan.

Under the effective work of the salesmen in this district, we had reached our quota on the second day of the drive. As the returns came in, it was seen that with a little extra effort that quota could be doubled, and as the local War Board had received word that the government wanted six billions if it could be raised, it was determined that Charlevoix would do her share at any rate, and Friday morning the figures showed that in this city and the townships of Norwood, Marion, Hayes and St. James, which are in this district, the subscriptions totaled $95,800, which is nearly a thousand dollars more than twice the quota.

A patriotic celebration in honor of this achievement was planned to be held at the "Liberty Pole," and Mayor Rose's proclamation asking all business places to close, was well observed.

At two o'clock the school children assembled in the block, which had been closed to traffic, and a large crowd of people were present to witness the raising of the honor flag and listen to the program.

Will E. Hampton, chairman of the City War Board, presided, and announced the purpose of the gathering. The school children lead in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," after which the total figures of the subscription was announced, and City Clerk, Chas. Emrey, pulled the rope that ran "Uncle Sam" up to the top of the flag staff.

The announcement of the winning of the honor star for the flag presented by the Secretary of the Treasury for cities doubling their quota was then made, and Mayor Rose was asked to break out the pennant. As it unfolded in the breeze, it was greeted with rousing cheers and wild enthusiasm.

Mayor Rose was then called on and delivered a forceful address, closing by inviting all good Americans to join the American Defense Society, of which he is the local president.

The next speaker was Rev. C. E. Taggart who gave a most eloquent talk, and was interrupted by frequent cheering. He closed by reading in a masterly manner a poem that stirred his listeners to the utmost.

Dr. R. B. Armstrong was the next speaker, and, as we heard one man express it—"The farther he goes, the better he gets!" He recounted the story of Atilla and his Huns, and said that to call the Germans "Huns" was a slander on the barbarians who scourged Europe in olden days, for Atilla was a kind-hearted Christian gentleman as compared to the bloodthirsty brutes who have murdered babies, ravished women and girls and committed unmentionable crimes in France and Belgium.

Chairman Hampton then introduced a naval recruiting officer, who arrived in town just in time to be a feature of the program. His name is James Wigle, a coxwain who has seen eight years of service in the navy, had been submarined once, while in charge of the gun crew on a tank steamer, and later had served seven months in the war zone on a destroyer. Before coming back to America as a recruiting officer, he with other "jackies" was given a chance to see land fighting in the trenches, and he told of going over the top, and seeing with his own eyes, in a town they captured in Belgium, a babe hanging on a meat hook in a butcher shop, still gasping as its life blood ebbed away; and a civilian torn limb from limb by horses from a German artillery team. He told of the great need for men to man the merchant ships now building and made the hit of the day when he closed by saying to the young ladies present: "Girls, if you have got a young man keeping company with you, just ask him 'why don't you go?' And then if he is able-bodied and don't go, trade him off for a young man under or an old man over the war age!"

The program was interspersed by splendid singing of patriotic songs by a male quartette, cheering by the high school, led by Walker Miles, and closed with "America" led by the schools. And the martial music by Wm. Collins and John Smith, and grandson, before the program started helped to draw the crowd, and to enthuse them after they came.

It was a great occasion, and a successful celebration of a day that would be long remembered as one of pride and satisfaction. For our little city, with not a single industry deriving a dollar of profit from war or war industries, has led the entire state in patriotic giving when our country calls.

No wonder Chairman Hampton was proud to make the announcement and to lead the cheering for the best, most patriotic little city on earth! "So say we all of us!"

ACKLEY TO BE HERE COMING SUMMER

Will Have Merry-Go-Round In Connection With Bowling Alleys

The Courier is in receipt of a letter from H. A. Ackley, who conducted the bowling alleys and base ball game on the Greene property here last summer, and who has this spring purchased a part of that frontage, that he will be here again this season, with not only the bowling alleys and ball game, but a new jumping horse merry-go-round.

Mr. Ackley states that his outfit will be a new one, and that our summer visitors will have no cause to complain in the line of amusements. He will also make all the fairs in this section of the state during fair time with his merry-go-round.

NASSON NOW EXPERT RIFLEMAN

EVELINE TOWNSHIP BOY IS PROUD OF RECORD

Has Been Transferred From Paris Island, S. C., to Curtis Field, Miami, Florida

Private Emil Nasson writes a lengthy letter from his new quarters at Curtis Field, Miami, Florida, which will prove most interesting to those who read it. He tells us the trip from his former camp to the present one, and relates many interesting facts of what "the boys in khaki" are doing and what they expect to do to Kaiser Bill if given an opportunity. The letter follows:

Curtiss Field, Miami, Fla.,
April 23, 1918.

"Dear Editor—It's some time since you have heard from me and it's also a seemingly long time since I have received an issue of my good friend 'The Courier.' No doubt it has been lost in the mail transfer.

"Seventy-seven of us left Paris Island on April 7 and came by the way of Savannah and Jacksonville. At the latter city Pullmans were provided for us and we enjoyed a good nights rest, to awaken at daylight among orange groves, pineapple fields and roses blooming on every side. Our breakfast was awaiting us at Fort Pierce, where we stopped for about an hour, then boarded the train to complete our journey.

"Arrived in Miami at two o'clock. Was greeted by a heavy downpour of rain, but such little things don't worry marines, and instead of looking for a shelter we boarded trucks and were hurried out to Curtiss Field, a distance of five miles from the city. The roads are twice as wide as our roads up home and are well cared for, it only taking thirty minutes for the trip.

"This camp is situated on the edge of the Everglades and only for two canals under construction now, the field would be covered with water, as it has been in past years, with fine fishing grounds where our tents are now located.

"This camp is operated by the Marine Corps and nearly all flyers are Marines with the exception of some sailors. There is a naval air station at Dinner Key about ten miles from Curtiss Field where hydroplanes are used exclusively. Machine gunners get their first practice from these machines at targets placed on small isolated islands a short distance from the mainland. The Marine and naval air stations co-operate in all the flying work.

"Would like to tell you more about the camp but we are asked to reveal as little information as possible.

"My old company is in Quantico, Virginia and Shapton is with them, much to our disappointment that we should be separated.

"I came away from Paris Island the proud possessor of an Expert Rifleman's medal which means five dollars more per month until I shoot on the range again. Only thirteen made expert out of sixty-eight, so I feel I have reason to be proud of my medal.

"We are doing guard duty here and expect to go with the first Marine Aeronautic Squadron to France in about three months or sooner. Of course many things can happen in three months, and as long as one is in the service he isn't sure of anything but a place to eat, sleep and something to do.

"Miami is a fine city of about 30,000 inhabitants and the people treat us fine. We were over to the winter home of William Jennings Bryan last week to a lawn party. William Jennings gave us a fine lecture, for which he is noted, and then grape juice and cakes were served to over three hundred sailors and marines.

"With best regards to all, I must close for this time."

UNDINE SCHOOL NOTES

The eighth grade finished orthography this week.

Glad to have company—hope more of the patrons visit us.

Miss Lila Scott and Miss Arrah Howe were visitors at school Thursday afternoon.

Three new pupils have entered school, Roy Jupp, Florence Long and Maud Beeman.

We have ordered five pairs of knitting needles which will be a great help in our work.

Theo. Scott, Wesley Smith, Celia Howe and Edna Hunt have drawn the maps for geography work this week.

Those who were neither tardy nor absent for the week: Clare Bartholomew, Ruth Stroud, Celia Howe, Theo. Scott, Milo Smith, Cradden Scott, Gladys Hunt, Sylvia Hunt, Alfred Beaman, Roy Jupp and Maud Beeman.

The roll of honor for perfect lessons: Clare Bartholomew, Ruth Stroud, Oscar Stroud, Celia Howe, Edna Hunt, Cradden Scott, Milo Smith, Wesley Smith, Florence Long, Lena, Joe and Ranney Thomas, Gladys Hunt and Harry Hunt.

We are wondering what some of the autos would do if it wasn't for our boys. We are very much afraid one certain young man and his lady friend would have had to stay with their car stuck in the stand for several hours if it had not been for our school boys.

Several of our boys have shown what real strictuitiveness is. They have been obliged to ravel out their blocks several times before they were knitted to suit, but at last succeeded and now have several very good blocks for the Red Cross Afghan which the school is knitting.

DISTRICT NO 1, HAYES

Oscar S. Tillotson had hay balers two days last week.

Fine weather for plowing. M. Glaser has 5 acres of spring wheat sown.

Mr. and Mrs. Guest, of Alberta have come to occupy their farm (the Ross place.)

Mr. Legal of Bay Shore is doing the mason work on the Alex Banks house, and Oscar Tillotson the wood work.

District No. 1 subscribed $1,900 in the recent Third Liberty Loan, solicited by Frank C. Burnett and Henry Hair. One resident took a $1,000 bond.

The entertainment and box social at the schoolhouse last Tuesday evening was enjoyed by all present. The play given by the school "The Henpecked Singing Skewl" was well rendered. One of the old time boys thought he could reach a "high note" by standing up. All were dressed in old fashioned dress and sang songs of fifty years ago. The money received from sale of boxes $18 will be used in the interest of the Junior Red Cross.

DRAFTED MEN LEAVE MONDAY

FIRST CONTINGENT OF SECOND ARMY NUMBERED 25

Charlevoix Soldier Boys Given Royal Send-Off Despite Rain as They Leave for Camp Custer

The first contingent of drafted men, called to form the second national army, left Monday morning, the names of those who went to Camp Custer being as follows:

Ira Raymond Howard, Charlevoix.
David Nickola, Boyne City.
Harrison L. Smith, Bay Shore.
Louis E. Gravelin, Charlevoix.
Jerome J. Herron, Boyne City.
Howard Hazen Jones, Boyne City.
Harlin McGhan, Charlevoix.
Clyde Hopkins, Boyne City.
William Crouterfield, Boyne City.
Edword F. Nachazel, East Jordon.
Thomsa T. Jenson, East Jordan.
Charles L. Thomas, Charlevoix.
Walter G. Hull, East Jordan.
Edward Roy Hausler, East Jordan.
Allen H. Ellis, Boyne City.
Walter Moore, Charlevoix R. R. 1.
Joe Pudvan, Boyne City.
Arthur Wilfred Fogan, Charlevoix.
Sherman Wildy, Boyne City.
Alex Homer, East Jordon.
Ray S. Dodd, Ionia.
John F. Gould, Detroit.
Earl F. Whittington, Chicago.
Shermnn J. Howe, Kalamazoo.
John C. Shier, East Jordan.

John Neal Kent of Eveline township, also left on the some train with the other boys, but he had been assigned to Columbus, Ohio.

The weather was rainy and disagreeable, but in spite of the storm a large crowd of people drove to the depot to bid the boys farewell and God-speed. About fifty automobiles formed a parade, that left the Court House, where the selects had been assembled, and drove through Bridge street to the depot. The high school students were excused to participate in the demonstration, and at the depot each soldier to be was given a comfort kit, presented by the Red Cross.

Just before the train pulled in W. E. Hompton, chairmon of the City War Board, briefly addressed the boys, saying n few words of appreciation, encouragement and advice and gave into their hands a small silk American flag as an emblem for which they were going to fight and which we all knew would be treasured and returned unsullied by a single strain.

The high school boys gave hearty cheers for each select by nome, the conductor gave his signal, and amid cheers, tears, and aching hearts, our boys rolled out of the station to engage in the great ndventure.

We hate to see them go, but we would have little use for them if they tried to shirk their duty. Let those who remain safe at home remember that there is much to be done to win this war that we can do. Let us save our dollars to buy more bonds; let us save on foods; and let us "keep the home fires burning," so that our boys at the front will feel that every American dollar and every American family is backing them to the limit.

ONLY AMBITION "TO GET ACROSS"

CLIFFORD TAYLOR NOW AT VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA

Former Charlevoix Boy Holds Position as Assistant Chief of Construction Work

"I have just made a nice stride towards the goal of all the boys in service—France," writes Clifford Taylor, son of Mrs. A. M. Paulson of this city, one of the first Charlevoix boys to offer his service to Uncle Sam. The writer tells of many interesting things that is going on daily in the preparation of the United States to defeat the Kaiser and his ambition to rule the world.

Virginia Beach, April 10.

"Dear Mr. Taggart: Just a line to tell you about our new location. I made a very nice stride towards the goal of all the boys in the service—France. Am still a long ways from there, but it seems a little more real after looking about down here, and now my only ambition is to get across.

"War seems very far away back home except for such bits of news as can be gleaned from the newspapers and from those who have relatives "over there," but here one can see the gigantic preperations that are constantly going on.

"It really is a most wonderful and impressive sight to view the ships in Hampton Roads and in the bay between Norfolk and Newport News—ships from nearly every country on the maritime world are anchored.

"It is quite interesting to study the different types of camouflage as are being used in disguising the true outline and character of the vessels. One's own imagination can certainly conjure to the mind the adventures that could in all possibility have occurred.

"We are on a very large range here. It is located about 20 miles from Norfolk, on the ocean beach. Every Monday the naval base authorities send about 400 men here and they remain the entire week. They are all coached and instructed in the small arms work and every man fires the marksman, sharpshooter, expert riflemen, pistol, machine gun and team competitions. So you see they receive a pretty complete training in this respect.

"Though in the past, the requirements for an instructor in small arms were not very strict, they have increased a great deal lately. Now to be a qualified instructor, a man must pass an examination of 400 questions, with a grade of 95 per cent, be an expert rifle-man and many other things. We have school four nights a week and it must be attended, for its not optional.

"At present I am assistant chief of construction work here. I have been building roads, septic tanks, rifle butts and such work, and I find it very interesting.

"Well, I believe that I have written about enough for this time, so will close. Will be very glad to hear from you at any time. Sincerely, Clifford Taylor,

Navy Rifle Range, Virginia Beach, Virginia. "Ships Company."

SPEEDERS WILL NOW GO EASY

COUNTY NOW HAS MOTOR CYCLE COP

Means That "Joy Riders" Will Do a Smaller Business Than Formerly

Speeders, Look Out! the county now has a full fledged Motor Cycle Cop and he will be on duty all the time. The best part of it all is that no one will know him and can never tell where he might be.

The county has been considering this step for a long time. During the past summer there have been several accidents on the road throughout the county, and many of them were caused by speeding and other improper use of one's car on the road. Several times "joy riders" did considerable damage to themselves and their vehicles, besides the roads, and other people who happened along at the same time.

While this may not entirely cease at once, it likely will after a few stiff fines have been paid by drivers. The speed limit on county roads is twenty-five miles per hour and it is the intention of those in charge to enforce the law as far as is possible.

Another feature of the patrolman is that he will save his cost in road maintenance alone, to say nothing of the losses of life and limb and the damage to cars and other property. —Boyne City Bee.

CAMPBELL NAMED ON ADVISORY BOARD

Former Charlevoix Young Man Receives Honored Appointment

The San Francisco Examiner, under date of April 17, contains an item of news that will greatly interest the friends of Ira D. Campbell, son of Mrs. P. D. Campbell, who left Charlevoix for the west some twelve years ago. The article says in part:

"Ira D. Campbell of San Francisco was appointed admiralty counsel for the shipping board in place of Alfred C. Huger, who has been commissioned a major in the army.

"Campbell is an associate attorney in this city with McCutchen, Olney & Willard in the Merchants Exchange building. He lives at 1859 Vallejo street. Campbell has obtained a high rating among the admiralty lawyers of the Pacific coast. He was recently in Washington, D. C., where he has been acting in an advisory capacity to the shipping board."

The news of Mr. Campbell's appointment will be received by his many Charlevoix friends with considerable gratification, and there is not a doubt in the minds of one of them that he will not make good.

RED CROSS

"No American has a right to a night's sleep unless during the day he has done something to aid in the war against Germany," Col. Roosevelt declared in New York on April 28th at a Liberty Loan meeting.

It ought not to be necessary to urge people to do Red Cross work, but if 10,000 sweaters are to be made a week for the next 15 weeks in the U. S. A. some must work and work fast.

Knitters, attention! Red Cross knitting is not fancy work, it is war work. We do not give out yarn to people to keep indefinitely. We want all yarn that has been out a month or more returned whether the garments are finished or not. This month (May) we have a big quota to fill of sweaters. Will those who have sweater yarn make a special effort to get garments in promptly, please. Our shipment last week was as follows: 21 sweaters; 4 pair slippers; 11 pairs socks; 1 pair pajamas; 14 comfort pillows; 2 helmets; 3 laprobes; 34 pneumonia jackets; 21 oakum pads; 50 4 x 4 compresses; 350 4 x 4 wipes. Our donors this week are Capt. and Mrs. Frank Partridge, Mr. Jess Smith, Hedrika Krulik and Louise Bush and Mrs. Harsha.

We are glad to give the comfort kits as the boys leave for camp and wish each of our boys good luck.

MABEL W. NICHOLLS,
Chairman.

Am. Expd. Forces, Franca.
April 2, 1918.

"Dear Father and Folks—I received your letter today also Henry's and I hope this letter finds you all well. I am feeling fine and fat as a pig. France isn't such a bad place after all. I am learning the language first. You would laugh to see me talk with the people I meet in town. They can't speak a word in English. Words I can't speak I have to act by using my hands and feet and they do the same. It is just like watching a show.

"I am near a nice city and am kept busy during the day, until five o'clock then I can go into town. I am working in the barber shop. I have every Tuesday and Sunday afternoon off.

"We have a nice Y. M. C. A. here in camp, where I spend my time while writing or reading. We have a military band here which furnishes us with music every day.

"We get paid in French money here. It runs in francs and centimes. It takes five centimes to make one cent. You can just about imagine the time I had learning this money.

"Did you get my Easter card? Answer soon (as the French say) 'Toot,' 'sweat,' when we asked to hurry up. From your loving son,

BANKS TOWNSHIP DOUBLES QUOTA

$13,350 Raised Up to Noon on April Thirty

Although the Liberty Loan drive in Banks township has slowed up in the last week, it has not yet stopped and at noon, April 30, the bulletin board shows the amount subscribed as $13,350, only a trifle short of the $14,000 looked for by the more hopeful.

As the quota was $6,000, it is more than doubled and Banks township feels that it is doing its share in over-subscribing Antrim county's quota.

Following are the new names to add to the Liberty Bond honor roll, the ones who have purchased bonds the last week.

MUST HAVE NURSES NOW OR NEVER

Red Cross Must Have 5,000 More by June 1.

"Every Red Cross nurse saves 500 soldiers!"

That is why the Red Cross is making such strenuous efforts to enroll 5,000 more graduate nurses by June 1. For the entire year of 1918, 25,000 nurses must be enrolled to assure our expanding army and navy of adequate care.

As the nurses come forward to answer their country's call, other young women who are educated and desirable must enter nurses' schools to keep the ranks filled and provide service for the people at home. Courses may be taken at a number of places throughout the country, and every Red Cross chapter can give information to young women who wish to study.

Making surgical dressings and hospital garments are important, but if there are no nurses to apply them to our wounded soldiers, they would be useless. Consequently, graduate nurses who have been boiding back will see the imperative need of enlisting at once. The Red Cross considers it one of the foremost tasks assigned to it by our government to stimulate enlistments among nurses.

With American boys being wounded in large numbers in the great battle in France, every American nurses heart will bent with patriotic fervor and June 1 undoubtedly will see 5,000 more enrolled under the Red Cross banner.

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

By Willard Cribbs

There is a chance for the people of every home to do their bit three times a day.

We can learn to take advantage of our situation in more ways than one and use every opportunity which we can see to put one more nail into the coffin of "William, the Last."

The food situation of our Allies is one thousand times more serious than ours, but we should feel that their trouble is ours and make them see that we are truly grateful to them for standing between the American people and the dirty Hun by their most terrible sacrifices.

The American woman feels that this substitute propaganda is getting on her nerves, but was she to help draw a plow in the fields to raise a little more wheat as thousands of French women have; we believe she would have just cause to say she was sacrificing for this war. Our women can do a little to relieve the burdens of the French women by just the simple use of more potatoes.

Potatoes can be used in more ways than any other food product and can be prepared in different ways so that the main portion of the meal can be made of them. We can train ourselves to eat more liberally of them and not impair our health and at the same time repair our pocketbook.

We all know that wheat, rye and meat must be saved for our armies and allies, and that, potatoes which are plentiful, should be saved by using them at this time. Large quantities of potatoes are still in the hands of the farmers and should be used more freely by all.

Use potatoes to save money, to buy for Liberty Bonds, to preserve our families from a fate like the Belgians.

WILLARD C. CRIBBS.
County Agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Klooster and daughter, from Charlevoix, spent Sunday at the Henry Klooster home.

Miss Jennie Essenberg leaves this week for Cutlerville, Michigan, where she has accepted a position in a sanitorium.

The amount subscribed to the Third Liberty Loan by Joe J. Petter family was $500 instead of $300, as given in last week's news.

Messrs. D. E. Clow and M. R. Nelson were in Atwood Monday evening on business pertaining to the Liberty Loan campaign.

Why was it that the First and Second Liberty loan campaigns met with so little response in the rural districts? The answer lies in the amount subscribed in Banks township in the Third Loan. Advertising and personal contact with the people is absolutely necessary to the raising of the money. The next loan will do a great deal better than any of the preceding, as people realize that they can better loan their money than give it in the form of taxes and they are becoming more educated to the method used by the U. S. government to raise money.

It will give you full and lasting service because its service, put to the nation-wide road test of Goodrich Test Car Fleets, has measured up to the Goodrich standard of tires, the Tested of—

GOODRICH TESTED TIRES

There is no risk with the tire that can give the password "TESTED," for no weakness, no structural failing, could hide itself during the month to month, season to season, testing of the Test Car Fleets.

SILVERTOWN CORDS, and BLACK SAFETY TREADS, challenged America's roads, and under light and heavy cars fought sand, gravel, and rock, in rain, mud, snow, and slush, and defeated them. The spiral-wrapped, cable-cord tire body stood staunch against the hammering of mountain trails. The close-clutch, cross-barred, non-skid black safety tread, baffled the teeth of desert and prairie paths.

Forrest Weed Tells of Army Life in France and of His First Bout With French Tobacco

Forrest Weed, son of Mrs. Charles Hull of this city, now "somewhere in France," writes interestingly of his daily life in camp "over there," and of meeting boys from East Jordan, which was quite an event according to his viewpoint. Forrest is a member of Co. C, 107th Engineers, and enlisted at Detroit December 15. He went overseas the latter part of January. His description of France is very interesting, especially that of learning the value of the French coins:

France, March 4, 1918.

"Dear Folks—Well this is a wonderful Sunday morning, bright and clear, and we are planning on going for a little walk after church. It is to be an English speaker, and so we can understand. He seems to be very good, as I heard him once before.

"A great number here can speak German, and so what little I know comes in handy. Of course I have forgotten a good deal.

"I nearly forgot to tell you that I just got out of the hospital after having a slight attack of the mumps. They only bothered me by causing a great swelling of the jaws and I soon got over that and so am not at all sick now, but rather feel like working hard.

"I suppose that your winter is nearly gone, as it has been here for some time.

"Just received the copies of the Courier which you sent and even though rather old they were welcome and gave me more news than I had heard for some time even though we get the New York papers occasionally. They are not like papers from home. Must close and go to church.

Somewhere in France,
March 29, 1918

"Dear Folks—Just a few lines before noon mess, as I have a few minutes before then. I am feeling quite well. Have a little cold, but not a very bad one.

"The spring weather here certainly is great. Of course we have quite a good deal of rain and the days are very warm, but the nights are cold. Was out to the river, near by, yesterday, and enjoyed a nice cold bath, and as a result I have felt fine since. However, running water is very cold yet.

"Am seeing quite a bit of France and it is very interesting to me, mainly because everything is so different from what is found in the States. Of course in some places shell fire has done a lot of damage.

"We are able to get wine over here, but as it is very sour, I don't care about it, and in fact none of the fellows do. You must pardon me, but I began to smoke since my arrival but being unable to procure any American kinds, I tried some French. I can tell you now that I am through with smoking as I was some sick for a time.

"We just had a pay day. After taking out my insurance I had about 151 francs left. A franc is at present value about 17.0 cents, and before the war about 20 cents. We get about 5 francs, 60 or 70 centimes. A centime is worth about one-fifth of a cent, as usually five of them correspond to the value of a copper. These are in two pieces, 5 and 10 centime pieces. They also have the 50 centime bill and one-half franc piece, the latter about the size of our dime. The franc is like our quarter, 2 franc, half dollars, etc. Of course, these are silver pieces, while they have bills in denominations running like this: 1, 5, 10, 20, 50 and 100 franc bills. The latter is the largest I have had, and is worth somewhere near eighteen or nineteen dollars, I believe.

"Wish you would run your letters in a series, so I can tell whether I receive all. This is also good, because it will give me a connected line, so I can arrange them in order.

"Nearly fixed my ankle yesterday, as while out walking, I stepped on a stone which began to roll and consequently received a severe blow on my foot. Am all right however, only a little weak and sore there.

"We are moving around a good deal now, and as a result I see many interesting sights. However, everything is not play and we know what we are here for. Am glad there is so much work as it makes me feel much better after my attack of the mumps.

"In all the cities, or rather villages which we enter, the principal pleasure is a good meal of cheese, fried eggs and French fried potatoes. On Easter we had lots of eggs, potatoes, cocoa, cheese and bread, so you can see we lack nothing to eat.

"Have not as yet seen any of the Charlevoix boys who are over here. Met a couple of fellows from East Jordan the other day, and it certainly seemed good. Heard that Dean Scroogie was on his furlough, and tried to look me up, but as I didn't know his address I could not be on the lookout for him. I wish you would get it and send it to me as it would be great to meet a classmate here. Am sorry I cannot be there for graduation, and to see the play, but I hope to be with you in the fall. Must close now, and go to mess."

Lovingly your son and brother,
FORREST.

GLENN DOLBERG TELLS OF TRIP ACROSS THE OCEAN

Hundreds Of Soldier Boys Were Seasick on Way Over—Complains of "Eats"

Glenn R. Dolberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dolberg of this city, a member of the 6th Cavalry Band, writes and interesting letter of his trip across the ocean, which has been handed to us for publication. Glenn says he was one of the few aboard not seasick on the trip over, and relates other instances, both while on the sea and after landing, that will be enjoyed by Courier readers:

England, March 30, 1918.
